MINUTES,

ETC.

The One Hundred and Twenty-ninth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America met, according to appointment, in the Central Presbyterian Church, Dallas, Texas, at 10.30 A.M., on Thursday, May 17, 1917, and was opened with a sermon by the Moderator, the Rev. John A. Marquis, D.D., LL.D., from Ephesians vi : 13; "Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

The Committee of Arrangements, through its Chairman, Rev. J. Frank Smith, D.D., presented a Report recommending—

1. That when the Assembly take recess this morning it be until 3 P.M.

2. That the rule requiring the Lord's Supper at the session of the Assembly to be celebrated on the evening of the first Thursday, be suspended by this Assembly, and that the Sacrament be administered this morning immediately after the sermon.

On motion duly made the Report was adopted.

The Stated Clerk drew attention to the desirability of changing the Docket so that the constituting of the Assembly by prayer should be the first order for this afternoon's session. The change was approved.

In accordance with the custom of the Assembly and under direction of the Committee of Arrangements, the Assembly proceeded to celebrate the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The Moderator presided; the prayer of consecration was made by the Rev. Dr. J. C. R. Ewing, of India; the Bread was administered by the Rev. Frank P. Gilman, of Hainan, China; the Cup was administered by the Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D., of Montreal, Canada; the prayer of thanksgiving was made by the Rev. John Hood Laughlin, of San Francisco, and the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. W. H.

Roberts, D.D., LL.D. Thirty Ruling Elders served in the distribution of the elements.

The Assembly took recess until 3 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 17, 1917, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met at 3 P.M., and was opened with devotional services conducted by the Moderator.

The Assembly was constituted with prayer.

Upon report of the Permanent Committee on Commissions the following ministers and elders were recognized as duly appointed Commissioners, and their names were entered upon the 20. Rev. A. A. Davis,

21. S. M. Ware, D.D.,
22. F. J. Mundy, D.D.

The Stated Clerk under the Rules appointed two tellers, viz., Rev. George O. Nichols, of the Presbytery of Oklahoma, and Mr. F. K. Ployer, of the Presbytery of Carlisle.

Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., of the Presbytery of New York, was elected Moderator, and the election was made unanimous.

Judge M. B. Templeton, of Dallas, was introduced, and presented a gavel to the Moderator, and through him to the Assembly, and recalled historical associations with the early Presbyterian Church in Texas.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 18, 1917, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises conducted by the Moderator.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners, who were duly enrolled: Minister—C. H. Churchill, Presbytery of Phœnix; Ruling Elders—William H. Markell, of the Presbytery of Portland; F. E. Craig, of Central Washington Presbytery.

The Stated Clerk presented the Docket which was approved. The Blue Book, the Manual of the Assembly, and the Reports of the Boards, were distributed to the Commissioners.

The following resolution was adopted, viz.:

Resolved, That the afternoon session of Tuesday, May 22, from four to five-thirty, be set apart for a conference on the State of the Nation; that the Moderator appoint a Committee, consisting of two ministers and one elder, together with the Moderator and Stated Clerk, to prepare a programme for that afternoon, and to allot to such other hours as the Stated Clerk may designate, the reports of Committees now set down for that afternoon; that all resolutions bearing upon the State of the Nation be referred to this Committee to be reported on at the conference; that the conference for this afternoon on the State of the Nation be held as provided for in the Docket, the arrangements to be in charge of this Committee.

The Moderator appointed Rev. Selden L. Haynes, Chairman, with John F. Carson, D.D., and Mr. D. S. Alexander as the Committee.

The Reports of the Boards and of the Theological Seminaries, were referred to the appropriate Committees.

The Committee of Arrangements made a further Report recommending that the sessions of the Assembly shall be held 9 A.M. to 12.30 P.M., and 3 to 5.30 P.M., and that the last half-hour of the morning session be given to devotional exercises.

On nomination of the Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerks, the following Commissioners were on motion chosen as temporary clerks: Rev. George R. Edmundson, D.D., of the Presbytery of Denver; Rev. Ben-Ezra S. Ely, D.D., of the Presbytery of Kirksville; Rev. W. P. Bone, D.D., of the Presbytery of Nashville, and Mr. Joel A. Gould, of the Presbytery of Seattle.

The Permanent Judicial Commission presented a Report through its Chairman, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Permanent Judicial Commission begs leave to report as follows:

1. That it has organized with a quorum and is ready for the transaction of business.

2. That Nathan P. Bushnell, Esq., one of the members of the Commission, died during the past year. That Harvey M. Voorhees, Esq., was appointed by the Moderator of the General Assembly, then in office, to fill the vacancy. It is recommended that the appointment be confirmed by the Assembly.

3. That Charles D. Merrick, Esq., a member of the Commission, has resigned his membership, and that the Moderator of the General Assembly appointed Paul H. Gaither, Esq., to fill the vacancy. It is recommended that this appointment be confirmed by the Assembly.

4. That the terms of the office of the following members of the Judicial Commission will expire at the close of the meeting of the present Assembly:

John Grant Newman, D. D.; Harry R. Stark, D. D.; Thomas E. D. Bradley, Esq.; Mr. John A. Murray, and the successor of Nathan P. Bushnell, Esq.

5. In addition to the above, there is a vacancy to be filled in the class of 1915–1918 by a Ruling Elder to succeed Charles D. Merrick, Esq., all of which is respectfully submitted.

John Grant Newman, Moderator;
Thomas E. D. Bradley, Clerk.

Telegrams were read from the Northern Baptist Convention and from the General Assemblies of the Church of Scotland, the United Free Church of Scotland and the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. The Moderator and the Stated Clerk were authorized to reply and the messages sent prior to this Assembly were approved. The messages are as follows:

To the Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, Dallas, Texas:

Fraternal and affectionate greetings from the Northern Baptist Convention now meeting in Cleveland to the Presbyterian General Assembly in its annual session. Never greater need for emphasizing the solidarity of the Christian forces of the land. Read Ephesians three, fourteen to nineteen.

CLARENCE A. BARBOUR, President.

Dr. Roberts, General Assembly Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Dallas, Texas:

With firm faith in righteousness of our cause we gratefully hail the entrance of your people into the alliance for justice, freedom and peace.

GEORGE ADAM SMITH,
Moderator United Free Church of Scotland.

GLASGOW, SCOTLAND.

To the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.:

On behalf of the Church of Scotland, which has always been on the side of liberty, I send fraternal greetings and cordial congratulations on entry of America into the war. We rejoice to know that your sons and ours are to fight together in the great cause of the world's freedom and civilization, and that decisive victory for righteousness is now brought nearer. May God hasten the day of the world's release from a cruel tyranny.

JOHN BROWN, Moderator General Assembly.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland:

On behalf of the Presbyterians of the United States, we salute you and thank you for your cordial and fraternal greetings. We are proud of our comradeship with the sons of Scotland in the world-struggle for liberty and righteousness. We join you in prayer for a speedy and victorious conclusion of the war and the destruction of the evil forces that caused it.

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Moderator;
W. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

To the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland:

In behalf of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, we salute the Presbyterians of Ireland. We are proud of our comradeship with the Presbyterian sons of Ireland in the world-struggle for liberty and righteousness. It was from you we learned our love of freedom and our hatred of tyranny. We join you in prayer for a speedy and victorious conclusion of the war and the destruction of the despotic forces that have brought it to pass.

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Moderator;
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

To the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

Have received your cordial greetings from the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. We rejoice that the United States have joined us so whole-heartedly against the ruthless tyranny of might against right.

THOMAS WEST, Moderator Church in Ireland.

The Committee on the Two-hundredth Anniversary of the General Synod, through its Chairman, Rev. Dr. Marquis, reported, and the Report was adopted as follows:

The Committee on the observance of the 200th Anniversary of the General Synod respectfully reports as follows:

This Committee was appointed by the General Assembly, of 1916, see Minutes, pp. 72–74. It is composed of the Moderator, the Stated Clerk and the Permanent Clerk of the Assembly. Correspondence has been had with the several Synods and Presbyteries directly interested in this Anniversary. There were in existence at the time of the first meeting of the Synod, three Presbyteries, viz.: Philadelphia, New Castle and Long Island. During the existence of the General Synod, the other Presbyteries established were Abingdon, Carlisle, Donegal, Dutchess County, East Jersey, Hanover, Lancaster, Lewes, Lexington, New Brunswick, Orange, Philadelphia Second, Redstone, South Carolina, Suffolk and Transylvania. In its closing sessions, the General Synod constituted the Synods of New York and New Jersey, Philadelphia, Virginia and the Carolinas. The Committee is informed that all of these judicatories have arranged for special services in connection with the Anniversary.

The Assembly of 1916 directed this Assembly to commemorate the Anniversary on the evening of Thursday, May 24, 1917. The Committee, however, has to report that it was found best to change the observance to Friday afternoon, May 18, 1917, in order that the public meeting in behalf of Temperance might be held as requested on Thursday evening, May 24, and also because it was of the opinion that the observance might well be a part of the regular proceedings of the Assembly.

In accordance with the resolution of the Assembly of 1916, the programme has been arranged by the Committee and is as follows:

To preside, the Moderator for the Assembly of 1917; the Scripture to be read by the Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., the Stated Clerk of the Synod of Pennsylvania; the address to be delivered by the Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk of the Assembly; the prayer to be offered by the Rev. Harlan G. Mendenhall, D.D., the Moderator of the Synod of New York; after an appropriate hymn, the benediction to be pronounced by the Rev. John F. Patterson, D.D., Stated Clerk of the Synod of New Jersey.

The Committee further recommends that all the Presbyteries and the Synods of the Church be recommended to observe this Anniversary.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Chairman.

On motion, it was ordered that only resolutions contained in the Reports be read, when Reports are presented in printed form.

The Executive Commission, through its Chairman, Rev. John A. Marquis, D.D., reported. The Report was received and was adopted seriatim with the following exception, that Section No. XXI, dealing with the merger of the Board for Freedmen with the Board of Home Missions, was referred to the Standing Committee on Freedmen. It was further ordered that a place be designated on the Docket by the Stated Clerk for the presentation of the interests of the Every-member-plan Committee, being the Presbyterian United Movement. The Report is as follows:

The Executive Commission respectfully submits to the General Assembly its Ninth Annual Report. The subjects are presented in the order indicated below:

I. Powers.
II. Meetings.
III. Members.
IV. General Treasurer.
V. Vacancy and Supply.

XXV. Conference with the Boards.
XXVI. Every-member-plan Committee.

I. Powers.

Chapter XXVI of the Form of Government, entitled, "Of Executive Commissions," was officially declared to be the law of the Church in 1915. This chapter will be found in the Manual of this General Assembly, pp. 34–37. The particular sections to which attention is especially called are Section 1, dealing with the election of members; Section 2, dealing with officers, and Section 3, covering, in general, the business which commissions may transact, and Sections 7 and 8, directly related to the General Assembly. By virtue of this chapter, the General Assembly of 1916 took action which reads:

"The Executive Commission presented the following additional Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

"The Executive Commission respectfully reports, requesting that the General Assembly vote to it the general powers indicated in Chapter XXVI, Section 7, of the Form of Government, and as follows: to correspond with the Executive Commission of Presbytery and Synod; to confer with and advise the permanent benevolent and missionary agencies of the Church; to prepare and submit annually to the General Assembly the budget for such benevolent and missionary agencies; and to consider, between annual meetings of the General Assembly, cases of serious embarrassment or emergency concerning the benevolent and missionary work of the Church, when requested by a Board, and to provide direct methods of relief. Also the power to take steps to coördinate and unify the benevolent and missionary work of the Church, as indicated in Chapter XXVI of the Form of Government, Section 8.

"The Commission further requests the Assembly to authorize it to meet at the annual meetings of the General Assembly." (Minutes, G. A., 1916, p. 207.)

II. Meetings.

The Executive Commission met preceding and during the sessions of the General Assembly at Atlantic City, N. J., May 16, 1916, to May 26, 1916. The first meeting of the Commission with a new chairman and the newly elected members was held at Atlantic City, May 26, 1916. Subsequent meetings were held at Atlantic City, N. J., October 25, 26, 1916, and February 21, 22, 1917. A special meeting was held at New York, N. Y., April 4, 1917, at which a quorum was present. The Commission is in session at Dallas, Tex., and awaits the pleasure of the General Assembly.

In this connection the attention of the Assembly is asked to the provisions of Chapter XXVI, Section 1, Form of Government, which pertain to the membership of the Commission. The number is to be not less than fifteen, and to be divided in each case, as equally as practicable, between ministers and ruling elders. No member, salaried officer or employé of a missionary or benevolent board or organization, under the direction of the judicatory concerned, shall be a member. The term of service shall be three years, and the members shall be divided into three classes, one of which shall be elected annually.

The General Assembly, prior to adoption of the above section of the Form of Government, itself passed a rule with reference to the election of members, providing that "no person who has served a full term of three years on the Executive Commission shall be eligible for reëlection until another full term of three years has intervened." The Commission draws attention to the fact that this latter rule, as to ineligibility to reëlection, does not appear in any form in Chapter XXVI of the Form of Government. It is, therefore, a provision subject to change by the Assembly.

III. Members.

To fill vacancies in the membership of the Executive Commission, caused by the declination to serve of Mr. A. A. Hyde and the resignation of Mr. William U. Follansbee, the Moderator, by virtue of the power given him by the Constitution (see Form of Government, Chapter XXVI, Section 1), appointed as members: Mr. Arthur C. James, of New York, N. Y., and Mr. D. S. Alexander, of Buffalo, N. Y. The Executive Commission places on record its sincere appreciation of the admirable service rendered to the Church at large, through the Commission, by Mr. William U. Follansbee. In particular, as Mr. Follansbee rendered special service as chairman of the Committee on the Standardization of the Financial Statements of the Board, his resignation was accepted with regret. The members of the Executive Commission whose terms expire with this Assembly are the following: Ministers—Maitland Alexander, D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Joseph A. Stevenson, D.D., Santa Ana, Calif.; H. H. McQuilkin, D.D., Orange, N. J.; George V. Massey, Esq., Philadelphia, Pa.; D. S. Alexander, Esq., Buffalo, N. Y. Rev. Dr. J. A. Stevenson was appointed to fill the vacancy in the Commission caused by the death of the Rev. S. J. Niccolls, D.D., in August, 1915. Mr. Alexander was appointed to fill out the remainder of the term of Mr. Follansbee, who resigned, February, 1917.

IV. General Treasurer.

The Executive Commission has had under consideration for three years the subject of a General Treasurer for all the Boards. It has given to the matter careful attention, and has come to the conclusion that in view of all circumstances and conditions it is better to take no action thereupon. The Commission therefore requests that it be discharged from the consideration of the subject.

V. The Committee on Vacancy and Supply.

Report is hereby submitted on the subject of the annual apportionment for the expenses of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply.

The resolution authorizing the Executive Committee to act in this matter reads:

"That the Assembly approves the action of the Executive Commission in the methods which it has followed in endeavoring to secure the expenses of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply, and continues the Executive Commission in its supervision of the matter." (Minutes, G. A., 1916, p. 209.)

A great majority of the Presbyteries are continuing to contribute to the support of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply. Indeed, a larger number have contributed than last year. The number of Presbyteries not contributing is twenty-two.

The financial account for the year shows receipt of $6,992.01. The payments, to March 31, 1917, amount to $6,000. The sum carried over last year as a deficit was $672.49, leaving a balance of $319.52 to the credit of the Committee. This year the expense of the work of this Committee, therefore, will be fully met by the moneys paid in by the Presbyteries. The following Resolutions are recommended for adoption by the General Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly approves the action of the Executive Commission in the methods which it has followed in endeavoring to secure the expenses of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply, and continues the Executive Commission in its supervision of the matter.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly earnestly requests the Presbyteries which have not contributed towards the expenses of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply so to do, thus uniting with the majority of the Presbyteries in a common effort to solve the long-time problem of Vacancy and Supply.

Resolved, 3. That the Mileage Committee be and is hereby directed to add one-half cent per communicant to the apportionments to be voted by this Assembly for the Budget of the Assembly for the year ending March 31, 1918, the same to be for the expenses of the Committee on Vacancy and Supply.

VI. Legal Matters Connected with Reunion.

The Committee on Legal Matters connected with Reunion reported to the Executive Commission at its February meeting in 1917.

The matters in which the Executive Commission has been empowered to act along with the Committee on Legal Matters connected with Reunion are:

1. In determining as to the suits at law which may be instituted in the name of the Church for the protection of the Church's interests.

2. In the employment of counsel and the settlement of the expenses in litigation.

3. In the appointment of Commissions consisting of one or more ministers or lay members of the Church, to institute as well as defend suits connected with the Union of 1906.

The principal matter to report to the Commission at this time, is the engagement of Frank Hagerman, Esq., to represent the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in connection with the appeal made by the Anti-Unionists to the Supreme Court of the United States from the decision of the United States Circuit Court at Kansas City, Mo. Notices of appeal in the case were filed in due time. Mr. Hagerman was consulted with by S. Spencer Chapman, Esq., and the Chairman of the Committee on Legal Matters, the persons authorized by the General Assembly to act in the matter of the appeal, and engaged for the fee of $2,500, and in addition, necessary expenses.

In connection with this employment of counsel, it is proper to state, that the Executive Commission at its meeting in February, 1916, approved a recommendation to the Assembly authorizing the Committee on Legal Affairs connected with the Reunion to employ counsel in the cases which might come on appeal before the United States Supreme Court, at such cost as to Committee might seem proper. (See Minutes, G. A. 1916, p. 226). This recommendation was approved by the General Assembly.

The following recommendations of the Committee on Legal Matters were approved by the Executive Commission:

"Resolved, 1. That the Executive Commission hereby approves of the engagement of Frank Hagerman, Esq., as counsel for the Committee on Legal Matters connected with Reunion in the appeal now before the Supreme Court of the United States.

"Resolved, 2. That the Executive Commission hereby consents to any further action that may be necessary in connection with the Reunion litigation by the Committee on Legal Affairs, and in particular approve of the appointment of Dr. Wm. H. Roberts and S. Spencer Chapman, Esq., as a Committee to retain counsel, and said sub-committee is the exclusive representative in the matter of retaining counsel, all previous authorizations by previous Assemblies for such purposes being hereby revoked."

VII. Training Schools for Christian Workers.

The General Assembly of 1916 referred to the Executive Commission the following Overture:

"Overture No. 28, from Chicago Presbytery, on Training Schools for Lay Workers, asking the Assembly to refer the matter of such schools to its Executive Commission, with instructions that report be made to a subsequent Assembly upon the following and any other particulars which the consideration of the subject may suggest:

"1. What relation such schools should sustain to the Assembly or to any other official body of the Church.

"2. What field they may be expected to occupy, with reference to other educational agencies of the Church.

"3. What steps may properly be taken for their encouragement and development." (Minutes, 1916, p. 59).

The Executive Commission considered the Overture carefully, and submits the following Report:

The Executive Commission finds that there are a considerable number of training schools for Christian workers which prepare men and women for service in the Presbyterian Church. Some of them are interdenominational in character, and under no ecclesiastical jurisdiction, though largely supported by Presbyterians. Others are affiliated with Presbyteries or Synods, while yet others are departments of theological seminaries, and thus in direct relationship with the Assembly. These schools are doing an important work, and are growing in influence and service. The following recommendations are submitted for adoption:

1. It is recommended that these institutions, in order to claim the confidence and support of the Presbyterian Church, be invited to affiliate themselves with Presbyteries or Synods, which shall endorse their policies, aims and methods. The institutions shall be approved by the Church judicatories, subject to review by the Assembly, and the Assembly shall publish a list of training schools for Christian workers which are in accord with the Standards of the Presbyterian Church.

2. It is recommended that the field for such training schools be strictly limited to lay workers, and that Presbyteries be advised to refuse license or ordination to graduates of such schools, except in extraordinary cases, such as our Form of Government recognizes, and that theological seminaries be cautioned against enrolling as regular students, graduates of training schools for Christian workers who have not received adequate academic preparation.

3. It is recommended that the Assembly's General Board of Education coöperate with training schools for Christian workers affiliated with the Presbyterian Church, with a view to their encouragement and development.

VIII. Election of Members of the Boards.

The subject of the limitation upon the eligibility of persons to membership on the Benevolent and Missionary Boards has been submitted to the Executive Commission and carefully considered. The Standing Rule relating to the subject is No. 21 (see Minutes, 1916, pp. 448[36]) and reads: "No person shall serve as a member of a board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said board, or a member of any other benevolent board of the Church, and no more than one Ruling Elder in the same congregation shall serve on a board at the same time. (Adopted, G. A., Mins., 1887, pp. 51 and 108; also 1898, p. 132.) The reason for an alteration of the rule which was presented to the Commission had to do with institutions which may be officially connected with some one of the boards of the Church, such, for instance, as a college or an academy. The Commission is of the opinion that salaried officers or employés of institutions thus officially connected should not be members of a board to which they are related. It is, therefore, recommended that the following words "or of any institution officially connected with said board," be inserted after the words in Rule No. 21, "salaried executive officer or employé of said Board." The rule will then read:

21. No person shall serve as a member of a board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said board or of any institution officially connected with said board, or a member of any other benevolent board of the Church, and no more than one Ruling Elder in the same congregation shall serve on a board at the same time.

IX. Finances of the General Assembly.

The Executive Commission herewith submits the Budget for the expenses of the General Assembly for 1917–1918, as prepared by the Stated Clerk and approved by the Finance Committee of the Commission. Attention is called to the following explanations:

1. The salaries of the Stated Clerk, Permanent Clerk and Assistant Clerk have been fixed by the Assembly.

2. The amount recommended for the Executive Commission covers the expenses of the regular meetings of the Commission, also the expenses of its sub-committees.

3. The mileage expenses of Commissioners for the meeting of the General Assembly of 1917 are estimated at $80,000, but the action of some of the railroad passenger associations, especially the Transcontinental Passenger Association, may increase the traveling expenses to a considerable extent. The estimate submitted for the cost of entertainment, $27,000, is based upon the rate of $3 per day, which is now the allowance to Commissioners of Presbyteries which have paid their apportionments.

4. The Budget provides $3,500 for the expenses of the special committees, which it is believed will be sufficient.

5. The special appropriations approved are the same as those for previous years. The Assembly, having officially entered into coöperative relations with the Churches of the Presbyterian family, both in the United States and throughout the world, and with the Evangelical Churches in the United States, has provided annually its proportionate share of the expenses of the maintenance of the organizations connected with these relations, viz.: the General Council of the World Presbyterian Alliance, the Council of the Reformed Churches in America, and the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

6. The Finance Committee draws attention to the fact that the General Assembly has ruled that the Assembly has "no power to devote the funds collected for the expenses of the Assembly to other purposes." (Minutes, 1891, p. 107.) The Assembly, further, as early as 1806, pledged itself to keep the funds placed in its hands for its expenses entirely separate and distinct. (Minutes, 1806, p. 370.) These rulings have applied all along to the apportionments made by the Assembly for its own expenses, and are applicable to the Budget as now adopted from year to year.

7. The provision for legal expenses, $3,000, covers only the sum due to counsel for fees and expenses of litigation.

8. The Finance Committee has performed its duties as stated in the Financial Plan of the General Assembly, and the accounts have been duly audited and are submitted to the Assembly.

9. The thanks of the Commission are due to Rev. William P. Fulton, D.D., for kindly services rendered to the Finance Committee.

The Budget of the General Assembly for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1918, is as follows:

X. The Committee on Supplies.

The General Assembly of 1913 authorized the appointment of a Committee on Supplies, consisting of three members, one representative from the Executive Commission, one from the Boards and Agencies of the Church, and a business man from the membership of the Church. The Committee was continued by the Assemblies of 1915 and 1916. During the past fiscal year the Committee was composed of Mr. John T. Manson, of the Executive Commission, Mr. Henry F. Scheetz, for the Boards and Agencies, and Mr. Thomas W. Synnott, for the Church at large. The work done by the Committee from year to year has been of decided value. The report for the last fiscal year is as follows:

"Communications with the different Boards of the Church, the office of the Stated Clerk and the Trustees of the General Assembly indicate that the methods suggested by the Committee on Supplies and approved in 1914 are still being continued; that is, competitive bids are secured by the different Agencies from responsible concerns for both printing and supplies, and awards are made at prices that are consistent with the rapid advance in the cost of materials.

"The entire contract for paper for printing the Minutes and the combined Annual Reports of the Boards has been placed by a member of your Committee with the same firm that furnished the material last year. In order to meet the great advance in the price of paper, some of the Boards have decided to reduce the size of their reports from twenty-five (25) to forty (40) per cent."

The Executive Commission recommends that the Committee on Supplies be continued, under the supervision of the Commission, that the report be approved, and that the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the members of the Committee.

XI. Financial Statement of the Boards.

The last General Assembly instructed the Executive Commission as follows:

"That Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., certified public accountants, be employed as consulting auditors to take into consideration the entire subject of accounting, auditing and standardizing of financial statements and to prepare a draft form of report to provide for a record of essential facts regarding the operations of the different boards and agencies, said draft to be submitted to the various boards and agencies and their auditors for criticism and suggestion before its final adoption by the Executive Commission, the expense to be met by the boards." (See Minutes, G. A., 1916, page 216.)

In accordance with the above, members of the Sub-committee of the Executive Commission have held several lengthy personal conferences with Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., with whom a lengthy correspondence has also been conducted.

Extensive correspondence and personal interviews have also been had with the treasurers and other representatives of the several boards and agencies by members of your Sub-committee and also by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co.

A preliminary report was made by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., September 15, 1916 (per copy herewith), and copy of same transmitted to the treasurers of the boards, October 10, 1916. This preliminary report was also submitted to and discussed at the conference of the Executive Commission with the representatives of the boards and agencies at the meeting at Atlantic City, October 26, 1916.

Subsequent lengthy correspondence and personal conferences were had by your Sub-committee with Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co. and representatives of the boards and agencies, with additional personal interviews with the representatives of the boards and agencies by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., following which Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co. have completed their report under date of February 1, 1917, per copy herewith, the salient features of which are:

For the purpose of a condensed combined statement giving a general view of all the boards and agencies, each board and agency should submit a balance sheet showing assets and liabilities as at the close of the fiscal year, and a statement of the income account showing revenues and expenditures for the fiscal year, same to be in accordance with the forms accompanying the Price, Waterhouse & Co. report.

Footnotes on balance sheet showing:

1. Land, buildings, equipment, etc., used for missionary or educational work.

2. Loans, advances and grants to churches, colleges and institutions repayable under certain contingencies.

Provision on statement of revenues and expenditures to show as a result of the year's activities:

1. Gifts, legacies, etc., for endowments and other permanent funds.

2. Receipts on account of loans, advances and grants.

Also on the statement of revenues and expenditures a notation showing the budget of estimated revenues for the current work of the year as allowed by the General Assembly, and the actual revenues secured, thus showing the attainment of or deficit in the budget of each board and agency.

A point to which no reference is made in the Price, Waterhouse & Co. report is that in the case of the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work it appears desirable that this Board should submit two balance sheets, one for the Missionary Department and the other for the Publication Department. The officials of the Board have expressed a preference for a balance sheet for the Publication Department which would show its assets in total without any classification. Neither Price, Waterhouse & Co. nor your Sub-committee can see any reasonable reason for adopting such a course, and a balance sheet should be prepared along the line of the form recommended.

As to this Board's statement of revenues, the situation is a little different. The Publication Department is mainly a business organization and its operations have comparatively little in common with the activities of the other boards. Little can therefore be accomplished by a comparison of the items of revenues and expenditures of the department with those of the other boards, and therefore it would be in order for the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work to report in its revenue statement merely the operation of its Missionary Department, including in one amount one-half of the profit of the business departments which are devoted to missionary purposes.

In the suggestions made in this Report, it is not meant that the boards and agencies in their own annual reports should be limited to these suggested statements. On the contrary, it is desirable that they should amplify them so that the annual reports will contain detailed information as to all essential matters bearing upon the financial condition of the boards and agencies and their physical operation.

The following is recommended:

(a) The adoption of the form of balance sheet and statement of revenues and expenditures recommended by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co.

(b) At the close of each fiscal year, each board and agency shall file with the consulting auditors, Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., New York City, a copy of its balance sheet and statement of revenues and expenditures, same to be combined by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co. so as to show in columnar form the assets and liabilities of each board, with a total for all boards, and a similar statement showing the revenues and expenditures for all the boards and agencies. Said combined statement as prepared by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co. to be delivered to the Stated Clerk and published in the Annual Report of the General Assembly, the expense of preparing the combined report to be met by the boards and agencies.

(c) The Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work shall submit two balance sheets, one for the Missionary Department and one for the Publication Department, both along the lines of the forms recommended, and said Board shall report in its revenue statement merely the operations of its Missionary Department, including in one amount one-half of the profit of the business departments which are devoted to missionary purposes.

Report of Price, Waterhouse & Co.

WILLIAM U. FOLLANSBEE, ESQ.,
Chairman, Sub-committee, Executive Commission.

DEAR SIR:—Since our report to you under date of September 15, 1916, we have had conferences with officials of the several boards and have endeavored to give careful consideration to comments and suggestions received at these conferences as well as to those coming to us through correspondence with yourself and others. All of the officials with whom we have come in contact have manifested a spirit of interest and coöperation and have given us much helpful information as to the activities and methods of their respective organizations.

As a result of these conferences, we are confirmed in our belief that for the immediate future the Executive Commission should ask each board or agency to submit only two statements, a balance sheet as at the close of the fiscal year and a statement of the income account for the fiscal year. By this we do not mean to suggest that the boards in their own annual reports should be limited to these statements; on the contrary, we think it is desirable that they should amplify them so that the annual reports will contain detailed information as to all essential matters bearing upon the financial position of the boards and their fiscal operations.

For the purpose of a condensed statement giving a general view of all of the boards and agencies, these details are, however, unnecessary, and it is our recommendation, therefore, that the records of the Executive Commission should be limited to statements that are clearly essential in every properly organized board or agency.

As a result of the further consideration, to which reference has been made above, while adhering substantially to the form of balance sheet and income account submitted in our report of September 15, 1916, we have made a number of changes which still, we think, bring these statements into close accord with the views expressed by the officials with whom we have conferred and will also provide for certain additional information which, as a result of our conferences, we think should be recorded.

It is perhaps unnecessary to discuss in detail the changes that have been made, as most of them are, we think, sufficiently self-explanatory. We would, however, call attention to some of the more important items, among them being the proposed treatment of the accounts for (1) land, buildings, equipment, etc., used for missionary or educational work, and (2) loans, advances and grants to churches, colleges and institutions repayable under certain contingencies. Reference was made in our report of September 15, 1916, to the first of these items, and while it may be desirable ultimately to show, as an item in the balance sheet, the book value of the property used in mission work, the fact is that this information is not now available in all of the boards. We believe, however, that each board has a record, in more or less detail, of the various pieces of property owned by it, but until further information is secured in some cases and also until a reasonably uniform method of accounting is adopted for this class of property, we think it is preferable to show the book value of mission property as a foot-note to the balance sheet rather than as an integral part of the balance sheet itself.

Somewhat similar considerations lead us to suggest that the loans, advances and grants mentioned under (2) should also be shown as a foot-note. The College Board, for instance, now shows these items as contingent assets in a statement separate from its balance sheet, and inasmuch as they become actual assets only under conditions which in many, if not most, instances are somewhat remote, we think it is wise to show them as a foot-note. In this connection we would point out that current loans to churches, colleges, hospitals or other institutions, which are repayable in due course, should be taken up under the caption provided therefor in the balance sheet.

Another somewhat important change has been made in the statement of revenue and expenditures under which provision has been made for two new items not shown in the form previously submitted,

(1) Gifts, legacies, etc., for endowment and other permanent funds.

(2) Receipts on account of loans, advances and grants.

It seems desirable to show these items, although they are not revenue in the strict sense of the word, and we have therefore in the revenue statement form placed them below and separately from the total of the items of revenue for current work. By the inclusion of these two items it has been found practicable to show the additions to trust and other funds as a result of the year's activities, and we think this additional information fully justifies the introduction of the change which has made it possible.

To afford a comparison between the estimated revenue of the year as set forth in the budgets prepared by the boards and agencies at the beginning of the year and the actual realization of revenues for current work, we have provided a notation at the bottom of the annual revenue and expenditures statement in which will be shown the budget total and immediately below it the actual realized total revenue. Eventually it may and we think it probably will be desirable to carry this comparison into further detail so as to show the estimated and realized revenues for each one of the sources shown in the annual budget. Owing to the shortness of the available time between the closing of the accounts of the boards and the meeting of the General Assembly, it does not seem desirable to recommend at this time a comparison beyond that of the annual totals mentioned above.

Sketches of the forms for the balance sheet and for the statement of revenue and expenditures are attached hereto marked form (A) and form (B), respectively, and we would recommend that these forms be considered by your committee with a view to their adoption as from March 31, 1917.

Yours very truly,

PRICE, WATERHOUSE & Co.

XII. Popular Meetings.

The Assembly of 1916 authorized the consideration by the Executive Commission of the subject of popular meetings, by the adoption of the resolution given below:

"Resolved, That the whole subject of the assignments for Popular Meetings be referred to the Executive Commission, in consultation with the Stated Clerk, report to be made to the next Assembly, and that meantime the appointments for the meetings remain as at present." (See Minutes, 1916, p. 258.)

This Commission also had referred to it, the matter of the dinner for the Permanent Committee on Men's Work, asking that arrangements be made for the function on Monday evening of the Assembly's Sessions. (See Minutes, 1916, p. 120.)

Your Committee recommends as to the first subject for the Assembly of 1918 that the present arrangements for popular meetings be modified by consolidating the popular meetings for the causes of Education and Colleges, and appointing a joint meeting for the evening of the second Thursday. The other popular meetings should, in the judgment of the Commission, remain as they are. Standing Order No. 4 will then read as follows:

4. "The dates assigned to popular meetings are as follows:

"The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

"The evening of Saturday, the third day, to the Permanent Committee on Men's Work.

"The afternoon of the first Sunday, to Home Missions at 3 P.M., to Foreign Missions at 3 P.M., and to the Board of Temperance at 4 P.M.

"The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

"The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

"The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

"The evening of Thursday, the seventh day, to the cause of Education."

XIII. Pre-Assembly Conferences.

The preamble and resolution authorizing the consideration by the Executive Commission of the subject of Pre-Assembly Conferences reads as follows:

There have been held for a number of years Conferences during the two days preceding the opening days of the sessions of the General Assembly, in connection with various important causes. Especially has this been the case with Foreign Missions, Home Missions, and Evangelism. The Executive Commission, in order to harmonize and unify all interests concerned, and after consultation with the Boards and Committees, recommends the adoption by the Assembly of the following resolution:

Resolved, That, in view of the action of recent Assemblies, causing conflict of dates and interests, the Commission recommends that proposals and plans for all pre-Assembly Conferences be submitted hereafter to the Executive Commission for adjustment and settlement.

The Executive Commission of 1916, submits the following Plan for the Pre-Assembly Conference as arranged by it after consultation with the Agencies interested:

First.—The Wednesday before the meeting of the Assembly shall be devoted to Conferences.

Second.—The general topic for the day and to which all the Conferences shall be attuned, shall be Christian Education and the World's Need of Spiritual Leadership.

Third.—The morning of Wednesday shall be set apart for Conferences on the part of individual Boards, the hours being 9.30 to 12.30, each Board to arrange its own Conference as it seems best.

Fourth.—The afternoon, from 2.30 to 5.30, to be a Joint Conference of all the Boards, at which time the following programme shall be carried out, Rev. Dr. William Hiram Foulkes, presiding:

A. Christian Education in the church, Sunday-school and home, opening speaker to be selected by the Sunday-school Board; time, twenty minutes, unless two men choose to divide the first half-hour, the remainder of the hour to be spent in conferences.

B. Christian Education in the college and university, opening speaker to be selected by the Boards of Education and Colleges. If there be one speaker, to occupy twenty minutes; if two, fifteen minutes each; discussion to fill the remainder of the hour.

C. Christian Education, as related to the ministry and missions, opening speaker to be selected by the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions: twenty minutes, if one speaker; fifteen minutes each, if two; the remaining part of the hour to be spent in discussion.

Fifth.—Wednesday evening, Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, presiding, to be devoted to a popular meeting on the general topic of the day, the principal stress to be laid upon the spiritual side of Christian education. There shall be two speakers, one the retiring Moderator, Dr. Marquis, and the other Dr. Mahy, of the Evangelistic Committee.

Your Committee further recommends for future General Assemblies that, morning and afternoon of Wednesday be set apart for special conferences as may be arranged by any of the Boards or the permanent agencies of the Church, but that the evening meeting shall be a union meeting under the direction and leadership of the Evangelistic Committee, and that other inspirational addresses and discussions hitherto given in Pre-Assembly Conferences be included, if possible, in the programme of the Assembly.

XIV. Publicity of Assembly Plans and Proceedings.

On the Publicity of Assembly Plans and Proceedings, the Executive Commission reports that the resolution under which the Executive Commission is authorized to act in this matter is as follows:

"Resolved, That the Executive Commission, in conference with the Stated Clerk and the Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements of the Assembly of 1917, arrange to secure adequate, helpful and official publicity of the Assembly plans and proceedings; to economize the Assembly's time by the elimination of unnecessary platform notices and reports, and to make ample provision for the strong inspirational addresses and educational discussions which constitute such an important part of Assembly meetings."

Three matters are dealt with in the above resolution: (1) Publicity, (2) platform notices and reports, (3) addresses and discussions.

1. Publicity.—It will be noted that the whole subject of Publicity is referred to the Commission in conference with the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, and the Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements of the Assembly of 1917.

It has not been practicable for this Commission to consult as a body with the chairman of the Local Committee of Arrangements, at Dallas, Tex. The Stated Clerk, however, conferred in December, 1916, with the said chairman, the Rev. J. Frank Smith, D.D., at St. Louis, Mo. It is clear that the Commission received power from the General Assembly in this matter, and it therefore took the following action as to publicity arrangements:

Resolved, 1. That a committee consisting of Mr. James B. Wootan, managing editor of Public Service, Chicago, Ill., former editor of the Omaha Bee; Mr. Oliver R. Williamson, editor of the Continent; Rev. Charles Stelzle, D.D., associate secretary of the Federal Council of Churches; Rev. James E.

Clarke, D.D., of the Presbyterian Advance; Rev. F. C. Monfort, D.D., editor of the Herald and Presbyter; Rev. S. C. Craig, of the Presbyterian, and Rev. James H. Snowden, D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa., be appointed to take charge of publicity arrangements at Dallas, Tex.

Resolved, 2. That this committee be authorized, if they deem it expedient, to employ a publicity agent for this purpose, for such time preceding and succeeding the meeting of the Assembly as may be deemed wise.

Resolved, 3. That a sum not to exceed $1,000 be appropriated for this purpose.

Resolved, 4. That we recommend to the Assembly of 1917 that the Executive Commission be authorized to establish, if it be deemed expedient, a permanent bureau of publicity for the Church.

Further, in relation to matters connected with publicity, the following additional resolutions are submitted for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the chairman of the local committee of arrangements at Dallas, Tex., be requested to take up with the local press arrangements for the daily publication in concise form of the proceedings of the Assembly, and that the Stated and Permanent Clerks of the Assembly be authorized to furnish copies of the Assembly documents to the local press at Dallas.

Resolved, 2. That the Docket of the Assembly be published in the Religious Press prior to the meeting of the Assembly.

2. Platform Notices.—With regard to platform notices the following rule is submitted for approval, viz.:

That only notices connected directly with the business of the General Assembly be read from the platform, and that all notices, prior to announcement, shall be submitted either to the Moderator or the Stated Clerk for approval. Telegrams and special letters shall be reported to the Assembly only at times to be designated by the Moderator.

3. Addresses and Discussions.—As to addresses and discussions the following report is made:

The reports of the Boards and Agencies are submitted to the General Assembly in printed form. As a result, it appears unnecessary to repeat the details of these reports in the reports of the several standing committees. In order, therefore, to make ample provision for inspirational addresses and educational discussions, it is recommended that Standing Order No. 12 be changed so as to read:

12. That the Standing Committees on Home and Foreign Missions have each one and a half hours for the consideration of their reports; and those on Education, Publication, Church

Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Colleges, Temperance, Evangelism and Men's Work have each one hour; that one-half of the time in each case shall be given to the Commissioners, no Commissioner being allowed to speak more than five minutes, until all other Commissioners have been heard who desire to speak on the pending question; that the reports of the chairman shall contain only the recommendations to be submitted to the Assembly, all details contained in the printed reports of the Boards and Agencies to be omitted from the reports; that the address on a report shall be delivered by a representative of the Board or Agency reported upon, and that it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to communicate this rule to the chairmen of the standing committees upon their appointment.

XV. Tentative Budget of the Boards, etc., 1917–18.

The Budget of the ten Missionary and Benevolent Boards for 1917–18 was given careful and painstaking attention by the Executive Commission, first through its Committee on Budget, then by Conference with the Boards, and then by action by the Commission. The Budget Committee met twice separately with the representatives of the Boards in New York City, and the Boards submitted to the Committee their detailed estimates of income and expenditures for the fiscal year, 1917–18, so that the work of consideration and decision was greatly helped.

The Budget Committee's experience has emphasized the need for a simplified and uniform method, acceptable to all the Boards and other Agencies, of presenting the figures needed for the Budget. As the Budgets of the several Boards had already been presented when the preparation of a new blank form was authorized by the Commission, the idea could not be carried into effect this year. Mr. Manson, of the committee, has the matter in charge.

In order to represent the full scope of the work of the Boards, as far as it can be represented by its money cost, it was thought advisable by the committee to show, first, the total amounts needed; then the amounts expected from special sources, such as income from invested funds, legacies, individual gifts, etc.; and, lastly, the amounts required from the Church at large.

This change in the method of classification makes the figures for the previous year useless for purposes of comparison. If the present method is continued the comparative column can be restored.

It may be stated, however, that the sums asked from the Church at large are practically the same as last year, or represent only the normal annual increase, due to the growth in membership and in the spirit of giving, in the case of all the Boards and other Agencies, except the Board of Foreign Missions. The increase of $400,000 asked by this Board is the outstanding feature of this year's budget. Of this large sum no less than $250,000 will be required to meet the unprecedented rise in the price of silver in the silver-using countries, and $85,000 for the increased cost of travel, hospital supplies, freight, etc., both due to the war. The balance of $65,000 represents small additions to salaries in one or two missions and small increases for native work.

The Board of Education and the College Board call attention sharply to the danger that the consolidation of these two Boards, still in process, may discourage gifts. The secretary of the former writes: "For the past ten years the agitation for consolidation has interfered with the presentation of the Board's work in such a way as to challenge the generosity of persons of wealth in the Church. Constantly has the answer been made to our appeals, 'Wait until you are consolidated, and then you will have a continuous policy.' The Church needs to be reminded that the saving in administrative expense hoped for as a result of the consolidation, will be trifling in comparison with the amount required for the work, and that any falling off in receipts will result in debt or the crippling of the service or both.

The Board of Education reports that it has been obliged to use in the past two years between $75,000 and $80,000 of unrestricted legacies to meet its current obligations, chiefly on account of the special work in colleges and universities undertaken by direction of the General Assembly, in response to strong appeals. Gifts from individuals received after the above figures were sent in have reduced the amount withdrawn from the permanent funds to between $45,000 and $50,000.

This use of these funds the Board had a perfect legal and moral right to make. It has the sanction of custom followed by other Boards in terms of emergency—when it is, doubtless wise and proper. The Assembly had full knowledge, frankly communicated by the Board, of the state of the Board's finances, when the work mentioned was ordered. The Board is, therefore, not to be blamed. But it is for the Assembly to decide whether it is wise to direct any Board to undertake and to continue year after year, work which makes necessary the use of permanent invested funds, even though no restrictions may have been placed by the donors upon the use of such funds.

Your Commission submits the following recommendations:

First.—That the budget, as given below, be approved.

Second.—That the question of the expediency of directing any Board to undertake or continue extensions of its work, the expense of which cannot be met from current receipts, be and hereby is brought to the attention of the General Assembly.

BUDGET.

* Exclusive of Budget of self-Supporting Synods (Presbyteries of Baltimore and Washington City not reporting), $608,708.50.

† In addition to the above sum, $175,000, the combined Boards of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation ask from the churches, an additional $1,825,000 for the present fiscal year as an addition to the permanent funds.

‡ Exclusive of amounts sent by donors direct to colleges and reported on the Board's forms, which amounted last year to $668,800.

That the Church may actually do during the present fiscal year, 1917–18, what is proposed, the Assembly submits the following suggestions to pastors, officers and churches:

1. Continue to push the Annual Campaign and press the claims of the Every-member Canvass.

2. Augment the "Every-member" method by presenting from the pulpit the growing work and actual needs of the various Boards, in order that those who do not give regularly may be aroused and interested, and that regular givers may be educated and inspired to larger benevolence.

3. That the pastor himself recognize his personal responsibility in assisting in solving this vital problem in the Church, in order that our administrative, executive and missionary representatives, in the office and on the field, may be able to go forward with their work with efficiency and enthusiasm.

XVI. ANNIVERSARY OF REUNION OF 1869.

The General Assembly of 1916 empowered the Executive Commission to prepare to celebrate, in a fitting manner, the Golden Anniversary of the Reunion in 1869 of the New and Old School branches of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. The Commission proposes to the General Assembly that, beginning with June 1, 1917, there shall be, under the direction of the Executive Commission, as recommended by the last Assembly, a denominational programme of uplifting advance to culminate at a celebration to be held at the Assembly of 1920. This programme shall include as features:

1. A large increase of church and Sunday-school membership during years ending March 31, 1918, 1919 and 1920.

2. A decided advance in gifts to missions and benevolences for the same years.

3. Effort in all the congregations for the payment of church debts and also for such improvement in church property and equipment as will promote the advance of moral and spiritual efficiency of the churches in the communities where they are located.

4. The coördination of the work of the Boards and other permanent Agencies, so as to secure the use of their resources for the success of the movement.

5. The Moderator of this Assembly, and the Stated Clerk to be authorized to send out an appeal to the churches to seek to advance, in every way possible, the moral and spiritual interests of the Church.

XVII. Special Self-Denial Fund.

Inasmuch as the report of the Special Self-Denial Fund, collected in 1916, was submitted in partial form to the General Assembly of 1916, it is deemed proper to insert in this report a brief summary of the final report, as submitted to the Executive Commission.

At the conference between the Boards and the Executive Commission, held in New York, N. Y., February 16, 1916, it appeared that unless some determined and concerted effort were made immediately, the total contributions from the sources covered by the work of the Budget Committee of the Executive Commission, namely, church collections, Women's Societies, Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies, would fall very considerably short of the amount required to enable the Boards to meet all their authorized obligations for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1916.

The Executive Commission endorsed fully and completely a proposal to arrange for the observance of the period March 12–19, 1916, for joint prayer and sacrifice by the congregations on behalf of the missionary and benevolent work of the Church, and a joint committee from the Boards and the Commission was appointed to carry out the proposal.

It was requested that all special offerings should be sent to the treasurer of the Executive Commission, and a message was sent out to the churches through the office of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, in printed form, within five days after action taken by the joint committee appointed to supervise the work. That committee was composed of the following persons: Rev. Drs. J. Ross Stevenson, John Timothy Stone, with Mr. James Yereance and Mr. Henry P. Crowell, for the Executive Commission, and Rev. Drs. Stanley White and William Hiram Foulkes, with Mr. H. C. Olin, for the Boards.

The total receipts were $23,555.78, and the payments to the several Boards were as follows:

Home Missions	$6,647 14
Foreign Missions	8,719 15
Education	2,193 25
Publication and Sabbath School Work	1,262 15
Church Erection	1,448 39
Relief and Sustentation	1,582 80
Freedmen	777 65
College	530 59
Temperance	394 66
	$23,555 78

The expense of the conduct of the business of the fund was borne by the Boards proportionately and amounted to $801.83. The Stated Clerk of the Assembly served as treasurer of the fund and without charge for services. The accounts were audited July 1, 1916, by Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer, certified public accountants, of Philadelphia, Pa., and a full report of the fund was printed as a part of the volume of the Reports of the Boards and Permanent Agencies for 1916.

XVIII. Presbytery of Porto Rico.

The Assembly received Overture No. 46, from Porto Rico Presbytery, relating to the dissolution of said Presbytery, "in order that its members may participate in the organization of the Evangelical Church of Porto Rico." The Overture contained full information, in detail, in explanation of the petition made to the Assembly.

The Overture was referred to the Executive Commission with power to act after full conference with the Board of Home Missions and the Woman's Board of Home Missions. (Minutes, 1916, p. 139.)

The Executive Commission reports the following for the information of the General Assembly:

1. That it has had a full conference with the Board of Home Missions and the Woman's Board of Home Missions and finds that they have taken action favoring such a union as this Overture contemplates.

2. That it has also discovered that the Overture as worded does not accurately represent the mind of the Presbytery of Porto Rico, which is not yet prepared for the dissolution suggested, but does desire that the first step should be taken in the direction of this proposed union. It is, therefore, recommended that no action now be taken regarding the dissolution of said Presbytery.

3. That the Presbytery of Porto Rico is hereby encouraged to proceed in negotiations with the other missions which are favorable to this union, and in conjunction with them and in consultation with the two Boards, is directed to work out a plan of union to be presented to the Executive Commission for its approval, and for such further action as may be necessary to put the plan into operation.

XIX. Coördination of Boards and Other Agencies.

This matter came before the Executive Commission by virtue of the following resolution:

Resolved, The Executive Commission shall seek to coördinate the programme and policies of the various Committees and Agencies of the Assembly, so as to offer to each Presbytery and Synod a definite, systematic, comprehensive and practical programme for simultaneous and successful advance in the largest degree. (Minutes, 1916, p. 189.)

The investigations connected with this subject are at once so comprehensive and so detailed as to require on the part of the Executive Commission more time than it has been able to devote during the past Church year. The matter is also vitally related to the general policy to be pursued during the years 1917–18–19–20, with a view to an adequate development of all the resources of the Church so as to celebrate the semi-centennial of the Reunion of 1869, by a decided advance along all lines of Church activity. The Commission, therefore, feels obliged to request that it be continued in the consideration of the subject, to report to the next Assembly.

XX. Woman's Board of Home Missions.

The Executive Commission reports to the General Assembly that at its meeting of October 25, 1916, representatives appeared, asking as to the relationship of the Woman's Board of Home Missions to the Every-member Plan and to the Budget of the other Boards, the Commission adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the status of the Woman's Board of Home Missions in the Every-member Plan Committee is a matter for the consideration of the General Assembly, the Assembly of 1916 having decided that the said Woman's Board was entitled to representation in the Committee. The question of the participation of the Woman's Board of Home Missions in the Budget was referred by the Commission to its Budget Committee, and the Budget provides for an allotment to the said Board.

XXI. Merger of the Board for Freedmen with the Board of Home Missions.

The important matter of the merger of the Board of Missions for Freedmen into the Board of Home Missions was submitted to the General Assembly of 1916 by a resolution found in its Minutes on p. 258, which reads:

"Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., directs its Executive Commission to investigate the advisability of merging the Freedmen's Board into the Board of Home Missions, and thus do away with the term Freedmen, and, if the way be clear, to draft a plan of merger and submit the same to the General Assembly of 1917."

The proposed merger of these two Boards has been before the Church from time to time for several years, and the way has not been clear in the past for the Assembly to take affirmative action thereon. Indeed, the whole matter of the title and policy of the Board of Missions for Freedmen was considered by the Executive Commission in 1914–15, by order of the General Assembly, and an exhaustive Report was submitted on Overtures from Presbyteries asking a change in the name and in the policy of the Board. The Report is printed in full in the Minutes for 1915, pp. 250 to 254, and the resolutions connected therewith decided against a change of name, and further authorized the Board "to engage in evangelistic work in the Northern States among the colored people when requested by the Presbyteries and various Synods, upon such terms as will secure the coöperation of the Presbyteries and Synods in the work of the Board." The Report also recommended the approval of the policy of the Board in providing an "Annual Conference of the workers in the field."

The Executive Commission considered this matter of merger at its sessions, October 24, 1916, and April 4, 1917.

The Commission submits the following chief reasons which make the proposed merger in its judgment inadvisable:

1. The success of the Board, since its establishment in 1865, in the management of the great problems which it has handled in its work, problems having not only religious, but also moral and social features, has enabled it to come to a thorough understanding of all the questions involved in the vital matters of the evangelization and the higher education of the colored people of the United States. This experimental knowledge is of great value.

2. The deep and abiding interest in the work of the Board of the Presbyterian constituency centering in Pittsburgh, Pa., and the continuous liberal support it has had from that strong Presbyterian center and other parts of the Church, are considerations of a weighty character.

3. Were the work for colored people in the whole United States merged into the work for Home Missions and supported by appropriations from the treasury of the Home Mission Board, there would arise questions in administration, such as are not incident to the present plan, so tactfully and equitably supervised and managed by the Freedmen's Board. There is now a singleness of aim and a concentration of effort which arise from a positive unity of management.

4. The annual conference of the workers in the field, held at West Point, Miss., February 9, 1917, among other things, took the following action, viz.:

"Resolved, That this Conference places itself on record as being opposed to the merging of the two Boards specified above, Home Board and Freedmen's Board, and that we respectfully request the General Assembly to take no action which will in any wise interfere with the Freedmen's Board in its independent existence for the work of uplifting the negro race."

The Commission, in view of the considerations above stated, recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:*

Resolved, 1. That, in the judgment of the General Assembly, the way is not clear for the merging of the Freedmen's Board into the Board of Home Missions.

Resolved, 2. That the reasons given to, and approved by the Assembly of 1915, for the retention of the word Freedmen in the name of the Board are still valid.

Resolved, 3. That it is the judgment of the General Assembly that the Board of Missions for Freedmen should be continued to conduct the admirable work which it originated and has supervised through so many years, and that it be encouraged to extend the sphere of its operations, so as to comply with the action of the General Assembly giving it authority to work in all the States and Territories of the United States.

* See Report Standing Committee on Freedmen to which this Report was referred. The Assembly adopted the Report.

XXII. Board of Church Erection.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection of the General Assembly of 1916 recommended to the Assembly, "that the question of the number of members of the Board from any one Synod be referred to the Executive Committee for consideration, and report to the next Assembly." This recommendation the Assembly approved, and the Executive Commission considered the subject through a sub-Committee.

The Executive Commission recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the membership of the Board of the Church Erection Fund be chosen with regard to geographical location, so far as is consistent with efficiency.

XXIII. The El Paso Comity Case.

The General Assembly of 1916 adopted on the recommendation of the Executive Commission certain agreements and regulations as to Comity with the Presbyterian Church in the United States. One of the three special cases under consideration, and affected by the Comity arrangements, is known as the "El Paso case." It is to be borne in mind that this and the other cases considered were passed upon first by a joint Committee representing both this General Assembly and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. The record in the El Paso case reads:

The judgment of the Joint Committee of the two Assemblies in the El Paso case is as follows:

"Recognizing the present location of the Mexican work in El Paso of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. as one of hurtful friction with the Mexican work of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., previously established, and as contrary to the agreement between the two Assemblies touching foreign work in cities having less than 100,000 population, therefore, the Executive Commission of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. directs that the said work of the U. S. A. Church among the Mexicans in El Paso be removed beyond the sphere of friction and hurtful rivalry, its location to be determined by the Joint Committees of the two Synods of Texas."

The Executive Commission in connection with the El Paso case received a letter from the Rev. Dr. B. A. Hodges, of Texas, to the effect that it was not possible to comply with the recommendations of the General Assembly and the Executive Commission as to Comity relations with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. in the matter of the Mexican work at El Paso. The secretary of the Commission was directed to correspond with the proper parties enclosing the acts of the Assembly, and directing that they go forward with their mission work until the meeting of the next Assembly, when further action could be had on the subject.

At its meeting on April 4, on further consideration of the matter, the Commission adopted the following resolution:

Since the joint Committee of the two Synods of Texas have taken no action regarding the location of the work of the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A. in El Paso, as provided by action of the Assembly of 1916, see Minutes, p. 214, and since the work of Mr. Venecia is being so abundantly blessed in the midst of forty thousand and more Mexicans, we recommend that the Home Board be authorized to give Mr. Venecia all necessary support in the prosecution of his work.

The situation is submitted to the Assembly with the request that the matter be referred to the Executive Commission for further consideration and report.

XXIV. General Board of Education.

The report on the charter and other matters connected with this Board is presented in a separate report.

XXV. Conference with the Boards.

This official conference was established by the General Assembly of 1911 (see Minutes, p. 178), and has been directed to meet at least once a year. The General Assembly of 1916 approved the following action as to the conference:

"There shall be an official conference of representatives of the Boards and the Executive Commission, which shall meet at least once a year and at such other times as the Executive Commission may order. Said official conference shall be composed of representatives from each of the Boards to be elected by the respective Boards, who shall constitute one party. The Executive Commission shall select, through its Budget Committee or other Committees, representatives who shall constitute the other party. In deliberation, the voting shall be by the representatives present; but when called for, the Boards shall vote as units and the Commission as a unit, or the Boards and the Commission shall vote and agree or disagree as the two parties."

Two conferences were held during the fiscal year ending March 31, 1916; the first at Atlantic City, October 25, 1916, and the second at the same city on February 21, 1917. Each of the Boards was represented by one or more persons, and the Executive Commission was represented by all of its members present at its meetings.

The matters agreed to at the Conferences and reported to the Executive Commission for approval were as follows:

1. Definition of the Every-member Plan.—A definition of the Every-member Plan was endorsed and referred to the Committee on Christian Life and Work. The definition reads: "The Every-member Plan calls for an offering for both church support and benevolences, secured by subscriptions from the members individually, on a weekly basis, through an annual canvass of the whole congregation." This definition, it is proper to add, has been included by the Committee on Christian Life and Work in Question 46 of the Annual Narrative of Christian Life and Work.

2. Supply Office at Auburn.—Arrangements were approved for the incorporation of the supply office at Auburn, N. Y., and it was ordered that in the charter the powers and jurisdiction of the General Assembly be fully acknowledged.

3. Fiscal Year of the Every-member Plan Committee.—Change of the fiscal year of this Committee from July 1 to April 1 was approved.

4. Expense Budget.—The expense budget of the Every-member Plan Committee was approved for the coming fiscal year in the sum of $19,000, and the Commission directed that the Committee be notified that when feasible adjustments are made by the Committee, that the budget will be found sufficient for the needs of the year.

5. Plan of Advertising for the Boards.—A plan of advertising for the Boards as united was submitted and approved. The details of this plan were left to the Boards and the Every-member Plan Committee.

6. Pre-Assembly Conferences.—This subject was fully considered at the conference with the Boards, and was referred to a committee of three, consisting of two of the Board secretaries and a member of the Commission. The decision reached will be found in the report of the Executive Commission, p. 36.

7. Visitation of the Synods.—The arrangements and rules submitted for the visitation of the Synods by the Every-member Plan Committee were approved.

XXVI. The Every-member-plan Committee (the Presbyterian United Movement).

The Sixth Annual Report of the Assembly's Committee for the Every-member Plan is herewith submitted:

The Presbyterian United Movement was already well under way when the first Board was erected more than one hundred years ago.

The United Movement in Embryo.—"The Board of Missions" which was constituted by the General Assembly, May 7, 1816, was not a Board of Home Missions or of Foreign Missions; it was charged with the one and indivisible mission of the Presbyterian Church, to make the Gospel of Christ known to the whole world, both far and near. Indeed, a little later, that Board was reminded by an Overture of the General Assembly, that it was "to establish missions not only among the destitute of our own country, but also among the heathen in any part of the world."

This first Board was explicitly directed by another action of the General Assembly "to prosecute missions, both domestic and foreign," or, to quote a fine phrase applied to it by yet another action, it was designed "to carry on the missionary business."

Even a century before this Board was organized, and long before the General Assembly itself was established, the General Synod, at its very inception in 1717—now just two centuries ago—established "a fund for pious purposes," by means of which it "aided feeble churches, assisted in building places of worship and relieved the widows of deceased members." Here, then, in embryo, was the Presbyterian United Movement from the very outset, when under difficult conditions the Church was venturing forth on its great task with audacious daring of faith in God. For, besides Home Missions and Foreign Missions, here were Church Erection, Church Extension and Ministerial Relief, all combined.

To-day the Agencies of the General Assembly are all acting as one in the Presbyterian United Movement with the common aim of securing adequate means for their support severally, and promoting such other interests as concern all the Boards.

It is possible now, looking back over a series of years, to note more and more clearly the effect of the fine concert of action which has developed in carrying out the Every-member Plan. For some years before the General Assembly, in 1911, took steps toward securing joint action in raising the Budget for Benevolences, there had been little or no advance in the Board receipts in proportion to the ordinary increase of membership. The weekly per capita contribution for all the Boards, which was .045 in 1890, was .041 in 1895 and .037 in 1900. Between 1900 and 1916 there was an increase of 108 per cent. in contributions, while in the same period the membership increased but 34 per cent.

Progress.—It was in 1913 that the present plan—the Every-member Plan—was first approved by the General Assembly. There are 6,306 of our churches which report a local expenditure of over $300 a year. Reckoning in the percentage only these 6,306 (although possibly some of the churches reported on the Plan may not be of this number), the number of churches reported to have adopted the Every-member Plan was: in 1914, 1,348, or 21 per cent.; in 1915, 3,589, or 56 per cent., and in 1916, 4,900, or 79 per cent.

For the year closing March 31, 1917, no data as to the number of churches reported to have adopted the Every-member Plan is available at the time this Report is prepared.

Team Work.—The work of the Committee has been carried on throughout the past year with the same fine spirit of coöperation on the part of all the Boards and other Agencies of the General Assembly as has characterized the Presbyterian United Movement from the first. Pursuant to the action of the last General Assembly, representatives of the Permanent Committees on Evangelism and on Men's Work have taken their places in this Committee.

Coöperation.—In a number of the Synods effective co-operation has been given, though in some there yet remains much to be desired. In every Synod and Presbytery a Committee is called for which shall actively coöperate in promoting the objects of the Presbyterian United Movement.

Following are brief extracts from the reports made by some of the Committees having charge of the Every-member Plan in several Synods:

Arizona—"In our organized churches among the Indians in the central part of the State, we believe that every church is supporting its interpreter or helper, unless a heathen tribe is closely allied with the work. So far as we know, every member of every church is visited annually by a committee to explain the work and solicit aid in the church's activities."

Colorado—"There are no Presbyterial Committees which work in a unified way with the Synodical Committee. The time is approaching when we must depend less upon the Synods of the East to support our missionary work, for the reason that they have so many vital and pressing needs at their very doors in meeting the incoming millions from abroad and adjusting their work to meet a rapidly changing social order."

Illinois—"Once more we can report a generous response from the churches for the support of the Every-member Movement in our Synod, for which we wish to acknowledge our hearty appreciation. There has been received from 167 churches during the year $871.25 for the promotion of the Every-member Plan within the Synod."

Iowa—"The Presbyterians of Iowa have not yet fully realized the tremendous possibilities and opportunities, the great merit and worth of the Every-member Plan; only 201 of our 411 churches report the Plan in operation. There can be no longer any question as to its efficiency. Good as the Plan is, we have not in the several Presbyteries of the Synod a unified and organized plan of procedure. The several Committees lack the funds to prosecute the work, and so Synod's Committee has recommended: (1) That the churches be urged to adopt the whole plan; (2) That each Presbytery be urged to adopt an intensive Campaign; (3) That each Presbytery hold an Every-member-canvass Conference at its regular spring meeting. The Executive Commission of the Synod is requested to devise a practical plan of procedure for the several Presbyteries, and suggest a plan to finance the campaign."

Kansas—"We have no means of knowing exactly how many of our churches made the Every-member Canvass for their local and benevolent Budgets, but a large proportion fully or partially worked the plan and with quite satisfactory results. The Board of Home Missions is requiring each aid-receiving church to make the annual canvass. The Presbyteries took a new interest in this matter at their fall meetings and appointed special committees for the Every-member Plan."

Michigan—"A number of churches throughout the Synod report splendid results."

Minnesota—"In general, the report of this Synod is not encouraging. In church contributions to the Boards all the Presbyteries show a decrease over last year, aggregating over $12,000.

In the Presbytery of Duluth the Every-member Plan has been pushed with great vigor. The men of the churches are becoming educated to the Plan and are becoming less suspicious of it.

The Presbytery of Minneapolis has been the banner Presbytery for three years, in that all the churches have adopted the Plan.

In the Presbytery of Winona all the churches with settled pastors and stated supplies have done the same."

Missouri—"In Kansas City Presbytery almost every church is on the Plan.

At fall meeting of Carthage Presbytery, 27 churches planned to make a thorough Canvass.

Seven churches of Kirksville Presbytery adopted the Plan with good results.

In Sedalia Presbytery it has come to stay; the laymen would keep it in operation, even did the ministers show no interest in it. Not a church in this Presbytery (save Gladstone, a mission station) is now receiving aid from the Home Missions Board."

New Jersey—"Out of 361 churches in the entire Synod, 201 have adopted the Plan, leaving 160 yet to be brought into line. The Committee feels certain that in a comparatively short time every church in this Synod will have adopted the Plan."

New York—Presbytery of Champlain—"The churches which have followed the Plan are for the most part making the Canvass again this year. It is hard, however, to stir the delinquent."

Presbytery of Geneva—"Last year we reported that all the churches except two had the Every-member Plan, and that one of those churches was planning to adopt it. That church did adopt it; so now all but one of our churches have it."

Presbytery of Steuben—"Most of our congregations have adopted the Every-member Plan in some form."

Presbytery of Westchester—"Our United Movement Campaign was a success. It has set many of the churches thinking."

North Dakota—"57 of the churches are reported as having adopted the Plan. So far as we have been able to learn, within the Synod the tendency is toward the adoption of the Plan."

Ohio—Presbytery of Cleveland—"With two or three exceptions all of our churches make the Every-member Canvass. Calvary adopted it last year and raised more than ever before, notwithstanding the loss of one of its heaviest givers."

Presbytery of Lima—"The Every-member matter has been left in charge of the Executive Commission of which the Moderator of the Presbytery is Chairman. Some boosting of the Every-member Plan has been done in the Presbytery at the request of Synod's Committee."

Presbytery of Marion—"Moses Breeze has been holding conferences in different districts of this Presbytery and is booming the Every-member Plan and Forward Movement all along the line."

Pennsylvania—"Two years ago there were probably less than 100 churches in this Synod which had used the Every-member Plan in a thoroughgoing way. Now over 500 of our 1,172 churches have put on the new system in an honest and business-like way. The Committee's Presbyterial Representatives met with Synod's Chairman in conferences in Pittsburgh, Williamsport, Harrisburg and Philadelphia; 2,500 pieces of literature were sent out to over 900 pastors and officers. The budget authorized for our Committee's work at the Synod, last year was $500."

South Dakota—"The number of churches of the Synod making the Every-member Canvass, while including all that receive aid from the Board of Home Missions as required by that Board, includes also the stronger churches of the Synod and others. The total number is slowly increasing."

Tennessee—Presbytery of Union—"The Presbytery is working hard through the Presbyterial Superintendent and the pastors to introduce the Every-member Plan in all our churches. This is difficult, owing to the fact that most of them are missionary organizations. We make an advance this year in at least three churches, with satisfactory results."

Washington—"It seems very evident that the Plan has come to stay. The difficulties are the same as those that stand in the way of all progress. Some of our churches are slow to move out of the old ruts and methods. In certain Presbyteries there has been lack of leadership in the churches."

West Virginia—"Most of the churches of this Synod, especially the larger ones, have adopted the Every-member Plan."

A few notable instances are here given of the experience of churches which have adopted the Plan recently:

Haddonfield, N. J. (506 members)—"The results of our Canvass were astounding to us all.

		Local Support.		Benevolences.
	Sets of Envelopes.	Contributors.	Amount.	Contributors.	Amount.
1916	317	360	$4,913 00	76	$3,369 00
1917	435	441	8,699 60	316	5,997 78
% increase,	37%	22%	77%	316%	79%

The reports on the Canvassers' cards revealed 59 persons not members of any church who ought to be secured by our church. Five others indicated a desire to join. 87 persons desire to join the Sunday-school in some department and a goodly number of new members were secured for the other societies and organizations of the church."

Elizabeth, N. J., Greystone (611 members)—"Of our 611 members only 75 are not contributing. For two years past we have made the Every-member Canvass and have put into operation all of the suggestions of the Movement. To this modern system the revitalizing of our church finance is due."

Chestnut Level, Pa. (502 members)—"Our church has been operating many features of the Canvass for years, but we have not had a canvass every year during that time. On the canvass this last year we increased in current expenses, too, so that the pastor's salary was increased 25 per cent."

Amsterdam, N. Y., Emmanuel (273 members)—"For three years the Every-member Plan has been in operation. The session would not think of changing to any other method. We have special offerings for things we cannot anticipate in the Budget, such as Armenian Relief, Belgium Relief, and the Salvation Army. This does not cripple our regular work."

Broomall, Pa., Marple (250 members)—"We made our first Every-member Canvass last year and were much pleased with the results. We secured enough pledges for church support to relieve us of all anxiety concerning it, and it has increased the church's gifts to benevolent causes about three times."

Afton, N. Y. (103 members)—"We have followed the Every-member Plan in full for nearly two years. As a result of the first Canvass the number of subscribers increased from 35 to 115. The amount of the subscriptions was more than doubled. The contributions to Benevolences were, also, more than doubled. In the second canvass (notwithstanding severe losses by removals, amounting to nearly $100) the church held its own for Church Support, and largely increased its contributions to the Boards. The Plan has proved a great success."

New York, N. Y., West End (2,026 members)—"Last year the number of contributors for Church Support was 700, and Benevolences 400. This year, the number of contributors is 1,000, practically all of whom give to both causes. The amount for Church Support increased from $4,016 to $8,890—more than doubled. The amount for Benevolences increased from $2,500 to $6,800—more than trebled. The Canvass was made by 150 men, in the face of a blizzard on a Sunday afternoon. The Every-member Plan is a fine thing."

Emasculating the Plan.—While the number of churches reported to have adopted the Plan has increased rapidly during the past few years, there is reason to fear that not a few of those thus reported have, in fact, adopted the Plan but partially and are so modifying its essential features as to realize its advantages but imperfectly. This Committee has no disposition to lay down hard-and-fast lines; it has, on the contrary, always endeavored to secure the greatest possible flexibility in applying the methods recommended. But in view of a vast volume of experience now in the Committee's possession, gathered from churches of every kind and size and condition in every part of the country, it has become unmistakably evident that there are a few fundamentals—an irreducible minimum of elements—in this Plan, of which none can be omitted without serious loss; these are:

(1) The individual subscription for both Benevolences and Local Church Support.

(2) The weekly offering in worship for both purposes.

(3) The annual personal canvass after thorough preparation.

The tendency to substitute a letter or printed circular for the personal visitation; to visit only a part of the congregation, instead of calling on all without discrimination; to fail to make thorough preparation before entering upon the annual canvass; to depend upon the momentum of a canvass, once made, to serve the purpose for more than one year; to have the subscription made for Local Church Support only, leaving the support of Benevolences to be made "voluntarily"; to have a monthly envelope for Benevolences, while the local support is provided for weekly—these and other abuses of the Plan recommended by the General Assembly have served to show the need of an official definition such as is embodied in the recommendation herewith submitted.

Distribution of Board Literature.—The demand for the literature of the Boards has steadily increased since this Committee was made the clearing-house for orders passing between the churches and the Boards. During the past year there has been a gain of 19 per cent. in the number of such orders. There are many churches, however, which still fail to avail themselves of the fine literature furnished free by the Boards. With a view to improving this service yet more, it is arranged that the Boards will issue a combined illustrated booklet, to be ready by September 1 each year, while each Board severally will furnish without charge one pamphlet annually, more attractive than is possible for the ordinary small pamphlet.

Under the arrangement by which each Board is to confine its distribution of free literature to the month immediately preceding the period appointed by the General Assembly for the special presentation of its cause, overlapping is happily avoided.

Unified Board Exhibit.—For the purpose of setting forth the work of the Boards in its essential unity, there have been prepared, on "Photo-color Rolls," two illuminated panels of each Board. These panels, three by five feet in size, are shown for the first time in the Committee's exhibit at the General Assembly. Put up in shape to be sent by parcels post and accompanied by a concise printed description, they will be available either from New York or Chicago for use in the churches at a nominal charge.

Unified Presentation at Synods.—The plan followed for several years past to present the whole task of the Church through her various agencies unitedly in the Synod meetings will be repeated this year. The topics chosen for this year are as follows:

I. For the Platform addresses:

(1) By a Board Representative: "Our Presbyterian Responsibility."

(2) By Synod's Representative: "The Resources of our Churches for meeting our Responsibility."

II. For the Open Conference: "The Presbyterian United Movement Programme for 1917–18."

The Committee's expenses have been kept well within its Budget, although in so doing the field work has been restricted more than is for the best interest of the movement.

The Committee's Representatives.—The Eastern District representative, David McConaughy, has filled the office of secretary of the Committee and has divided his time between the executive work of the headquarters in New York, the supervision of the Supply Office and the Eastern field work. For a few months—September to November, 1916—he had the assistance of Edson Stanley Sloat, an Elder of the Presbytery of Westchester, whose business has admitted of his rendering such service during a limited period each year for several years past.

The Western representative, Wm. S. Marquis, D.D., with headquarters in Chicago, has covered the wide territory extending from the Mississippi River to the Pacific coast. He has acted also as clerk and treasurer of the Presbyterian Transportation Bureau since its organization in December last.

During the greater part of the year, he has had the services of an assistant, Mr. H. M. Rossiter, an Elder of the Fourth Church of Chicago, who brings to this work an extended business experience.

The year has been marked by growing interest, revealed in various ways:

In the increasing number of calls for assistance in organizing the Every-member Canvass in churches which have not before used it.

In the number of Every-member churches which have set themselves energetically to perfect the canvass in organization, completeness and educational preparation.

In the enlistment of more small rural churches and more large city churches—the two classes which have been most difficult to reach.

In the growing number of churches which have adopted the Every-member Social Visitation and their hearty testimonials as to its great value.

In the enlarged demand for the literature of the United Movement.

In the positive interest which has been shown in the subject of proportionate giving and stewardship.

In the larger appreciation on the part of pastors and church officers of the spiritual value of the Every-member Plan.

In the increasing coöperation of field men and representatives of all our agencies, showing that they realize that the Every-member Canvass promotes the interests of all causes.

In the steady flow of testimonials from the churches which have made the canvass successfully; wherever it has fallen down, there is nearly always a confession that it was due to a lack of thorough organization and education.

We find that the things that hinder a successful Every-member Canvass are:

Pastors who are "too holy" or too lazy to have anything to do with the finances.

Trustees who are too worldly or too opinionated to have anything to do with missions and benevolences.

Presbyterial and Synodical Committees who do nothing—
Because they have been charged with so many other things to do;
Because they have no funds with which to work;
Because they do not take the responsibility seriously.
Church members who will not adopt the weekly offering plan because it involves some trouble, or because they know it will lead them into giving more than they have been giving.
The spirit of procrastination which postpones preparation and education until it is too late to make it thorough.

As, however, the Every-member Plan is becoming better known, organized and appreciated, these obstacles are being removed.

Points of Emphasis.—Special emphasis has been laid upon the systematic presentation of the work of the Boards. Principles and practice of proportionate giving have likewise been stressed. While it was no doubt desirable in the earlier stage of this movement to concentrate mainly upon the establishing of system, now that so many of the churches have systematized their offerings and the movement has gained such momentum as in time to carry the more backward churches up to the standard suggested, the time is now ripe to press on to the next degree: to our systematic giving we must now add proportionate giving. Only a small beginning has as yet been made in this direction, which opens an almost limitless field before the United Movement.

A notable conference of leaders in the Eastern District was held last September in Princeton, N. J., when attention was focused upon proportionate giving. Out of that day's proceedings, presided over by the Moderator of the General Assembly, developed the principal publications of the movement for the year: "Property," by John A. Marquis, D.D., LL.D.; "Proportionate Giving," by Robert E. Speer, D.D.; "The Benevolence Budget of the Presbyterian Church in Terms of Life," by J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., and "Perpetual Motion in Giving," by Stanley White, D.D.

The Social Visitation, recommended a year ago, has already become a permanent feature in the programme of many of our churches. The chairman of the United Movement Committee in one Presbytery—Wheeling—reports: "In our Presbytery all the churches except one are having the Social Visitation."

Missionary and Benevolent Education.—The need is felt more and more of coöperation on the part of the Assembly's Agencies in educating the young people in regard to the whole work and the principles underlying its support. A great stride has been taken toward this result in the formation of a Conference of Missionary and Benevolent Education, consisting of a representative of each missionary and Benevolent Agency of the General Assembly, including the Central Committee of the Women's Boards of Foreign Missions and one from each Educational Department of the Boards having such departments to formulate a graded curriculum of missionary and benevolent education.

"Everyone."—The Committee's quarterly bulletin, Everyone, continues to be received with favor and is serving a useful purpose in keeping the churches, through the pastors, in touch with the progress of the United Movement.

The Presbyterian Calendar was issued for 1917 on the same lines as the year before. It was not possible to fill the orders which were received after November, the edition printed being limited to 10,000. For 1918, it is proposed to considerably enlarge the Calendar, announcement of which will be issued during the summer.

"The Assembly Herald."—In line with the practice followed for several years past, the January issue of the Assembly Herald was given a distinctive character, setting forth the essential oneness of the work of the Church. This number has come to be counted upon by many churches as one of the most effective pieces of literature that can be used to prepare for the annual Every-member Canvass.

Advertising in Presbyterian Papers.—Arrangements have been made with the Presbyterian papers for the Boards to combine in future in advertising their work and needs twice in the course of each year.

The Supply Office.—One index of the extension of the Every-member Plan is afforded by the output of the Committee's Supply Office, at Auburn, N. Y., which continues to keep green the memory of Dr. Wm. H. Hubbard, as his generosity still blesses the churches. In June last the new manager, Mr. William Clubb, for years an Elder in Montclair, N. J., brought his ripe experience as a printer and sound judgment to bear upon this business of the committee. The result has been most satisfactory in every way.

The output for the past year has far exceeded that of any previous year. The number of sets of envelopes issued has been 319,510, as compared with 234,528 the year preceding, making an increase of 84,982 sets. There were, also, printed 1,292,000 copies of the publications and other supplies of the United Movement.

Arrangements have been completed for incorporating the Supply Office under the laws of the State of New York.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The Committee makes the following recommendations:

I. That, having regard to the urgent need of largely increasing the Church's revenues, in order—

(1) That the salaries of pastors may be made more adequate to present-day needs;

(2) That our churches and our Boards may be more efficiently equipped and operated, so as to meet the growing demands made upon them and the enhanced cost, officers of churches—elders, trustees and deacons—be called into conferences, as may be found most feasible, whether locally or in Presbyteries, to face this imperative claim and devise ways and means of providing for the increase required.

II. That the following be and hereby is authorized as the official definition of the Every-member Plan, namely:

"The Every-member Plan involves an offering for benevolences as well as for local church support, secured by individual subscription on a weekly basis, through an annual personal canvass of the whole congregation."

The churches are urged to carry out the plan fully, omitting none of the features here embodied, seeing that not only is income thus increased, but the entire life of the church is, likewise, quickened.

III. That pastors and church officers be called upon to recognize the necessity for spiritual motive power behind the Every-member methods, through—

Waiting together in prayer for the quickening of the Holy Spirit;

Instructing the people in the principles of Christian stewardship;

Presenting the facts relative to the work and needs of the Boards of the Church.

We therefore commend anew:

The establishing of the Church United or Missionary Committee in every Church;

The use of the literature of the Boards and the Supply Office and the Assembly Herald;

The regular presentation of the work of the Boards and agencies of the Church according to the schedule adopted by the General Assembly of 1916;

The Every-member Social Visitation, and

A course of sermons on Christian Stewardship in every pulpit.

IV. Seeing that the Church will not rise to her full power for achieving her task until her conception of wealth becomes more truly Christian, and seeing that pastors cannot teach and lead the people until they themselves are alive to and practice the Scriptural principles of giving, the Assembly's Committee for the Every-member Plan be authorized to arrange for a series of stewardship conferences such as that held at Princeton, N. J., in October, 1916, these conferences to be planned in such numbers and held at such places as will most effectively reach the whole Church, including the centers where are our theological seminaries.

V. That steps be taken to cultivate systematic and proportionate giving in our Sunday-schools and meetings of Young People, coupled with systematized instruction as to the work of the Assembly's agencies and the Scriptural principles of giving.

VI. That, remembering how our Lord lifted the old Commandment, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself," to a yet higher level, the Assembly urges the churches not to stop short of the standard already adopted, namely:

"To have every member give not less for the missionary and benevolent work of the Church at large than for local church support."

The entire Report is respectfully submitted in behalf of the Executive Commission, with the understanding that other matters are to be reported upon during the sessions of the General Assembly.

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Chairman.

The Moderator announced the persons to conduct the devotional exercises as follows: Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., for to-day at 12 o'clock, Rev. George W. Arms, Jr., for the same hour Saturday, and Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., for next Monday.

The Committee of Arrangements made a further Report announcing a reception to the Commissioners to be given at 8 o'clock this evening, and that the wives of the Commissioners with the ladies of the Woman's Home and Foreign Boards be invited to attend.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were authorized to send a message of greeting to the United Brethren Church, now holding its quadrennial session in Wichita, Kansas.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to print the Standing Committees.

It was reported by the Stated Clerk that the Governor of New York had signed the charter of the new General Board of Education, and an order of the day for 5 o'clock P.M. Monday was fixed for the Report of the Executive Commission on the General Board of Education.

Two resolutions touching the State of the Country were referred to the Committee appointed by the Moderator on the State of the Nation.

The Permanent Committee on Evangelism presented its Report, which was received, and pending its adoption addresses were made by George G. Mahy, D.D., Paul M. Strayer, D.D., J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., Mr. S. S. Marvin and others, and the resolutions of the Report were adopted. The Report was ordered printed in the Appendix to the Minutes. The resolutions are as follows:

Resolved, 1. That as the term of office of the following members of the Committee expires with this Assembly, i.e., Rev. Eben B. Cobb, D.D., Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., Rev. Stephen S. Estey, D.D., Mr. E. H. Smith, Mr. J. H.

Jefferis, and Mr. Ralph W. Harbison, the Moderator be authorized to appoint six members, three ministers and three elders, for the ensuing term of three years.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly instructs the Permanent Committee on Evangelism:

(1) To coöperate, as far as practicable, with all the agencies of the Church in a common effort to permeate the whole life and work of the Church with true evangelistic spirit.

(2) To maintain the Committee's policy, approved by former Assemblies, of coöperation with Presbyteries and Synods in building up and strengthening the organization and work of their Committees on Evangelism.

(3) Through these responsible committees of the courts of the Church, and by direct appeal to the churches, to present the emphatic summons of this Assembly to a deeper consecration and a more persistent effort to bring the unsaved to Christ.

(4) To provide, during the year, for a series of evangelistic institutes in important sections of the Church, for the inspiration and instruction of Presbyterial, Synodical, and local evangelistic leaders.

(5) To furnish, through the office of the Committee, assistance to pastors and churches in their evangelistic work, by securing and disseminating trustworthy information concerning approved evangelistic methods and effective evangelistic leaders.

(6) To continue the direction of evangelistic work in Presbyterian colleges, and to share in the expense of this work, as heretofore, in coöperation with the Board of Education, through the joint Committee on College Visitation.

(7) To coöperate with the Evangelistic Commission of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and to call upon Presbyterial evangelistic committees to seek federation with evangelistic committees of other ecclesiastical bodies in their territory, to the end that the Churches may develop a more thorough and systematic direction and control of evangelistic work.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly rejoices in the fact that so large a proportion of our churches have supplemented their stated work and worship with special evangelistic services in the course of the year, and in view of the fact that such services have been generally followed by large increases in membership, the Assembly recommends that all the churches shall set apart certain seasons for such work.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly urges Presbyteries and Synods to establish and strengthen the committees appointed to supervise their work of evangelism, and to make an appropriation for the necessary expenses of these committees, in order that they may be able effectively to assist all the pastors and churches in their fields.

Resolved, 5. (a) That the Assembly notes with satisfaction the increasing measure of financial support given by the churches to the Permanent Committee on Evangelism, as indicated by the report of its treasurer, and, in view of the demands which will be made upon the Committee during the coming year, recommends that the churches generally place the Committee on their benevolent lists, in accordance with the recommendations of the Executive Commission. (b) That the Trustees of the General Assembly be and hereby are authorized to receive and hold for the Permanent Committee on Evangelism such sums as may be given or bequeathed to it for the purposes of the Committee, and to pay the income therefrom to the Permanent Committee on Evangelism from year to year.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly recognizes the fact that during the past year God has placed the seal of approval on the work of many faithful evangelists, and hereby expresses its gratitude for the effective service which they have rendered to so many of our churches.

Resolved, 7. That the Committee be authorized to appoint a Sub-committee on Coöperation with other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, and that the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., for so many years the Committee's honored secretary, be appointed representative-at-large for the Committee.

Resolved, 8. That the Moderator and the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be ex-officio members of the Committee, and that the Committee be authorized to appoint special representatives to coöperate with it in its work throughout the Church.

Resolved, 9. That the Committee recognizes the special responsibility for aggressive evangelism now resting upon our churches because of the war situation. Various suggestions regarding work in the concentration camps have been brought to its attention. Consideration of the different lines of activity proposed has convinced the Committee that it can best promote religious work among soldiers and sailors through coöperation with the regularly appointed chaplains, and with the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association whose work at the front, both at home and abroad, has been so signally blest. We therefore recommend that our churches in this time of exceptional opportunity be urged to enlarge their contributions to the Assembly's Committee in order that it may more effectively coöperate in the work for our soldiers and sailors.

A paper presented by Mr. S. S. Marvin was approved in substance, and was referred to the Committee on Evangelism with power to act.

The Moderator appointed the following persons as the members of the Committee on Evangelism for the Class of 1917–1920: Ministers—E. B. Cobb, D.D., John R. Davies, D.D., Stephen S. Estey, D.D.; Ruling Elders—E. H. Smith, J. H. Jefferis and Ralph W. Harbison.

The Moderator was authorized to send greetings to Mr. Charles L. Huston, Chairman, absent on account of illness.

The devotional services were held as appointed under the leadership of John R. Davies, D.D.

The Assembly took recess until 3 o'clock P.M.

FRIDAY, May 18, 1917, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Moderator announced the Chairmen of the Standing Committees, and the Committees with their Chairmen are as follows:

1. Bills and Overtures:
   Ministers—John A. Marquis, D.D., Chairman; A. McDonald Paterson, George S. Webster, D.D., John W. Francis, Thomas G. Baxter, Robert F. Smith, J. Frederick Fitschen, Augustus H. Carver, D.D., Wildman Murphy, Claude E. Alexander, D.D., Marvin L. Gillespie, D.D., Robert J. Hunter, D.D.

The Special Committee on Christian Life and Work reported, through its Chairman, John A. Marquis, D.D. The Report was received and referred to the Standing Committee on Christian Life and Work, with the exception of the paragraph on Marriage and Divorce, from the consideration of which subject the Committee at its own request was discharged.

In accordance with the order of the Assembly, an address was delivered on the two-hundredth anniversary of the organization of the General Synod by William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

By a rising vote it was unanimously, Resolved, That the hearty thanks of the General Assembly are hereby voted to the Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts, and that his address be printed, a copy to be sent to each Commissioner.

The Conference appointed on the State of the Nation was held, and the following message was directed to be sent to the President of the United States signed by the Moderator and Stated Clerk:

Dallas, Texas, May 19, 1917.

To Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, Washington, D. C.:

The One Hundred and Twenty-ninth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in session at Dallas, Texas, hereby sends Christian greetings to our great President, Woodrow Wilson. In this hour of the nation's trial, we assure him of our sympathy and prayers, and also express to him our confidence in him, and our gratitude to God that in this solemn time we have a President whose confidence is in God. At the beginning of our Assembly we send this message which we know has back of it the earnest prayers of the entire Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. A fuller message will be sent later.

J. Wilbur Chapman, Moderator.
W. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

The consideration of the subject of the State of the Nation was carried over to Tuesday afternoon, May 22. All resolutions submitted or to be submitted on the subject were referred to the Special Committee already appointed. Drs. H. C. Mendenhall and P. M. Strayer were added to the Committee.

The Assembly then adjourned until Saturday, May 19, at 9 o'clock A.M., and was led in prayer by Charles F. Wishart, D.D.

A Popular Meeting was held at 8 P.M. in the interest of Sabbath-school Missions, the President of the Board presiding and addresses being delivered according to the programme duly prepared.

SATURDAY, May 19, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The Minutes of yesterday's session were read, and on motion were approved.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported, and the following additional Commissioners were duly enrolled: Ruling Elders—J. J. Durham, of Lincoln Presbytery; E. A. Skiles, Dallas Presbytery, and Raymond S. Husted, of the Presbytery of Denver.

Salutations to other Presbyterian bodies in session were authorized to be sent by the Moderator and Stated Clerk.

It was ordered by the Assembly that the seating of members by electing Sections for the present be continued.

Mr. James Suydam, of the Presbytery of St. Paul, addressed the Assembly with reference to the presentation of a pole and flag to the City Temple and the city of Dallas. The proposal was approved, and arrangements for the raising thereof were on motion referred to Mr. Suydam and Rev. J. Frank Smith, D.D.

The Bills and Overtures Committee was given permission to retire from the Assembly for the transaction of business.

The Permanent Judicial Commission made a Report to the General Assembly, which was approved and is as follows:

The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly hereby certifies that it has duly examined all the papers, documents and records filed with it by the Stated Clerk in the following cases:

1. The Presbytery of Des Moines vs. the Synod of Iowa.
2. W. E. Giltner vs. the Synod of Iowa.

Upon such examination the Commission finds that all steps have been taken which are required by the laws of the Church in order to enable the Commission to proceed with the hearing in these cases.

This report is made in accordance with the resolution adopted by the General Assembly of 1915. (Minutes of G. A., 1915, p. 287. See also Manual for the G. A., p. 134, Item No. 20.)

JOHN GRANT NEWMAN, Moderator;
THOMAS E. D. BRADLEY, Clerk.

The Committee of Arrangements presented a Report of the Pulpit Supply Committee, which was duly approved.

The Judicial Committee was given permission to withdraw from the Assembly for the transaction of business.

The Rev. J. J. Morgan, agent of the American Bible Society in its Southwestern Agency, with headquarters at Dallas, Texas, was introduced, and addressed the Assembly in the interests of the American Bible Society. The following paper was presented and on motion adopted:

The General Assembly renews the deliverances of previous Assemblies recommending to all its inferior judicatories and especially to the Sessions, the adequate support of the American Bible Society, the recognized Agent of the Churches in securing the translations, publication and circulation of the Scriptures throughout the world.

The society's ordinary work is inadequately financed, and now that it has the extraordinary war burden of providing Scriptures for the Army and Navy, it asks $150,000 for this patriotic service.

The Assembly strongly commends the society to the prayers and gifts of all its churches that every soldier and sailor, especially in this crisis of our country, may have a copy of the Word of God, and also that the regular work may be continued and enlarged.

The interests of the American Tract Society were presented through the Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D., and resolutions were adopted as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly rejoices that the American Tract Society has for ninety-two years by means of the printed page disseminated over the wide world the saving truths of the Gospel as commonly believed and accepted by all evangelical Churches.

Resolved, 2. That we recognize in the Tract Society the answer to the prayer of our Lord that "we all may be one," and we point to the use of this literature on mission fields at home and abroad as a living testimony to the essential unity of all God's people, and to the only Name by which men may be saved.

Resolved, 3. That we gratefully acknowledge the God-given prosperity of the Tract Society that has enabled it to supply Christian literature in one hundred and seventy-eight languages and dialects, and to publish from its home office a grand total of 797,704,000 copies of volumes, periodicals and tracts, and through cash grants at foreign mission stations, totaling nearly one million dollars, to issue 5,667 distinct publications, the circulations of which aggregate many millions of copies.

Resolved, 4. That we call the renewed attention of all our pastors and missionary workers to the essential value of the printed page in evangelizing and giving spiritual instruction to the 60,000,000 of our population not attending any church or mission, and are pleased to note that the Tract Society's missionary colporteurs have made a total of 18,812,806 family visits and distributed 17,438,166 volumes of wholesome and saving Gospel literature, and conducted 599,410 religious meetings, and that the Society's gratuitous distribution now totals $2,652,967, the equivalent of 5,305,938,080 pages of Gospel leaflets.

Resolved, 5. That we heartily commend the American Tract Society for its special and earnest effort to greatly increase the output of Christian literature in the Spanish and Portuguese languages in behalf of the pressing and overwhelming needs of Latin America, and rejoice that its publications for the past year in the above languages embrace such important volumes as Principles of Biblical Interpre- tation, Normal Teachers' Manual, The Syllabus of Old-Testament History, and The Christ of History, and it is entering upon the publication of a one-volume Bible Commentary in Spanish, and has under consideration and hopes to issue such needed volumes as The Principles of Jesus, How to Pray, How to Bring Men to Christ, The Way to God, and many other indispensable volumes in both Spanish and Portuguese, there being no doubt as to their publication, if pastors and churches are responsive.

Resolved, 6. That in view of the foregoing facts, we heartily commend the work of the American Tract Society to our pastors, elders and members, and urge the Sessions of each and all of our churches to include the work of the Tract Society in their benevolent budget for an annual offering.

Mr. William H. Scott, of Philadelphia, made a report upon the work of the Presbyterian Historical Society, and the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this General Assembly commends the purpose and work of the Presbyterian Historical Society; that individual Sessions, Presbyteries and Synods be requested to send to the Historical Society such books, papers and other articles pertaining to the Church as should be preserved for future generations; that individuals or churches be urged to become members of the society and to do whatever they can to further its interest.

The Committee on Sabbath Observance made a Report through its General Secretary, Rev. H. L. Bowlby, and the resolutions of the Report were adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance herewith presents its Twenty-sixth Annual Report to the General Assembly:

The immortal Lincoln said that the next great problem after the slavery question the people of the United States would have to solve was the liquor traffic. Slavery was slain. The martyred President's statement was prophetically correct and John Barleycorn and King Alcohol have received their passports, and swiftly in some States, slowly in others, but surely everywhere are going out or have already broken camp. Their credentials will never count them favor among us again. But what is the situation full as grave and serious to-day upon which our Churches and citizens must reflect and act with definiteness and decision? It is this: the next great question after the liquor traffic which the churches and Christian citizens of this Republic must solve is the problem of Sabbath desecration and the commercializing of the Lord's Day. If this gigantic problem is not solved, the forces of Sabbath desecration will dissolve many of our churches.

What the General Assembly declared two years ago is more distinctly true to-day than it was then, and we here reincorporate it in the hope that it will fall on more responsive pastors and official boards. It is time for a genuine revival to break out in this direction, when pastors will preach on the subject and make it as serious a part of the Church's business as Missions, and give as proper financial support to the Lord's Day organizations as is given to Home and Foreign Missions or any Board of the Church.

As "the Lord's Day and Christianity stand or fall together," the attacks against this bulwark of the faith, vicious and powerful, must be successfully doubled back or dissolution and destruction wait at the door of church and chapel. As the Church and the Lord's Day walk hand in hand and are inseparable—"hallow my sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary," the Church is charged with the responsibility of preventing any power of darkness from putting them asunder. Changing the figure, on this rock was the early Church founded. As the Christian Sabbath is the basis of all our religious work in all the world, the spring and guardian of the benevolent moneys of the Church, see I Cor. xvi : 2, it is utter folly to neglect a faithful presentation of its meaning, a full support of its defense and preservation. This, then, leads us to the conclusion that the Church is the custodian of the Sabbath and that if ever the problem is to be solved it must be done by the churches working through its well-articulated organizations whose commission is to go throughout the nation and lead the movements making for the better observance of this sacred day and the maintenance of the civil safeguards thrown about it.

These are times which try the souls of men. Preparedness and patriotism are words to conjure with. The war is upon us. The submarine is the terror of the sea, yet undaunted our soldiers and sailors go forth to duty and if need be to die for their country and that democracy "might not perish from the earth." Great inspiration, exalted principles! Let kings and potentates make way for liberty! But "lest we forget," there are at our very doors institutions needing constant defense against the assaults of foemen worthy of their steel. The S. O. S. call during the past year has gone throughout the land—"Save Our Sabbath." Never were battles more fiercely waged against the Lord's Day, never were the forces of righteousness more severely put to the test of saving this priceless inheritance. The submarines of vicious, greedy money-makers have done their best to sink the ship of the Sabbath, and we purpose to point out in this Report some of the most serious phases of the situation.

We believe it is the duty of this Committee to acquaint the General Assembly with the situation to-day, point out the significant facts related thereto, and the conditions to be met and how to correct them, record the notable victories of the year, glimpse the work in other lands, make timely suggestions and offer such resolutions as will again announce to the world where the great Presbyterian Church stands on this question in profession and practice.

The Situation.

Motion Pictures.—As we write we almost stand atremble before some stubborn and insistent facts. The times themselves are trying men's souls. The poet now has his day. "We are living, we are dwelling in a grand and awful time." Grand in the outlook of a world-wide democracy and accentuated human liberties, awful at what cost it is being purchased. In the revolution of old orders and the readjustments of conditions often priceless institutions for the time being are taken advantage of or through plea of emergency and expediency are willfully neglected, while the enemy only too readily seize the opportunity for their overthrow. The tory, copperhead and present day "slacker" and covert foe, as well as the open enemy, must not only be watched by the special guards posted by our Federal and State authorities, but another brand of evil workers must as surely and swiftly be handled by the Churches of the living Christ, lest the ship of Christianity be torpedoed or become the easy mark of the 14-inch guns of the enemy's dreadnaught.

Never before was there so ably organized and well financed a movement to break down our Christian Sabbath as the year through which we have passed. The bold and brazen marshalling together of mighty forces which leaped into the open in the recent months startled even those into whose hands was largely committed the safeguarding of the Lord's Day. The liquor traffic, sporting elements, theatre, dance halls, motion-picture-show houses, business of unnumbered varieties, the powerful newspaper, strident voices of the world from everywhere, and the mad haste for Sunday pleasure in which an innumerable company of church members are likewise registered—these all have played their part against the sanctity of this day labeled with the name of the Author of our faith. With these facts including the tremendous efforts put forth in nearly every State of the nation this year to commercialize the Christian Sabbath, we most emphatically assert that the time of neutrality—if such ever existed—on this question, as in the great war into which we have been drawn, has passed. There is no neutral ground. Every true believer must stand up and be counted.

Let us look at the reasons for this: not only have the enemies waged unceasing warfare on this day and ruthlessly trampled our Sunday laws under foot where weakling officers have winked at violations of the statutes, but also have placed their explosives underneath these civil safeguards in the hope of destroying them altogether. In favored New England, in the single little State of near a million souls, thirteen anti-Sunday bills were introduced the past year, and only for the untiring efforts of the Lord's Day defenders, who awakened the churches to the imminent danger, and a Christian governor, at least one of these vicious measures would have become the law of the State. In another Commonwealth, the Empire State, a grist of such bills were ground out in both Assembly and Senate, eight of them to legalize motion-picture-show houses on Sunday. A great pile of money was raised to help push this kind of legislation across, and the open boast was made by the leading motion-picture magazines of the country that "we must strike quickly and effectively to win and that victory will surely be ours." But what was the result? Fathers and brethren, the Christian Sabbath was distinctly on trial in New York State these last four months. The instant the first five motion-picture bills were introduced at Albany on the third day of January, the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, your representative, wheeled its machine guns into place for a sturdy offense. The battle was on. The following night in the Bedford Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, a mass meeting was held and the opening gun was fired. The distinguished Dr. David James Burrell sent a broadside into the enemy's first line. Great mass meetings were organized by the Alliance throughout the State in strategic centres. Pastors thundered their disapproval of these bills from the pulpits, a prominent Roman Catholic bishop hurled his voice against these attempts to commercialize the day, and the Protestant and Catholic women of Albany made a house-to-house canvass of the homes of the Capitol City. Churches, religious and civic societies coöperated with commendable promptness and efficiency; protests, petitions and resolutions were piled in upon Assemblymen and Senators, and then came the memorable day of the hearing on all motion-picture bills, March 21.

The motion-picture men went from New York to Albany by special train, their force supplemented by others from different parts of the State, including two ministers, one now the Socialist mayor of Schenectady, the other located at Oyster Bay, N. Y. The defenders of the Sabbath came in far greater numbers—4 to 1—several hundred in all. The Senate chamber was packed, main floor and galleries, standing room being at high premium. For more than two hours the battle of argument waged. The attorney of the Lord's Day Alliance, Robert G. Davey, conducted the hearing for those opposing the bills. Mr. James Yereance, president, opened the argument with a ringing speech, giving the keynote of the discussion, and Rev. H. L. Bowlby, general secretary, followed with a short and striking address and the presentation of a great volume of resolutions passed by Churches of all denominations against the legalizing of this and any other business on the Lord's Day. Two priests of the Roman Church unqualifiedly put themselves on record against the bills, and religious leaders, Church federations, ministers' associations, the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, W. C. T. U., State Christian Endeavor, State and World's Sunday-school secretaries, civic societies and other representatives were there to tell the legislature they were not ready to see the Sabbath sacrificed on the altars of mammon. The defenders of the bills fought hard to offset the invincible arguments against them, but signally failed. And the result: not one of the bills was reported out of the Assembly Committee and none of the Sunday baseball bills on which the Alliance and other friends had rallied their forces at a hearing on March 20, ever got past this Committee. Official information to this effect reached us on April 17. But this day we are writing, April 11, word comes from Albany that the Walker Sunday Motion-picture Bill was on April 10 reported out of the Senate Codes Committee 5 to 4. We do not believe it will be advanced to final reading and a vote, but will take no chances and fight it to the finish.* "As goes New York, so goes the nation," was formerly a slogan in National political elections, and that was the slogan to which those who would commercialize the Christian Sabbath pinned their faith for a nationwide open Sunday. Lovers of the sacred day must remember this and come up to the help of the Lord of the Sabbath against the mighty. More powerful efforts than ever will be launched against the day next year, and only a united Church well supported and speaking through her appointed agencies can possibly hold back the tide that every year sets in against her.

We have given unusual space to this part of the situation, for it is so urgently needed, and we briefly supplement it with two appalling statements:

1. On the confession of the president of the largest film manufacturing establishment in the United States, 60 per cent. or more of the motion-picture operators have expressed a desire for the "risqué" or smutty film—and they are getting them. At least 60 per cent. of the films on the road to-day are either immoral or contain plainly immoral suggestions, and this statement is accentuated by the fact that at least twenty-four States have had censorship bills recently introduced in the legislatures.

2. On the statement of Rev. S. Edward Young, D.D., Brooklyn, N. Y., who made a survey of the churches, one-third of the Sunday-school attendance in Presbyterian churches of Brooklyn has dropped off since the Sunday motion-pictures have come in.

These facts and many others we could produce should be proof sufficient that the commercial Sunday movie show is an unmitigated evil and has no right or standing in the Christian Sabbath and that evil and vampire pictures on any day of the week must be stamped out or they will wipe out much of the earnest labor of our faithful and efficient teachers of both the Sunday and the public schools. Before passing from this issue, we should say that favorite targets of these interests this year have been New Jersey, where one bill passed the Assembly before meeting its fate; Indiana, where a similar bill reached the governor's hands and fell a victim to his veto; Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Illinois, Texas, Wisconsin and many other States. And let it be noted here that if this business of the Sunday motion-picture show is legalized in the name of the almighty dollar, it will be the forerunner of the legalizing of the theatre, vaudeville, dance and billiard halls, racing, prize fights, sports and every variety of business, already illegally intrenched in many quarters.

Other Problems.—Should we attempt to detail many other evils stealthily eating away at the vitals of this bulwark of our faith we would fail, so many are they in number.

We would mention that the European war brought on last summer many disturbing events. Allied and German Alliance bazaars, with their Sunday features, including the chancing off of valuable articles, smote New York City and other places. The officials of the metropolis winked at the violations wearing the cloak of mercy and charity. A great military demonstration was planned on a Sunday of last May to take place at Sheepshead Bay, but when the Lord's Day Alliance and its auxiliary, the Sunday Observance Association of Kings County, pointed out how such a feature would violate the law, the commander-general promptly called off the military drill. A great carnival scheduled at this place by the German-American Alliance of Suffolk County for a Sunday in August was likewise trimmed of its law-breaking numbers. One also at East Northport was accordingly dealt with, to the great rejoicing of the people of this quiet community.

Sunday Golf.—The action of many members of the Church relative to Sunday golf, baseball, and automobiling merely for pleasure and away from public worship, is distressing to pastors and the official boards and a decided detriment to the cause of Sabbath observance. All pastors should be outspoken on these important matters and lay the practice of these things as often as necessary on the hearts of offenders. The influence on young people of church members who do these things is positively harmful.

Railroad Work.—On March 12 an appeal was received by the Lord's Day Alliance from a railroad man in Montana, requesting it to urge upon the railroad companies not to accept for Sunday shipment or handle dead freight after a certain hour on Saturday, until after midnight Sunday, it would release between two hundred and three hundred thousand employés. For some time attention has been directed along these lines.

WAR AND THE SABBATH.

The distressing European war into which the United States has been drawn has brought with it careless regard for the Sabbath in many places. In New England, the Middle States and elsewhere munition factories, steel plants and foundries have been running seven days a week, and paper and pulp factories, seizing the opportunity for increased profits, are doing the same. Railroads ready to meet the traffic demands have increased their Sunday traffic, and businesses of many kinds have leaped swiftly into line. If England has been able to keep her munition factories closed on Sundays since the war began, why cannot the United States? The words of Hon. William B. Wilson, Secretary of Labor, are apropos here and as touching other situations:

"Give to every able-bodied and willing worker the opportunity of six days' toil in seven, and every physical necessity of mankind will be abundantly supplied. This principle is divinely ordained, economically sound, physiologically needed, and imperative from the humanitarian standpoint."

In view of a tendency to loose consideration of the Sabbath claims to-day, we call attention to Lincoln's famous order in 1862, a copy of which was, on April 2, sent to President Wilson, accompanied by an appropriate letter, requesting him to take similar action in these serious days when standards of righteousness should be everywhere especially maintained and guarded. The order read:

"The President, Commander-in-chief of the Army and Navy, desires and enjoins the orderly observance of the Sabbath by the officers and men in the military and naval service.

"The importance for man and beast of the prescribed weekly rest, the sacred rights of Christian soldiers and sailors, a becoming deference to the best sentiment of a Christian people, and a due regard for the Divine will demand that Sunday labor in the Army and Navy be reduced to a measure of strict necessity.

"The discipline and character of the national forces should not suffer, nor the cause they defend be imperiled by the profanation of the day or name of the Most High."

We greatly fear the motion-picture industries will take every possible advantage of the opportunities to show recruiting pictures on Sunday and thereby secure an entrance to performances on Sunday, as the newspapers took advantage of the Civil War Sundays in the publication of news, leading to the cumbersome Sunday paper of to-day with its page or two of so-called necessary news. Sabbath organizations and churches throughout the country should wisely deal with this situation wherever it arises.

Victories.

Victories for the Lord's Day, despite unfavorable conditions, have been legion in number. A few of the more important ones we relate here: In the latter summer of 1916, the Lackawanna Steel Company of Buffalo sought to obtain exemption from the "Day of Rest in Seven" law of New York State, in order to work its men when it desired seven days a week. Dr. Stelzle, of the Social Service Department of the Federal Council, gave much attention to this question and the General Secretary of the Alliance voiced the protest of sixteen denominations against such special privilege being granted. The State Industrial Commission after due consideration denied the application, and thousands of employés were protected in their weekly rest day.

Sunday Closed Post-office Maintained.—The most notable and unnoised achievement of the past year was the retention of the law covering Sunday closed post-offices of the first and second class and the adding to it of the weekly rest day and the holidays for the foremen, watchmen, messengers and laborers.

Ellis Island.—At Ellis Island, last July, the weekly rest day was secured for all the employés of the engineering division, and a movement is now on to secure a change in the sailing time of vessels from foreign ports to assure their arrival at Ellis Island and other stations before Saturday, and thus avoid the unloading of immigrants on Sunday. Thousands of employés would be benefited by such a reform, and immigrant stations closed to such work on Sunday would be a wholesome reminder to the alien that the American Sabbath is not the Continental Sunday.

New York.—The mayor and police commissioner of New York City kept their promise not to deviate from the strict letter of the law respecting New Year's Eve, which fell on Sunday. Saloon and restaurant keepers protested and wanted the same big evening of profit from drinks as on other New Year Eves, but were denied it in the name of the law. The lid should be on every Sunday in the metropolis. It is a blighting shame that officials wink at the violations. Plans are being developed to demand it.

Wichita, Kansas, Sunday Movies Barred.—On August 29, 1916, at a special election for considering the proposition, Sunday motion-picture shows were barred out of Wichita by a vote of 6,162 to 4,486. If Christian communities everywhere would stand up and be counted, this form of Sabbath desecration could quickly be removed.

Altoona, Pa., Sunday Closing.—Several years of Sunday closing of all business establishments, except drug stores and restaurants for legitimate sales in Altoona, Pa., have proved so wholesome that the present mayor has ordered a strict observance of the Sunday law and also introduced an ordinance in the council to increase the fine of violators. The leading papers of the city have been converted to the Sunday-closing benefits and numerous editorials have appeared in them under such titles as, "The Law's Triumph," "Sunday Selling is Not Philanthropy—it is Downright Hoggishness." Other cities could profitably take notice and write the ministers or mayor of Altoona as to how they do it.

Needs.

Sunday Laws—California, Oregon and District of Columbia.—Sunday laws are badly needed in the States of California and Oregon and the District of Columbia. Efforts have been made to put a proper Sunday measure on the California statute book, but a more aggressive action is looked for in the near future leading to success.

Oregon had a State Sabbath law, but it was repealed at the November, 1916, election by a vote of 125,836 to 93,076. The Northwest Sabbath Association fought earnestly for its retention, but through lack of funds and field men for a strenuous campaign, was defeated. Here is another evidence of the imperative need of financial support of societies working to save our Sabbath.

The District of Columbia is the home of our National Capitol and sorely needs the civil protection of the Christian Sabbath. The Lord's Day Alliance of the United States is marshalling the forces for a searching campaign to put through Congress a bill now being prepared. The pastors' Sabbath Committee and Ministers' Association of Washington, together with a number of Synods, Conferences and Presbyteries of Maryland, have already voted to coöperate in the movement. All denominations believing in the Christian Sabbath will be called upon to urge their representatives and senators to vote for the bill. Prompt response is necessary to insure victory and every pastor is urged to have his church act at once when advised when to strike. Religious bodies should do the same.

Community Forums in Public-school Buildings.—Agitation will no doubt be renewed in the present Congress to legalize community forums in public-school buildings. The attempt to include Sunday for the holding of such meetings must be steadfastly resisted and churches are urged to forward at once their protest to the Committees on Education of the House of Representatives and the Senate. Where the experiment has been tried, the influence has been decidedly against the spirit and purpose of the Lord's Day. To permit Sunday community forums would put the entering wedge of a wide-open Sunday into this holy day. The city council of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., recently decided not to permit Sunday community forum meetings in any public buildings.

Saturday Sabbatarian Menace.—Our people need to be warned against the ulterior motives of clever speakers who are veiling Scriptural truth by cleverly giving false interpretations of the Sabbath questions. Unless stoutly resisted, the peril will loom too large for successful overthrow. We believe the Presbyterian Church has little trouble in this direction and that "a word to the wise" will be sufficient.

Observations.

Attitude of Federal Departments.—In the past two years there has been a decided tendency on the part of our Federal Departments to coöperate with workers for Sunday rest and the weekly rest day.

When the Post-office Department at Washington was approached on this question in 1916, a ready response was given to the request; whereas a similar request made the previous year was grudgingly granted. Nearly a year ago Assistant Secretary of Labor, Louis F. Post, said to an ardent worker for the cause: "You can go back to New York with the assurance that I am in favor of a day and a half each week for our employés, and you can tell Commissioner Howe to send in his recommendation."

Hon. Thomas E. Rush, surveyor of the port of New York, not only coöperated in the weekly rest-day plan for the Customs guards, but offered his service to speak of its benefits and tell of the Social Welfare League he originated as a result of the beneficent rest-day reforms accomplished.

Urge Closing Grocery Stores and Delicatessen Shops.—The retail grocers of New York State, excepting New York City, joined forces in the advocacy of a bill to close all grocery stores and delicatessen shops on Sunday. It has been learned that delicatessen establishments keep groceries and wares that drive other merchants to an open Sunday when the former are granted this privilege. Appeal was made to Sabbath organizations and churches to aid in securing the passage of the bill.

A Thing to be Lamented.—It is lamentable, indeed, that men of high culture, including an occasional minister, in the pay of leading metropolitan papers and periodicals, will stultify themselves by writing editorials or the light lines of poetry against the Sabbath day. To help the motion-picture industry, to win the passing favor of the "fan" and the plaudits of the populace, not a few shamelessly slay the Church and Sunday-schools on the altars of mammon, and lead labor unprotected to the guillotine of greed, and crucify the poor and defenseless upon a cross of gold, binding its helpless victims thereon with the silver nails of a seven-day working week.

Lord's Day Organizations.

The Lord's Day League of New England has valiantly fought again this year like Spartans of old, to hurl back the vicious attacks against the Sabbath day. All attempted adverse legislation in New Hampshire and Massachusetts was defeated, and in Connecticut a Sunday amusement bill passed the State legislature, but was vetoed by Governor M. H. Holcomb, April 11. So pertinent is the statement made by Governor Holcomb to Rev. H. L. Bowlby in an interview on April 5 at Hartford that we give it here: "Well, I can tell you what I m going to do about that bill. I'm going to veto it. I haven't lost my faith in Christianity yet nor my belief in the Christian Sabbath." We commend these words to any ministers and laymen who for specious reasons or spurious excuses have wabbled on this paramount question of the Lord's Day and the proper safeguarding of its golden hours.

The New York State Sabbath Association, under its new leadership, is successfully meeting the various forms of Lord's Day opposition. Extended notice has already been given this State.

The New Jersey State Alliance held the law intact during the year, defeating a Sunday motion-picture bill at Trenton. This bill passed the Assembly, but was killed in the Senate. Two others—a Sunday liquor bill and a baseball bill—were defeated. Desecration of the day appears to be on the increase in this State, but with the Rev. Dr. F. W. Johnson, secretary, now giving full time to the work of this organization, better results are anticipated in the near future.

Pennsylvania is blessed with one of the best State Sunday laws to be found anywhere in the nation. The Lord's Day Alliance of the Keystone State has thus far thwarted all attempts to break down this law. Two Sunday motion-picture bills were introduced late this month (April), but there appears no hope for successful advancement. In places, Sabbath desecration is on the increase, and in others the situation appears to be improving.

For Maryland this is at least in part very true, but splendid defeats were here recorded this year and an ordinance to legalize baseball on Sundays as passed by the Baltimore Council, was declared void by the Court of Appeals of Maryland. This is due largely to the indefatigable efforts of Dr. Davis, the State secretary, Dr. Howard Kelly and others.

The Wisconsin Sunday Rest Day Association is being reinforced and a more definite and inclusive programme is being planned for the present year. A Sunday motion-picture bill passed the House, but was defeated in the Senate.

The Midwest Lord's Day Alliance, through Rev. J. P. Hutchison, general secretary, and his co-workers, has accomplished many good things and reports an increase in interest there, although the work is exceedingly difficult.

The Northwest Sabbath Association, through lack of support, has been unable to direct the work effectively, and the cause ast year suffered a great defeat in the repeal of the Oregon State Sunday law. Plans are being laid to replace the law with perhaps a few minor changes.

Advance Work.

The State organization work is moving along with greater dispatch than ever.

Iowa was tentatively organized last year and a field secretary, Rev. Noah B. Wickham, an elderly minister, is faithfully and earnestly trying out this field. A man in the strength of years is greatly needed here to direct this great work and will be engaged as soon as the financial response warrants it.

Ohio.—The most promising of the new work started is that in Ohio. The Presbyterian Synod of Ohio and other religious bodies sometime ago took action welcoming the organization of an auxiliary of the Alliance, and on April 14, Rev. H. A. Straub, formerly a very successful pastor at Renovo, Pa., and well acquainted in Ohio, began his work there as the first secretary of the new organization, which will be effected the latter part of May.

Kentucky is looking toward a State auxiliary, and Rev. I. Cochrane Hunt, Rev. Hugh Leith and others have already done yeoman service here.

Texas.—A movement is on in Texas for the establishment of such an organization which will be emphasized this year by the presence at Dallas of our General Assembly.

Missouri has called through Synod and Presbyteries, and this work is now in part under way.

Tennessee and Mississippi have flashed similar signs.

Michigan is rapidly heading toward definite action.

Other States and sections are awakening to the imperious need of well-organized, effectively directed societies, and the present time is especially promising.

Coöperation.—One of the most gratifying things of the year is the coöperative action of the Alliance and its auxiliaries, the New York State Sabbath Association, Sunday Rest Day Association of Kings County and the Schenectady Sabbath Association, as touching the work in the Empire State. Following the recommendations of the 1916 General Assembly, these auxiliary societies have fully measured up to the suggested requirements of related action with the Alliance and their united programme proved tremendously effective in the battles and conquests of the year. A noticeable tendency in this direction is observed in the New England quarter where jointly the Lord's Day League of New England and the Alliance concentrated successful attention on the critical situation in Connecticut. Similar work is on in New Jersey and other States, and in the near future we hope to present a well-articulated plan of coöperation by all these affiliated forces and a closer coöperation also with those Sabbath organizations not definitely identified with the Alliance. Meanwhile noticeable progress is reported.

Other Countries.

Canada.—We have gleaned from reports of the Sunday conditions in Canada some facts which show the Dominion is yielding somewhat, attributed chiefly to war conditions. Military activities, and in some quarters the manufacture of munitions, transportation on Sunday, pleading necessity on account of big harvests, and the more successful, though limited, incursions of the Sunday newspaper with its war news. Various forms of amusement without excuse have sought entrance and the motion-picture enterprise is making its claims for Sunday shows through appeals to patriotism, especially in Ontario Province. The Trades and Labor Congress passed a resolution favoring such shows.

Mexico.—Sundays in most of the cities and communities are days of revelry, dissipation and merriment. Torn with internal dissensions, influenced by the world-war and teeming multitudes bred in ignorance, the best we can hope for our neighboring republic is that fuller Christian light and life may shine upon and flow into this troubled people.

South America.—The South American countries are noted for a liberal Sunday. It is more a holiday than a holy day. Being chiefly Roman Catholic, the broad views of this Church on the Sabbath are everywhere in evidence and will continue so until Protestantism gets a firmer foothold. Perhaps the Roman Church will awaken to the peril which confronts her and put forth encyclicals making it mandatory to observe more faithfully the holy day and free it from the grip of commercial parasites and the clutches of a pleasure-mad generation. We have heard that Argentina is insisting with success on the closing on Sunday of all saloons within the republic.

Scotland and England.—From Scotland we learn through a Sabbath Observance worker of the United States that, owing to the war, conditions have changed in many respects, and yet there is a serious endeavor to reduce all labor on Sunday to the point of real necessity. We are assured that the Sabbath cause will be presented in the General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Churches of Scotland, and that this question will receive proper consideration by other denominations.

Other Countries—Germany, France, etc.—The Sabbath in all countries where the war is raging has been thrown into confusion. We have recently had reports from Germany and France printed in the German and French languages, and we find a note of distress over the Sunday conditions in these countries running through both reports. It is safe to assume that conditions in other countries where the conflict also rages are hardly less favorable. During the present year a more extended study will be made of all the nations at war and so far as possible a survey made showing the influence in various directions of the war as related to Sabbath desecration.

Heathen Lands.—In the great so-called heathen lands, progress in Sabbath Observance is being recorded. Japan adopted Sunday as the National Rest Day and reduces labor to a minimum on the first day of the week. Christian missions in China, India, Egypt and elsewhere are surmounting difficulties and receiving a favorable hearing for the Lord's Day. Converts to Christianity in Korea observe the Sabbath better than Christians do generally in the United States, we are informed. Said Rev. Walter J. Erdman, home on furlough last year, "If you want to see how the Lord's Day can be properly kept, come to Korea. We keep the Sabbath holy, over there."

The Lord's Day Alliance.

We would impress upon our churches the urgent need of supporting this cause and of enthusiastically and fully coöperating both morally and financially with the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States. At its Quadrennial session held in St. Louis last December, the Federal Council of Churches discontinued its Commission on Sunday Observance and formed a committee on Family Life and Religious Rest Day. This action though not in official declaration, but per se, recognizes the fact that the sturdy defense of our Christian Sabbath and attendant constructive work, must be done by other hands, and naturally by the duly appointed agency of the Churches, the Lord's Day Alliance. It is expected the coöperation of the Federal Council will be given and that local organizations so far as possible, will fall into line—as many already have done, with the enlarged programme of the Alliance. This is absolutely necessary for effective and successful campaigns affecting conditions everywhere in the Nation to-day. There are those who have this vision and no one appears to have stated it more clearly or glimpsed the magnitude of the task more accurately than one of our beloved former Moderators, John F. Carson, D.D., who on November 12, 1916, on the occasion of the 28th Anniversary of the Lord's Day Alliance said:

"The Lord's Day Alliance of the United States stands foremost in its valiant service in creating and fostering an intelligent public sentiment in the matter of Sabbath observance and in securing the enactment and enforcement of salutary laws.

"It commends itself to the support of all who are concerned about the Sabbath and desire to see it maintained. The Society is nationwide in the scope of its work, is alert to all movements that antagonize the Sabbath and alive to every sentiment that conserves the Sabbath. In the name of the Church of Christ in America it enters every legislative hall, national and State, and pleads in a voice that cannot be disregarded, for laws for the preservation of the Sabbath. The voice of an individual or of a local church, or even of a denomination may not receive very earnest attention on the part of our legislators, but a voice that expresses the united sentiment and demand of the whole Church cannot be disregarded or ignored by any legislature. That voice is the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States.

"Because of the large work that it has done, because of the fine results that it has accomplished and because of the splendid fashion in which it constitutes its work, the Lord's Day Alliance is worthy of the generous support of Christian people. The President of the Alliance, Mr. James Yereance, is one of the foremost men of affairs in New York and a man who has the confidence and esteem of the entire community. His valuable service and his masterful leadership is given to this cause without any expense to the Alliance. . . . . No movement of our day is better organized, better directed, better manned than the Lord's Day Alliance, which I heartily commend to you for your endorsement and support."

Lord's Day Leader.—The Lord's Day Alliance of the United States publishes an attractive and timely magazine, which is full of the best and latest facts on the Sabbath question, including a generous amount of fresh and valuable material for addresses, sermons and other purposes. All contributors to the Alliance receive it. Everyone contributing fifty cents or more per year receives it regularly.

Lord's Day Week.—We express the conviction that Lord's Day Week beginning the first Sunday after Easter and continuing through the following Sabbath, should be more generally observed by our churches, and that each year early preparations should be made that this week may prove of telling effect for Sabbath observance through instruction from pulpit, in Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies, and that the value of the day for weekly rest and worship may be deeply impressed on the younger generation.

Lord's Day Special Programme for Lord's Day Week, prepared by the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, and which has so successfully been used the last four years, will prove of great help to every Sunday-school and Young People's Society using it. The number of copies needed by any school or society is furnished on application, on the simple condition that an offering be taken for the Alliance. Pastors have found it helpful for Sunday evening public worship and the mid-week service.

Coalition of Enemies.—In closing we would again sound a note of warning to all friends of the Lord's Day and urge them to help overthrow the coalition of the enemies of the Sabbath, composed of Secular Leagues, Non-Christian Sects, Saturday Sabbatarians, "personal liberty" elements, etc., whose avowed purpose is to propagate their own particular ends. The time has come when public officials, both State and National, must be acquainted with these facts and realize how small a part of their constituency, generally speaking, comprises these various elements. We believe the nation is sound at heart on this question and our public servants must know it and stand for the Christian Sabbath and the enforcement of our Sunday laws.

In conclusion the Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly reiterates its strong and emphatic disapproval of all secular uses of the Sabbath day, all games and sports, in civic life, as also in Army and Navy, all unnecessary traveling and all excursions, and urges upon all employers of labor and captains of industry to recognize the need of the laboring man for his weekly rest day and secure him in this right and thereby insure his larger efficiency and happiness and the greater prosperity of both capital and labor.

Resolved, 2. That we most respectfully call the attention of all public officials to the potent influence of their position, pro or con, on all moral questions, and the necessity of greater care on their part, proportionate to the exalted nature of the offices which they occupy, that they may strengthen rather than weaken, by their influence, public and private observance of the Lord's Day; and this Assembly respectfully, but emphatically, urges all public officials faithfully to enforce all laws to protect the Sabbath from desecration, and calls upon every member of our churches loyally to support all officials in such faithful discharge of their duties.

Resolved, 3. The General Assembly urges on all families not to buy anything on the Sabbath, to plan for their servants on the Sabbath and to help them fulfill their religious duties and to pay laborers so that they may have Saturday afternoon to make provision for the Sabbath.

Resolved, 4. That this Assembly heartily endorses the plans of the Saturday half-holiday, commends all employers who grant it to employés, and recognizes it as tending to the better observance of the Christian Sabbath.

Resolved, 5. That this Assembly most strongly protests against the operation of motion-picture-show houses and all attempts to legalize them on the Lord's Day, and urges our public officials to enforce the laws against this indefensible Sunday business, which is a serious menace to the true spirit of the Lord's Day, to our Sabbath-schools and public worship.

Resolved, 6. That this Assembly emphatically disapproves of the use of our public-school buildings for the holding of community forum meetings therein on the Lord's Day and insists that where said community or patrons' meetings are held, they be strictly confined to week-day hours; and we record our protest on the same to the Committees on Education of the House of Representatives, of the Senate, and the Congress of the United States, likewise to our State legislative bodies, on any bill now before them or that may come up for their consideration looking toward the legalizing of these meetings on Sunday.

Resolved, 7. That the General Assembly hereby reiterates its emphatic condemnation of the Sunday newspaper, and urges the members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to refuse to subscribe for it or read it or advertise in it.

Resolved, 8. That the General Assembly respectfully requests the faculties of colleges and seminaries, to omit recitations on Monday mornings, so as to leave the Sabbath free from the felt necessity of some of the students to prepare their lessons on that day or to return on the Lord's Day from week-end absence from their schools.

Resolved, 9. That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Presbytery, to coöperate with similar committees of other denominations within its bounds in aiding the work of local Sabbath associations; and where such organizations do not exist, to promote the formation of such associations in connection with the State or national organizations—the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance.

Resolved, 10. That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Synod, of which the chairman of each Presbytery's Committee on Sabbath Observance shall be at least a corresponding member, and that the Synod's Committee shall coöperate with the State Associations; and where these do not exist, directly with the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States.

Resolved, 11. That we most heartily commend and warmly endorse the work of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, national organizations, in their efforts to preserve in its purity the Christian Sabbath and its work for the practice of its teaching.

Resolved, 12. That we commend the work of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, deeply appreciate its great measure of success in defending our Sabbath, in defeating scores of anti-Sabbath bills, its aggressive work and splendid success in opposing attempts to legalize motion-picture-show houses on Sunday; and in bringing chiefly, through coöperation with employers, the weekly rest day to multitudes of Government employés and great corporations, and approve its purpose to secure wise and efficient Sunday and weekly rest-day legislation for the laboring forces.

Resolved, 13. That we earnestly recommend that the week known as "Lord's Day Week," always commencing the first Sabbath after Easter and embracing the second Sabbath after Easter, be observed as a Week of Prayer for the preservation of the Lord's Day in its quiet, rest and worship; that the lesson in all our Sabbath-schools on the first Sabbath after Easter be on the observance of the Sabbath; and that each pastor of our denomination preach a sermon on that day or at some more convenient time on the subject of the Sabbath.

Resolved, 14. That we recommend that the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, which is the only association that represents the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in this department of Christian work, organized by the coöperation of the General Assembly in 1888, be included in the budget of benevolences of the churches, or in lieu of this an offering be taken for the Alliance on the first or second Sabbath of "Lord's Day Week," contributions to be sent to George M. Thomson, Treasurer, 203 Broadway, New York City; that the churches invite representatives of the Alliance and affiliated societies to present the cause to their congregations; that Mr. John T. Manson, New Haven, Conn., be appointed a member of the Committee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of one of our esteemed members,

Mr. Giles Kellogg; and that the Committee on Sabbath Observance be continued without any expense, as usual, to the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

The Standing Committee on Colleges was granted permission to retire from the Assembly, also the Standing Committee on Home Missions, for the transaction of business.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures submitted a Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, having received from the Stated Clerk of the Assembly the list of Overtures so far as printed, also additional Overtures received from the Presbyteries, and other communications, submits the entire list to the Assembly, as follows:

Overtures Nos. 1 to 176, from the Presbyteries of Aberdeen, Adams, Albany, Alton, Amarillo, Athens, Bell, Binghamton, Birmingham-A, Black Hills, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Brownwood, Buffalo, Butler, Carlisle, Carthage, Cedar Rapids, Chemung, Chicago, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Cincinnati, Clarion, Columbia, Columbia-A, Columbia River, Columbus, Coos Bay, Corning, Council Bluffs, Dakota (Indian), Denver, Detroit, Dubuque, Duluth, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Ewing, Flint, Florida, Fort Dodge, Fort Smith, Fort Wayne, Fort Worth, French Broad, Gadsden, Galena, Genesee, George, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Grande Ronde, Gunnison, Helena, Highland, Hobart, Houston, Indiana, Iowa City, Jefferson, Kalamazoo, Kearney, Kendall, Kirksville, Kittanning, Knox, Lackawanna, Lake Superior, Lansing Larned, Lehigh, Le Vere, Logan, Logansport, Los Angeles, Louisville, McClelland, Madison, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Muncie, Nashville, Nassau, Neosho, New Albany, Newark, Newburyport, New Castle, Newton, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, Northern Arizona, North River, Northumberland, Ogden, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Otsego, Ozark, Paris,

Parkersburg, Pecos Valley, Pembina, Pendleton, Petoskey, Philadelphia North, Phœnix, Pittsburgh, Portland, Portsmouth, Princeton, Providence, Pueblo, Red River, Redstone, Rendall, Rio Grande, Riverside, Rochester, Rock River, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, St. Paul, Salt River, San Francisco-Oakland, San José, Santa Barbara, Sedalia, Shenango, Sheridan, Southern Arizona, Southern Utah, Southwest Bohemian, Springfield, Steubenville, Syracuse, Topeka, Tulsa, Twin Falls, Utica, Waco, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Waukon, Waterloo, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, Wheeling, Willamette, Winnebago, Wooster, Yadkin, Yellowstone, and Zanesville, relating to the Reunion of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. and Presbyterian Church U. S. A., in the following terms:

"1. That the General Assembly express its fraternal affection for the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., and its earnest desire for reunion at the earliest time consistent with the arrangement of necessary details, on the basis of our common inheritance of faith and order, and the prevalence of mutual confidence and love which are necessary to a happy union and to the permanent peace and prosperity of the United Church.

"2. That the General Assembly appoint a committee for the purpose of conferring with representatives of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. in regard to the desirability and practicability of reunion, and, if after conference and inquiry such reunion shall seem to be desirable and practicable, to suggest suitable measures for its accomplishment, and report to a future assembly."

Overture No. 177, from Fort Worth Presbytery, relating to local unions and federations, asking that "the General Assembly devise some plan whereby the waste, friction, and overlapping of the churches of the U. S. A. and U. S. Assemblies may, for the present, be overcome through local unions or federations, with the sanction of both Assemblies, anticipating the final organic union of the two Assemblies."

Overture No. 178, from Dallas Presbytery, relating to the union of all Presbyterian Churches, asking that the Assembly "reiterate its devotion to the union of all Presbyterian Communions in this country, but with no purpose to over-urge any one of them to join in this union; but that the Assembly maintain its ideal of a National Church, with work to do in every part of the country."

Overtures Nos. 179 to 182, from the Presbyteries of Chemung, Chicago, Lackawanna, and New York, relating to a union of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist or Presbyterian Church, asking that the Assembly refer the matter to its Special Committee on Coöperation and Union.

Overtures Nos. 183 to 218, from the Presbyteries of Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Brownwood, Buffalo, Carthage, Cayuga, Chicago, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbus, Denver, Florida, Fort Wayne, Fort Worth, George, Grand Rapids, Indiana, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Logansport, Newark, New Brunswick, Paris, Parkersburg, Pembina, Philadelphia, Portland, Portsmouth, Red River, Rendall, Southern Arizona, Southwest Bohemian, Springfield, Topeka, and West Jersey, relating to the consolidation of the Boards of Freedmen and Home Missions, asking that "the Board of Freedmen be merged in the Board of Home Missions," and assigning reasons for making this petition.

The following Presbyteries have reported as declining to join in the foregoing petition, some of them sending Overtures giving reasons why these Boards should not be united: Aberdeen, Atlantic, Black Hills, Carthage, Cincinnati, Columbia-A, Columbia River, Erie, Flint, Fort Smith, Genesee, Geneva, Helena, Highland, Hodge, Iowa City, Kendall, Kiamichi, Lackawanna, Lehigh, Le Vere, McGee, Monroe, Niobrara, Northumberland, Omaha, Paris, Pueblo, Saginaw, St. Louis, St. Paul, Santa Barbara, Sedalia, Southern Virginia, Steubenville, Waterloo, Wellsboro, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, and Yadkin.

Overtures Nos. 219 to 277, from the Presbyteries of Alaska, Albany, Bell, Blairsville, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Buffalo, Carthage, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Chippewa, Cleveland, Columbia-A, Columbia River, Coos Bay, Dakota (Indian), Ewing, Fort Worth, Genesee, Helena, Hobart, Houston, Iowa City, Kansas City, Kearney, Los Angeles, Louisville, Milwaukee, Niagara, Niobrara, North River, Northumberland, Ogden, Oklahoma, Omaha, Ozark, Parkersburg, Pendleton, Petoskey, Portland, Portsmouth, Pueblo, Redstone, St. Louis, St. Paul, Salt River, Sedalia, Sheridan, Southern Arizona, Springfield, Twin Falls, Utica, Walla Walla, Washington, Waterloo, Westchester, Whitewater, and Winnebago, relating to the "rearrangement, consolidation, or federation of the Boards of Church Erection and Home Missions," asking that "the whole matter be submitted to the Executive Commission of the General Assembly, with instructions to bring a plan completely wrought out for the consideration of the next General Assembly in 1918," and an argument is made in support of this petition.

The following Presbyteries have reported as having voted in the negative on the foregoing petition: Atlantic, Clarion, Highland, Kendall, Steubenville, and Zanesville.

Overtures Nos. 278 and 279, from the Presbyteries of Grande Ronde, and Southwest Bohemian, relating to the consolidation of the Board of Church Erection, Freedmen, and Home Missions, asking the Assembly "to appoint a committee to formulate a plan to unite these Boards under one administration, and to report at a future meeting of the General Assembly."

Overtures Nos. 280 to 291, from Indiana Synod and the Presbyteries of Birmingham–A, Cincinnati, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Fort Wayne, McGee, Muncie, Red River, Steubenville, Transylvania, and Waterloo, relating to church architecture, asking the Assembly to instruct the Church Erection Board to adopt certain specified rules regarding church architecture, for the guidance of congregations and Presbyterial committees that are contemplating the erection of church edifices.

Overtures Nos. 292 and 293, from the Presbyteries of Helena and Kalispell, relating to Coördinate Secretaries of the Home Mission Board, asking for such reorganization of this Board as will mean the selection of one person as its chief Secretary, "to be supported by as many Assistants as may be deemed necessary for efficiency."

Overtures Nos. 294 and 295, from the Presbyteries of Boisé and Denver, relating to the Home Mission Council, asking the Assembly "to review and set aside the action of the General Assembly of 1916, as recorded on page 141 of the Minutes of that Assembly, directing that Synods 'shall' elect their representatives to the Home Mission Council for a period of three years." Reasons are given for the Overture.

Overture No. 296, from the Presbytery of Southern Virginia, relating to Bethany Church, Norfolk, Va., asking the Assembly's approval of the organization of said church and its application for aid from the Freedmen's Board, all matters involved being set forth in the Overture.

Overture No. 297, from Boston Presbytery, relating to the Board of Relief and Sustentation, asking the Assembly to authorize the Board "to alter its rules so as to allow, at its own discretion, a minister of our Church who may not have served in the ministry the full period of 30 years, or attained the age of 70 years, to be placed upon the Roll of Honor and to receive the maximum amount of aid, if he has come, in the discharge of the duties of the pastorate, to a condition of complete physical disability."

Overture No. 298, from Monroe Presbytery, on receiving ministers from other Churches, asking "that the General Assembly request the Presbyteries not to receive men from other denominations unless they meet the full Presbyterian requirements of a college degree or its equivalent and a seminary diploma."

Overture No. 299, from Monroe Presbytery, with reference to Board of Education Scholarships, asking "that the General Assembly instruct the Board of Education to extend the same scholarships to students in our several seminaries, who have entered by examination, upon the recommendation of the several Presbyteries, as those who hold college diplomas."

Overture No. 300, from Westminster Presbytery, relating to aid given candidates for the ministry, asking the Assembly "to take such action as it may deem effectual to secure a more equitable distribution of the funds annually placed in the hands of the Board of Education."

Overture No. 301, from Shenango Presbytery, relating to Psalter Hymns, asking the Assembly "to take such steps as, in its judgment, will best make available for general use, whether printed in the authorized Hymnal or issued in a separate volume, an adequate selection of Psalter Hymns."

Overtures Nos. 302 and 303, from the Presbyteries of Boisé and Twin Falls, relating to Sabbath-school periodicals, asking the Assembly "to direct the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work to make one issue each month of its Sabbath-school papers a missionary number, in which it will print appropriate facts and incidents relative to the topic for the Monthly Concert of Prayer."

Overture No. 304, from West Jersey Presbytery, relating to salaried officers of Boards and Committees and their acceptance of compensation for preaching, asking the Assembly "to declare that no official of any Board or Committee of the Church, who receives a stated salary, shall accept compensation for preaching in any Presbyterian Church."

Overture No. 305, from West Jersey Presbytery, on Home Mission Supplies, praying the Assembly "to enjoin upon all the Synods, whether wholly self-supporting or only partly so, the requirement of giving Home Missionary supplies within their bounds remuneration equal to that paid by the Home Mission Board."

Overtures Nos. 306 to 346, from the Synods of Colorado, Missouri, New York Oklahoma, and Wisconsin, and the Presbyteries of Amarillo, Athens, Atlantic, Binghamton, Birmingham-A, Bloomington, Carlisle, Carthage, Chemung, Cleveland, Columbia, Dallas, Denver, Ewing, Fort Worth, Gadsden, Genesee, Kendall, La Crosse, Madison, Mattoon, Milwaukee, Oklahoma, Olympia, Otsego, Ozark, Portsmouth, Pueblo, Southern Utah, Southwest Bohemian, Steubenville, Topeka, Transylvania, Twin Falls, Waco, and Zanesville, relating to the printing and distribution of the Assembly Minutes, asking that the General Assembly "take up this whole matter with a view of expediting it as much as possible, and suggesting that it be placed in the hands of the Executive Commission, with instructions to investigate the matter thoroughly, and, if possible, take such steps in conjunction with the Stated Clerk, before the meeting of the General Assembly in 1918, as will materially reduce the time required, etc."

Overture No. 347, from Winnebago Presbytery, relating to the distribution of the Blue Book, "praying that the Blue Book be sent to all ministers of the Church every year, the information contained therein being such that the early publication of the Assembly Minutes would not be so important if all ministers might have the Blue Book."

Overtures Nos. 348 to 354, from the Presbyteries of Albany, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Chemung, Detroit, Minneapolis, Omaha, and Utica, on abbreviations used in the Assembly Minutes, for showing the occupation of ministers, asking that the Assembly's Stated Clerk be authorized to make such additions to the list already in use as he may think proper.

Overture No. 355, from the Presbytery of Benicia, relating to Mission Sabbath-schools, asking the Assembly "to instruct the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly to make such changes in the blanks for Statistical Reports as will provide for showing the number and membership of said Mission Schools."

Overtures Nos. 356 and 357, from New York Synod and Brooklyn Presbytery, relating to the Reports of the Church Boards, asking that, in view of the doubtful demand for these Reports and the present increased expense of printing and distributing them, the Assembly "take the whole matter into consideration, with a view of issuing an edition of these Reports, based upon the ascertained demand."

Overtures Nos. 358 to 360, from the Presbyteries of Pittsburgh, Shenango, and Wooster, relating to the Presbyterian Hand-Book, asking the Assembly to direct that in the next issue one of the subjects for prayer in the list of topics shall be "The Colored People of the United States."

S. A., asking the Assembly to constitute such a Commission. A preamble gives facts in support of this petition, and there are suggestions as to the plan of organization, functions and operations of such a Commission.

The following Presbyteries make report as having voted negatively on the matter contained in the foregoing Overtures: Alaska, Amarillo, Carthage, Columbia-A, Portsmouth, Pueblo, Waterloo, and Yadkin.

Overture No. 426, from Cleveland Presbytery, relating to social-service agencies and activities in the Church, petitioning "that the whole field be reviewed, to the end that a broader policy and a more adequate and comprehensive programme be adopted; that the existing agencies be directed to enlarge the scope of their activities, and that provision be made in their budgets, commensurate with the needs of such a broader programme."

Overture No. 427, from Phœnix Presbytery, relating to the Board of Temperance, asking the Assembly "to broaden the work of the Board of Temperance so as to include social service."

Overture No. 428, from Chicago Presbytery, on the Vacation Daily Bible School, asking the Assembly to recognize it as a permanent part of Presbyterian activity, and asking that certain recommendations be made to the churches as to the conduct of the same.

Overtures Nos. 429 and 430, from the Presbyteries of Chicago and Northumberland, relating to Army and Navy Chaplains, asking the Assembly "to appoint a representative Committee of ministers and elders which shall offer its service to the Government of the United States, in the matter of approving the selection of those Chaplains who may be chosen from the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A."

Overture No. 431, from West Jersey Presbytery, relating to Men's Work, asking the Assembly "to abolish the Permanent Committee on Men's Work, and in lieu thereof to urge the formation of a Layman's Committee in each Presbytery, whose function it shall be to develop an interest among the men of the churches, in the Lord's work."

Overtures Nos. 432 and 433, from the Presbyteries of Kendall and Twin Falls, relating to the Boy Scouts of America, asking that "the Boy Scouts' work shall be made a distinctive part of the work of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Men's Work." The Overture contains a statement of reason for its presentation.

Overture No. 434, from West Jersey Presbytery, relating to Vacancy and Supply, asking the Assembly "to abolish the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply, and in lieu thereof to instruct the Assembly's Stated Clerk to keep on file a list of all pastorless churches and to give to any Presbyterian a list of the same, on application."

Overture No. 435, from Kalispell Presbytery, on Sabbath Observance, asking the Assembly to go on record as favoring such legislation, both National and State, as will give relief to railroad employés who are compelled to labor on Sunday.

That Overture No. 297, relating to the Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation, be referred to the Standing Committee on Relief and Sustentation.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Chairman.

The Report of the Committee on the Four-Hundredth Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation was submitted, the Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., presiding, and the address being delivered by the Rev. David S. Schaff, D.D., Chairman. The Report was adopted and is as follows:

Your Committee on this Anniversary was appointed by the General Assembly, meeting at Atlantic City, May, 1916, and its duties are set forth in two resolutions, the first affirming a recommendation submitted by the Council of the Reformed Churches, as follows:

"WHEREAS, The Four-Hundredth Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation occurs in 1917; and

"WHEREAS, The Churches constituting the Council of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System represent historically one great branch of the Christian Church of the Reformation; therefore

"Resolved, That the Council recommends to the several supreme judicatories the holding of suitable anniversary services for the purpose of emphasizing the great principles of the Reformation of the sixteenth century." (Minutes, 1916, p. 309.)

The second resolution is as follows:

"In order to carry out the resolution regarding the anniversary of the Protestant Reformation, it is recommended that the Moderator appoint a Committee of five, three ministers and two elders, to coöperate with other Committees." (Minutes, 1916, p. 122.)

Your Committee has held several meetings, all of them in the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa., and its members have been busy, carrying out the plans and suggestions made at these meetings, which have involved much thought and care.

The Protestant Reformation is the soil in which all the bodies of Protestant Christendom took root, although it is true that distinctive organizations, such as the Friends, the Methodist groups, and the Church of the Disciples, were formed years after the era of the reformers. All, however, agree in holding the fundamental principles which the reformers proclaimed.

Efforts to introduce doctrinal reforms and correct abuses in practice by going back to the Scriptures as the final authority in matters of religion, were made by John Wycliffe in England, John Huss and Jerome of Prague, in Bohemia, John of Wesel in northeastern Germany, and also, in a measure, by Savonarola in Florence. These precursors of the Reformation failed to start a permanent movement. All of them were called upon to suffer persecution as faithful witnesses of the truth, and John Huss, Jerome of Prague and Savonarola were put to death in the flames.

The Reformation, to which Protestantism owes its existence, opened with the XCV Theses, posted in Wittenberg, October 31, 1517, spread from Germany to other parts of northern and western Europe, and took root in North America and lands further beyond.

The leading Reformers, Martin Luther and John Calvin, were friends, though they never had a personal meeting.

Luther gave warm praise to Calvin's defense of Protestantism, set forth in his letter to Cardinal Sadolet, and Calvin conveyed his warm greetings to the German reformer through Melanchthon. In his writings, Calvin not infrequently mentioned Luther by name, as, for example, in his treatise on "The Necessity of Reforming the Church," when he said, "God at the beginning stirred up Luther and others who carried the torch before us that we might discern the way of salvation, and by their ministries our churches have been established."

To the labors of these two men, and to the work of Zwingli, Œcolampadius and Bucer, Tyndale, Latimer and Cranmer, John Knox, Bullinger and Beza, and many other reformers, the Protestant world owes the benefits of the free Gospel and especially the modern declaration of these two principles —the supreme authority of the Scriptures, and salvation through faith alone apart from works, but showing itself in assurance and peace of soul and in works of righteousness and good will.

In seeking to carry out the purpose of the Assembly, your Committee has moved along two main lines: (1) the encouragement of our ministers and churches to make special use of the anniversary during the current year 1917; (2) a fitting presentation of the Reformation before the Assembly.

I. In working along the first line, your Committee has had the very hearty coöperation of the Board of Publication, which has made possible the carrying out of our plans. Your Committee has employed the following measures:

1. An appeal was sent out in the form of a leaflet, calling attention to this anniversary of the Reformation, and giving two lists of subjects, either of which, if chosen, will, in the judgment of the Committee, form a basis for a useful series of discourses and also a list of books easily accessible. The Board of Publication has printed the leaflet, and sent out copies to all the ministers connected with the Assembly.

2. Through the Board of Publication an arrangement was made for the sale of Boehmer's Life of Luther at the price of 25 cents—a volume by an accredited scholar explaining the remarkable recent discoveries of Luther literature, and giving replies to the recent volumes of Roman Catholic scholars like Father Denifle and Prof. Herman Grisar, who attempt to discredit the character and motives of the German reformer.

3. A communication was transmitted by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly through the Stated Clerks to all our Presbyteries, suggesting that they make provisions for the celebration.

4. Letters have been sent to our theological seminaries, summer schools under Presbyterian direction, and, so far as has been possible, to ministerial associations in different centres, calling their attention to the Anniversary.

5. Consultation was had with the Committee of the Federal Council of Churches on the Anniversary, Dr. William Henry Roberts being the chairman of that committee, and with the similar committees of the Lutheran, the Reformed and the United Presbyterian Churches.

6. An admirable programme, attractively illustrated, for use by churches, at Anniversary services, has been prepared by a committee of the Board of Publication, in consultation with your Committee.

7. A Pageant of the Reformation has been prepared by the appointment and under the direction of the Committee, by Mr. Lloyd Eastwood Seibold, an expert in this line. The text has been revised by the Committee and will be published by the Board of Publication. The pageant is intended for presentation in large halls or in church edifices, by churches in combination or by particular churches, the persons taking part doing so freely from a religious motive. The pageant is divided into five episodes, made up of different historic scenes, namely:

EPISODE I.

The Reformation in Germany.

Scene 1.—The posting of the XCV Theses, 1517.
Scene 2.—The burning of the papal bull, 1520.
Scene 3.—The diet of Worms, 1521.
Scene 4.—The conference at Marburg, Luther and Zwingli, 1529.

EPISODE II.

The Spread of the Reformation through Calvin.

Scene 1.—The call of Calvin by Farel, 1536.
Scene 2.—The colloquy at Poissy, Beza, 1561.
Scene 3.—The deliverance of Leyden, 1574.

EPISODE III.

The Reformation in England.

Scene 1.—The burning of Tyndale's New Testaments, London, 1527.
Scene 2.—Elizabeth's entry into London, 1558.

EPISODE IV.

The Reformation in Scotland.

Scene 1.—Wishart burnt at the stake, St. Andrews, 1546.
Scene 2.—John Knox before Mary Queen of Scots, Edinburgh, 1561.

Scene 3.—The signing of the covenant in Greyfriars' Church Yard, 1538.

EPISODE V.

The Reformation taking root in America.

Eight sets of slides of the Reformation have been prepared for two lectures, which can be rented at a reasonable price from the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, the lectures having been written by the chairman of the Committee.

II. In looking forward to a proper celebration by this Assembly, your Committee, in consultation with the local committee of arrangements in Dallas, has secured four places of meeting, on Sunday night, May 20, at each of which we suggest that two addresses be delivered, one on the Reformers and one on the Influence of the Reformation.

Further, your Committee begs leave to suggest that in the treatment of the Protestant Reformation from their pulpits, ministers have in mind the duty laid upon us, if we are true to our spiritual ancestry, of carrying the Gospel to all the world, and coöperating with all Christians in hastening the time when it shall be said, "the kingdom of this world is become the Kingdom of our Lord and His Christ."

It calls attention to the use to which slides and pictures may be put as an aid to discourses on the Reformation and also the possible use to which the church bulletin may be put in giving excerpts from the writings of the reformers and statements of facts taken from their history.

Your Committee recommends the following resolutions for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly adopts the programme arranged by the Committee, for Sunday, May 20, at four popular meetings, to be held in four different churches, the presiding officers and the speakers to be as arranged by the Committee and as follows :

The programme is as follows:

First Baptist Church—Rev. Frank C. McKean, Chairman; Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., and Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., Speakers.

First Methodist Church—Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., Chairman; Rev. William R. Farmer, D.D., and Rev. William McKibbin, D.D., Speakers.

Central Baptist Church—Mr. William H. Scott, Chairman; Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin, D.D., and Rev. Frederick W. Loetscher, D.D., Speakers.

First Presbyterian Church—Rev. John A. Marquis, D.D., Chairman; Rev. Andrew C. Zenos, D.D., and Rev. William H. Black, D.D., Speakers.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly recommends pastors and churches to observe the Four-Hundredth Anniversary of the Reformation, on October 28, 1917, the Lord's Day immediately preceding the anniversary of the posting of the theses by Martin Luther on the door of the Castle Church at Wittenberg, on October 31, 1517.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly heartily recommends to the churches the admirable programme prepared by the Board of Publication, and hopes that it will be generally used; the price of the same having been made as low as practicable by the Board.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly also recommends the use of the historical Pageant of the Reformation, for purposes of instruction and inspiration, and the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work is hereby directed to take charge of the business details connected with said Pageant.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly acknowledges with pleasure the kindness of friends of the Reformation Anniversary who have contributed to the expenses of the work of the Committee, especially in connection with the preparation of the Pageant.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly hereby continues the Committee to take any further action needed for the promotion of the observance of the Anniversary, such measures to be taken as may commend themselves to the judgment of the Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID S. SCHAFF, Chairman;
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS,
FRANK C. MCKEAN,
WILLIAM H. SCOTT,
LANSING G. WETMORE.

The following additional resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the traveling expenses of the Committee and the speakers be paid out of the contingent funds of the Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly hereby extends hearty thanks to the Rev. David S. Schaff, D.D., for his notable address on the Protestant Reformation and for his admirable services on the Committee.

Resolved, 3. That the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work be directed to publish the addresses delivered at Dallas, Texas, on the Four-Hundredth Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation, for circulation, the price to be fixed by the Board.

The following telegram was read from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S., Dayton, Ohio, and the Moderator and Stated Clerk were instructed to make a suitable reply:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Dallas, Texas:

The General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States now in triennial session in Dayton, Ohio, sends cordial greetings to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. We join hands and hearts with you in our common task. Read John 17 : 20 and 21.

CHAS. E. MILLER, President;
J. RAUCH STEIN, Stated Clerk.

The Stated Clerk was instructed to send a greeting of the Assembly to Rev. J. J. Lampe, D.D., on his eightieth birthday.

The Moderator announced the appointment as Vice-Moderator of Ruling Elder Samuel F. Irwin, of the Presbytery of Chester.

Authority was given to the Stated Clerk to print the Committees on Synodical Records, after the Moderator has appointed the Chairmen thereof.

Devotional services were led, according to appointment, by Rev. George W. Arms, Jr., D.D., of New York City.

The Assembly adjourned until Monday at 9 o'clock A.M., and was closed with prayer.

A Popular Meeting in behalf of Education was held on Saturday, May 19, at 8 o'clock P.M., addresses being delivered according to the programme duly prepared.

Popular Meetings were held on Sunday, May 20, 1917, as follows:

2.30 P.M. Meeting in behalf of Home Missions.

3 P.M. Mission meeting of Sabbath School Workers under the auspices of the Mission Boards.

3.30 P.M. Mission meetings of women under the auspices of the Woman's Board of Home Missions.

8 P.M. Popular Meeting in behalf of the College Board at the City Temple.

8 P.M. Popular Meeting in behalf of Sabbath Observance at the Central Christian Church.

8 P.M. Popular Meetings in celebration of the Four-Hundredth Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation, held at the Central Baptist, Oak Cliff; First Presbyterian, First Methodist and First Baptist Churches of Dallas.

MONDAY, May 21, 1917, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Minutes of the session of Saturday were read and on motion approved.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions was permitted to retire from the Assembly, as was also the Standing Committee on Polity, for the transaction of business.

It was announced that the Moderator had appointed Rev. C. C. McGinley, D.D., Chairman of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The following fraternal messages were received, and the Moderator and Stated Clerk were authorized to reply:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Dallas, Texas:

The General Assembly in session at Birmingham, Ala., send fraternal greetings. May the Holy Spirit anoint us all with fullness of power in carrying the gospel of our Lord to men for their salvation and consolation.

JOHN M. WELLS, Moderator;
THOMAS H. LAW, Stated Clerk.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.:

Greetings from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored. Read Hebrews 13 : 1.

G. W. SADLER, Moderator;
JAMES EDWARDS, Stated Clerk.

The following answers to fraternal messages were reported and approved:

To the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, Dayton, Ohio:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in session at Dallas, Texas, responds fraternally to your cordial greetings and will be glad to coöperate with you in promoting Christian unity.

J. Wilbur Chapman, Moderator;
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

To the General Conference of the United Brethren, Wichita, Kansas:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in session at Dallas, Texas, sends fraternal greetings. See Ephesians, fourth chapter, verses four to six.

J. Wilbur Chapman, Moderator;
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

To the Northern Baptist Convention, Cleveland, Ohio:

The General Assembly in session at Dallas, Texas, acknowledges with high appreciation your greetings, through your president, Dr. Barbour. See Ephesians, second chapter, verses eighteen to twenty-two.

J. Wilbur Chapman, Moderator;
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were authorized to arrange for a hearing of the fraternal delegates from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures, through its Chairman, Rev. John A. Marquis, D.D., submitted a Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

It is recommended that Overture No. 177, on the subject of overlapping of churches of the U. S. A. and U. S. Assemblies, be referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The findings of the Home Mission Council were submitted to the Assembly and referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The Committee on the State of the Nation reported through its Chairman, Rev. S. L. Haynes, and the following telegram was directed to be sent:

"To the President of the United States:

"The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in session at Dallas, Texas, May 21, 1917, took the following action: Resolved, That this body officially representing a constituency of fully six million people, most earnestly invokes your influence and authority to secure the national prohibition of the beverage liquor traffic. Enlightened public sentiment will sustain you in thus honoring the people by safeguarding the young manhood of the nation.

"J. WILBUR CHAPMAN, Moderator;
"WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk."

The Committee on the Relations of the Theological Seminaries to the General Assembly presented its Report through its Chairman, S. B. McCormick, D.D., and pending the discussion of the recommendations, permission was granted President George B. Stewart, D.D., of Auburn Theological Seminary, and President Wm. McKibbin, D.D., of Lane Seminary, to address the Assembly.

A substitute was offered in place of the recommendations of the Committee, and under the rules was treated as an amendment.

The time for the consideration of the Report was extended until 11 o'clock, and debate was limited, according to Rule 26, to ten minutes, the vote having been ordered taken at 10.50 o'clock.

The rule so far as the time limit was concerned was suspended by a two-thirds vote and the limit was made five minutes. Drs. McKibbin and Stewart were heard. A sentence dealing with the Compact of 1870 was on motion stricken from the substitute offered. The substitute as amended was carried and the Report as amended was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on the Relations of the Theological Seminaries to the General Assembly respectfully submits its Report to the General Assembly, meeting in Dallas, Texas, in May, 1917:

The appointment of this Committee was recommended by the standing Committees on Bills and Overtures, and on Theological Seminaries in the General Assembly of 1916 in Atlantic City (Minutes, pages 162, 197). As named by the Moderator, the Committee consisted of the following members: Ministers—Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., Chairman, Rev. John Timothy Stone, D.D., and Rev. John F. Patterson, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Hon. Stanton J. Peelle, Hon. Nathan G. Moore, Hon. Jesse E. B. Cunningham and Hon. James D. Andrews. Subsequently Dr. Stone resigned from the Committee, and Rev. Edgar W. Work, D.D., was appointed in his stead.

The Committee held three meetings, the first at Atlantic City on October 24, 1916, and the work of the Committee was outlined. At this meeting also, the Chairman sketched the general content of the Report to be submitted to the Assembly. Ten days thereafter, on November 4, Dr. Moffat died. Later the Moderator appointed Rev. Samuel B. McCormick, D.D., Chairman, to fill the vacancy thus created in the Committee.

Your Committee desires to make acknowledgment of the debt it owes Dr. Moffat and to place on record an expression of appreciation of the service he rendered while a member of the Committee. His long years of leadership in the Assemblies of the Church, his thorough familiarity with its organized activities, his complete mastery of all the questions of doctrine which had for twenty-five years been under discussion, his personal and intimate knowledge of the particular problem of the relations of the seminaries to the Assembly and to the Church, all these, combined with a singular clearness of mind, grasp of essential principles, accuracy of judgment and marvelous comprehension of every problem submitted to him in all its relations, exceptionally qualified him for the position to which he had been appointed. The Report which follows substantially embodies the views of Dr. Moffat, inasmuch as the Committee, at its first meeting, had the benefit of his good counsel and of his matured wisdom.

At the first meeting the Stated Clerk of the Assembly requested that the Committee appoint an Associate Secretary. With this request the Committee complied, and chose the Rev. John F. Patterson, D.D., to the position.

Your Committee was charged by the Assembly with the following commission, to wit:

"To take under consideration the questions that have been raised as to the action of the General Assembly of 1915, regarding the 'Compact of 1870' (see Minutes, p. 148), especially as to the bearing of this action upon the legal status of all our seminaries; and also

"To investigate the whole subject of the relationship of these seminaries to the Church and to the Assembly and to each other"; and

"To advise as to any proceedings or actions which may be necessary to safeguard existing relationships or to make these relationships more secure, uniform and mutually helpful"; or, as stated on p. 197,

"To consider the possibility of securing some certain, fixed and permanent relation of uniform character between the seminaries and the Assembly.

"And to report to the next General Assembly."

Your Committee begs leave to report as follows:

I. Legal Bearing of the Assembly Action of 1915.

The first duty imposed upon the Committee was, "To take under consideration the questions arising out of the action of the General Assembly of 1915, regarding the 'Compact of 1870,' especially as to the bearing of this action upon the legal status of all our seminaries."

This subdivides into several topics:

1. The Legal Status of the Seminaries.

In investigating the legal status of our seminaries, considered as a group of Presbyterian institutions, it is essential to note that they are divided into two general classes as follows:

First.—Those organized under "plans" drafted and prescribed by the General Assembly itself. As each of these seminaries "derives its origin from the General Assembly, that body is to be considered its patron and the fountain of its power" (Presbyterian Digest, 1907, p. 422). The trustees of these seminaries, however, are incorporated under the laws of the several States in which they are located.

Second.—Those independently incorporated.

Of the seven seminaries in existence at the time of the Compact of 1870, four, to wit, Princeton, Western, Kentucky, McCormick, belong to the first class, were established by the General Assembly itself and ever since have been and still are under its direct supervision and control.

Omitting Union, the remaining two, Auburn and Lane, belong to the second class and stand in organic relation to the Presbyterian Church as follows:

Auburn, through its founding by the Synod of Geneva—now practically the Synod of New York; through the direct ecclesiastical control by the eighteen Presbyteries of the Synod; and through the declaration of its Board of Directors (May 11, 1916) of loyalty to the Presbyterian Church.

Lane, through its charter provision requiring all "professors, tutors, teachers and instructors to be in good standing under the care of the General Assembly of that Church in the United States"; through its recognition of the standards and polity of the Church; and through its declarations of allegiance to the Assembly during all the years.

The seminaries coming into being since 1870, to wit, San Francisco, German at Dubuque, Bloomfield, Lincoln, Biddle, Omaha (Blackburn is omitted as not now attempting distinct theological instruction), by their fundamental law have brought themselves under Assembly control. The veto power, for instance, exercised by the Assembly over these seminaries, voluntarily conferred, has no relation whatever to the veto power under the Compact of 1870.

The Compact of 1870 referred to herein was as follows:

"(1) That the Board of Directors of each theological seminary shall be authorized to appoint all professors for the same."

"(2) That all such appointments shall be reported to the General Assembly, and no such appointment of professor shall be considered as a complete election if disapproved by a majority vote of the Assembly." (Presbyterian Digest, 1907, pp. 414, 415.)

1. Union Seminary, having questioned as to itself the legality of the "Compact of 1870," the General Assembly of 1915 adopted the report of the "Special Committee on Union Theological Seminary," which included a report of its "Subcommittee on Legal Questions" to the effect that, for the reasons therein stated, the "Compact of 1870" is legally unenforceable as to Union Seminary. (Minutes, p. 148.)

It does not follow, however, that because the General Assembly, by the adoption of said report, declared the "Compact of 1870" unenforceable as to Union Seminary, the Compact is also unenforceable as to Auburn and Lane, or that it is so considered by the General Assembly.

It is sufficient for our present purpose to say that in the opinion of your Committee "the action of the General Assembly of 1915 regarding the 'Compact of 1870'" has no material bearing upon the legal status of any theological seminary other than Union.

Your Committee is of the opinion that the legal status of the seminaries, as above set forth, does not arise from the "Compact of 1870," and, therefore, is not affected by the action of the Assembly of 1915.

2. Change in Status through Changes in Charters.

If, notwithstanding the foregoing opinion of your Committee, the legal status of the seminaries were deemed to be affected by the Assembly action of 1915, some might suppose a remedy could be found by making changes in existing charters. To seek such alterations, however, would, in the mind of the Committee, be unwise and inexpedient by reason of the following considerations:

(a) In 1894 and subsequently, when this exact problem confronted the Church, some of the seminaries under direction of the Assembly effected such changes as were then found feasible, with a view to larger control on the part of the Assembly both in relation to the teaching in, and safeguarding the trust funds of, the seminaries.

(b) Moreover, in several States certain special rights and privileges inhere in ancient charters which might in case of corporate changes be lost or merged into provisions of general laws always capable of amendment. Seminaries so situated are properly cautious about taking this risk.

(c) Reasons exist also in matters affecting or supposed to affect the care and use of trust funds.

3. Change in Status through Assembly Action.

Your Committee believes that the foregoing, in view of what follows, sufficiently sets forth the legal status of the seminaries and the effect of the action of the Assembly of 1915.

Nevertheless, your Committee believes that experience has demonstrated that the Compact of 1870 is ineffective in its practical operation, and that a closer and more satisfactory relationship between the seminaries and the Assembly is desirable and can be effected by the simple action of the Assembly itself, and thus remove all doubt which may anywhere exist upon this subject. In a subsequent part of this Report therefore, a plan is proposed which, if accepted and adopted by the General Assembly, will supply every needed guaranty of continued loyalty in teaching and in administration on the part of the seminaries and will also render it unnecessary at this time to consider further the action of the Assembly of 1915 respecting the Compact of 1870 or the question of the trust funds connected with any such seminary.

II. Present Relationship of the Seminaries to the Church.

The second duty imposed upon the Committee was, "To investigate the whole subject of the relationship of these seminaries to the Church and to the Assembly and to each other."

On this subject your Committee reports—

Of the twelve existing seminaries, ten, to wit: Princeton, Western, Kentucky, McCormick, San Francisco, German at Dubuque, Bloomfield, Lincoln, Biddle, Omaha, have been directly established or are controlled by the Assembly.

Auburn was established and is immediately controlled by eighteen Presbyteries in the Synod of New York, to which the board of directors is, by charter, directly answerable for the teaching and for the use of the trust funds.

Lane was chartered by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Ohio in 1829 with the provision in Section 3 designed to make it a Presbyterian seminary as follows: "That the officers and members of the Executive Committee shall reside in the city of Cincinnati or its vicinity, a majority of whom, together with all the professors, tutors, teachers and instructors in the said institution, shall be members of the Presbyterian Church, in good standing, under the care of the General Assembly of that Church in the United States."

It thus appears that while no two of the Presbyterian seminaries are exactly alike in origin, constitution and government, yet that they are all in some form related organically with the Presbyterian Church.

III. Proposed Method of Securing a Fixed and Uniform Relationship.

The third duty imposed upon the Committee was, "To advise as to any proceedings or actions which may be necessary to safeguard existing relationships or to make these relationships more secure, uniform and mutually helpful"; or, as stated on page 197:

"To consider the possibility of securing some certain, fixed and permanent relation of uniform character between the seminaries and the Assembly."

In the opinion of your Committee, it is essential to the welfare of the Church that some fixed and permanent relation of uniform character between the Assembly and the seminaries should be established, giving the Assembly unquestioned oversight of the teaching of the seminaries without interfering with the corporate functions of the trustees or directors thereof.

[The General Assembly substituted for the recommendations of the Committee the following:]

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly appreciates the faithful and efficient work of this Committee as evidenced in its Report of investigations made.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee's Report of the result of its investigations has convinced the Assembly that its present organic relation to the theological seminaries is as close, as complete, and as satisfactory as it can be made without danger to charter rights, to trust funds, and to the efficiency and harmony of administration.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly, therefore, discharges the Committee with thanks for faithful service.

Respectfully submitted,

Samuel B. McCormick, Chairman;
John F. Patterson, Secretary;
Edgar W. Work,
Stanton J. Peelle,
James DeWitt Andrews,
Nathan G. Moore,
J. E. B. Cunningham.

The Standing Committee on Polity, through its Chairman, Dr. H. G. Mendenhall, presented a Report which was received, and the resolutions contained on the relations of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. were approved, and ordered sent to the General Assembly at Birmingham, Ala. They are as follows:

WHEREAS, One hundred and ninety-five Presbyteries have taken action on an Overture looking to organic union between the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Presbyterian Church, U. S.; therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That this Assembly has for many years stood ready and is now ready to enter into negotiations with a view to organic union with the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

Resolved, 2. That this matter be committed to the General Assembly's Committee on Church Coöperation and Union with instruction to enter into negotiation with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., through a Committee appointed by the General Assembly of that Church, if it should deem it advisable so to do.

Resolved, 3. That these resolutions, together with the Overture, be telegraphed to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., in session at Birmingham, Ala.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief and Sustentation through its Chairman, Rev. Wm. T. Wilcox, D.D., submitted a Report, which was received, and, pending the adoption of the recommendations, the Assembly was led in prayer by Ruling Elder S. S. Marvin, of Philadelphia, and was addressed by John R. Davies, D.D., President of the Board, and Wm. Hiram Foulkes, D.D., Secretary. The Report of the Standing Committee was adopted and is as follows:

Your Committee comes before you with singing hearts because of the encouraging report of the Boards in behalf of the "old folks at home." God is ever mindful of His own and by a stimulating Providence He hath wrought great things, through this willing and efficient agency, whereof we are glad.

While we note with joy the ever-increasing gifts for the past five years, that joy grows apace over the significant fact that this year has been the most eventful in the history of the Board. Twice as much money has been added to the permanent resources of both departments as in any previous year, and the grand total has reached the amazing sum of $6,409,932.

We are profoundly grateful to Almighty God for this expression of His goodness. We are sincerely thankful to the generous donors who out of their means and out of their poverty have made this increased usefulness of the Board possible. We desire to record our deep appreciation of the untiring zeal and statesmanlike efficiency of Dr. Foulkes, whose wise leadership is seen in these gratifying results. We heartily commend the voluntary and unstinted service of the members of the Board and the consecration of the staff associates and successful field workers, whose persevering efforts have contributed largely to these inspiring achievements.

What a thrilling encouragement there is in the ability of the Board to appropriate $50,000 more this year for Relief and to authorize the payment of 80 per cent. of the maximum benefits to those sharing in the Sustentation Fund. It is a matter of great congratulation that the members of the Board work with such Christian harmony that the administration of such painstaking details is a veritable labor of love.

In answer to any unspoken query or critical attitude, questioning the centralization of the administrative powers of the Board, the reply is given that the charter provides that the majority of members be citizens of Pennsylvania; that locality has nothing to do with the work of these Boards and that the present membership represents four Synods of the Church.

We most heartily commend the timely letter sent out by the officers and members of the Boards to the officers of all churches connected with the General Assembly. It is basal; it goes bravely to the root of the whole matter by touching the question of the minister's salary. That is the crux. Wisely and courteously it calls on the Church to start the brother right, to keep him from an embarrassing distress, by fulfilling its solemn obligation "to relieve him from worldly cares and avocations." It seeks to make his path radiant with a bright, shining encouragement which shines more and more unto the perfect day. This can only be done by adjusting the salary to the increased demands of these days of the "high cost of living." The children of light should not be so far behind the children of this world, who are increasing the salaries of employés all along the line. We believe with the Board that "an encouraged ministry is the pledge of a quickened Church," and trust that many more cheering responses will be received in answer to this sane appeal.

We recommend the plan of the Boards to make increased efforts for larger gifts in these times of stress. In critical times people do serious thinking concerning their stewardship. Experience has proven that the support of benevolence is not only a solemn duty in such times of sore distress, but that it reacts most favorably on the whole national life. Contrary to fearful expectancy, more liberal gifts are received, and this advanced step of the Board will be in keeping with the statement of a generous donor: "This is a fine time for the rich people of the Presbyterian Church to give largely to this cause."

The operating expenses may seem startling to a superficial reader of the Board's Report, but careful consideration reveals the more cheering fact that the work is accomplished on the small basis of 3.7 per cent. The cost was less this year than last by more than $2,000. And it must be remembered that the expenses are promoting as well as administrative. It is a business maxim that "It takes money to get money." Results have proved the wisdom of the Board's expenditures.

We commend the efforts of the Board to enlist the support of the Sunday-schools and aid societies in the great work of Relief. This is in keeping with the patriotic spirit of the hour. If every youth is encouraged to support a soldier on the firing line, why should not every Sunday-school scholar be enlisted to support the veteran who has been disabled in the King's business. Would a young patriot cease his care and support because his soldier was disabled? Would not the loving care of the nation be extended to him in fullest measure? Shall it be different in the household of faith? Not so! And why should not the Ladies' Aid and kindred societies respond as quickly to the White Cross appeal for the widow and orphan, as loving women do for the Red Cross appeal of the hour? We believe they will.

The homes owned and maintained by the Boards continue their beneficent ministry. Two substantial additions to Thornton Home have been erected through the generosity of Mrs. Jennie Glase and Miss Mary Phelps, M.D. The Thomas and Marie Merrill Home, at Saginaw, Mich., has been deeded to the Board in fee simple by the heirs of the late Mr. Merrill and has taken its place as a beautiful house of refuge and rest for the wearied soldiers of the Master.

The Ministers' Memorial Cottage at Albuquerque, N. M., has amply justified itself in most satisfactory results and grateful acknowledgments of those receiving shelter and treatment.

The plan of Sustentation has justified the most sanguine hopes of its sponsors and supporters. It is part of the great modern pension movement adopted by all great corporations. It is businesslike, democratic, self-respecting, just and financially sound. It appeals to thoughtful men everywhere. 1,333 ministers and 124 missionaries have already adopted it in our Church. Other denominations are using it in one form or another. Even the contributory element is being carefully considered by the administrators of a great educational fund. We are up to date and progressive with such a plan. It should receive greater consideration from the pastors, wider welcome by our Churches, and some plan should be devised by Presbyteries whereby every candidate for the ministry may be intelligently confronted with this scheme of a contributory pension which may successfully solve the fearsome problem of disability.

We are glad to note the special arrangements made with the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work whereby every commissioned missionary of that Board may enjoy the privileges and benefits of the fund. We trust also that the negotiations with other Boards may be equally successful, and that all commissioned servants of the Church may soon share in that privilege.

We recommend:

(1) That the General Assembly express its joyous appreciation of the successful work of the Combined Boards, during the past year, and that it express its approval of the statesmanlike administration of the Board through its efficient General Secretary and all associated with him, through whose united efforts under the favor of God the unprecedented sum of $2,307,232 was secured from all sources during the past year; and that the Assembly also make grateful recognition of the voluntary service rendered by the consecrated members of the Board.

(2) That the General Assembly approve the Minutes and properly audited treasurer's reports of the Combined Boards.

(3) That in view of the continued claims of those who have served the Church faithfully and who have not been able to provide adequately for themselves, the work of the Relief Department of the Combined Boards be prosecuted with unceasing effort, and that the action of the Board of Relief in determining to appropriate to its annuitants $50,000 more during the coming year than during the preceding year be heartily approved.

(4) That the Boards be authorized to continue their appeal to the various ladies' aid societies for the support of the work of the Relief Department, particularly the care of the widows and the fatherless children, it being understood that such presentation will not interfere with any missionary activities already being carried on by the women of the Church.

(5) That the officers and teachers of the Sunday-schools of our Church be encouraged to give the fullest access to the appeal of this Board for a share of the benevolences of their schools, and that "Parents' Day" be set apart as a special day for the presentation of the work of this Board before the Sunday-schools of the Church.

(6) That Overture No. 297, from Boston Presbytery, relating to the Board of Relief and Sustentation, asking the Assembly to authorize the Board "to alter its rules so as to allow, at its own discretion, a minister of our Church who may not have served in the ministry the full period of thirty years or attained the age of seventy years, to be placed upon the Roll of Honor, and to receive the maximum amount of aid, if he has come, in the discharge of the duties of the pastorate, to a condition of complete physical disability," be answered as follows: That we do not deem it wise to make this change at present, but suggest that special cases be referred to the Board for special consideration.

On Overture No. 557, from Iowa Presbytery, asking the Assembly to direct that the Board of Relief shall not reduce the maximum grant of $400 to a minister honorably retired on account of any pension he may receive from the United States Government, if his Presbytery certifies his need of the grant of $400 in addition to such pension, it is recommended that this be referred to the Board for its sympathetic consideration.

(7) That the splendid progress made by the Sustentation Department in building up its Permanent and Reserve Funds be heartily approved and that the Sustentation Fund be commended as a wise and statesmanlike plan of the Church, whereby it assists the minister and the missionary to provide for the day of their own old age and disability upon a basis recognized as economically sound and morally just.

(8) That the Assembly approve the action of the directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund in authorizing the payment of 80 per cent. of the maximum benefits, during the ensuing year.

(9) That the action of the Sustentation Fund in entering into special relationship with the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, providing membership for the accredited missionaries of that Board, be heartily approved, and that the limit of ten years of service as a Sunday-school missionary, hitherto set for membership in the Fund be removed and that the Ministerial Sustentation Fund be authorized to take all necessary legal steps for placing the Sunday-school missionaries upon the same plane as all other members of the Fund.

(10) That the Assembly express its special gratification over the result of the policy of publicity which has been carried on by the Combined Boards during the last few years, and that it authorize the Boards to continue and enlarge, in such manner as may seem wise, such policy, with a view to securing as rapidly as possible large additions to its Permanent and Reserve Funds.

(11) That the Assembly approve the form of campaigns carried on by the Combined Boards and recommends that pastors and Sessions give the widest welcome to the presentation of the claims of this cause for its Permanent and Reserve Funds, and that the same shall not, in any way, be construed as interfering with the regular benevolence budget of the Church.

(12) That the General Assembly express its appreciation of the fact that during the last year many large gifts have been received by the Combined Boards, and that it is pleased to reiterate, as its own judgment, the words of a generous donor of $100,000, who recently said: "This is a fine time for the rich people of the Presbyterian Church to give largely to this cause"—while at the same time expressing its approval of the action of the Combined Boards in seeking and securing smaller gifts from many of the people of the Church.

(13) That Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., Rev. George Francis Greene, D.D., Hon. William P. Potter, LL.D., and Mr. Samuel F. Irwin, whose terms expire as members of the Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers, be and hereby are elected as members of the Board for three years, and that Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., Rev. George Francis Greene, D.D., Hon. William P. Potter, LL.D., and Mr. Samuel F. Irwin, whose terms expire as directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, be nominated to the members of the Fund as directors for the ensuing three years.

(14) That the General Assembly cease from its routine work for a moment to hold in loving and grateful remembrance all those dear servants of the Lord, our lonely brethren, whose 1622 names are on the roll of the Board of Relief and to engage in heartfelt intercession in their behalf, not forgetting the hallowed memory of the fifty-five ministers, thirty-two widows and one missionary whose names were translated from the earthly to the heavenly roll during the past year; and, in order that those still living who are mindful of us, may know that we are thinking of them, we ask that the Assembly authorize the General Secretary of the Boards officially to communicate this action to them.

The above Report unanimously approved and its recommendations adopted by the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief and Sustentation Fund.

In behalf of the Committee,

W. T. Wilcox, Chairman.

The Assembly recommended that the address of Dr. Foulkes together with certain correspondence be printed by the Board of Relief and Sustentation.

It was announced that the Rev. Dr. Robert Johnston would lead the devotional service on Tuesday.

A communication from the James Millikin University was referred to the Committee on Polity.

The last half-hour of the morning session was spent in devotional exercises conducted by the Rev. John F. Carson, D.D.

The Assembly took recess until 3 o'clock P.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 21, 1917, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures submitted a Report, distributing the Overtures in its custody, which was approved as follows:

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures recommends the following references:

1. To the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work: Overture No. 355.
2. To the Standing Committee on Church Erection: Overtures Nos. 280 to 291.
3. To the Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Union: Overtures Nos. 179 to 182, with hearty approval.
4. To the Standing Committee on Education: Overtures Nos. 299 and 300.
5. To the Executive Commission: Overtures Nos. 356 and 357.
6. To the Standing Committee on Freedmen: Overture No. 296.
7. To the Standing Committee on Home Missions: Overtures Nos. 292 to 295, and 305.
8. To the Judicial Committee: Overture No. 551.
9. To the Standing Committee on Men's Work: Overture No. 431.
10. To the Standing Committee on Polity: Overtures Nos. 298, 451 to 550, and 552 and 553.
11. To the Standing Committee on Publication: Overtures Nos. 301, 302, 303, and 428.

12. To the Special Committee on the State of the Nation: Overture No. 554.

13. To the Standing Committee on Temperance: Overtures Nos. 449 and 550.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures also presented a Report on papers referred to it, which was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures beg leave to offer the following recommendations:

Representatives from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, Rev. E. J. Simpson, Rev. James Edwards, and Elder F. L. McWilliams, appeared and were heard by the Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Education, through the Chairman, Rev. Charles G. Richards, submitted a Report, which was received and the recommendations adopted. Pending the adoption of the recommendations, the Assembly was addressed by Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., George G. Mahy, D.D., Rev. J. M. Broady and C. A. Montgomery, D.D., of St. Louis. The Report is as follows:

In presenting our Report, we cannot too heartily commend the work of the Board of Education and especially its Secretaries and Treasurer for the high courage and unselfish devotion in their work for the past year. In face of the action of the last Assembly, ordering the uniting of the Board of Education with The College Board and the natural timidity of churches and individuals about backing its enterprises under present conditions, the records of the year show not only a strong, aggressive policy in the continuance of the regular activities of the Board, but also a ready mind and undaunted heart for every new opportunity of service.

As the Board nears the one-hundredth anniversary of its service to every branch of the Church, we note the large increase in gifts and appropriations during the last decade and also that this is the tenth year of Dr. Cochran's leadership as General Secretary. The consecrated founders of this work could not have foreseen the multiplied calls for their aid in these latter days. The work in the interest of students at State universities and other non-Church institutions of higher learning, as also the annual visitation of our Christian colleges by special pastors and counselors for the guidance of our youth in their life-choices, is a fruitful field for the creation of trained leadership for the Church.

The establishing of training schools for lay workers and the plan of coöperation with the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations have added new avenues for successfully reaching those who have not ordinarily been considered as subjects of the interests of this Board.

Through conferences with the boys of high-school age the Board has been able to carry its ministry to the youth of our Church in the most impressionable period of their lives, and prepare a source of supply for future needs according to a far-sighted and statesmanlike plan.

For your consideration we beg to submit the following recommendations:

(1) That the Minutes of the Board, as presented by the Recording Secretary, be approved. That the Report of the Treasurer for the year ending March 31, 1917, be approved and that the Board be instructed to look to the Budget Committee of the Executive Commission for help in any financial emergency that may occur, during the present year, as the result of the consolidation.

(2) That the Ninety-eighth Annual Report be accepted and that the Board be heartily commended for its zeal and fidelity in prosecuting its task under the peculiarly difficult conditions of the past year, and in presenting such an able report of its work.

(3) That churches and individuals be earnestly requested to consider the financial needs of our Presbyterian training schools and that their offerings go through the Board of Education. That all schools receiving scholarships from the Board of Education be requested to include in their curricula a course on the Organized Work of the Presbyterian Church and its Benevolent System.

(4) That in pursuance of requests that have come to the Board to this effect, the Board be authorized to act as a communicating medium between churches and pastors seeking paid lay helpers and those who may be available for such service.

(5) That the Board for this year be directed to aid ministerial candidates, students for medical missions and other lay workers, according to its last year's scale of appropriations, and that in addition thereto, it continue to exercise its discretion in the education of Indians and other candidates for the ministry to our exceptional populations.

(6) That the amended application for "New" men suggested by the Board, relating to more explicit statements of the students' financial resources, be approved.

(7) That the Board be directed to continue its study of religious education as related to public instruction and to assist in this important task wherever possible.

(8) That the Board be directed to continue its coöperation with other Christian bodies in the support of the work of the Council of Church Boards of Education and that its Secretaries be authorized to give such time to the work of the Council as the Board may approve.

(9) That the Board's contracts with Synods engaged in religious work for Presbyterian and other students at State universities, colleges and institutions of higher learning be approved, and the Board directed to prosecute vigorously this branch of its work; and that Synods which have arrived at self-support in Home Missions be urged to attain the same standard in this great branch of the Church's work. That an Emergency Campaign for the Board be authorized, if and when the Board deems it necessary, and that the Executive Commission coöperate with the Board in such campaign.

(10) That the Joint Committee of the Board of Education and of the Assembly's Committee on Evangelism be directed to continue its work in the colleges, and to take such measures as, in its judgment, will increase the effectiveness of this strategic service. That, in case large numbers of our students shall be found in military training camps, the Joint Committee on College Visitation be directed to provide religious ministrations to students and others in camp, as opportunity may offer.

(11) That the work of the Joint Committee on Evangelism, representing the Council of Church Boards of Education and the national organizations of the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations, which contemplates a comprehensive programme of evangelism for the colleges and universities of this country, be heartily endorsed.

(12) That in view of the decimation of ministerial and mission forces in other nations of Christendom and the calling to the colors of vast numbers of our young men, and in view of the demand of the coming age for a superlative leadership, the Board be directed to continue its special challenge to selected groups of boys of high-school age, and to press with increased earnestness and, if need be, by additional measures, its distinctive work of recruiting for the ministry in home and church and college.

(13) That Sunday, February 17, 1918, be recommended to the churches and Sunday-schools as "Vocation Day," when the youth of the Church shall be shown the importance of dedicating to God their life service and be informed of the need of trained leadership in the Church's work, and that the following Thursday be recommended as the "Day of Prayer" for colleges, to be observed in all our institutions for the deepening of religious life among students, and that all our churches be urged to plan their mid-week service with this in view.

(14) That the following persons whose terms of office expire with this Assembly be reëlected to the class of 1917 to 1920: James M. Hubbert, D.D., William P. Finney, D.D., F. W. Loetscher, Ph.D., D.D., H. C. Swearingen, D.D., S. Spencer Chapman, Esq., George W. Warren, D.D.S., Mr. Craig N. Ligget, Mr. William H. Hensel, Mr. Edwin M. Wilson; and that Mr. H. H. Seldomridge and Mr. H. B. F. Macfarland be elected by the Assembly to fill the vacancies occasioned by the deaths of Dr. George W. Bailey and Mr. Walter E. Rex.

(15) That in view of the approaching centenary of the organization of the Board of Education, which occurred in 1819, and in order that so important an anniversary may be fittingly observed, it is suggested that the city of Philadelphia, the cradle of American liberty and the birthplace of the mother Presbytery (as also of this Board) be earnestly considered as the place of meeting for the Assembly of 1919.

All of which is respectfully submitted by your Committee.

C. G. RICHARDS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Men's Work, through its Chairman Rev. W. L. Darby, D.D., made a Report, which was received; and the resolutions submitted, including the resolutions of the Permanent Committee, were adopted.

Pending the adoption, the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. Dr. William F. Weir and Rev. Dr. George N. Luccock. The Report of the Standing Committee is as follows:

We observe with deep gratitude the encouraging note that is sounded in the Report of the Permanent Committee. After several years of uncertainty as to the methods to be adopted for the prosecution of its task, a capable General Secretary was employed and has given himself to the business of furthering religious activities among Presbyterian men. Dr. Weir has proven himself an efficient administrator and wise counselor, and we commend him to the confidence of our congregations everywhere.

The report clarifies the atmosphere by setting before the denomination in a clear and positive way the general aims of the Committee and the present duty of the men of our churches. In it the old and the new elements are splendidly combined and the emphasis placed where it belongs—on genuine loyalty to Jesus Christ and its manifestation, both in Bible study and in service primarily in the local church. This is the challenge made strongly and clearly to Presbyterian men, and we hope it will not go unheeded.

The Committee indorses heartily the eight resolutions submitted to the Assembly and recommends their adoption.

Resolved, 1. That all the members of the Class of 1917 be reappointed by the Assembly to the Class of 1920, as follows: Mr. Charles S. Holt, Chicago; George N. Luccock, D.D., Wooster, Ohio; John Timothy Stone, D.D., Chicago; Mr. S. Earle Hoover, Philadelphia; Mr. Henry B. F. Macfarland, Washington, D. C.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly commends those Sessions that have made appropriations to its Committee on Men's Work in accordance with its recommendations of last year and urges on other Sessions the necessity for the support of an agency which makes so valuable a contribution to the building of the local churches in order that they more efficiently do their local work and the whole work of the Church.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly records its profound appreciation of those men of vision and liberality who by their contributions have made it possible for the Committee to do the work of the past year, and also that the Assembly urges on the attention of other able men the opportunity they have to help in a work of great value to the Church while the churches are coming to preparedness to care properly for their own work.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly urges Synods and Presbyteries to constitute and support committees on Men's Work whose members may be able to contribute out of their own experience in Men's Work to coöperate with the Assembly's Committee in its bounds.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly rejoices in the readiness of committee men and other officers of Synods and Presbyteries to give Men's Work large place in the meetings of these Church courts; also of the readiness of pastors, committees and other leaders in promoting conferences on Men's Work and in developing men's organizations in their own churches.

Resolved, 6. That the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be ex-officio members of the Committee and the Committee be authorized, if it so desires, to appoint advisory members to coöperate with it.

Resolved, 7. The Assembly expresses its appreciation of the valuable services of the treasurer of the Committee, Mr. Albert Shupe, president of the Commercial Bank, Wooster, Ohio, who has served as treasurer without cost to the Committee.

Resolved, 8. That the Assembly urges the whole Church to coöperate with its Committee on Men's Work, looking upon it not as an alien and independent agency, but as fundamental to Church growth, as the friend and helper of pastors and other leaders through its leadership in the organized activities of the men of our beloved Church.

In addition, we make the following recommendations of our own:

1. In view of the fact that this Agency is now on the Assembly's budget, we ask that the amount to be raised this year shall be $15,000, a sum none too large when one considers the far-reaching scope and importance of the work to be done. In order that this may be secured, we suggest that men's organizations, wherever they can, shall contribute to the Permanent Committee through its treasurer. Only by a wider scheme of financial support can we hope to furnish the money essential to the success of the plans proposed.

2. The special attention of the churches is called to that part of the Report dealing with "The Plan of Organization," which emphasizes the very desirable and necessary co-ordination of Bible study and practical church work in all forms of men's organizations in the local church.

That we endorse the efforts of the Permanent Committee in their endeavor to create an adequate literature upon this subject. We urge further that our churches shall more generally avail themselves of this literature, as it may be issued, and proceed to work out the suggestion contained therein. In this connection we call special attention to the admirable Report of the Permanent Committee, which is to be printed in pamphlet form for distribution. Also to the folder entitled "Men at Work," and the manual which is to be issued in the fall.

If the work among and in behalf of Presbyterian men is to make itself greatly felt in these critical and trying times, we must set ourselves more earnestly to prayer and activity throughout the entire denomination. The need is so vital and the cause so worthy that we solicit the fullest coöperation of ministers and lay leaders to make the work of our men more effective in advancing the kingdom of God. Let us press the motives of service through evangelism and missionary endeavor upon the hearts and consciences of our men until they shall seize the opportunities and meet the challenge of our times. In behalf of the Committee,

W. L. Darby, Chairman.

The time for the order of the day having arrived, the Executive Commission, through its Chairman, Rev. Dr. John A. Marquis, submitted the Charter of the General Board of Education, enacted by the Legislature of the State of New York, accompanied by certain recommendations, which were adopted, as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the Executive Commission recommends to the Assembly the acceptance of the Charter in the following terms, viz.: "The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. hereby accepts the Charter of the General Board of Education enacted by the legislature of the State of New York, May, 1917, and signed by the Governor, May 15, 1917."

Resolved, 2. That under the provisions of Section 5 of the Charter, at the hour of 2.45 o'clock P.M., Wednesday, May 23, the General Assembly proceed to the election of an entire Board of Directors for said corporation, properly classified, and that the Executive Commission be authorized to nominate said Directors.

Resolved, 3. That such newly elected General Board be now instructed to proceed at as early a date as possible to organize, electing executive officers; thereupon that the two existing Boards named in the Charter, viz., The College Board and Board of Education, turn over to the new corporation their work and assets as rapidly as possible, consistent with the best interests of their work; and that the Executive Commission be empowered to supervise such transfer, and fix the time and place for its consummation.

Resolved, 4. That the General Assembly do now authorize the Executive Commission to take such steps as it may deem necessary or advisable, in order to cause the mandate of the General Assembly of 1916 to be adequately carried out, and to seek and procure, if possible, approval and confirmation thereof by courts of proper jurisdiction.

Resolved, 5. That the expenses of the new Board in the completion of such transfer, and all other expenses in connection with the incorporation and conduct of the same be borne in equal parts by the Board of Education and The College Board.

The Charter of New General Board of Education is as follows:

CHAPTER 495—LAWS OF 1917.

AN ACT

TO INCORPORATE THE GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. WHEREAS, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, by appropriate action duly taken at its annual session in eighteen hundred and seventy, created and constituted as one of its administrative agencies an ecclesiastical body by the name and title of "The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," and authorized and directed its incorporation as such, which was subsequently effected accordingly in the State of Pennsylvania.

AND WHEREAS, said general assembly by appropriate action duly taken at its annual session in eighteen hundred and eighty-three, created and constituted as another of its administrative agencies an ecclesiastical body by the name and title of "The Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies," and authorized and directed its incorporation as such; which was subsequently effected accordingly in the state of Illinois; and pursuant to later appropriate action of said general assembly duly taken at its annual session in nineteen hundred and four, the title of said board was duly changed to the "College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

AND WHEREAS, said general assembly at its annual session in nineteen hundred and fifteen, after precedent investigation, consideration and report by its committee, in order to promote economies in administration, to prevent overlapping and conflict of jurisdiction in certain lines of work measurably open to each of said boards, and to secure greater efficiency of administration, deemed it befitting, expedient and advisable that the said boards should be so consolidated or merged as to concentrate the duties, functions, and powers of each in a single administrative agency; and thereupon, by appropriate action, approved thereof and directed accordingly.

And Whereas, said general assembly at its annual session in nineteen hundred and sixteen, pursuant to, and in conformity with the said initial action of the Assembly in nineteen hundred and fifteen, by appropriate action, duly created and constituted a new ecclesiastical body by the title of "General Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," as and for its single administrative agency as the substitute for, and the successor of each of said two existing boards, and to be fully invested with, and to discharge and perform all and every the powers, duties and functions of each of the said two existing boards; and also such additional functions, powers and duties as the general assembly shall from time to time prescribe and authorize, the said last mentioned action being in the form following, namely:

"Be it enacted and ordained by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and it is hereby enacted and ordained accordingly. That the functions, powers and duties of the board of education and the college board, respectively, shall be concentrated and united in a single administrative agency of the church in the manner and by the medium of a new board to be known as the "General Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," as proposed and outlined in the report of the executive commission this day adopted by the general assembly; and that said new board, with the title aforesaid, shall be invested with, and expressly under and subject to the jurisdiction, supervision, direction and control of the general assembly, shall exercise and discharge all the functions, powers and duties of each of the said two boards, and also such additional functions, powers and duties as are contemplated and prescribed in and by said report. That said new board hereby created, constituted and established, shall be and is hereby declared to be the substitute for and successor of each of said two boards intended to be hereby consolidated and united; provided, however, that until the scheme and plan of union shall have been fully and completely consummated as outlined and prescribed in the aforesaid report of the executive commission, each of said two boards shall continue in the exercise and discharge of its functions, powers and duties."

And Whereas, at its said last mentioned annual session said general assembly duly provided for convening, and for the organization of its then created and constituted new board and single administrative agency; and in order to suitably equip and qualify it for properly and fully exercising its powers, functions and duties, and effectively accomplishing the purposes and results contemplated and intended by its creation, authorized and directed its incorporation:

And Whereas, the said new board having been duly convened and organized now desires, and hereby seeks to be incorporated for the purposes, and with the powers, duties and functions contemplated and prescribed by the general assembly's action as hereinafter set forth;

may hereafter be from time to time authorized or approved by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; second, the establishment, encouragement and assistance of educational institutions related to the Presbyterian church, so as to afford its young people a christian education; third, appropriate provision for religious services, and for the promotion of religious life of students, and such additional education, or other cognate work as said general assembly may, from time to time delegate or assign to it, and fourth, to take over, acquire and become possessed of, and invested with all the property, and assets of every character and description now owned, possessed, held, and administered by "The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," and "College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," respectively, expressly subject to each, all and every the terms, conditions and stipulations of any and all trusts, restrictions, reservations or contracts relating to, or in anywise affecting such property and assets, which shall be strictly and completely observed, fulfilled, discharged and complied with by the said corporation hereby created, when and after it shall have duly acquired and become possessed of the same. Said corporation shall not, however, in the state of New York, establish or conduct, or give encouragement or assistance to, any secular educational institution or work, without the consent and continued approval of the regents of the university of the state.

§ 3. In addition to the properties and assets of the two existing corporations mentioned in the preceding section of this act, which, by the preceding section hereof the said corporation hereby created, and by the hereinbefore recited action of said general assembly, designated and constituted as the successor of each thereof, is thereby authorized and empowered to acquire, become possessed of and administer, the said corporation hereby created shall be able and capable in law to take, receive, acquire, hold, properly administer or dispose of all lands, tenements, rents, annuities, franchises, hereditaments, moneys, property and securities which may be at any time, and from time to time given, devised, bequeathed, conveyed, sold, transferred or assigned to it, in connection with, or for, or in furtherance of the purposes and objects to be served and accomplished by its creation as contemplated, outlined and prescribed by the action of said general assembly hereinbefore recited; and in the management, disposition and administration of all the property and assets which the said corporation hereby created may acquire and become possessed of it shall be subject to the supervision, jurisdiction and direction of the general assembly in so far as the same may be properly asserted and exercised by the latter body consistently, and in consonance with the terms, conditions, stipulations and requirements of any and all trusts, restrictions, or contracts relating to, or affecting any of the properties real or personal of which it may become possessed. The maximum aggregate value of the property which said corporation may acquire, become possessed of, and own, shall not exceed fifteen million dollars.

§ 4. The said corporation hereby created and its successors, by the names, style and title aforesaid, shall be able and capable in law, to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court of law or equity, as fully in all respects as any natural person would be; and the said corporation hereby created shall have full power and authority to adopt, have and use a common seal with such device and inscription as its directors shall designate and authorize, and with further power to alter and renew the same at pleasure. The said corporation shall be and it is hereby authorized and empowered to make, ordain and establish such by-laws and ordinances as shall be deemed necessary for its government; provided, however, that the said by-laws and ordinances shall not be repugnant to the constitution of the United States, or the constitution of the state of New York or in any respect inconsistent with the provisions of this act, or the supervisory jurisdiction, direction and powers of the said general assembly as hereinbefore provided and specified.

§ 5. The business and affairs of the said corporation hereby created shall, subject to the supervision, jurisdiction, direction and powers of said general assembly, be managed and conducted by a board of directors consisting of thirty-six members, whereof eighteen shall be ministers and eighteen ruling elders of the Presbyterian church or such different number, and so divided between ministers and elders, as the general assembly may from time to time authorize and prescribe, to be chosen and elected by the said general assembly, and to be distributed territorially throughout the United States, and located accordingly as the said general assembly shall from time to time, by appropriate action authorize, prescribe and direct. The members of this board shall be divided into three classes, each class to consist of twelve members with an equal number of ministers and ruling elders or such different number and such different division between ministers and elders as the general assembly shall from time to time authorize and prescribe, and at the first meeting of said general assembly after the passage of this act, one class shall be elected for one year, another class for two years and the third class for three years, and at each succeeding annual session of said general assembly thereafter, directors shall be elected for three years for the class whose term will then expire. Any vacancy in any class occurring between annual sessions of the general assembly, shall be filled by the board, and reported to the general assembly at its session next thereafter. The directors of the ecclesiastical board, chosen and elected by the general assembly at its said session in nineteen hundred and sixteen (being the corporators hereinbefore named), shall be, and they are hereby constituted the first board of directors of the corporation created by this act, and shall continue in and exercise the office with its powers and duties until the next annual session of the general assembly, and until their successors shall have been duly elected by that body. The board shall annually designate and elect an executive committee equal in number to one-third of all the directors, which executive committee shall consist of an equal number of ministers and ruling elders, or such different division between ministers and elders as the general assembly shall from time to time authorize and prescribe, and shall be divided into three classes to be respectively elected in succeeding years by the board as is herein prescribed with respect to the election by the general assembly of the directors. Said executive committee shall possess and exercise all such powers and functions of the board as shall be from time to time designated and delegated to it by the latter. The executive officers of the corporation shall be a president, vice-president and secretary, who shall be annually elected by the board. And the administrative officers shall consist of a general secretary, a treasurer, a recording secretary and such associates and assistants as may from time to time be properly required for the prosecution, maintenance and administration of the work of the corporation, subject to the approval of the general assembly.

§ 6. The location of the general and principal offices of the corporation shall be within the state of New York, at such place as shall be from time to time determined and designated by the general assembly. There shall be as well such subordinate and auxiliary offices as may be found necessary for the proper and successful prosecution of the corporation's work, which shall be located as determined and designated by the general assembly, and the location of any such subordinate and auxiliary offices may be changed by the general assembly when and as in its judgment and discretion the interest of the corporation and the purposes it is intended to serve will be thereby promoted.

§ 7. No misnomer of the corporation hereby created and its successors, shall defeat or annul any gift, grant, devise or bequest to or from the said corporation, provided, the intent of the party or parties shall sufficiently appear upon the face of the gift, will, grant, or other writing, whereby any estate or interest, real or personal, was intended to pass to or from the said corporation.

And any gift, grant, bequest or devise that may have been made to either of said "The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America" or "The College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," that shall not have been fully consummated and effectuated when the corporation created by this act is duly organized, or any gift, grant, bequest or devise that may be made to or in the name of either of said two boards, after the corporation created by this act shall have been duly organized, shall fully inure to the benefit of and become and be vested in the corporation created by this act, which said last mentioned corporation is expressly intended and hereby declared to be the corporate successor of each of said two boards.

§ 8. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATE OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE } ss:

I have compared the preceding with the original law on file in this office, and do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole of said original law.

Given under my hand and seal of office of the Secretary of State, at the city of Albany, this 2d day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

C. W. TAFT, Second Deputy Secretary of State.

The Chairman of the Committee on Leave of Absence made a Report recommending that Elder G. E. Logan, of Carthage Presbytery, be granted leave of absence at the close of this session, on account of serious illness in his family. The request was granted.

The Assembly adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, May 22, and was closed with prayer.

A Popular Meeting in behalf of the cause of Freedmen was held on Monday, May 21, at 8 o'clock P.M., addresses being delivered according to the programme duly prepared.

TUESDAY, May 22, 1917, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the presence of the Rev. Jeremiah Moore, a Commissioner from the Pecos Valley Presbytery, and he was enrolled.

The Report of the Judicial Committee on nominations for the Judicial Commission was presented as follows:

The Judicial Committee presents to the General Assembly the following recommendations for membership on the Permanent Judicial Commission: For the class of 1917-1920, Ministers—William G. Reagle, D.D., of the Synod of Ohio; Willard K. Spencer, D.D., of the Synod of Michigan; Ruling Elders—Hon. J. E. Williamson, of the Synod of Indiana; Hon. S. L. Nuchols, of the Synod of North Dakota, and Mr. John E. Green, of the Synod of Minnesota; and for one year to complete the unexpired term, to which he was appointed by the Moderator, Ruling Elder Paul H. Gaither, of the Synod of Pennsylvania.

Other nominations were called for by the Stated Clerk, but none were made, and nominations thereupon were closed. The election was announced as a special order for Thursday.

The Judicial Committee presented an additional Report, which was adopted, as follows:

The Judicial Committee of the General Assembly hereby certifies that it has duly examined all the papers, documents, records and papers filed with it by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly in the following cases:

1. The Presbytery of Lima against the Presbytery of Marion, in the case of Albert S. Bowersox.
2. The appeal of Rev. Egidius Kellmayer from a decision of the Synod of Pennsylvania.
3. The complaint of the Presbytery of Iowa against the Presbytery of Iowa City.

The Committee finds that all steps have not been taken in these cases which are required by the law of the Church and they are therefore not in order to properly submit to the Permanent Judicial Commission. It is therefore recommended that these appeals and complaints be duly dismissed and the decisions of the lower Court be affirmed.

The names of the Committee to nominate members of the Executive Commission were announced as follows:

J. WILBUR CHAPMAN, Moderator, Chairman.

To the Standing Committee on Polity: Overtures Nos. 1 to 176, 178, 560 to 578, 606 to 613, 615 and 616.

To the Special Committee on the State of the Nation: Overture No. 614.

To the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries: Overture No. 559.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN A. MARQUIS, Chairman.

The Reports of the Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System, of the World Alliance of Reformed Churches Holding the Presbyterian System, and of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America were referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to use a signature stamp in signing Assembly checks.

It was directed that the following message be sent to the Mayor of Atlanta, Ga.:

To the Mayor, Atlanta, Ga.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America, at Dallas, Texas, sends cordial sympathy to your people in the disaster which has befallen them through fire.

J. Wilbur Chapman, Moderator;
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

On motion, the Moderator and the Stated Clerk were given authority to send in writing greetings to the Moderators of the Presbyterian Churches throughout the World, requesting them to join in a world-wide movement for Christian progress.

The Special Committee on Work in Europe, through its Chairman, Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee hereby presents its Fourteenth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

The war in Europe has greatly circumscribed and embarrassed the work of this Committee.

Frankfurt.—The Church in Frankfurt a/M. has not been formally dissolved, but the little flock is so torn and scattered, that it has been impossible to continue the services. There is no minister on the field, and no English and very few Americans are left in the city. However, the Committee regards the present situation as only a temporary suspension, and it is our purpose, God willing, to reoccupy Frankfurt as soon as peace is restored in Europe.

The extension of our work in other German cities, as contemplated, and in some places initiated, before the war, must now be abandoned until such time as the Providence of God shall open the way.

It is the persuasion of your Committee that the field of operation for the American Church in Europe will widen in scope, and increase in urgency, so soon as the nations are once more at peace and something like normal conditions are restored. It is our prayer that we may be prepared to enter the door as soon as it shall be opened. The great industries of our country are watchfully waiting for the first opportunity to seize the prize offered to commerce, when Europe begins the gigantic task of rebuilding her wastes. May our Church not be less wise than the children of this world. It is our duty to see to it that the Cross shall follow the procession of traders that will push forward like a conquering army, to command the business of Europe, when the war is over. With the temptations peculiar to foreign cities and the freedom from restraint incident to absence from home, the American colonies all over Europe will challenge the sympathy, prayers and ministry of the American Church.

Paris, France.—"The Students' Atelier Reunions" is an institution entirely unique in its sphere of service. Twenty-one years ago this work for American students was begun in the Latin Quarter. It was an effort to bring under Christian influence the three thousand of our countrymen resident in Paris, hitherto quite beyond the reach of the Gospel. From a small beginning, the work assumed large proportions, and its sphere of influence has now become so wide that the entire student body is leavened by it.

At the time of the sudden entrance of France upon the great war, begun in 1914, a high-water mark of success was reached in this students' work. The meetings were crowded as never before, and money from free-will offerings fully met the growing needs. Spiritual results were more marked than ever before.

Under the new order of things, the American colony in Paris greatly diminished, and comparatively few students remained. But enough of our countrymen were left to justify the Committee in maintaining the work without interruption. Dr. and Mrs. Shurtleff, who had been on the field for eight years, decided to remain in Paris, rather than desert the considerable number of Americans, who, for one reason or another, were obliged to stay. It seemed, more than ever, necessary to provide a rallying place for those Americans who felt their isolation as foreigners. Religious services were continued, and, to the surprise of the minister and his wife, the meetings suffered hardly any diminution in the numbers attending. Weekly social gatherings resulted in bringing the students together, fostering mutual friendship, and promoting an American solidarity especially desirable in a time of war. Up to the present, it has not been deemed necessary to change either methods or emphasis in the work. The Committee feels confident that all details, for a time of such stress and strain, can be safely left to Dr. and Mrs. Shurtleff, whose long experience and great good sense have stood them in good stead, in bravely overcoming the perplexities and difficulties which a new order of things has involved.

Last year, the Committee, at the suggestion of our minister in Paris and many friends of the students' work, decided to add a War Relief Department to the former lines of operation. A sub-committee was formed, and a treasurer appointed, that all funds for relief might remain distinct from those contributed for the strictly religious work of the Shurtleffs. Ouvroirs and Vestiaires have been opened, and thousands of garments have been made and distributed to the sufferers. Employment is thus afforded to widows of soldiers and others left without means of support, by reason of the absence of husbands and fathers in the service of their country. Especial schools of instruction have been sustained for the blind, in which basket-making, broom-making and other industries are taught to those who would otherwise be dependent and helpless. Hundreds of cases of clothing and raw material have been sent from America directly to the Shurtleffs without expense for shipment. No one connected with the work, either on this side or the other, is under salary, so that all contributions of whatever kind have reached their destination without a penny of reduction. The personnel of the sub-committee, as well as the character of the minister in charge, furnishes the best guarantee that all help given to this needy cause will be administered in the most economical and efficient manner.

Finances.—Your Committee has forwarded, since our last Report, for the religious work in Paris, the sum of one thousand and seventy-five dollars ($1,075). To this is to be added a similar sum raised in Paris, none of which has passed through the hands of our treasurer. Nor does this statement include the large amount of money raised by the sub-committee on relief for the extensive work the Shurtleffs are carrying on in behalf of war sufferers.

The accounts of the treasurer have been audited by a sub-committee of this Committee and found correct.

Your Committee would submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we record the great loss which has befallen us in the removal, by death, of one of our most honored and beloved members, viz., Dr. George W. Bailey, and that our sorrow and sympathy are with the bereaved family in their affliction.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee be and is hereby continued, constituted as follows: Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, D.D., Chairman; and Rev. Drs. L. Y. Graham, J. Gray Bolton, W. H. Roberts, W. L. McEwan, W. H. Oxtoby, Joseph W. Cochran, Charles Wood, C. T. Edwards and Albert E. Keigwin; with Messrs. Charles S. Holt, Alba B. Johnson and Cheesman A. Herrick.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly hereby records its sense of the importance of the work for the effecting of which this Committee is constituted; and that it is our conviction that the Presbyterian Church should acknowledge, and so far as possible discharge, its responsibility to the various American colonies in Europe. The Committee is therefore charged by this Assembly with the duty of promptly and vigorously entering and establishing work in such centres in Europe as Providence may indicate, when the end of the war shall render such aggressive action possible.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly reaffirms the action of former years in recommending the work of this Committee to the generous support and continued interest of the Church.

Respectfully submitted, in behalf of the Committee,

SYLVESTER WOODBRIDGE BEACH, Chairman.

The Report of the Committee on Christian Education in coöperation with the Council of the Reformed Churches was presented and approved. The request of the Committee for its continuance was granted. The Report is as follows:

Your Committee, appointed to coöperate with the Committee of the Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System, would respectfully report that no meeting of the Council has been held since the last meeting of the General Assembly. As your Committee carries forward its investigations and formulates its plans in coöperation with the Committee of the Council, reporting its findings to the Council, it is impossible to do more this year than to report progress. It is expected that a meeting of the Council will be held during the ensuing year, when the entire question of Christian education, including moral and religious training in our public schools, will be presented for action.

It may be stated, however, that a deep interest is being awakened in the whole realm of educational activity. Christian education is to the fore in all denominational gatherings. Its importance and possibilities, its influence and permanent results, are emphasized and appreciated as never before. As an indication of the growing interest in the cause of Christian education the following extracts are quoted from the report of the Committee on Christian Education of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches (Western Section) at a recent meeting held at Columbia, S. C., March 7, 1917:

"The Church of God cannot regard with indifference the mighty and manifold agencies, called educational, which are constantly at work, molding not only the academic theories, but also the moral canons and spiritual ideals of all the people.

"The Sunday-school, child instruction in the home, the moral tone of State-supported public instruction from kindergarten to university, education as more specifically allied to missionary boards—all these must be taken care of by the Church, for they certainly have a large place in an adequate purview of Christian education.

"The Church is in no danger of overestimating the power of the home as an educational agency. The parent jure divino is the first teacher by divine foreordination, and he is first on the ground and far more influential than the priest or preacher that comes later by any divine ordination. All uplift and assistance and incentive which the Church can bring to bear in the home by personal visitation or by printed page looking to the magnifying of the educational fruitfulness of the family in the home is of the highest value even from the standpoint of educational or didactive service.

"State education must be free from sectarian control or denominational bias. The Church, however, should see to it that the great comprehensive and fundamental truths of the Christian religion shall not be dismissed as among the discarded sectarian tenets. The atheist will deny a place to God in the schools because violence is done to his religious conscience. Religion itself is tabooed by the man who will have us believe that his irreligion is a matter of religious scruple. We are told that the State educates its youth mainly to make good citizens. The economic valuation of religion in producing good citizenship is a leverage upon which not only clean patriotism, but also true godliness should take a vigorous hold. And for a nation, whose Supreme Court has declared it to be a Christian nation, and that the Bible is a part of the common law of the land, there is certainly a wide opportunity and a great work for the Church of God.

"The Church itself is a constant educator of the people in the things of God. The pulpit does much to fix the thoughts not only of those who hear its message, but of those who come under the indirect influence which it exerts."

Your Committee recommends that the Assembly continue its Committee to carry forward its investigations in co-operation with the Committee of the Council, with power to correspond with all interested parties.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,

WM. P. FULTON, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk and Moderator were authorized to send a written message to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored.

The exercises in connection with the flag raising on the City Temple at 8 o'clock this morning were made on motion a part of the record of this Assembly. They are as follows:

The exercises began with the singing of the first verse of the hymn "America," prayer was offered by the Moderator, J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D.; a brief address was made by the Stated Clerk, W. H. Roberts, D.D., and the flag was brought in by the Boy Scouts of the City Temple. The flag was raised over the church by the Moderator of the Assembly of 1916, John A. Marquis, D.D.; the first and second verses of the hymn "The Star-Spangled Banner" were sung, and a brief address was made by Mr. James Suydam, to which response was made by the pastor of the church, J. Frank Smith, D.D. The last verse of the hymn "America" was then sung, and the benediction was pronounced by the Moderator.

The Moderator retiring for a brief period from the Assembly, the Rev. John B. Rendall, D.D., presided.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Freedmen was presented by the Chairman, Rev. E. C. Pires. The Report was received, and pending its adoption the Assembly was addressed by Secretaries, J. M. Gaston, D.D., and E. P. Cowan, D.D. The Report with its resolutions was adopted as follows:

Your Committee on Freedmen, having made careful examination of the records and the Fifty-second Annual Report of the Board for Freedmen, recommends:

1. The approval of the records, the commendation of the Board for Freedmen and its executive officers for their fidelity to their trust, their far-reaching constructive policy and their wise and sagacious leadership, and congratulations upon completing the seventeenth consecutive year without a deficit, and upon the unusually large increase in the receipts of the last year, amounting to $154,783.41, which indicate a growing interest in this special field of missionary effort committed to their care.

2. That on the Sabbath nearest Lincoln's birthday or at time more convenient, this cause be presented to our Sabbath schools and an opportunity given to make an offering to this Board and that the General Assembly commend the Board for Freedmen to the churches for larger support, that it may worthily meet the needs of the present time and enlarge its sphere of activity.

3. That we commend the women's department for their faithful devotion to the cause and thus express our appreciation for the magnificent sum of $100,000 and more which they have turned into the Board this year.

4. That the following persons whose terms of office expire with this Assembly be reëlected members of the Board for the Class 1917–20: Ministers—S. J. Fisher, D.D., Hugh T. Kerr, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Robert S. Davis, Willis A. Boothe, Esq., and Wilson A. Shaw.

5. The Standing Committee having had referred to it by the General Assembly the Report of the Executive Commission on the merger of the Board for Freedmen into the Board of Home Missions, affirms and recommends the adoption of Resolutions 1, 2 and 3 on page 47 of the Minutes.

6. On Overture No. 296, from Southern Virginia Presbytery, we recommend that the Assembly sustain the action of the Board for Freedmen, viz., that on account of comity with the United Presbyterian Church, it does not see its way clear at the present time to assist financially the new church at Norfolk, Va.

7. In response to the request from the floor of the Assembly, that a stronger resolution be prepared concerning appropriations and in view of the constantly growing work and increasing calls made upon this Board, we recommend that in order that this may be possible every church, including the 3,347 churches not now contributing anything, make an effort to help this cause, and that churches, Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies endeavor to increase their offerings to this Board.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. Pires, Chairman.

A memorial from the Board of Home Missions was on motion referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The answers of the Presbyteries on the Overture sent down by the last Assembly on Chapter 18 of the Form of Government, were reported by the Stated Clerk as follows:

The Stated Clerk, in accordance with the rule of the Assembly, hereby reports the answers of the Presbyteries to the General Assembly on the Overture on Chapter 18 of the Form of Government, entitled "Of Missions."

The Presbyteries answering in the affirmative are 92 in number.

The Presbyteries answering in the negative 145.

The Presbyteries not reporting 54.

It is recommended under the rule that the answers to the Overture be referred to a Special Committee of three ministers and two elders, to prepare a formal report to the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Christian Life and Work reported, through its Chairman, W. K. Spencer, D.D. The Report was received, and pending its adoption the Assembly was addressed by George N. Luccock, D.D., and Walter H. Houston, D.D., of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply. The Report was then adopted and is as follows:

Your Committee on Christian Life and Work submits the following Report:

I. We have carefully considered the report of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply, and heartily approve its work. We recommend that its plan of work be adopted by all the Presbyteries of the Church. We also recommend the adoption of the resolutions submitted to the Assembly by the Committee (see page 11 of the Report, as printed in the Reports of Missionary and Benevolent Boards and Committees) with the change of a single word in the fourth resolution, line number 2, so that the resolution shall read "greater cure" instead of "great cure." We also ask that the General Assembly hear Dr. Luccock, the Chairman of the Committee, and Dr. Houston, the Secretary.

We recommend the election of the following ministers and elders to fill the vacancies now existing in the Committee.

For the class of 1917–20: Ministers—John Timothy Stone, D.D., and William L. McEwan, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Robert S. Sinclair and Benjamin F. Edwards.

To fill the vacancy caused by the death of Elder E. A. K. Hackett of the class of 1915–18: Ruling Elder W. O. Davies, of South Bend, Indiana.

II. The Narrative.—We have carefully considered the narrative submitted to us by the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work and have had placed at our disposal the narratives of our 291 Presbyteries dated April 1, 1917.

At once we were faced by the following facts: The report of the Special Committee deals with the statistics of 1916—fourteen months old. It was at once self-evident that we could not tabulate the figures presented by this year's presbyterial narrative in time for the use of this Assembly, even if such narrative were all in our hands. And in passing we would say that when the Stated Clerk of the Assembly left Philadelphia for Dallas, 100 Presbyteries had not yet sent in their narratives.

It appears to your Committee that it would be a great advantage if the narratives could be obtained from the Presbyteries in time for the Stated Clerk to tabulate their results so that the work of the closing year could be given to the General Assembly at the beginning of its meeting.

The only way in which this could be done appears to be making the Church and calendar years correspond, and we would recommend that this matter be referred to the Executive Commission for consideration with directions to report on it to the next General Assembly.

This Report, therefore, is confined to the consideration of the Report of the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work as printed in the Blue Book.

On the whole the year 1916 was one of growth. We had more ministers in active service and fewer vacant churches than in 1915. The number of self-sustaining churches apparently showed a slight decrease, but this is doubtless accounted for by the fact that 32 Presbyteries failed to report on this point.

There is also a gain in the number of Sabbath-schools reported—1,392 churches reporting no Sabbath-schools as against 1,618 such churches in 1915.

We note the fact that many churches show either no report or no progress in their work, thus affecting the statistical standing of the whole Church, and giving evidence that they are not fulfilling the mission of the Church. We therefore recommend to the Presbyteries that they exercise proper presbyterial supervision and through the Home Mission and Evangelistic Committees seek to arouse and quicken the life of these churches and bring them to a condition of activity that will be worthy of the commendation of the great Head of the Church.

For the sake of saving the Assembly's time and avoiding presenting a supplemental report, your Committee asks leave to add to this Report certain conclusions concerning vacant churches, unemployed ministers, salaries paid, and churches receiving no members on confession of faith, now being prepared by a sub-committee of the Standing Committee.

III. Comity.—We recommend that the resolutions found in the report of the Special Committee and having to do with the subject of Comity, be adopted by the Assembly.

IV. Absentee, Associated and Affiliated Members.—We recommend that resolutions 1 and 2 of the Report of the Special Committee on this subject be adopted by the Assembly. We recommend that resolution 3 be amended to read as follows:

"That the General Assembly authorize the Committee on Christian Life and Work to consider the advisability of creating and recognizing a form of associate or affiliate membership whose provisions shall be extended to students at educational institutions, the purpose of which shall be to provide a form of church relation which, at the discretion of the particular church session, may be granted to those church members who may be temporarily located outside the boundaries of their own churches. The Committee shall report on this subject to the General Assembly.

V. We recommend that the general resolutions of the Special Committee's report be adopted by the General Assembly.

VI. We recommend that the Special Committee be continued and that the Moderator of the General Assembly fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of the term of service of John F. Carson, D.D., Alfred H. Barr, D.D., and Benjamin Daniels, Esq.

VII. Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries.—Your Committee has most carefully considered the Report of the Special Committee on this subject and have come to the following conclusion: We disapprove of the action of the Special Committee in the proposed change in the form of the statistical report, and recommend that this Assembly thank the Special Committee for its careful consideration of this matter, and instruct it to take no further action, until the proposed form of statistical report shall be submitted to the Presbyteries for their adoption or rejection.

We recommend that the following Overture, or a like Overture (to be prepared by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly) be sent to the Presbyteries for their consideration and approval or disapproval.

"Shall the proposed form of Statistical Report as prepared by the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work, and found in the Minutes of the General Assembly for 1917, be adopted for the Church?"

We make this recommendation for the following reasons:

1. Increased Expense.—The proposed form of statistical reports prints the churches of the Presbyteries twice; in the first instance giving their officers and additions, dismissions and total membership and in the second table giving their benevolent offerings and church expenses. This will add between 400 and 500 pages to the Assembly Minutes and necessitate publishing them in two volumes at a greatly increased expense.

2. More serious objection to the proposed change lies in the fact that the proposed form abandons the historic method of enrolling ministers in the order of their "ministerial age" and places all except pastors and stated supplies in charge of churches, in a foot-note at the bottom of the page, under the heading "the following ministers are also members of this Presbytery (for addresses see index)."

This divides the Presbytery into two distinct classes and apparently destroys the parity of the ministry.

Your Committee is convinced that such a radical change in the form of the statistical report should be approved by the Presbyteries before being put into effect.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

W. K. SPENCER, Chairman.

The devotional services were conducted by the Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D.

The Assembly took recess until 3 o'clock P.M., and the session was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 22, 1917, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Education, through its Chairman, Rev. Charles G. Richards, made a supplementary Report with reference to Overtures Nos. 299 and 300, from Monroe and Westminster Presbyteries recommending that no action be taken. The Report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Colleges, through its Chairman, Rev. George Taylor, Jr., Ph.D., reported, and pending the adoption of the Report, the Assembly was addressed by E. A. McAlpin, D.D., President of the College Board, and by President Wm. H. Black, D.D., of Missouri Valley College. The Report was adopted and is as follows:

Your Committee on Colleges respectfully reports as follows:

With due appreciation of the unusually successful year which has just closed in the College Board, and in the spirit of commendation for the churches, the colleges, and the officers of the Board, your Committee takes great pleasure in submitting for the action of the General Assembly the following recommendations:

1. That the minutes of the Board, which have been carefully examined and found in order, be approved.

2. That the financial report of the Board, duly audited, be approved, and that the members of the Board be commended for the efficient and economical distribution of such a large amount of money.

3. That the Board and the colleges be congratulated upon the success of their effort to endow chairs of English Bible, and that the churches be called upon to coöperate in the endeavor to complete this task during the year. To this end, it is recommended that the Assembly call upon the churches again to make a special offering for the purpose of maintaining departments of English Bible, particularly in connection with whatever celebration of the four-hundredth anniversary of the Reformation may be observed.

4. In view of the fact that the Church has contributed one and one-half million dollars more this year than any year previous, bringing the total contributions for colleges to $3,054,311, we congratulate the Church on this splendid achievement, and commend the colleges and the Board for their aggressive policies and persistent efforts; and to the end that the contributions of the Church may continue to increase, we recommend that like publicity and extension activity be continued, and that in this year of great financial crisis the friends of the colleges be urged to remain loyal to this important work.

5. That the College Board coöperate with the Board of Education in celebrating during the year 1919 the centenary of the Board of Education, which was organized in 1819.

6. That Education Week be observed during the month of February, Thursday, February 21, 1918, being set apart as the Day of Prayer for Colleges and the following Sabbath as Education Day. On this day, in those churches where the Budget Plan will permit, an offering for the benefit of Presbyterian Colleges should be taken and sent undesignated to the Treasurer of the College Board.

7. That the churches be urged to send to the College Board all congregational offerings, whether designated or undesignated, which have been made for the maintenance of Presbyterian colleges, so that a complete record of all the denominational gifts to this work may be made, and each individual church may receive full credit on the books of the Board.

8. That the Board and colleges be advised to make every effort to continue regular college work during the present national crisis; and, because of the nation's need of trained leadership, that all ministers and parents be urged to encourage those students not called into special service by the Government, to continue their studies to the completion of their college courses as recommended by the Federal authorities.

9. That the Assembly approves of the suggestion in the College Board's report to the effect that, in special cases, the College Board or its successor, the General Board of Education, should do more than coöperate with local trustees of colleges. When desired by a Synod, the Board should assume a position of leadership in the educational development of regions where the Church is not sufficiently strong to lead in such development.

10. That the College Board or its successor, the General Board of Education, be requested to inaugurate an expert finance department for the purpose of advising and assisting our colleges in systematizing their business methods and successfully completing financial campaigns.

11. That the College Board or its successor, the General Board of Education, be urged to create as soon as possible a Presbyterian Teachers' Appointment Bureau, which shall endeavor to assist Presbyterian colleges in obtaining suitable instructors, and to aid persons qualified to be instructors in such colleges, in securing positions for which their training fits them.

12. That, in view of the $600,000 which is offered to the endowment fund of the Decatur College and Industrial School of the James Millikin University, on condition that an additional $400,000 be raised within a period of five years, we recognize the generous offer of the James Millikin Estate, and heartily commend the project to the liberality of the Church, that the condition may be fulfilled before the time named expires.

13. That, in accordance with the suggestion made by the College Board and approved by the General Board of Education, the following persons be elected to membership in the College Board in place of those whose terms of office expire in 1917: Ministers—Daniel Russell, D.D., New York; Charles Lee Reynolds, D.D., Newark, N. J.; William H. Hudnut, D.D., Youngstown, O.; John A. MacIntosh, Ithaca, N. Y.; Laymen—W. Holmes Forsyth, Chicago, Ill.; James H. Post, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Henry L. Smith, New York; Thomas W. Synnott, Wenonah, N. J.; Sidney F. Andrews, St. Louis, Mo.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE TAYLOR, JR., Chairman.

The Committee on Leave of Absence, through its Chairman, recommended that leave of absence be granted Ruling Elder J. W. Longshore, of the Presbytery of Cheyenne. The Report was approved.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. A. C. Zenos, D.D., reported on Syrian and Armenian Relief, recommending an offering on Memorial Day for this important cause. The recommendation was adopted.

The Moderator with the Stated Clerk and Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D., were appointed to send the greetings of this Assembly to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada at its meeting in June, 1917.

The Special Committee on the State of the Nation presented its Report, and pending its adoption, addresses were made by Rev. S. L. Haynes, C. Ames Montgomery, D.D., Mr. John T. Manson, J. Milton Greene, D.D., Rev. John C. Orth and others. The Report was adopted, with the direction that it be printed for distribution, and the further direction that it be read by pastors to their congregations on the Day of Prayer to be hereafter designated. The Report is as follows:

In the development and progression of the ideals and institutions of the American Republic, Presbyterianism has been a vital and significant force. That force is challenged anew by the crisis that now confronts this generation. The conflict into which we have been irresistibly drawn is one that is so manifestly for the maintenance of righteousness and in behalf of humanity that it should command the courageous and unreserved support of all our people. By every thrill of loyalty to our sacred heritage, by every memory of the sacrifice and suffering of our fathers, by every compelling motive that inspires unselfish action, the Presbyterian Church is summoned to do its part in redeeming the world from its bondage to autocratic rule, and from its prison house of armaments, into a life free to express its own natural good will and fellowship with all men.

The One Hundred and Twenty-ninth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America records its loyal allegiance to the Government of the United States of America and its unfaltering support of the President in the prosecution of this war for freedom and peace.

The Presbyterian faith is, and always has been, the exponent of liberty, but of liberty in subjection to the will of God. For this liberty the blood of Christian martyrs has been shed. When this liberty is threatened, the Church should take its most exalted position in prostration and humiliation before God. In the midst of the tremendous energy evoked by the necessity for material and military preparedness, in the midst of all the fine endeavor of the men of our land to make America strong in resources and efficient in action, the voice of the Church should be lifted, like the voice of a prophet, calling the nation back to God, and to justice, mercy and humility.

The General Assembly, therefore, directs and enjoins all churches under its jurisdiction to set apart a day* to be hereafter designated, on which the people may present themselves unitedly before God in penitence and prayer, to beseech His forgiveness and mercy, to affirm faith in His unchangeable goodness and confidence in His loving kindness to save our country, and to bring relief to a world of burdened men.

*Sunday, July 1, 1917, was the day appointed.

The task of the Church is to guide and furnish the mind and heart of man with the courage and hope of the Gospel, to reëstablish the shattered ideals of human brotherhood, righteous good will and peace, and to give expression to our confidence in the undivided unity of the faith in Christ Jesus our Lord, among men of all nations, even though strife may alienate them one from another.

We, therefore, reaffirm our unity in the spirit with the Christian men of the nations with which we are allied, and of the nations with which we are at strife, and we declare our readiness to join with them in finding some just way of bringing this war to an end.

We give assurance to the brethren of our common Reformed faith in the allied countries of our loyalty to the historic liberties which continue to bind us together.

We are profoundly touched by the patriotic devotion of the young men of our Church and of the country, whose clear and sober discernment of the issue involved, and whose readiness for the full measure of sacrifice for humanity and for the ideals of their nation have strengthened our faith in the future, and have renewed our appreciation of the schools, colleges and universities, wherein they have been trained.

We sympathize with the members of our Church, and with all our fellow citizens, whose hearts are filled with sorrow because of the estrangement between the land of their adopted allegiance and their fatherland, and we profoundly appreciate their steadfast loyalty.

That effect shall be given to these conditions, it is Resolved, That a National Service Commission of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America be appointed by the Moderator; that this Commission consist of at least twenty-five members, with the Moderator and the Stated Clerk members ex-officio; that the Commission be instructed to make formal offer to the Government of the United States of the services of the Presbyterian Church, and, upon any request that may be made by the Government, the Commission be authorized to call upon any or all of the agencies and resources of the Church as in its judgment may be wise or needful.

The General Assembly instructs this Commission to exert its utmost influence to secure Governmental action that shall protect this country from the dangers arising within the nation out of the liquor traffic and of commercialized vice, to safeguard the morals of our young men and young women, and to call upon all ministers and other teachers and leaders to set before the youth of our land the high duty of sobriety and chastity.

To the President of the United States:

"We pledge to you our support in holding the American people to the high idealism with which we entered this war, and to the keeping of our hearts free from hate and from revenge.

"We are heartily grateful for the action already taken by the National Government in creating a zone around the training camps from which the saloon and other incentives to immorality are excluded.

"Convinced that war, in itself, as a method of settling international disputes is irrational, inhuman and unchristian, and that it must finally be abolished by the spiritual force of international good will, we appeal to you to use your great office to secure an early but honorable peace, and that when the time comes to end the war, in harmony with the principles you have laid down, you help to secure such terms of peace as shall prepare the way for an organization of the world that will make war impossible."

In behalf of the General Assembly,

J. Wilbur Chapman, Moderator;
Wm. Henry Roberts, Stated Clerk.

A Memorial from Bohemian Presbyterian Churches was presented, and an address was made by Rev. Vaclav Hlavaty.

The Assembly adjourned to 9 o'clock A.M. to-morrow and was closed with prayer.

A Popular Meeting in behalf of Home Missions was held on Tuesday evening, May 22, at 8 o'clock, in the City Temple, according to the prepared programme.

WEDNESDAY, May 23, 1917, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The following message from the President of the United States was received:

THE WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

May 22, 1917.

My dear Dr. Chapman:

This is a most heartening message which you and Dr. Roberts addressed to me in the name of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and I beg you to believe that I am most appreciative and grateful. With warmest thanks to you and to every one concerned,

Cordially and sincerely yours,

WOODROW WILSON.

Permission was given the Special Committee on the State of the Nation to confer with the Stated Clerk of the Assembly as to the form in which the Committee's Report of yesterday should be printed and distributed; also to add names to the National Service Commission, so that it shall consist of not less than twenty-five members.

The Standing Committee on Men's Work, through its Chairman, W. L. Darby, D.D., made a supplementary Report, which was received, and adopted as follows:

The Standing Committee on Men's Work had before it Overtures dealing with two subjects, as set forth in Overtures Nos. 431, and 432 to 433. The first requested the abolishing of the Permanent Committee on Men's Work. On this we recommend no action.

The others requested that the Boy Scout movement, so far as it includes Presbyterian boys, should be brought in some way under the control of the Assembly, through the Permanent Committee. Upon this we recommend that the whole matter be referred to the Permanent Committee on Men's Work, for their consideration and, if they so desire, for experimentation during the year. They shall report their conclusions to the next Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. DARBY, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, through its Committee, made a supplementary Report on Overture No. 557, referring it to the Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation with recommendation that it be given sympathetic consideration.

The Special Committee on Chaplains in the Army and Navy, Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., Chairman, reported. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee upon U. S. Army and Navy Chaplains would report that we notice a largely increased interest during the past year in the matter of Army and Navy chaplaincies, as manifested by a greatly enlarged correspondence and multiplied applications for commissions. Our work has been cheered and helped by coöperation with the Washington Branch of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America; and the Religious Welfare League for the Army and Navy, organized about two years ago for emphasizing in the churches the moral and spiritual needs of the enlisted men, and in relation to the Federal Council, has been another help and inspiration. Through these associations the following have been accomplished:

1. Automatic increase of chaplains in the Navy, permitting an advance from twenty-four to eighty-four, according to the number of persons in service. The Navy Department announced, however, that its policy would limit its appointments to a number not more than seven in each year. This announcement preceded the development of present war conditions. It is believed that now the appointments of Navy Chaplains will proceed automatically with the increase of its enlistments, irrespective of the intended limitations.

2. Establishment of the grade of acting Navy chaplain for a term of three years, as a test of the appointee's adaptation, qualification and efficiency.

3. Removal of the discrimination against Naval chaplains in the matter of pay and allowance, which has hitherto prevented chaplains in the grade of Commander and Captain from receiving more than they received as Lieutenant-Commander.

4. Defeat of a proposal from the War Department to permit no appointments of chaplains except for six-year periods, which would have deprived them of permanent commissions and of rank and official standing.

5. Automatic increase of Army chaplains, according to increase of its enlisted men.

In response to questions often asked in correspondence, we make the following statement:

In U. S. Army:

(1) The number of chaplains authorized by recent act of Congress, June 3, 1916, is eighty-five.

(2) The present number is seventy-four.

(3) The number now allotted to each denomination is:

Roman Catholic	15
Baptist	7
Congregationalist	4
Disciples of Christ	4
Lutheran	3
Methodist	10
Presbyterian	7
Protestant Episcopal	14
Reformed	1
United Brethren	1
Universalist	2
Unitarian	1
Seventh Day Adventist	1
Colored (all sects)	4

(4) Presbyterian chaplains.

James L. Maddox,	31st Inf., Columbus, New Mexico,	27th Apr., 1942.

U. S. Navy:

(1) The number of chaplains authorized by recent enactment is eighty-four, with automatic increase proportioned to increase of enlisted men, in the ratio of one chaplain to every 1,250 of the force.

(2) The present number of chaplains is forty.

(3) The number apportioned to the different denominations are:

Roman Catholic	9
Baptist	5
Congregational	1

Christian Connection	1
Disciples of Christ	2
Lutheran	1
Methodist	8
Protestant Episcopal	8
Presbyterian	4
Reformed	1

(4) The Presbyterian Naval chaplains so far as reported are:

Thomas S. Thompson, Oscar W. Behrens (Acting),
Robert D. Workman, Albert N. Park (Acting).

The necessary qualifications, for an applicant from the Presbyterian Church, are:

(1) Good and regular standing as an ordained minister, certified officially; (2) recommendation of five ministers of the denomination; (3) physical and mental examination endorsed by a Board of Army officers; (4) approval by the Committee upon U. S. Army and Navy Chaplains of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Blank applications and necessary inquiry concerning Navy chaplaincies should be addressed to Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., and those concerning Army chaplaincies to the Adjutant-General's Office, War Department, Washington, D. C.

Christian sentiment needs larger quickening concerning the religious welfare of our enlisted men. The solemn international crisis will subject multitudes of our young men to unspeakable demoralizations, constant perils, and to an unfitting for return to the duties and high ideals of home and normal life. The chaplaincies should be multiplied, honored, reinforced with our recognition, prayers and help, and their sphere of influence better defined and protected. Governmental appropriations should be urged, that the lack of chapels and other meeting-places may be supplied, and the corps of chaplains be in actual preparedness for varied and effective work. And governmental authority should be invoked that would prevent uncomfortable discriminations, mitigate unfavorable conditions surrounding camps, posts and stations, and permit a fuller ministration to the intellectual, moral and religious needs of the armed forces of the Republic.

We recommend:

1. That the U. S. Army and Navy chaplaincies are recognized as worthy and honored lines of the Christian ministry, to be seriously considered by our young men, especially in these days of serious international struggle, and that the formal presentation of their claims be urged in all our theological seminaries.

2. That, as a recognized method of mission work, the office and its work be systematically given a place in conventions and other public meetings, under the auspices of our Board of Home Missions.

3. That, gratefully acknowledging the recent legislation by which the apportionment of chaplains was made more nearly correspondent to the numbers and needs of enlisted men, we urge upon the War Department and the Department of the Navy the ready and full response to this apportionment, that the chaplaincies may, automatically and quickly, increase with the increase of the Army and Navy.

4. We urge upon the Congress of the United States such reasonable appropriation of money, annually, as will enable the Army and Navy chaplains, without personal sacrifice, to care more efficiently for the educational and recreative work committed to them, and provide larger opportunities for their moral and spiritual service.

5. That inasmuch as present war conditions necessitate the establishment of large training camps in various sections of the country, we urge upon the pastors and churches of their vicinage this imperative demand and appeal for their thoughtful patriotic Christian service. And we especially direct our Committee on Evangelism to organize immediately a comprehensive, aggressive evangelism in these camps, in loyal coöperation with the chaplains and such other union evangelistic movements as the exigencies may develop. And we bespeak for this work the prompt sympathy and large financial support of all our churches.

Respectfully submitted,

WALLACE RADCLIFFE,
GEORGE ROBINSON,
J. C. BRECKINRIDGE,
Committee.

The Assembly being notified by the Stated Clerk that the Report of the Permanent Judicial Commission, upon Judicial Cases Nos. 1 to 3, was in his hands, the Moderator gave notice that the Assembly was about to sit as a Court, and exhorted the members to regard their high characters as judges in a Court of Jesus Christ. The record in the cases was presented by the Stated Clerk and was read by the Moderator of the Commission, the Rev. John Grant Newman, D.D. Upon motion duly made, the preliminary judgment of the Judicial Commission in each of these cases was ordered to be recorded as the final judgment of the General Assembly.

The records are as follows:

Judicial Case No. 1.—The Rev. Alexander Waddell vs. the Synod of Pennsylvania.

In the matter of the complaint of the Rev. Alexander Waddell versus the judgment and action of the Synod of Pennsylvania in the case of the Rev. Alexander Waddell against the Presbytery of Philadelphia, the Permanent Judicial Commission finds:

First. There was no certified copy of the record of the action of the Synod complained of placed in the hands of the Commission.

Second. The Complainant, neither in person nor by counsel, appeared before the Commission to prosecute his complaint.

The complaint of the Rev. Alexander Waddell is, therefore, dismissed.

For the Commission,
JOHN GRANT NEWMAN, Moderator;
THOMAS E. D. BRADLEY, Clerk.

Judicial Case No. 2.—The Presbytery of Des Moines, Complainant, the Synod of Iowa, Respondent.

In the matter of the above-styled complaint your Permanent Judicial Commission begs leave to make the following report:

It appears from the record before us that the Presbytery of Des Moines at a stated meeting adopted certain resolutions condemning a named candidate, and nominee of a political party, for the office of governor of the State of Iowa, upon the alleged ground that he was hostile to the prohibition of the liquor traffic; and pledging the support and votes of its members to another named candidate, and nominee of a different political party, for the same office, upon the alleged ground that he was in favor of the prohibition of the liquor traffic. Complaint of the foregoing action of the Presbytery was made to the Synod of Iowa by W. E. Giltner, a ruling elder of a church in the bounds of the Presbytery and a Commissioner in attendance at the meeting of that Judicatory, on the grounds that such action was violative of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and of its book of discipline, repugnant to various decisions of its General Assembly, unchristian in spirit, and unjust to the candidate condemned.

The complaint was sustained by the Synod on the first and second grounds alone; and the Presbytery's dissatisfaction with that judgment of the Synod led to its making this complaint thereof to the General Assembly.

The question presented for decision by the complaint is, whether the action of the Presbytery in adopting the resolutions in question was beyond its powers as a Church judicatory? If it was, the judgment of the Synod condemning it should not be disturbed. In other words, in the action taken, was the Presbytery dealing with matters not ecclesiastical? Chapter 31, Section 4, Confession of Faith, provides: "Synods or councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical; and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary; or by way of advice for satisfaction of conscience, if they be thereunto required by the civil magistrate."

Obviously, application of the provisions of this Section to the facts here involved can give no warrant for the Presbytery's action. While we are aware of no provision of the organic law of the Presbyterian Church or decision of its General Assembly which forbids its judicatories or members the right to express their convictions, or give needed advice respecting questions, whether social or moral, which concern or may affect the welfare of the human race, neither the laws of the Church, nor the decisions of its judicatory of last resort, give authority to any of its judicatories to employ methods political in their nature for the purpose of influencing the votes of those who compose them with reference to matters political. We therefore fully approve the conclusion expressed by the Synod of Iowa "that when any Presbyterian Church judicatory passes to the condemnation or disapproval by name, of individuals who are candidates of a political party, and gives advice or injunction as to the support of or opposition to such political candidate, it passes beyond the bounds of its constitutional functions, which are limited to matters and questions ecclesiastical."

As declared by the General Assembly in the matter of the complaint of Haynes vs. the Synod of Indiana (Minutes, General Assembly, 1912, page 179, in which the action of the Synod in procuring the election of two of its members as trustees of the State Board of the Indiana Anti-saloon League was condemned), "the manifest object of this section (Section 4, Chapter 31, Confession of Faith) is to maintain the separation of Church and State, and, as conducive to that end, to prevent the Church from becoming entangled, through any of its agencies, with political or other organizations of a non-ecclesiastical character; and such is the interpretation repeatedly given it by the General Assembly." (Also see Minutes, General Assembly, 1909, page 204, as to the action of South Dakota Synod.)

If the Presbytery were permitted to give its official sanction to or disapproval of the candidacy of individuals for political office, the allying of itself with the political party of the candidate of its approval or with the political party opposing the candidate of whom it disapproved, would be an easy step that would logically and almost inevitably follow. In either event, the Church would be diverted from its holy mission and degraded in the estimation of the world. We do not mean to intimate that the Presbyterian Church should change its attitude upon the liquor question, which has always been that of uncompromising opposition to the traffic in or use of liquor as a beverage; nor have we any word of censure for the determined stand the Des Moines Presbytery seems to have taken in behalf of prohibition. On the contrary, we express our sympathy with the zeal for temperance and righteousness manifested by its members and which doubtless led them to regard the method resorted to, legitimate and the most effective they could employ to remove the evils of intemperance; but we do mean to declare that the method employed was and is violative of the organic law of the Presbyterian Church, and not to be tolerated because of that fact.

For the reason indicated, the complaint of the Des Moines Presbytery is dismissed and the judgment of the Synod of Iowa is affirmed.

As what has already been said is conclusive of the correctness of the Synod's action in declaring that of the Presbytery invalid, it is deemed unnecessary to pass on the cross complaint of W. E. Giltner as to the failure of the Synod of Iowa to sustain his contention that Des Moines Presbytery was without jurisdiction of the person whose candidacy it condemned; hence that question is not decided, and his complaint is dismissed.

For the Commission,
JOHN GRANT NEWMAN, Moderator;
THOMAS E. D. BRADLEY, Clerk.

Judicial Case No. 3.—Appeal of the Presbytery of Syracuse against a decision of the Synod of New York.

In the Matter of an Appeal of Walter Rockwood Ferris to the Synod of New York from The Finding of a Judicial Commission of the Presbytery of Syracuse concerning the pastorate of H. B. Garabedian (later known as John B. Grant) at Camillus, N. Y.

STATEMENT OF FACTS.

This is an appeal by the Presbytery of Syracuse from a judgment rendered by the Synod of New York, through its Judicial Commission, sustaining the so-called appeal of Rev. W. R. Ferris against said Presbytery in the so-called Camillus case.

A brief history of the facts of this case will be of some assistance. The Rev. H. B. Gārabedian, later known as John B. Grant, was pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Camillus, N. Y. Differences between him and his congregation had arisen, and after informal consideration at length by the Executive Commission of the Presbytery, the matter was referred to a Judicial Commission, which had been appointed by the Moderator, with power to act.

The Judicial Commission of Presbytery was duly organized, and, although in its inception it was undoubtedly intended that the matter should be judicially considered, yet it appears that no formal charge was presented to it for trial, nor was any evidence heard by it; nor was any final judgment or decision rendered by said Commission. The final result of the matter was, that what appears to have been an amicable adjustment was arrived at after consultation between the minister and the Judicial Commission, fully concurred in by the minister, and, so far as appears, entirely satisfactory to him.

An informal report of the conclusion reached was made to Presbytery orally at its January meeting in 1916, and at the April meeting of Presbytery such result or conclusion was indicated by the following memorandum which was presented to Presbytery and placed on record in the minutes of the Presbytery:

"January 3, 1916.

"The Camillus Commission met in the Y. M. C. A. Bldg. at Syracuse, at 12.30 P.M. on call of Chairman. Present—MacInnis, Taylor, Gere, Truair, Porter, Fulton. After discussion, the conference with Garabedian, it was unanimously resolved that we recommend to the Home Mission Committee that the present amount of aid be extended to the Camillus church, for three months more, with the understanding that the pastor is to have the privilege to accept a call at any time before that, and that his relations with the church shall terminate not later than the spring meeting of Presbytery." (Presby. Min., p. 223.)

Although this memorandum was thereafter referred to as a finding of the Judicial Commission, it was, in point of fact, not such a finding, and was nothing more than a record of the conclusion arrived at, as a result of the amicable adjustment effected in the case, which was acquiesced in by all parties.

The actual result of this adjustment was, that Mr. Garabedian continued in the Camillus church until October, although the aid which had been extended by the Home Mission Committee was discontinued in April.

It next appears that an appeal was taken by the Rev. W. R. Ferris, D.D., although not an original party in the matter, from the action of Presbytery, as evidenced by the so-called finding of its Judicial Commission, it being alleged that the action or recommendation of the Judicial Commission of Presbytery constituted a judicial decision of finding which, therefore, was mandatory in its effect in terminating the pastoral relations between the minister and the church at Camillus.

This appeal, in due course, came up for hearing before the Judicial Commission of the Synod of New York, which, so far as the record shows, was duly constituted for that purpose; and after hearing, its decision was rendered as follows:

"The Judicial Commission sustains the appeal of Rev. Walter R. Ferris, D.D., against the action of the Presbytery of Syracuse in the Camillus case, and directs the Presbytery of Syracuse to expunge from its records the finding of the Judicial Commission appearing in the minutes of April 11, 1916, and found on page 223."

From this judgment of the Synod of New York the present appeal has been taken by the Presbytery of Syracuse.

Discussion.

It would seem proper to point out that the entire record of the case shows many and grave irregularities. It appears that in its inception it was intended that this should be treated as a judicial case. As a matter of fact, however, it was not so handled, and the outcome was, as above indicated, an amicable adjustment which was acquiesced in by all parties.

Presbytery erred, in the first place, in appointing, instead of electing, its Judicial Commission to handle this case. The Commission erred in not presenting the result of its action for record upon the minutes of Presbytery at the January meeting.

Dr. Ferris erred in treating the report of the Judicial Commission of Presbytery as a judicial decision or judgment, from which an appeal could be taken; and, further, not being an original party to the case, he was not entitled to prosecute an appeal, even if a formal judgment had been rendered by the Judicial Commission of Presbytery.

Furthermore, Synod erred in receiving and considering the appeal of Dr. Ferris, in that not being an original party in the case, he was not entitled to be an appellant. Action of Synod was irregular and defective further in rendering judgment in the case upon appeal in that it failed to conform to the Book of Discipline, Chapter 9, Paragraph 4, Section 99, relating to such judgments upon appeal.

FINDINGS OF LAW.

In disposing of the Assignments of Error which have been filed with the appeal of the Presbytery of Syracuse from the judgment of the Synod of New York, the Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly has given careful consideration to the various specifications of error. The first specification of error is that the judgment of the Synod is irregular, improper and fatally defective, in that it fails to state whether one or more errors were found in any judgment or decision of the Presbytery of Syracuse appealed from; whether any judgment of said Presbytery appealed from shall be reversed or modified or the case remanded for a new trial; and that it is not accompanied by a recital of the error or errors found, if any there be. This assignment has been sustained, in view of the fact that the judgment of Synod, through its Judicial Commission, was not arrived at in the orderly manner prescribed by the Book of Discipline, in Chapter No. 9, Paragraph 4, Section 99, as it appears that only the conclusion reached was set forth in the judgment of Synod, and no attempt was made to follow the intermediate steps prescribed by the Book of Discipline.

In the second assignment of error, it is alleged that the Synod proceeded irregularly in the constitution of its Judicial Commission, and the Judicial Commission hastened to its decision without formal inquiry or due deliberation or care upon the merits of the case. This assignment of error is not sustained, in view of the fact that there appears to be nothing in the record to substantiate the error claimed. So far as appears from the record, the Judicial Committee of Synod was duly constituted its Judicial Commission to hear and issue this appeal, and there appears to be no evidence of any haste, informality or lack of due deliberation in its proceedings.

In the third assignment of error, it is alleged that the judgment of the Synod is unjust, in that it orders expunged from the record of Presbytery its only memorandum of the peaceable settlement of a serious and protracted case, involving doctrine. This assignment of error is sustained with the qualifications that the Permanent Judicial Commission finds no evidence in the record of this case that it was a case in any way involving doctrine. It is satisfied, however, for the reasons herein set forth, that however irregular the various steps in this case may have been, there is no just ground for ordering the Presbytery of Syracuse to expunge from its record what was not, in fact, a formal finding of the Judicial Commission of Presbytery, it being in the judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly merely a memorandum of the amicable adjustment, which was arrived at and acquiesced in by the parties, and which was in no sense a mandatory judgment of Presbytery, which in effect severed the pastoral relations existing in the church of Camillus.

In conclusion, it would seem proper to state that after a careful consideration of all the facts of this case, the Permanent Judicial Commission is of the opinion that the Presbytery of Syracuse used its utmost endeavor to effect an amicable adjustment of the differences which undoubtedly existed in the church of Camillus, so far as its relations with its pastor were concerned. It is quite clear that no attempt was made to coerce Mr. Garabedian into a severance of the pastoral relations, but, on the contrary, he was in full accord with the desire of Presbytery to adjust the differences existing and made neither formal objection nor complaint. This is still further made clear by the fact that the amicable adjustment referred to was in fact carried out, although six months later than was contemplated at the time agreed upon. Mr. Garabedian was subsequently dismissed as a member of the Presbytery of Syracuse, in good and regular standing, and it nowhere appears in the record of the present case that he is complaining in any way of the manner in which he was treated by the Presbytery of Syracuse. As pointed out above, the appeal was taken by an outside third party, thus producing the many irregularities above referred to. It is manifest that the whole situation should have been handled in a somewhat different manner, but the chief conclusion which has been reached is that no injustice was done or intended to be done to Mr. Garabedian.

Since the so-called appeal from the judgment of the Presbytery of Syracuse to the Synod of New York has no legal inception or standing under the constitution of the Presbyterian Church, and is therefore null and void, and no action of the Synod can declare valid that which is constitutionally invalid, and since the action of the Synod of New York, therefore, in sustaining the so-called appeal of Dr. Ferris was likewise null and void, the Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly unanimously agree upon the following finding, to wit:

That the appeal of the Presbytery of Syracuse from the judgment of the Synod of New York be and hereby is sustained, and that the judgment of the Synod of New York be and hereby is reversed.

For the Commission,
JOHN GRANT NEWMAN, Moderator;
THOMAS E. D. BRADLEY, Clerk.

The judicial business being ended the Assembly arose as a Court.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, through its Chairman, Judge Ell Torrance, reported, and pending the adoption of the Report, addresses were made by Mr. J. E. McAfee, Rev. John Dixon, D.D., and Rev. W. H. Penhallegon, D.D., Chairman of the Home Mission Council. The recommendations were adopted, the Report as a whole was approved and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Home Missions reports recommending action as follows:

A. AS TO THE HOME MISSION COUNCIL.

1. That the findings of the Home Mission Council be approved with the following exceptions: Section 3, under head of "Policies," which is otherwise provided for; Section 1, under Budget, which is changed so as to read: "a special campaign to increase its revenues to one and one-half million dollars for this year;" Section 4, under heading "Various Matters," which is referred to another Committee, and Section 7, which is otherwise provided for.

2. In view of various Overtures and resolutions before the Committee on Home Missions, touching our relation to the work of other Churches on the Home Mission field, we recommend:

(a) That the Assembly emphatically endorse the finding of the Home Mission Council (No. 5 under "Various Matters") and declare its conviction of the "weaknesses, wastes and sinfulness of the Churches of Christ" in the "overlapping so frequently found in Home Mission territory" and in small towns and villages.

(b) That every Presbytery and Synod and every agent of Presbyteries and Synods be solemnly charged to hold sacred for themselves all interdenominational agreements in matters of comity, and that Synods and Presbyteries facing such problems seek to work out for themselves through federations, local unions, or otherwise some means of fraternal coöperation, in line with principles which express the mind of Christ.

3. Instead of Section 7 under head of "Various Matters," we offer the following:

Resolved, Because of the decreasing resources of the Board and the rapid growth of the Home Mission enterprise, the General Assembly makes the following provisions:

(a) That the Board shall have direct access to every church and Sabbath-school to present its claims and to secure an adequate offering.

(b) That this Assembly, in laying upon the heart and conscience of the Church the duty of increasing contributions to the Home Mission Board, requests ministers and sessions to call the attention of Presbyterian men and women, who have money to bequeath, to the work this Board is doing in Christianizing America, and to furnish the Board with the names of persons who might be influenced to leave legacies to the Board.

4. That the Home Mission Council be instructed to report, at subsequent meetings of the Assembly, on Friday of the first week.

B. As to the Organization of the Board.

That after three years of trial of the plan of administering the work of Home Missions, devised by the Assembly of 1914, said plan has been found unsatisfactory, and that, on the recommendation of the Board, this plan be amended in the following particulars:

Section I shall be changed to read:

THE EXECUTIVE.

The work of the Board shall be entrusted to a General Secretary, two or more secretaries, such directors of specific work as may be necessary, and a treasurer. These executives shall meet in council under the presidency of the General Secretary, to formulate policies to be recommended to the Board, to determine under whose supervision they shall be executed, and to consider the general work of the Board.

THE GENERAL SECRETARY.

The duties of the General Secretary shall be to coördinate all departments of the work, to present the policies of the Board to the Church, to promote the raising of funds, and to have general oversight of the work of the Board and of the directors of specific work.

THE SECRETARIES.

There shall be a secretary with headquarters at some Western center, with general supervision of the Board's work in aid-receiving Synods and their Presbyteries, save as such work is specifically assigned to some other oversight. Synodical superintendents, who are elected in coöperation with the Board, shall confer with and assist this secretary.

He shall have an assistant in charge of work among Mexicans.

There shall be a secretary at the New York office, in charge of the relations of the Board with all self-supporting Synods and Presbyteries, with supervision of the work in Alaska, Cuba and Porto Rico, and in logging camps. He shall have an assistant in charge of work among Indians.

DIRECTORS OF SPECIFIC WORK.

There shall be a director of work among immigrant populations and of Church extension within cities.

There shall be a director of church and country life work.

THE TREASURER.

The treasurer shall care for the funds of the Board under the direction of its finance committee.

Section 2 shall be omitted.

Section 3 shall be amended to read:

Each Presbytery and Synod shall have the right of initiation, direction and control as to Home Mission work within its bounds, and as to the choice and location of its appointees; but in the matter of appropriations the following principles shall be observed:

The Board shall credit each Presbytery or Synod with all funds received from it during the preceding year, provided such are required, which the Presbytery or Synod shall have the right to administer, in coöperation with the Board, final authority being lodged with the Presbytery or Synod.

An additional appropriation may be made by the Board out of its other funds to the Presbytery or Synod as its needs require and the ability of the Board warrants, which the Presbytery or Synod shall administer in coöperation with the Board, final authority being lodged with the Board.

This plan shall go into operation on the 1st of October, 1917.

C. In General.

1. That Overture No. 555, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, relating to the importance and the direction of Jewish evangelization, be answered as follows:

We recommend that Presbyteries which wish to engage in such work lay the matter before the Board of Home Missions, which shall give it sympathetic consideration.

That the General Assembly authorize and instruct its Board of Home Missions to select an advisory committee from among those throughout the country who feel the burden of this need, which committee shall assist in perfecting plans for a comprehensive programme of Jewish evangelization under the Board's direction and in raising funds adequately to support such a programme.

2. That the Sundays immediately preceding Thanksgiving and Washington's Birthday be designated for special Home Mission programmes in the Sunday-schools and for special offerings to the Board.

3. That the minutes of the Home Board and its annual report be approved.

4. That the following five ministers and six laymen be elected to membership in the Board of Home Missions, being the class whose term expires in 1920: Ministers—Wilton Merle-Smith, D.D., George Louis Curtis, D.D., Calvin C. Hays, D.D., Rasmus Thomsen, D.D., Robert Brewster Beattie; Laymen—William E. Carnochan, Francis S. Phraner, Herbert K. Twitchell, George D. Dayton, David B. Gamble, James N. Jarvie.

5. That the minutes of the Woman's Board of Home Missions and its annual report be approved.

6. That the following elections to membership in the Woman's Board of Home Missions be made, being the class whose term expires in 1920: Mrs. R. H. Allen, Miss A. M. Alward, Mrs. F. S. Bennett, Mrs. S. B. Brownell, Mrs. J. S. Dickson, Mrs. W. A. M. Grier, Mrs. W. W. Hayden, Mrs. W. E. Honeyman, Mrs. Otis Elis Hovey, Mrs. William D. McKissick, Miss Florence E. Quinlan, Mrs. John Reid, Mrs. John Sinclair, Mrs. Charles Stelzle, Mrs. James Yereance.

Respectfully submitted,

Ell Torrance, Chairman.

The findings of the Home Mission Council for 1917, duly reported to the General Assembly, are as follows:

The Home Mission Council erected by your action of 1914 met in Dallas, Texas, May 14, 1917, with representatives from thirty-five Synods present.

After organizing, printed reports and verbal statements were received from the Board of Home Missions through secretaries and members. Synods and Presbyteries also presented similar reports and statements. These matters were referred to appropriate committees, and after careful study and full discussion were acted on by the Council, and we beg leave to submit the following:

Findings of the Council.

Policies.

1. The Council expressed its delight in the care and efficiency with which the whole work of the Board, as it came before us, is being conducted.

2. The Council affirms its belief in the principle of a General Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, and requests the Assembly to amend the plan of organization inaugurated by the Assembly of 1914 to conform with this principle.

3. The Council believes that, under the action of the Assembly of 1914, declaring the principle of self-administration of the work by Presbyteries and Synods within the limits of the bulk appropriation made by the Board, the Presbyteries and Synods have the right to determine the purpose to which unused balances and additional appropriations shall be put within the limits of the same department. (This Section not approved. See p. 172.)

4. The Council expresses to the Home Mission Board its conviction that an adequate field force is necessary to the prosecution of Home Mission work in most of our Synods; that the force now employed should be increased rather than reduced; that the budget for the year should be adjusted so as to retain at least the present status of this essential agency.

5. The Council would urge upon Synods and Presbyteries in their placing of field men or other special agents, that they emphasize the principle of special fitness for particular service.

6. The Council urges the Assembly, through some of its present agencies, the Executive Commission or other, to definitely lay upon the hearts and consciences of the Synodical and Presbyterial Home Mission Committees, and of the Churches themselves, the matter of an adequate support for the present missionary and field force before enlarging work or entering new fields.

7. The Council recognizes with pleasure the policy of the Board to shape a special programme of help for Home Mission situations of special need. Its present coöperation with the local authorities in San Francisco-Oakland Presbytery calling for enlarged expenditure of funds under specialized leadership in order to accomplish a really adequate and worthy result, and all similar efforts, have the hearty approval and endorsement of the Council as programmes of service worthy of the great cause we represent.

Budget.

1. The Home Mission Council, realizing the crisis that is confronting the Home Mission interests of our Church, respectfully recommends to the General Assembly that the Home Mission Board be authorized to organize a special campaign to raise two million dollars for the Home Mission work of our Church this year. (Changed. See p. 173.)

2. In view of the high cost of living, the challenge of the national crisis to the Christian Church and the special appeals for new work among Mexicans, Mormons and foreign-speaking peoples, the Council believes that our missionaries would be greatly embarrassed and the work seriously crippled by the adoption of a policy of retrenchment at this time. We, therefore, recommend that the original estimate of proposed expenditure of $1,300,000.00 be approved as the minimum estimate for the year, and that the Board be asked to advance to this minimum during the year as rapidly as newly developed resources justify.

3. That the General Assembly be recommended to authorize the Home Board and its agencies to enter at once upon a forward movement and campaign of education throughout the Church to raise the above-mentioned funds.

4. That the General Assembly urge the Synods and Presbyteries of the Church to coöperate in every way possible in this movement.

5. That the General Assembly commend the Board of Home Missions for the larger programme proposed to the Church in the appointment of Dr. Patterson as its Financial Secretary.

6. We recommend that the Board of Home Missions be requested to credit Home Mission Synods and Presbyteries with the amounts collected by the field men, as well as the contributions from the Churches.

Various Matters.

1. The Home Mission Council recognizes the importance and exceptional character of missionary work among Mormon people, and, in view of the special responsibility of the Presbyterian Church for this work, recommends to the Board of Home Missions the taking under special advisement of means whereby the physical equipment of the fields can be increased and improved.

2. In view of the large and increasing Mexican population in the Synods of California, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas, the present Mexican population being now at least 1,000,000, the Council would strongly urge upon the Home Board and the Synods concerned the importance of making large plans for the evangelization of the Mexicans, and that in the new and enlarged financial campaign this cause may have proper consideration.

3. It is the judgment of the Council that the Board in its Student Enlistment Plan should undertake, out of its Enlistment Fund, the support of the student work only in such Presbyteries or Synods as may desire its aid in such work. All other Presbyteries or Synods desiring to manage their student work shall provide in their regular estimates for such work, and that all such Presbyteries or Synods be urged to maintain the standard of remuneration adopted by the Board.

4. The Home Mission Council would respectfully request the Assembly to instruct the Committee on "Board of Sabbath School Work" to consider the relation of the work of that Board and the work of the Home Mission Board, and to formulate such a deliverance for the guidance of the two Boards as will bring about a close and sympathetic contact of the field operations of the two Boards, and thus secure such organization in Synods and Presbyteries as will harmonize the work at common points and raise the efficiency of the Sunday-school work and the Home Mission to the highest point. (Referred to another Committee.)

5. In view of the prevailing conditions of overlapping so frequently found in Home Mission territory, that this Council request the General Assembly to deliver, through the proper agency, a declaration touching the weaknesses, wastes and sinfulness of the Churches of Christ in this matter, and an appeal to the Christian world in such ringing words as will challenge the attention of the religious and public press for the development of a righteous sentiment.

6. The Board reported on its inquiry into the number of members received by Home Mission churches on examination. The figures show greatly to the advantage of the Home Mission church in many sections. In one Synod the Home Mission churches received 11.6 per cent. from this source, as compared with 8.3 per cent. by all the churches of the Synod. In another Synod the Home Mission churches made a net gain on membership in five years of 36.5 per cent., while the entire Synod gained 19.3 per cent. Evidently the evangelistic note is loudly sounded in Home Mission work.

7. The Council recommends that Synods and Presbyteries invite the Assembly's Board to send in its men and literature to carry on a campaign for the fuller education of the people in Home Missions, and, where the churches and the Presbyterial Home Mission committees so agree, to appeal for contributions for work under the support of the Board. (Otherwise provided for. See p. 173.)

8. The Council has prepared a blank which it hopes may be widely used in gathering information from self-supporting Synods and Presbyteries, to whom the secretary of the Council is directed to send it. Uniform information gathered by the Board from other Synods and Presbyteries will enable the Council to present a comprehensive statement of the Home Mission activities of the whole Church.

It is hereby Resolved: "That the Home Mission Council express to the General Assembly, in its findings, our confidence in the earnest desire of the Board of Home Missions to work out the policies authorized by the Assembly, and pledge our loyalty to do all in our power to further its great cause."

A committee of five was appointed to confer with the Board and the Assembly's committee, and to further in any way the work of the Council during the interim between its meetings.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. H. PENHALLEGON, Chairman.

Rev. H. S. Coffin, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of the Board of Home Missions to nominate a General Secretary, announced that it was the desire of the Board that John A. Marquis, D.D., should be elected to that office. The Assembly expressed its cordial approval of the nomination by a rising vote.

The Moderator presented to the Assembly Mrs. Ann George, 94 years of age, with sons in the ministry, and the Assembly by a rising vote tendered congratulations to this mother in Israel.

It was Resolved, That a Committee of ten, with the Moderator as Chairman, be appointed to receive Hon. William Jennings Bryan on his arrival in Dallas, as the guest of the General Assembly.

The Assembly recommended the printing and distribution of the address made this morning by Mr. J. E. McAfee, the expense to be borne by the Board of Home Missions.

The Standing Committee on Polity reported recommending that Overtures 614 and 616 be referred to the Permanent Judicial Commission, and the reference was ordered.

The Assembly took recess, after devotional services led by Wm. R. King, D.D., until 2.30 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, May 23, 1917, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Chaplains in the Army and Navy presented a supplementary Report which was adopted, and was made Resolution 5 of the Report.*

The General Board of Education, through its Chairman, Rev. Dr. C. F. Wishart, made a Report which was approved, and is as follows:

The General Board of Education respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The General Board of Education met at Atlantic City, N. J., October 26, 1916, having been called together by the authority of the last General Assembly. Twenty-seven members were in attendance. An organization was effected by the election of the following officers: Rev. Charles F. Wishart, D.D., of Chicago, President; Hon. Henry B. F. Macfarland, Washington, D. C., Vice-President; Rev. Henry B. Master, Ft. Wayne, Ind., Recording Secretary.

An Executive Committee was elected as follows:

Rev. L. S. Mudge, Rev. C. L. Reynolds, Elders S. S. Chapman and J. H. Finley.

Rev. R. B. Beatty, Rev. W. H. Hudnut, Elders W. H. Forsyth and S. F. Andrews.

Rev. W. L. McEwan, Rev. A. H. Barr, Elders T. W. Synnott and J. H. Post.

After a prolonged discussion it was resolved that:

"The General Board of Education, because of its temporary organization, request the Board of Education and the College Board to continue their present work in every detail as authorized by their charters and by the instructions of the General Assembly until such time as the General Board of Education shall be competent legally to take over the work now committed to, and carried on by, these two Boards. It is the purpose of this resolution that these two important agencies of the Church be absolutely unhampered in any of their activities, and that the Church at large may understand that for the present the two Boards remain separate and distinct, and that contributions to each of these Boards shall be made as heretofore."

The Board discussed the various problems involved in the merger of the two Boards at great length. but was unable to take definite action owing to the fact that its legal existence must await the securing of a suitable charter. The Board referred to the Executive Committee the formulation of a working policy, and the plans of organization.

As the securing of the charter has been necessarily delayed, owing to the delicate and complicated legal questions involved, the Executive Committee did not deem it wise to meet until later in the year, but maintained throughout the winter a constant interchange of ideas and tentative plans through correspondence and the informal conferences of its members from time to time.

The bill for the charter being then at a favorable stage of progress in the New York Legislature, a meeting of the Executive Committee was held in Pittsburgh, on April 24. At this meeting, representatives of the Board of Education and the College Board were present and presented summarized reports showing the progress of their work and the development of their financial resources during the last ten years. Plans of departmental and regional organizations were thoroughly discussed, and a committee of five members of the Board was directed to consider and recommend to the Board at its next meeting a plan of organization for its administrative and executive work. Also, to recommend to the Executive Committee, and through it to the Board, a name or names for the position of General Secretary. Certain recommendations from the College Union were received and read, and while the Committee was in hearty sympathy with most of these recommendations, yet owing to the status of the charter negotiations, it was deemed inadvisable to make any recommendations to the General Assembly at the present time. The Executive Committee then took the following action: "That it is the judgment of the Executive Committee of the General Board of Education that the action of the Board at Atlantic City be interpreted as involving the maintenance so far as possible of the present executive forces of the two Boards during the current ecclesiastical year."

It will be seen that the Board's work through the year has been necessarily little more than marking time until the Charter secured and accepted by the General Assembly should give legal existence to a body duly authorized to carry on the work thus begun. Our endeavor, however, has been to gain an acquaintance with the task and formulate such general plans as would facilitate the work of this duly constituted body when it must assume the burden.

We would express our deep appreciation of the cordial and brotherly spirit of coöperation manifested by the secretaries and members of the existing Boards—a coöperation which greatly helps, and simplifies a task which is both delicate and complex, and which calls upon time and patience and grace in its out-working.

Especially do we appreciate the action of the College Board and the Board of Education in nominating to the Assembly members of the General Board to fill the vacancies in their own ranks this year so far as possible.

We note with deep sorrow the death of Mr. Amos S. Musselmann, of Grand Rapids, Mich., and record our great sense of loss that the Church has been thus deprived of his wisdom and enthusiastic coöperation in the great work before us.

We express the sincere hope and prayer that our activities, however limited, may be a real link between the fine achievements of the Church's faithful servants in days gone by, and a future programme of coördinated service whose possibilities can be measured alone by a united faith in the promises of God.

Respectfully submitted,
C. F. Wishart, President;
H. B. Master, Secretary.

The nominations for members of the new General Board of Education were reported by the Chairman of the Executive Commission. The Stated Clerk was authorized by a unanimous vote to cast the ballot of the Assembly for their election. The ballot was so cast, and the members named were declared to be elected as the members of the new General Board of Education. The names of the members are as follows:

W. Synnott, Wenonah, N. J.; Craig N. Ligget, Philadelphia, Pa.; W. Holmes Forsyth, Chicago, Ill.; Sidney F. Andrews, St. Louis, Mo.; A. C. Bigger, Dallas, Tex.

For Three Years.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a supplementary Report which was adopted as follows:

That in the matter of Overtures Nos. 183 to 218, 278 to 279,* and 579, the following action be taken:

1. "In view of the increasing movement of the colored people from the South into the North, induced by the industrial changes created by the war, we recommend that these Overtures be referred to the Executive Commission for continued investigation, of possible rearrangement and cooperation, to report, if possible, to the Assembly of 1918.

2. "The attention of Presbyteries in the North doing work among the colored people, and the Boards of Home Missions and Freedmen be called to the action of the General Assembly of 1915 at Rochester, N. Y. (see Minutes, G. A., 1915, pp. 250–254), authorizing the Board to engage in evangelistic work in the Northern States among the colored people when requested by the Presbyteries of the various Synods, upon such terms as will secure the coöperation of the Presbyteries and Synods in the work of the Board."

That in the matter of Overtures Nos. 361 to 425, 426 and 427, and 593 to 605,* all bearing upon the creation of a Social Service Commission, the following answer be made:

That the General Assembly create a Social Service Commission on the following plan:

1. That this Commission shall consist of forty-five members, ministers and laymen, nine of whom shall be constituted its Executive Committee. The Commission shall work in harmony with the deliverances of the Assemblies of 1910 and 1915.

2. That the Moderator designate one of the secretaries of each of the Boards of the Church, present at this Assembly, to constitute a Committee on Nominations; and that this

* See Journal, pp. 94 to 104.

Committee shall survey the whole field and present to the Assembly nominations for the Commission.

3. That this Committee shall separate the nominations into three classes: one class to serve for three years, one for two years, and one for one year; and that it shall designate the Executive Committee, dividing it into the three classes above mentioned.

4. That the Commission may add to its number from time to time in order to touch the whole Church, and that it nominate to the Assembly new members to fill vacancies.

5. That the Commission report directly to the Assembly.

6. That the work of the Commission be conducted without expense to the Assembly or any of the existing agencies of the Church.

Overtures Nos. 358 to 360, relating to the Presbyterian Hand-book. It is recommended that they be answered in the affirmative.

Overtures Nos. 429 and 430,* relating to Army and Navy chaplains. The following action is recommended:

1. That the present Special Committee on Chaplains in the United States Army and Navy be enlarged by the addition of Rev. Charles Wood, D.D., pastor of the Church of the Covenant, Washington, D. C., and Major Joseph H. Sutherland, a chaplain of the Army.

2. The attention of the Church is called to the great importance of securing suitable men for chaplains in our Army and Navy to care for the moral and spiritual welfare of our soldiers.

3. That the Assembly's Committee be urged to seek out any men especially qualified for the duties of a chaplain, and place before them the claims of this form of patriotic and Christian service.

4. To this end, we recommend the appointment of an Advisory Committee, consisting of the presidents of our theological seminaries, to assist in seeking and selecting suitable men, without expense to the Assembly.

5. That Presbyteries be requested to appoint committees to coöperate in furnishing information of possible applicants for service.

Overture No. 435, from Kalispell Presbytery, on the subject of Sabbath Observance. It is recommended that no action be taken.

Overtures Nos. 436 to 448, relating to the "Jones Sunday Rest Bill" now pending in Congress. It is recommended that these Overtures be answered in the affirmative.

*See Journal, pp. 97 to 104.

Overture No. 617, a memorial from the National Reform Association. It is recommended that in view of the action already taken by the Assembly, no further action is necessary.

Overture No. 618, a memorial concerning the reporting of the finances of evangelism. It is recommended that no action be taken.

Overture No. 619, a memorial from the Federal Council of Churches. It is recommended that its message be approved, and submitted to the Moderator and Stated Clerk to take such action as may be necessary.

Overture No. 620, a paper authorizing the erection of a Memorial Tablet in the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, Pa. It is recommended that the paper be adopted.

Overture No. 621, an appeal for relief of the suffering Armenians. It is recommended that it be approved.

Overtures Nos. 219 to 277, 558, 580 to 585, relating to the rearrangement, consolidation, or federation of the Boards of Church Erection and Home Missions. It is recommended that the following action be taken:

In view of the large number of Overtures and the importance of the subject, the Committee recommends as follows:

That until the Courts pass on the validity of the merger of The College Board and Board of Education, it is not wise to attempt any further consolidations. It is, however, recommended that the matter of closer coöperation, rearrangement, or future union between these Boards be referred to the Executive Commission, for thorough investigation and report to the Assembly of 1918.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Chairman.

The Moderator announced the names of members of the National Service Commission. The complete list appears elsewhere in this volume.

The order of the day having arrived, the Report of the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work was made by J. William Smith, D.D., Chairman, and pending its adoption, an address was made by Alexander Henry, D.D. The Report was adopted as follows:

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work respectfully reports as follows:

It would be difficult to over-emphasize the importance of the work of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work. It deals not only with the beginnings of the Christian life, but with their training and development. The work of the Board is carried on under four Departments. The General Assembly is requested to adopt the several recommendations herewith submitted.

I. The first part of this Report deals with the Editorial Department.

1. The Assembly heartily commends the periodicals of the Board and urges our schools to use them. The Christian Educator is commended to pastors, superintendents and other educational leaders in the local churches, and it is recommended that a club for the periodical be formed in every church.

2. We note with approval the Board's announcement of "a forward step in lesson making." The Departmental Graded Lessons are a distinct advance over the Closely Graded Lessons, and will be found useful in schools both large and small. This system provides one lesson for all the pupils of a department, and gives all the lessons in the course in successive years. The Closely Graded Lessons will be available for all schools desiring them.

3. We urge pastors and sessions to push the circulation of "A Book of Family Worship," which the Board has prepared in accordance with the instructions of the General Assembly of 1913.

4. In answer to Overtures Nos. 302 and 303, from the Presbyteries of Twin Falls and Boisé, asking that the Forward devote space regularly to material on the Monthly Concert of Prayer for Missions, it is recommended that no action be taken.

5. Regarding Overture No. 301, from the Presbytery of Shenango, asking for more Psalter Hymns, it is recommended that no action be taken.

6. In keeping with the action of the General Assembly of 1916, we express our approval of the efforts of the Board to give the Church "a satisfactory series of hymnals," and that we sanction the request of the Board for the issuance of a supplement to the Hymnal known as "The Supplement of 1917," as follows:

(1). The national anthem and words of Francis Scott Key, "The Star-Spangled Banner," omitting verse 3.

(2). The hymn of Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, known as "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," with its proper tune.

(3). The hymn of Rudyard Kipling, known as "Recessional," set to the music most available for congregational use.

II. The second part of our Report deals with the Missionary Department.

1. It is recommended that the policy of the Board in coöperating with the Home Mission activities of the Church by placing missionary Sabbath-schools under the care of neighboring churches wherever practicable, be commended by the Assembly as an effective means of developing and extending Home Mission parishes, besides providing for the permanency of such mission schools.

2. That pastors and Sessions be reminded of the importance of placing the cause of Sabbath-school Missions upon the regular budget of congregational benevolences, in addition to the offerings given by the Sabbath-schools on Children's Day and Rally Day, and a generous response to the budget feature of this recommendation will enable the Board to enlarge both its missions and colportage work as necessity may require.

3. That the Board be recommended to prepare a patriotic programme with suitable exercises for use in connection with Rally Day, 1917.

4. That the Sabbath-schools be urged to observe Children's Day not only as a means of developing the life and activity of the local school, but as an appropriate time for remembering the needs of the children of our land who are without Sabbath-school privileges, providing by liberal offerings for the support of our Sabbath-school missionaries.

5. That the Assembly approves and commends the action of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work and of the Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation in making it possible for the Sabbath-school missionaries to become members of the Sustentation Fund.

6. In response to the request of the Home Mission Council asking the formation of a plan to secure "close and sympathetic contact of the field operations" of the Board of Sabbath School Work and the Home Mission Board, the Assembly recommends the adoption by Presbyteries and Synods in which Sabbath-school missionary work is being carried on, of the plan recommended by a previous General Assembly, providing for interchangeable membership of the Committees on Home Missions and Sabbath School Work, and the holding of a joint meeting of the two committees at least once a year. This plan is being successfully followed in a number of Presbyteries and Synods, resulting in satisfactory coöperation in the prosecution of field work.

III. The third part of our Report deals with the Department of Religious Education:

1. The Assembly heartily commends the efforts of this department which has charge of the various educational agencies of the local church including Young People's Work, in vigorously prosecuting, during the past year, the work committed to it.

2. We note with interest and approval the increased activity of the department in promoting organized Bible classes among the men of the Church, and we heartily commend its efforts to advance religion in the home and express the hope that a suitable manual for catechetical instruction may be prepared.

3. In response to Overture No. 428, from Chicago Presbytery, asking the Assembly to recognize the Vacation Daily Bible School as a permanent part of Presbyterian activity, we recommend favorable action, suggesting that the official supervision of these schools be committed to the joint oversight of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work and the Board of Home Missions, leaving the amount of money thus to be used to the discretion of the two Boards.

4. We are glad to learn that the Young People's Department is keeping step with the religious life of to-day in organizing among our Young People such societies and organizations as will conserve the interests of our Church and advance the cause of Christ. We are especially pleased with the marked success of the summer and winter conferences among our Young People, and we approve of the enlargement of this work. In accordance with the action of former Assemblies, we recommend that the first Sabbath in February, 1918, be observed as Young People's Day, and that our Young People on that day make a special offering for the work being carried on by our denomination in their behalf.

IV. The fourth part of our Report deals with the Business Department. Your Committee has carefully examined the reports for the year, which they find in good shape and duly audited by the authorized committee, as well as by the special accountants. We feel that the Board, considering the character of the business, has been able to make a very creditable showing.

We note that a special examination has been made by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., and are glad to note that the accounts of the Board have been kept in such shape that they were, in the main, approved, and such suggestions as were made will be put into effect as promptly as possible.

We cordially commend the policy of the Board in establishing and maintaining depositories, or book stores in important centres throughout the country. We understand that this is done at considerable investment of capital, the returns upon which are not always adequate, but we believe the policy is a wise one, and in no other way could the Board keep in close touch with its constituency and render to the Church the service which is demanded.

We are particularly gratified to learn that in San Francisco the Board is coöperating with the other Presbyterian agencies of that community by establishing Presbyterian headquarters, providing a room for the meetings of ministers, and subletting a part of their proposed new location to the Foreign and Home Mission Boards, for the use of their representatives in that city.

It is recommended that this policy of the Board have the hearty approval of the General Assembly.

In conclusion it is recommended that the Board's Minutes be approved and that the Assembly confirm the election by the Board of C. H. Ruhl, Esq., of Reading, Pa., to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. Bernard Gilpin.

2. It is recommended that the following ministers and elders whose term of office expires in June, 1917, be reëlected for a term of three years: Ministers—John Harvey Lee, Frank Lukens, John B. Laird, James Ramsey Swain, George H. Mack; Elders—Abraham R. Perkins, Roland M. Eavenson, C. H. Ruhl, C. T. Kirkpatrick, T. Edward Ross.

Respectfully submitted,

J. William Smith, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Temperance was made through its Chairman, Floyd Poe, D.D., and pending its adoption, the Assembly was addressed by Rev. William M. Woodfin, Charles Scanlon, LL.D., and G. W. Wadsworth, D.D. The Report was adopted as follows:

The hour for Temperance has struck. This Assembly will go down in history as the "Great Temperance Assembly." We have at last come to the place where we boldly emphasize the fact that the Church is called upon to save conditions, that character growth may be made possible as well as to save character itself. So much has already been said during this Assembly on this subject that almost anything which your Committee on Temperance might add would be but an echo, and a faint one. So we refrain from comment and offer our brief Report in the form of the following resolutions:

1. That the minutes of the Board of Temperance be found in order, and that the treasurer's report be found correct as certified by a public accountant.

2. That the churches be urged to use in a more extended way the literature of the Board of Temperance, which literature receives the merited and freely given praise of the people of our own denomination and also of other organizations interested in this work.

3. That the Assembly expresses its utmost confidence in the judgment of the Board and its agencies and also its enthusiastic endorsement of their splendid work.

4. That the Board's larger plans for the future be commended and heartily endorsed.

5. That the Assembly expresses its deep devotion to the memory of Dr. John F. Hill, who for twenty-eight years was the corresponding secretary of the Temperance Board, and Elder A. A. Hersperger, who for ten years was a member of the Board, both having died during the past year.

6. That the following be elected members of the Board of Temperance for the term of 1917–1920: Rev. Thomas Watters, D.D., Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., Rev. George Taylor, Jr., D.D., Elder R. V. Johnson, Elder Hallock C. Sherrard, Elder James H. Gray.

7. That we disapprove the use of tobacco, and that it is recommended that the General Board of Education refuse aid to any student who uses it in any form.

8. That we most emphatically condemn the use of intoxicating beverages, and that it is recommended that the General Board of Education refuse aid to any student using them.

9. That we once more affirm that the use of the unfermented juice of the fruit of the vine serves the purpose of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

10. That Overtures 449 and 450, relative to prohibition during the war, have been answered by the adoption of the Report of the Special Committee on the State of the Nation, your Committees on Temperance being continually on record in favor of national prohibition at all times.

11. That the traffic in intoxicating liquors is more than an economic question to be dealt with adversely as a matter of expediency; that it is more emphatically a relentless foe to morality and Christianity, and as such must be relentlessly fought by the Church until righteousness, not economy, hath exalted the nation.

12. That the great Presbyterian Church extends its most hearty greetings to all those organizations and movements which have similar hopes and prayers for the suppression of the liquor traffic.

13. We solemnly protest against the destruction of good American supplies (sent to our allies to feed the hungry), in the manufacture of alcoholic beverages.

14. That the War Department be requested to locate or relocate all training camps in places where the temptation to drink and vice are prohibited.

In behalf of the Committee,

FLOYD POE, Chairman.

The Rev. Dr. J. C. R. Ewing, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in India, was presented to the Assembly.

The Moderator made announcement that the Assembly was about to sit as a Court of the Lord Jesus Christ. The record of Judicial Cases Nos. 4 and 5 was presented by the Stated Clerk and read by the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission. The preliminary judgment of the Commission in each case was by due action made the final judgment of the Assembly. The records read:

Judicial Case No. 4.—L. Harold Forde vs. the Synod of Wyoming.

In the matter of the complaint of L. Harold Forde vs. the Synod of Wyoming, complaining of the action of the Synod in the matter of the election of a representative to the Home Mission Council, the Permanent Judicial Commission reports as follows:

1. There has been presented to the Commission no authenticated copy of the action complained of.

2. The complainant did not, either in person or by counsel, appear before the Commission to prosecute his complaint, and it is therefore considered by the Commission that the complaint is abandoned (Book of Discipline, Chapter IX, Section 97).

The judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission is that for the above reasons the complaint be dismissed. (See Waddell vs. Synod of Pennsylvania, decided this date.)

For the Commission,

JOHN GRANT NEWMAN, Moderator;
THOMAS E. D. BRADLEY, Clerk.

Judicial Case No. 5.—Protest of the Synod of Missouri against a decision of the General Assembly of 1916.

The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., having had referred to it a written statement from the Synod of Missouri, called a protest against the decision of the General Assembly of 1916, taking exception to the records of said Synod, which records showed approval of the appointment of trustees of the Anti-saloon League, do respectfully report:

That said so-called protest is not entertained for the reason that the same is in fact an attempt to obtain a review of the action of a former General Assembly and a reversal of former rulings pertaining to the handling of non-ecclesiastical matters. A protest as defined by Chapter X, Section 104, of the Book of Discipline, is:

"A more formal declaration, made by one or more members of a minority, bearing testimony against what is deemed a mischievous or erroneous proceeding, decision or judgment, and including a statement of the reasons therefor."

A protest in order to be legal must be made by a member of a minority of the same judicatory whose action is protested against, and cannot be made by an inferior judicatory against a superior; and no one should be allowed to protest on any question who did not vote against the decision when rendered and who has not a right to vote on the question decided.

In view of the foregoing provisions of the law of the Church and of these facts, your Permanent Judicial Commission is of the opinion that no action can legally be taken on the paper in question, and recommends that it be not entertained.

For the Commission,
JOHN GRANT NEWMAN, Moderator;
THOMAS E. D. BRADLEY, Clerk.

The Assembly arose as a Court of the Lord Jesus Christ, the judicial business being completed.

The Secretaries of the Boards present at the General Assembly were made, by resolution duly adopted, a Committee to nominate all the members of the Social Service Commission.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief and Sustentation presented a supplementary Report, on Overture No. 557 from Iowa Presbytery, which was adopted.*

The Judicial Committee reported on Overture No. 551, from the Presbytery of San Francisco-Oakland, recommending that it be returned to the parties interested, and as follows:

The Judicial Committee having examined certain papers and heard certain parties, in connection with Overture No. 551, from the Presbytery of San Francisco-Oakland, and learning that a complaint has been taken to the Synod of California, and recognizing this as an orderly and appropriate procedure, hereby recommend the return of these papers to the interested parties.

sions was held on Wednesday, May 23, at 8 o'clock P.M., according to the programme duly prepared.

THURSDAY, May 24, 1917, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met at 9 o'clock A.M., and was opened with prayer.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Permanent Judicial Commission reported, and the Report was approved as follows:

The Permanent Judicial Commission reports that it has concluded all matters referred to it, and is now ready to adjourn sine die, unless otherwise directed by the Assembly. It also reports that the following officers have been elected for the ensuing year: Hon. W. E. Settle, Moderator; Rev. W. O. Carrier, D.D., Vice-Moderator, and Emory A. Camp, Esq., Clerk.

JOHN GRANT NEWMAN, Moderator;
THOMAS E. D. BRADLEY, Clerk.

The Assembly proceeded under the Rule, to the election of the members of the Permanent Judicial Commission, the names of nominees having been already submitted on Tuesday to the Assembly by the Judicial Committee. The Stated Clerk was unanimously authorized to cast the vote of the Assembly for the following persons as members of said Permanent Judicial Commission for three years: Ministers—William G. Reagle, D.D., of the Synod of Ohio; Willard K. Spencer, D.D., of the Synod of Michigan; Ruling Elders—Hon. J. E. Williamson, of the Synod of Indiana; Hon. S. L. Nuchols, of the Synod of North Dakota, and Mr. John E. Green, of the Synod of Minnesota; also to fill a vacancy, Paul H. Gaither, Esq., of the Synod of Pennsylvania.

The Stated Clerk cast the ballot as authorized and the Moderator declared the above-named persons elected.

The Assembly received the Report of the Committee to nominate members of the Executive Commission. The persons nominated in addition to the Moderator, Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., who is a member by the Rule of the Assembly, were the Rev. Aquilla Webb, D.D., of the Synod of Kentucky; Rev. Joseph A. Stevenson, D.D., of the Synod of California; Hon. D. S. Alexander, of the Synod of New York, and the Hon. Montgomery Webster, of the Synod of Michigan, all to serve for three years.

The Stated Clerk was unanimously authorized to cast the ballot of the Assembly for the above-named persons as members of the Executive Commission for the term of three years. The ballot was cast as authorized, and the Moderator declared them elected to the Executive Commission for the term designated.

The Standing Committee on Polity reported through its Chairman, H. M. Mendenhall, D.D., upon Overtures referred to it, in addition to Overtures 1 to 176 and 178, on Organic Union already reported. (See p. 119.) The Report was adopted and is as follows:

Overtures Nos. 522 to 550, twenty-eight in all, relating to the proposed new Chapter 18 of the Form of Government, "Of Missions," asking the Assembly to refer said chapter back to a Committee, to be rewritten with a view to the elimination of certain objectionable features which are pointed out in Overtures. It is recommended that these Overtures be referred to the Executive Commission for consideration, and that a report be made to the next General Assembly.

Overture No. 177, from Fort Worth Presbytery, relating to local unions and federations, asking that the General Assembly devise some plan whereby the waste, friction and overlapping of the Churches of the U. S. A. and U. S. Assemblies may, for the present, be overcome through local unions or federations, with the sanction of both Assemblies, anticipating the final organic union of the two Assemblies. It is recommended that this Overture be referred to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union with instructions to carry out the spirit of the request so far as it can be done, having in mind the peace and prosperity of the two Churches.

Overtures Nos. 179 to 182, relating to union of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist or Presbyterian Church, asking that the Assembly refer the matter to its Special Committee on Coöperation and Union. It is recommended that this request be granted, with instructions to coöperate with a similar committee from the Welsh Church on this subject, and that the action of this Assembly regarding union be communicated to the Welsh Church.

Overture No. 298, from Monroe Presbytery, asking that the General Assembly request the Presbyteries not to receive men from other denominations unless they meet the full Presbyterian requirements of a college degree, or its equivalent and a seminary diploma. It is recommended that the following answer be given: The power of Presbytery in such cases is fully covered by Section 16 of Chapter XV of our Form of Government, and this Assembly instructs Presbyteries to faithfully observe the instructions given them in cases of this nature, as set forth in our Form of Government. (See Presbyterian Digest of 1906, page 1073.)

Overture No. 518, from Montana Synod, relating to the organization of the new Presbytery of Lewistown, by said Synod, asking the Assembly's approval of this action. It is recommended that this request be granted and that its boundaries, churches and ministers be the same as appointed by the Montana Synod of 1916; that the new Presbytery meet at Lewistown on June 15, 1917, and that Rev. W. A. Stevenson, Ph.D., be appointed to convene this Presbytery and to preside until his successor shall be elected.

Overture No. 519, from the Presbytery of North Laos, relating to the name of said Presbytery, asking that it be changed to North Siam. It is recommended that this request be granted, and that the Presbytery of North Laos shall hereafter be known as the Presbytery of North Siam.

Overture No. 520, from the Presbytery of San Francisco-Oakland, relating to the name of said Presbytery, asking that it be changed to San Francisco. It is recommended that this request be granted.

Overture No. 521, from the Presbytery of Dallas, on amending the Book of Discipline, asking that the Assembly transmit an Overture for the amendment of Section 132 of the Book of Discipline, which relates to the Assembly's Permanent Judicial Commission. It is recommended that the following Overture be transmitted to the Presbyteries for adoption. Shall Section 132 of the Book of Discipline be amended by inserting after the first sentence in said Section 132 the following:

"In this review instead of the record in the case, the finding of the facts by the Judicial Commission shall be read."

As amended the whole section would read as follows:

"The preliminary judgment in any case may be reviewed by the General Assembly to which it has been reported, and may be affirmed, reversed, modified, suspended or remitted for further hearing. In this review, instead of the record in the case, the finding of the facts by the Judicial Commission shall be read. On such review, if the case be not remitted, the decision of the General Assembly shall be held to be its final judgment. If the case be not reviewed by the General Assembly to which it has been reported, or if it be reviewed, and no decision be reached, then at the dissolving of the same the preliminary judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission shall be held to be the final judgment of the General Assembly."

Overture No. 552, from the Presbytery of Phœnix, on dropping a minister's name, asking the Assembly "to permit said Presbytery to drop from its ministerial roll the name of Charles L. Corwin, whose whereabouts have been unknown for more than five years. It is recommended that the Overture be answered in the affirmative, and that the name above given be erased from the roll.

Overture No. 553, from West Jersey Presbytery, relating to the transfer of a minister, asking the Assembly to authorize the Presbytery of Yukon to enroll the name of Rev. Wallace Marple, as a member of said Presbytery, after receipt of a letter of dismission from the West Jersey Presbytery. The Assembly grants this request and authorizes the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly to enroll the name of Rev. Wallace Marple as a member of the Presbytery of Yukon.

Overtures Nos. 451 to 517 and 606 to 613, seventy-three in all, asking the Assembly to submit to the Presbyteries the question as to the eligibility of ruling elders to the office of Moderator of the General Assembly. It is recommended that the following answer be given: This question was before our Presbyteries in 1886–1887, when 50 answered it in the affirmative and 119 in the negative; 9 took no action, and 25 made no report, and the proposed change was not approved.

Inasmuch as thirty-one years have elapsed since this question was given to the Church and a large number of Presbyteries ask for the change at this time, it is recommended that the following proposed addition to Chapter XIX, Section 3, of the Form of Government, be Overtured to the Presbyteries for their action:

"In case the Moderator of any judicatory, above the Church Session, shall be a ruling elder, he may open the next meeting with an address; but any acts appropriate only to an ordained minister of the Gospel shall be performed by a minister appointed by such ruling elder."

It is further recommended that an Overture be recommended to the Presbyteries for their action as follows:

Shall Chapter XII, Section 7, of our Form of Government, be amended, by the insertion of the following two clauses, in their appropriate place, viz.:

(a) "Or if the Moderator be a ruling elder, with an appropriate address," and (b) "In the absence of the Moderator, some other minister or other ruling elder shall be chosen to perform the duties above specified"; so that the whole section shall read as follows:

"The General Assembly shall meet at least once in every year. On the day appointed for that purpose the Moderator of the last Assembly, if present, shall open the meeting with a sermon, or if the Moderator be a ruling elder with an appropriate address, and he shall preside until a new Moderator be chosen. In the absence of the Moderator, some other minister or other ruling elder shall be chosen to perform the duties above specified. No Commissioner shall have a right to deliberate or vote in the Assembly until his name shall have been enrolled by the Clerk, and his commission examined and filed among the papers of the Assembly."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HARLAN G. MENDENHALL, Chairman.

The Assembly passed a hearty and unanimous vote of thanks to Rev. Dr. Harlan G. Mendenhall, Chairman of the Committee on Polity, for his services in relation to the Overtures on Union with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Union reported through its Chairman, Wm. H. Roberts, D.D. The Report was approved, and the recommendations adopted as follows:

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Union respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Report, arranged under the following heads:

I. The Presbyterian Church and other Churches.
II. Jurisdiction.
III. Meetings.
IV. Members.
V. The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.
VI. The Disciples of Christ.
VII. The Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored.
VIII. The Plan of Union of all the Churches of the Presbyterian Household in the U. S. A.
IX. The Presbyterian Church in the U. S.
X. The World Conference on Faith and Order.

I. The Presbyterian Church and Other Churches.

The Committee draws attention again to the following declaration of the Assembly, setting forth in clear terms the attitude of the Presbyterian Church towards other Churches:

"The Presbyterian Church holds Christian fellowship with all who confess and obey Jesus Christ as their divine Saviour and Lord, and acknowledges the duty of all Churches that recognize Him, as the only Head of the Church Universal, to work together in harmony and love for the extension of His Kingdom and the good of the world; and this Assembly earnestly desires to commend and promote this Christian coöperation, and also practically to advance the cause of Church Union by confederation, and, where possible, by consolidation among the Churches of the Reformed Faith, which are most nearly akin in doctrine and organization."

The Committee has endeavored in all its work to advance the high ideals expressed in this deliverance of the General Assembly, remembering the words of the Holy Ghost, through the Apostle Paul, "There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all."

II. Jurisdiction.

The Committee also draws attention to the original terms of the appointment of the Committee, so far as necessary to set forth its instructions and jurisdiction:

"Whereas, This Assembly earnestly desires to commend and promote Christian coöperation, and also practically to advance the cause of Church Union by confederation, and, where possible, by consolidation among the Churches of the Reformed Faith, which are most nearly akin in doctrine and organization; therefore, be it

"Resolved, 1. That a Committee be appointed by the Moderator to consider the whole subject of coöperation, confederation and consolidation with other Churches.

"Resolved, 2. That this Committee be instructed to enter into correspondence with any Churches of the Reformed Family with whom, in the judgment of the Committee, such correspondence would be likely to promote closer relations.

"Resolved, 3. That this Committee shall report to the next Assembly such plans and measures as seem to them wise, proper and profitable for the advancement of fraternal relations, for the increase of harmonious work, and, if God shall open the way, and incline the hearts of the Churches thereto, for the reunion of those who hold the same faith and order in the service of Christ. Adopted." (Minutes, 1903, pp. 90, 91.)

III. Meetings.

The Committee has held two meetings during the year. The first meeting was held at St. Louis, Mo., December 8 and 9, 1916, during the sessions of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. The second meeting was held at Philadelphia, Pa., March 27, 1917.

IV. Members.

The Committee has suffered a serious loss during the year in the death of two of its members, the Rev. James David Moffat, D.D., who died at Washington, Pa., November 4, 1916, aged 70, and the Rev. Robert Francis Coyle, D.D., who died at Fullerton, Cal., January 5, 1917, aged 66.

Both these brethren had been members of the Committee since 1904.

The Committee places on record the following memorial minutes:

The Rev. James David Moffat, D.D., LL.D., was a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College, and studied at Princeton Theological Seminary, 1869–71. After service as pastor of the Second Church, Wheeling, W. Va., he became, in 1882, the president of Washington and Jefferson College, and continued in relation to the institution until his death. His services were much in demand as a preacher, for his pulpit ability was notable. Moderator of the General Assembly at Winona Lake, Ind., in 1905, he served from time to time on several important Committees of the General Assembly, and when he died was a member of this Committee and Chairman of the Special Committee on Theological Seminaries. In the business of this Committee, his judgment was much relied upon, and the chairman and other members desire to place on record their high appreciation of their association with him and of his helpfulness to them in all their work. Few men have been privileged to render so large service to the Church, both as college president, as Presbyter, as Moderator of the Assembly, and in many lines of moral and religious effort, as Dr. Moffat. He was truly a man great in his abilities and great in the services which he rendered to education and to the Christian Church. He was as fine and beautiful in character and spirit as he was masterly in ability and eminent in distinction. His passing creates a wide vacancy, but he left foundations on which others will long build.

The Rev. Robert Francis Coyle, D.D., LL.D., was a graduate of Wabash College, and studied theology at Auburn Theological Seminary in 1877–78. As pastor, he served in several important churches, and always with success. In 1903 at Los Angeles, Cal., he was Moderator of the General Assembly. Dr. Coyle was one of the strong and efficient pastors and preachers of the Church. His sympathies were broad, his interest in the practical life intense, his heart warm, his brain clear, and his utterance fluent and forceful. As a member of this Committee on Coöperation and Union in its earlier days, he was most serviceable and his counsels helpful. In later days the long distance to California prevented, as a rule, his attendance, but as a man he always ranked as one of the most efficient members of the Committee. We make mention of his remarkable personality, his winsome and attractive manners, and his courageous labors. He rests from his life of strenuous and efficient leadership.

The several vacancies in the membership of the Committee caused by death or resignation were filled by the Moderator, by the appointment of Rev. James H. Snowden, D.D., Rev. Wm. P. Merrill, D.D., Rev. Harlan G. Mendenhall, D.D., and Prof. J. J. McConnell.

The Committee now consists of: Ministers—Wm. H. Roberts, D.D., Reuben H. Hartley, D.D., James H. Snowden, D.D., Wm. McKibbin, D.D., Chas. R. Erdman, D.D., Edgar P. Hill, D.D., Robert Mackenzie, D.D., Wm. H. Black, D.D., Wm. J. Darby, D.D., Edgar A. Elmore, D.D., J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., George Reynolds, D.D., Charles Little, D.D., John F. Carson, D.D., Wm. P. Merrill, D.D., H. G. Mendenhall, D.D.; Elders—Gen. George H. Shields, Judge John A. McIlvaine, Henry W. Jessup, Esq., Hon. E. E. Beard, Robert S. Fulton, Esq., Prof. J. J. McConnell.

V. The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

The Federal Council held its third quadrennial meeting at St. Louis, Mo., December 6 to 11, 1916. There was a good representation present from the several constituent Churches of the Council. The report of the proceedings has not as yet been published, and the report thereupon cannot be of a detailed character. The following matters are noted:

The president of the Council for the current term of four years is the Rev. Frank Mason North, D.D., secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Rev. Charles S. Macfarland, Ph.D., was reëlected as the general secretary. The chairmen of the Commissions were all changed by the president, with the exception of the Commission on Interchurch Federations, and likewise the membership. Among the members many of those who had previously served were reappointed. Three of the commissions were replaced by committees, by action of the Council, viz.: Family Life and Religious Rest Day; Foreign Missions, and Home Missions. The number of the commissions now is eight, as follows: Interchurch Federations; Evangelism; Church and Social Service; Church and Country Life; Temperance; Christian Education; International Justice and Goodwill; Relations to the Orient.

The Committee reports that the delegates appointed by the Assembly of 1916 were, to a considerable extent, present at the Council. Two of them, however, were removed by death, the Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., LL.D., and Mr. E. S. Wells. There were also vacancies occasioned by the pressure upon delegates of business engagements. The Committee exercising the authority given it by the Assembly, filled the vacancies, and the members of the delegation, as finally named, and present at St. Louis were as follows:

Beard, Hon. E. E., Lebanon, Tenn.
Bergen, Rev. John T., D.D., Minneapolis, Minn.
Biederwolf, Rev. W. E., D.D., Chicago, Ill.
Black, Rev. William H., D.D., Marshall, Mo.
Bryan, Hon. William Jennings, Lincoln, Neb.
Carson, Rev. John F., D.D., Brooklyn, N. Y.
Darby, Rev. William J., D.D., Evansville, Ind.
Edenburn, Rev. John S., D.D., Toledo, Ohio.
Edwards, Mr. Benjamin F., St. Louis, Mo.
Fulton, Robert S., Esq., Cincinnati, Ohio.
Hartley, Rev. Reuben H., D.D., Quincy, Ill.
Hill, Rev. Edgar P., D.D., Chicago, Ill.
Hunter, Rev. Robert, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa.
Jennings, Rev. W. Beatty, D.D., Germantown, Pa.
Jones, Rev. David Hugh, D.D., Evanston, Ill.
Landon, Pres. Warren H., D.D., San Anselmo, Cal.
Little, Rev. Charles, D.D., Wabash, Ind.
Marquis, Pres. John A., D.D., Cedar Rapids, Ia.
McKibbin, Rev. William, D.D., Cincinnati, Ohio.
Minton, Rev. Henry Collin, D.D., Trenton, N. J.
Montgomery, Rev. R. A., D.D., St. Louis, Mo.
Odell, Rev. Arthur L., D.D., St. Louis, Mo.
Reynolds, Rev. George, D.D., New Rochelle, N. Y.
Roberts, Rev. W. H., D.D., Philadelphia, Pa.
Schaff, Rev. D. S., D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa.
Scott, Mr. William H., Philadelphia, Pa.
Shields, Gen. George H., St. Louis, Mo.
Skilling, Rev. David M., D.D., Webster Grove, Mo.
Smith, Rev. J. Frank, D.D., Dallas, Texas.
Templeton, Rev. S. M., D.D., Rockwall, Texas.
Thompson, Rev. Charles L., D.D., New York City.
Thompson, Rev. William O., D.D., Columbus, Ohio.

It is to be definitely understood that the list of Principal and Alternate delegates appointed to the Federal Council by the General Assembly of 1916, and reported on pages 35 and 36 of the Minutes, is still the authoritative list, subject to such change as the Committee may make under the power given it by the General Assembly.

The statistics of the constituent Churches of the Federal Council for 1916 are hereby submitted for information:

The attention of the General Assembly is asked to the summarized report of the Federal Council, printed in the Appendix, and also to the following resolutions approved by the Council:

1. Evangelism.—The Council, after a debate caused by the action of one of the delegations to the Council which opposed its passage, adopted the following resolution as to a nation-wide campaign. This campaign had been planned by the Rev. Dr. Wm. E. Biederwolf, who is secretary of the Commission on Evangelism.

Resolved, That the action of the Eexcutive Committee of the Federal Council, at Columbus, Ohio, authorizing the Commission on Evangelism, through its own Executive Committee, to promote a nation-wide movement of evangelistic endeavor, in coöperation with the various denominational committees, is hereby confirmed and emphasized, and that the various denominational committees be urged to promote by every means in their power this nation-wide movement of evangelistic endeavor.

2. Ministerial Relief and Sustentation.—The Council, feeling that it was necessary to present a more united and comprehensive appeal to Christian people in behalf of the disabled servants of the Church, adopted the following:

Resolved, That a committee of the Federal Council be constituted, consisting of one representative from each of the constituent Churches of the Council, to be known as the Committee on Ministerial Relief and Sustentation. This committee to give consideration to the whole Relief and Sustentation movement, and in particular to the forms of it which are at present operative in the several Churches of the Council, and shall be authorized, in coöperation with all agencies already existing in the constituent bodies of the Federal Council, to prepare and to issue such united appeal for the whole work of Ministerial Sustentation as shall safeguard the integrity of each separate plan and at the same time enhance the claims of the whole movement, this committee to seek the unity and further the efficiency of all plans. The committee shall be a permanent committee of the Federal Council and shall report regularly to the Executive Committee and to the Council.

3. Authority of Certain Portions of Reports.—This question was raised in the Council as to the authority of historical and informational portions of reports, and the following action was taken:

Resolved, That the Council hereby declares that the historical and informational portions of reports of Committees and Commissions approved by the Council are not the voice of the Council in the same sense as the recommendations and resolutions duly adopted.

4. Finances.—At the meeting of the Assembly's Committee held in Philadelphia, March 27, the question was brought up of the appeals made by the Administrative Committee of the Federal Council to Presbyterian congregations for annual contributions towards the expenses of the Council. A resolution contained in the list of general resolutions presented by the Committee is submitted for the consideration of the Assembly. The Assembly annually contributes its share for the general office expenses of the Federal Council, and the members of your Committee feel that the matter of additional contributions should be left to the generosity of individuals, and that the congregations of this Church should be relieved from contributions, as congregations, to the Council. This contribution of the Assembly the past fiscal year amounted to $1,497.

Inasmuch as there has not been time for the Committee to examine in detail the proceedings of the St. Louis Council, it is felt that the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, through a sub-committee, might well undertake the work, report to be made to the next Assembly.

The following resolutions are recommended for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly reaffirms its sympathy with the general purposes of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly again advises the representatives of this Church on the Federal Council to advocate caution in connection with action upon all subjects which are upon the border line of the jurisdiction of the State and the Church.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly again declares that, in view of the doctrinal basis of the Federal Council and of the agreement of the constituent Churches as to fundamentals, the representatives and the officers of the Council should not criticise in public either the distinctive doctrine of the several constituent Churches or the doctrines which they hold in common.

Resolved, 4. That the payment by the General Assembly of an annual sum for the general expenses of the Federal Council makes it unnecessary to request contributions from the particular churches of this denomination for such expenses.

Resolved, 5. That the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union is hereby authorized, as during past years, to represent the General Assembly in all matters dealing with the affairs of the Federal Council, and, in particular, to fill vacancies in the Assembly's representation in the membership of the Council, and also in the official staff of the Council so far as assigned to this Church.

VI. The Disciples of Christ.

This Committee met at St. Louis, Mo., December 8 and 9, 1916, in conference with the Association of the Church of the Disciples, as shown by the minutes of the meeting of that date. The paper prepared by the two chairmen and approved by the Committee is included in this Report, and reads as follows:

"In a joint conference between the Committee on Co-operation and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and a group of Disciples of Christ representing the Association for the Promotion of Christian Unity (formerly known as the Council on Christian Union of the Disciples of Christ), held in St. Louis, December 9, 1916, the historic connection between these Communions was recognized as well as satisfactory expressions given relative to "A Declaration as to Points of Agreement," signed in Philadelphia, March 23, 1916, along with its cordial reception by both bodies in their national gatherings.

"Therefore, it is further recommended:

"1. That in those communities where the Presbyterians and Disciples have representation, efforts be made for closer coöperation, especially by conferences between the ministers and congregations.

"2. That deputations of not less than five persons from each Communion be sent to the respective annual gatherings at their next meeting—the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. at Dallas, Texas, May, 1917, and the General Convention of Churches of Christ at Kansas City, Mo., October, 1917."

In addition to the recommendations just noted, a proposal for the distribution of literature to contribute to a better understanding by the Churches of one another was considered, and a paper on the history and status of the Disciples prepared by the Rev. W. H. Black, D.D., for this committee, was submitted to the committee and approved. The paper on the history and status of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., which was to be prepared by the Rev. Dr. Idleman, of New York City, for the Disciples, has not as yet been presented to either committee. No action will be taken as to this matter of literature, until both committees have had time to deliberate upon the papers above referred to.

It is felt by your committee that negotiations should continue with the Disciples of Christ, and the following resolutions are recommended for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly approves the resolutions numbered 1 and 2 adopted by the conference with the Disciples at St. Louis, Mo., December 8 and 9, 1916.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly authorizes the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union to continue to confer with the Commission on Christian Unity of the Disciples of Christ, with a view to closer relations.

VII. Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored.

A sub-committee was appointed to give attention to the situation in this Church, with the hope that developments might be of a nature that would bring about, in due time, a union. This Committee is composed of Drs. Black, Darby, Elmore, Hill and Mr. Beard. The General Assembly is requested to continue the general committee in charge of negotiations, with a view to Coöperation and Union between the two Churches, so far as practicable.

VIII. Plan of Union of all Presbyterian Churches.

This important subject has received careful attention from the Committee, and the present situation as to the proposed plan of union of all Churches in the United States of the Presbyterian family is as follows:

The Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian system, composed of seven denominations, acts under Articles of Agreement adopted by them either in 1907 or 1908, which authorize the Council in certain matters to act for each and all of them. An Overture was sent down by the Council in 1915, and was approved by the supreme judicatories of five of the Churches, namely: General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.; General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church; General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S., and the Associated Reformed Presbyterian Synod. The Overture empowers the Council to give careful and full attention to "the whole subject of closer relations and more effective administrative coöperation between the several Presbyterian and Reformed Churches represented in the Council, with particular reference to the formulation of an effective federation of their plans, work, and executive or administrative agencies, both in the home and foreign fields."

The Council of the Reformed Churches at its last meeting, in March, 1916, appointed a Committee of Eleven to proceed with the consideration of the subject of closer relations during the present Church year. That Committee, however, has not been prepared to act on other than administrative matters dealing with the work of the Boards and agencies, and the Executive Committee of the Council was authorized, therefore, to coöperate with the Committee in the particular matter of "closer relations."

At the meeting of the Executive Committee held recently in Philadelphia, it became evident that conditions were not favorable at present to any movement towards closer relations than those which now exist. The movement for union between the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Reformed Church in the U. S., as is well known, failed, but not because of any negative action by the Presbyterian Church. A similar movement for the union of the United Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. has likewise failed. Further, the feeling of a number of ministers of the Reformed Church in America is unfavorable at present to anything like an attempt either at federal union or organic union. And, the Executive Committee of the Council has directed that the subject of "closer relations" be definitely submitted for the consideration of the several supreme judicatories at their next meetings. There appears, therefore, to be nothing that can be done at this time except to recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union is hereby authorized and directed to conduct negotiations with the Committee of the Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System, and with committees appointed by any Churches of the Presbyterian household, with a view to closer relations between the Churches.

IX. The Presbyterian Church in the U. S.

The attention of the Committee was drawn by Rev. Dr. H. G. Mendenhall, one of its members, to an Overture of the Presbytery of New York to this General Assembly, with reference to union between the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. The Committee, while deeply interested in the proposal, took no action thereupon other than to authorize the chairman to prepare a brief statement as to the relations between the two Churches.

The separation between these two Churches took place in 1861 and was caused by the Civil War. A large number of Presbyterians met at Augusta, Ga., December 4, 1861, and organized a body which was known for four years as "The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the Confederate States of America." At the close of the war, this Church took its present title of "The Presbyterian Church in the United States." Fraternal relations between the two Churches were effected in 1882, and repeated efforts for closer relations have produced thus far only an increased sense of fellowship between them, and methods of coöperation in certain lines of Christian work, such as Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Sunday-school publications, etc. That the Churches have been drawing closer together is certain.

In this connection it is well to note that the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., reported, in 1916, 348,223 communicants in its membership, and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., 1,560,009. The Southern Church is chiefly confined to what are known as the Border and Southern States. The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. has 209,939 members in the same territory.

This subject of union was before the General Assembly in 1904, and the following action was taken:

"WHEREAS, It is known to this Assembly that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now in session at Mobile, Ala., has before it Overtures from several of its Presbyteries looking to closer relations with this Assembly; and

"WHEREAS, We earnestly desire to remove all obstacles to such relations; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That this General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America hereby removes all aspersions and charges of any and every kind made by previous Assemblies, reflecting on the Christian character of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and is ready at any time to confer on the subject of closer relations, whenever such conference shall be agreeable to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States." (See Minutes, 1904, p. 22.)

The response thereto was the appointment by the Southern Assembly of a Committee of Nine to confer with similar committees appointed by other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches. This conference was held at Pittsburgh, Pa., in December, 1905, and your Committee reported thereupon as follows:

"The Committee would report that an informal meeting of two sessions was held, at Pittsburgh, with the Committees on Closer Relations of other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches and of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. The whole subject of the relations of the two Churches was considered in a frank, considerate, and kindly spirit. A large part of the time of the sessions was given to devotional exercises. It was understood that nothing but the fact of this informal and thoroughly fraternal meeting should be reported to the Assembly. The Committee records its gratification over the brotherly spirit manifested by all the members of the two Committees." (Minutes, 1905, p. 117.)

X. THE WORLD CONFERENCE ON FAITH AND ORDER.

The World Conference Commission of the Protestant Episcopal Church, with the aid of associated Churches has secured the appointment of sixty commissions, covering almost every quarter of the globe, and representing a considerable number of the important Communions of Christendom.

The European War has prevented the issuance of formal invitations to many Churches in Europe and Asia, which come within the scope of the Conference as confessing Jesus Christ as God and Saviour.

In spite of the war, a large correspondence has been carried on with eminent members of the European and Eastern Churches. Distinguished members of these have cordially approved the project of the conference. Articles about it have been printed in a number of ecclesiastical magazines in Europe.

As, however, almost all the Communions in North America had appointed commissions, it was felt wise that they should attempt preliminary work while waiting for the opportunity to secure the coöperation of the Communions whose headquarters are in Europe. Therefore, the North American Preparation Committee was appointed, which met at Garden City, New York, January 23 and 24, 1917.

The representatives of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. present were: Drs. Roberts, Marquis and Black. The Moderator of the Assembly, Dr. Marquis, presided over the meeting of the committee.

General discussions were had on the objects of the conference so far as related to the American Churches.

The committee was organized by the appointment of the following officers and committees:

Chairman, Rt. Rev. Charles B. Anderson, D.D.

Vice-Chairman, Rev. Bishop Luther B. Wilson, D.D.

Secretary, Robert H. Gardiner.

Treasurer, Lucien C. Warner.

Finance Committee—Francis Lynde Stetson, L. H. Baldwin, Arthur C. James, Lucien C. Warner and R. A. Long.

Executive Committee—Rev. Peter Ainslie, D.D., Rev. Clarence E. Barbour, D.D., William M. Birks, Hon. Justice Maclaren, John R. Mott, LL.D., Rev. J. B. Remensnyder, D.D., Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Rev. Newman Smyth, D.D., and Rev. John J. Wynne, S.J.

The proceedings of the meeting have not as yet been published.

The Executive Committee has proceeded with its work and has approached the several commissions in North America requesting that each of them prepare statements as to the propositions of Faith and Order which each Commission considers to be (a) held in common by its own Communion and the rest of Christendom, and (b) held by its own Communion as its special trust, and the ground upon which it stands apart from other Communions. These propositions are to be collated, and a report will be prepared exhibiting the agreements and the differences between the several Communions.

The following resolutions are recommended for adoption:

Resolved, 1. The Assembly approves of the steps thus far taken by the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union in the matter of the movement for the World Conference on Faith and Order proposed by the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S.; provided, however, that any agreement made by the Committee shall not be binding upon the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., until there shall have been report made thereon to the General Assembly and its approval secured.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly advises that the Committee should continue to decline to determine any questions as to Faith and Order, but should deal only with plans and methods preparatory to the World Conference.

Resolved, 3. That, pending the continuance of the movement for a World Conference on Faith and Order under the direction of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, it is unwise for any other body to take steps for an official World Congress of all Christian Churches to consider the subject of Church Unity.

Resolved, 4. That, in view of the fact that this General Assembly has not as yet made any contribution to the expenses of the World Conference, said Conference is hereby commended for contributions to generous members of the Church, and the sum of $1,000 be, and hereby is appropriated from the contingent fund of the Assembly for the expenses of the North American Preparation Committee, subject to the order of the Assembly's Committee.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly again entrusts the negotiations having in view of the proposed World Conference and all matters connected with the preparations therefor, expenses included, to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, as the authorized representative of the Assembly.

The Committee in closing its report, believes that the present great World War, while raising problems of the most serious character, may yet, under the guidance of God, result in advantage, both in the United States and elsewhere, to the cause and Kingdom of Jesus Christ. While Christians should sincerely mourn before God the conditions which have made this terrible war possible, they yet should cherish an assured hope that He will overrule all evil for good. The deepening of religious feeling throughout North America is very marked as a result of the solemn situation. It does not become believers to lose heart, but they should draw yet closer together, obeying the apostolic injunction "to stand fast in one spirit with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel and in nothing terrified by your adversaries."

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The following paper as to Russia was adopted:

WHEREAS, Notwithstanding the suffering and horrors of the present World War, greatly intensified as the months have passed, there are many manifest evidences of God's wonderful working in the affairs not only of individuals, but of nations, among which as preëminent is the recent change in the Russian Empire, and the proclamation by the provisional government, of civil and religious liberty; therefore

Resolved, That this General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, a Christian Communion of 1,560,000 believers, expresses to the evangelical Christians of Russia its heartiest greetings, rejoicing with them in the dawn of a new day of religious liberty. We congratulate them upon their loyalty and devotion to the truth in the face of many obstacles, and upon the progress of the Kingdom through their faithfulness and zeal. Recognizing our oneness with them in the bonds of the Gospel, we extend to them the hand of Christian fellowship, as they shall seek to spread the knowledge of Him, who has led them through the wilderness into the promised land of religious freedom. We further assure them of our continual intercession in their behalf in these coming days of responsibility and opportunity.

A resolution on the responsibility of church members for personal evangelism was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee on Next Place of Meeting presented its Report, which was received, and Columbus, Ohio, was chosen as the place of next meeting. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on the Next Place of Meeting respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

Invitations have been received from Atlantic City, N. J., and Columbus, Ohio. The Assembly was requested to choose between the two, and chose Columbus, Ohio. In view of this decision the following agreement is in force, viz.: the Broad Street Presbyterian Church of Columbus, Ohio, and the other Presbyterian Churches of the city will provide free entertainment for the officers of the Assembly, and also without charge a place of meeting for the sessions of the Assembly, the expenses of the Local Committee of Arrangements, and such other provisions as may secure the comfort of Commissioners, and the business efficiency of the Assembly. It is further understood that the rate of three dollars per day, on the American plan, will be the rate for Commissioners who are entertained in other places than the homes of the city.

The following Recommendations are offered for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the Pastor and Session of the Broad Street Presbyterian Church of Columbus, Ohio, with the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, be the Local Committee of Arrangements, with power to add to their number.

Resolved, 2. That the thanks of the Assembly are tendered to the churches of Atlantic City, N. J., for the invitation extended for the next place of meeting.

Resolved, 3. That all arrangements for railroad transportation be placed, as customary, in the hands of the Stated Clerk.

Respectfully submitted,
J. Wilbur Chapman, Chairman.

The Moderator appointed the Committee to report on the Answers of the Presbyteries on the Overture on Chapter XVIII of the Form of Government, the members being: Ministers—John W. Francis, D.D., Chairman; William B. Lampe and Frank J. Mundy, D.D.; Ruling Elders—J. B. Pearson and John E. Gandy.

The following Committee on Resolutions of Thanks was appointed: Ministers—John A. Marquis, D.D., Chairman; John P. Hale, D.D., and Ruling Elder—Harry D. Irwin.

The Committee on the Digest reported, and the Report was adopted as follows:

The Committee on the Digest respectfully reports as follows:

After consultation with the Board of Publication and correspondence between the members of the Committee, the decision was reached early in the present year that the issue of the Digest should be postponed until the way should be clear to publish, and for the following reasons;

1. That the appeal of the Anti-Union party in the very important case of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is now before the Supreme Court of the United States. While the Committee feels that the decision of the United States Circuit Court at Kansas City, Missouri, in this case will be upheld by the Supreme Court, yet it is not advisable to take action as if the decision was assured. The delay involved affects a considerable part of the volume.

2. It is highly desirable to limit expense so far as practicable, in connection with the publication of the Digest. The price of paper and the increase of wages are matters which the Board of Publication is obliged to consider.

3. The matter that would be included in the new Digest covers the period from 1908 to 1917, and is now to be found, so far as Sessions are concerned, in the Manual for Ruling Elders issued by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, and also for other judicatories, in Bittinger's Manual of Presbyterian Law and Usage continued by the Stated Clerk up to and including the year 1916.

According to the original constitution of this Committee, it is now composed of the Stated and Permanent Clerks of the General Assembly, with the Secretary of the Board of Publication. In 1915, the Rev. John V. Stephens, D.D., was added to act in relation to matters connected with the records of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Committee on Editions of the Constitution reported, and the Report was adopted as follows:

The Committee on Editions of the Constitution respectfully reports that the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work has issued under the supervision of the Committee, an edition of the Constitution including all amendments made up to June 1, 1916. Further, the volume containing separately, the Form of Government and other administrative standards has been brought up to date. The work of preparation of both has been done in the office of the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

The Committee places on record, its appreciation of the prompt and excellent work done by the Board of Publication in connection with these volumes.

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Committee on the Eleventh Council of the Presbyterian Alliance reported, and the Report was adopted as follows:

The Committee to name delegates to the Eleventh Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee was appointed by the General Assembly of 1916 (see Minutes, p. 123).

The Committee has carefully considered important matters connected with this meeting of the Eleventh Council of the World Presbyterian Alliance and reports:

1. That the meeting of the Eleventh Council has been postponed, owing to the war, until September, 1918, and may be postponed to a later date. Correspondence is being had with the brethren in Europe by the officers of the Alliance, with reference to this matter of postponement, and final action cannot be at present secured.

2. It is recommended that the distribution of the delegates of this Church, 112 in number, be made as far as practicable geographically by Synods, and upon the basis in a due and just proportion, of the membership of each of the Synods.

3. The Committee respectfully requests in view of the postponement of the meeting of the Council that it be continued to report to the Assembly of 1918.

For the Committee,

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Chairman.

The Committee on Legal Matters connected with the Reunion of 1906 through its Chairman, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Legal Matters Connected with the Reunion of 1906 presents its Report to the General Assembly as follows:

By action of the last Assembly, this Committee was continued, with the same general powers that it has had in the past years of its existence.

During the last year, there have been no changes in the Committee's membership, organization or policy; and, much to its gratification, there has been but little business requiring its attention.

In the Committee's last Report was the following:

"Pending litigation in the Missouri Supreme Court, two suits were brought by the Unionists, in the Federal District Court, at Kansas City, Mo., one involving several church properties menaced by claims set up under the adverse decision of the Missouri Supreme Court, the other involving Missouri Valley College, at Marshall, Mo. In both these cases, decisions were rendered in favor of the Union, which judgments were confirmed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Eighth Circuit, and it remains to be seen whether these cases will be carried by appeal to the United States Supreme Court."

We have now to report that an appeal was taken to the United States Supreme Court, but, notwithstanding our hope that the Court would reach a decision by this time, the litigation is still pending.

The Committee's last Report also contained the following:

"Judge John M. Gaut, former General Counsel of the Committee, has prepared an admirable paper containing citations of the various cases with which the Committee and he have been connected, also an enumeration of the most important principles of law that have been set forth by the courts in the course of this litigation. This paper was considered with reference to the advisability of making it a part of this Report, but the conclusion was reached, that, in view of litigation still pending, its presentation should be postponed until the next General Assembly."

In view of the fact that litigation has not yet been concluded, the Committee deems it advisable that this matter of presenting a digest of Court opinions be further postponed.

The Committee, in accordance with the directions of the General Assembly, renewed annually, submitted this year to the Executive Commission a report on its business, and the Commission approved the following recommendations:

1. That the Executive Commission hereby approves of the engagement of Frank Hagerman, Esq., as counsel for the Committee on Legal Matters Connected with Reunion, in the appeal now before the Supreme Court of the United States.

2. That the Executive Commission hereby consents to any further action that may be necessary in connection with the Reunion litigation by the Committee on Legal Affairs, and in particular approves of the appointment of Dr. William H. Roberts and S. Spencer Chapman as a Committee to retain counsel, and said sub-Committee is the exclusive representative in the matter of retaining counsel, all previous authorizations by previous Assemblies for such purposes being hereby revoked.

In view of the general situation, the Committee recommends the adoption by the General Assembly of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Committee on Legal Matters Connected with Reunion be authorized to provide for counsel retained to appear in the case before the U. S. Supreme Court, on such terms as to payment as to it may seem best, subject to the provisions of resolutions 5 and 6 below.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee on Legal Matters and the Executive Commission of the General Assembly are hereby authorized, in their discretion, to make provision, in behalf of the General Assembly, to assist in meeting the expenses of law suits where general questions are involved, but this resolution shall not be construed as authorizing provision for the expenses of litigation which involves only the ownership of local church property.

Resolved, 3. That the Committee on Legal Matters and the Executive Commission be authorized, when deemed advisable, to appoint a commission, consisting of one or more ministers or lay members of the Church, with authority, after consultation with, and approval by, the Committee on Legal Matters, to institute as well as to defend suits for the above purposes, to wit, to protect the contract of Union, to prevent the misinterpretation of our doctrinal standards, to preserve our ecclesiastical authority and to defend our property rights, provided the Committee on Legal Matters shall have power to determine the amount of expenses to be incurred.

Resolved, 4. That the Committee be continued, with power as to all general litigation now in progress, in connection with the Reunion of 1906, but that no new suits be approved by the Committee, except after the consent of the Executive Commission of the General Assembly shall have been obtained.

Resolved, 5. That no appropriations for expenses in connection with any law suits shall be regarded as final and as involving obligations on the Church at large, except as first approved by the Committee on Legal Matters and the Executive Commission.

Resolved, 6. That the Chairman, Dr. Wm. H. Roberts, and S. Spencer Chapman, Esq., be empowered to retain counsel in case any appeals be made in pending litigation, and said sub-Committee is the exclusive representative of the Committee in the matter of retaining counsel, all previous authorizations by previous Assemblies for such purposes being hereby revoked.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions reported through Rev. Dr. A. C. Zenos, Chairman. Pending the adoption of the Report, the Assembly was addressed by Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., one of the secretaries of the Board, and by foreign missionaries, Rev. William B. Boomer, of Chile; Rev. N. C. Whittemore, of Korea; F. E. Hoskins, D.D., of Syria; J. C. R. Ewing, D.D., and Rev. J. N. Forman, of India.

In presenting its Report on the work of the Board of Foreign Missions the Standing Committee is deeply impressed by the exceptional character of the conditions under which the work of the year has been done and the complex nature of the problems raised. It wishes it were possible for the entire body of the General Assembly to share this impression and that there were time to present the facts which a careful reading of the Eightieth Annual Report of the Board brings into view. It commends the circulation and study of the Report throughout the Church.

The Committee submits the following resolutions for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the Minutes of the Board for 1916–1917, which have been examined by the Committee and found in order, carefully and accurately kept, be approved.

Resolved, 2. That the accounts of the treasurer for the year 1916–1917, which have been examined and found carefully kept and properly audited, be approved.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly would again place on record its appreciation of the splendid work done by the Women's Boards, noting especially that their contributions for all purposes have amounted to a total of $646,114.03, being an increase of $63,539.71 over those of the year 1915–1916. The Assembly notes with gratification the plans for a closer relationship between the Assembly's Board and the Women's Boards, and expresses its indebtedness to the women of the Church for their spirit of harmony, loyalty and generosity, which has become an indispensable part of the success of the Foreign Missionary cause.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly expresses its appreciation of the admirable organization of the Board of Foreign Missions, realizing the largeness and complexity of its work, demanding, as it does, extraordinary care and discretion in its administration.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly notes with profound gratitude to Almighty God the unparalleled blessing that has attended the work of Foreign Missions during the past year. Never in the history of missions has there been such a turning of men towards the Gospel of Christ. Instead of being a hindrance, the world's war has stimulated the interest in the Gospel. On the dark background of the world's strife, the message of the Master has been revealed in sharpened outlines, as the only final means of securing permanent peace. From Japan, Korea, China and India come the reports of great evangelistic and mass movements. From Syria and Persia records of faithful and heroic service on the part of the missionaries which have broken down prejudice and are destined in the near future to become the means of flinging wide open many doors for missionary activity. From Latin America comes a call growing out of the closer trade relations between the United States and Latin America for the immediate proclamation of the Gospel, especially to the student classes. The vision of this need has been greatly enlarged and quickened by special study during the year. From Africa, Siam and the Philippine Islands there are stories of churches and schools overcrowded and fields white for the harvest. The Assembly recognizes with solemn awe the hand of God in the signs of the disintegration of Islam, the growth of national consciousness among an increasing number of the peoples of the world and the consequent need of strengthening the moral foundation of governments, and accepts this condition as imposing an imperative responsibility upon it to proclaim the principles of Christ as alone able to solve the world's problems and establish permanently the Kingdom of God. Missions as the antithesis of war constitute the Church's contribution to the needs of the hour and its magnificent opportunity. In the largest and most profound sense of the word, Christ must be proclaimed as the Saviour of the world.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly views with concern the increasing weight of the burden laid upon the Board as a result of the conditions created by the war. First of all, under a call which unmistakably came from God, the Board assumed responsibility, at least temporarily, for the work laid down by some missionary societies incapacitated to carry on their labors. Add to this the disturbance in financial matters whereby the cost of financing the mission stations was raised by not less than $250,000. This increase is further augmented by the larger cost of travel, hospital supplies, freight, etc. All this, together with some other extraordinary expenditures, must be met by an increase of financial support on the part of the Church. But the financial need is paralleled by a need equally great of well-equipped workers in sufficient numbers to occupy the vacant fields. Here, too, the new interests brought into view by the war, together with the motives stimulated, have created new demands, the pressure of which threatens to interfere with the supply. The situation calls for a most careful thought of the Church and is earnestly commended as a subject of special prayer and sacrificial giving.

Resolved, 7. The Assembly sends its greeting to its representatives in the forefront of the battle line and pledges its support and constant prayer, and would also appeal to the young men and women in our schools and colleges to enlist in this great spiritual warfare, reminding them especially that, at this time, loyalty to country may express itself as truly and effectively in volunteering to devote their lives to the spread and permanent establishment of the principles for which this nation is fighting, as in taking their place in the ranks of battle.

Resolved, 8. That in view of the new and serious problems which the Board is facing in the educational work of several of its fields, resulting from the passage of new laws relative to government control of educational institutions and the consequent secularization of all education, the Assembly approves the continuance of the policy hitherto followed of the maintenance of Bible teaching and religious services in all mission schools as long as it is legally permissible.

Resolved, 9. That the Assembly notes, with special interest, the Board's policy of securing more efficient local administration in the various mission fields, including the largest amount of democratic self-government in the missions, and recommends that whenever conditions permit, or render it advantageous, in the judgment of the Board, further steps be taken in the same direction, especially in the case of its larger missions.

Resolved, 10. That the Assembly urges all our churches and Sunday-schools to engage in systematic missionary education, making use of the plans and materials recommended by the Board, particularly those offered for the current fiscal year relating to Africa. In accordance with the action of previous Assemblies, all our Sunday-schools are urged on the Sunday nearest Christmas, and both churches and Sunday-schools on Easter Sunday to contribute a special offering to Foreign Missions through our Board. As a means of deepening missionary interest, it is urged that Sunday-schools in consultation with the Board apply their Foreign Mission gifts to specific objects, such as shares in the support of individual missionaries or gifts to particular stations, known as the "Station Plan."

Resolved, 11. That the Assembly call the special attention of the Church to the success of the special campaign undertaken by the Board during the past winter and spring. This campaign was devised for the purpose of raising $1,000,000 for advance work, approved and inaugurated by the General Assembly of 1916. Seven principal cities were visited. Aided by the woman's boards and a devoted group of missionaries home on furlough, who cordially coöperated, the Board had secured up to March 30, a total of $565,000 in pledges. The approach of summer and the outbreak of war has temporarily interrupted the work, but plans are already laid for the further prosecution in the fall, and the Assembly is asked to approve this further effort to raise the entire sum. The spiritual values of these campaigns have been of greater significance even than the splendid financial results.

Resolved, 12. That the Assembly note with interest the enlarging numbers of churches that have adopted the Every-member Plan of giving to the benevolent objects, but would call attention to the fact that there are still many of the churches which make no contribution to Foreign Missions, and would urge every church, either self-supporting or not, to bear a share in the maintenance of the work.

Resolved, 13. That the Assembly would call the attention of the Church to the great and providential opportunity for service which God has opened to the Board of Foreign Missions, owing to the fact that in the work of relief in Armenia, Syria and Persia the Board has been almost the sole medium of communication with these fields and the channel through which funds in the amount of more than $2,000,000, raised in the United States from various sources, have reached the suffering victims of the war.

Resolved, 14. That in this moment of supreme suffering and ever-increasing horror, we lay upon the hearts of all our people the burden of this sorrow and human agony and urge the pastors to present the appeal of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America and of the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief in a plea commensurate with the awful responsibilities involved and the magnitude of the opportunity for a self-sacrificing response in the name of humanity and of Jesus Christ; and that a special offering be made on Memorial Sunday, or some early date thereafter, over and above the regular contributions to missions.

Resolved, 15. That the Assembly notes with mingled sadness and thanksgiving for their faithful services, the passing into their eternal reward of fifteen of its faithful workers in the field. This honored roll includes the names of some of the veterans longest in the service. The Rev. W. A. P. Martin, D.D., LL.D., of the North China Mission, was appointed in 1850 and served for sixty-six years as an educator, statesman, author and missionary. The Rev. J. N. W. Farnham, D.D., of Central China Mission, was appointed in 1859 and had served fifty-eight years at the time of his death. The Rev. C. B. Newton, D.D., of the Punjab Mission, was appointed in 1867 and died April 11, 1916, with forty-nine years of service to his credit. The Rev. Horace G. Underwood, D.D., LL.D., who served from 1884 to 1916, deserves special mention as the founder and builder of the Korean Presbyterian Church. The Rev. S. G. Wilson, D.D., of the West Persia Mission, was appointed in 1880 and died last July, a martyr to the cause of relief work among the Armenians in Persia. Mrs. William S. Nelson had served in the Syrian Mission since 1888; the Rev. C. A. Killie in North China since 1889; Mrs. William M. Baird in Korea since 1890; Mrs. Gilbert MacIntosh in Central China since 1892; Mrs. William H. Dobson in South China since 1897; Mrs. W. H. Gleysteen in North China since 1904; Miss Elizabeth Anderson, M.D., in Central China since 1907; Miss Anna G. Reed in North China since 1913, and Miss Edna Brack in Shantung Mission since 1914.

Resolved, 16. The terms of office of the following members of the Board having expired, they are recommended for re-election in the class of 1917–1920: Rev. George Alexander, D.D., Rev. John F. Patterson, D.D., Mr. D. W. McWilliams, Mr. John T. Underwood, Mr. James M. Speers, Mr. Henry W. Hodge.

The Rev. John Fox, D.D., has resigned on account of impaired health. The Committee recommends the election of the Rev. W. Y. Chapman, D.D., of the Presbytery of Newark, to fill the vacancy in the class of 1915–1918. The Rev. Minot S. Morgan, D.D., having resigned on account of removal to Detroit, Mich., the Committee recommends the election of the Rev. Robert Gardner McGregor, D.D., of the Presbytery of Westchester, to fill the vacancy in the class of 1916–1919.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. C. Zenos, Chairman.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Address of the Rev. Dr. A. W. Halsey, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, delivered to the Assembly this morning, be printed at the expense of said Board, for distribution.

The Stated Clerk reported that telegraphic messages had been sent and received as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, Ala.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in session at Dallas, Texas, sends affectionate Christian greetings. Read John, chapter seventeen, twenty and twenty-one.

J. Wilbur Chapman, Moderator;
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

To the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, Edinburgh, Scotland:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America thanks God that mother and daughter stand together in the present mighty conflict for righteousness and liberty. See Confession of Faith, chapter twenty-three, section two.

J. Wilbur Chapman, Moderator;
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

To the General Assembly of the United Free Church of Scotland:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America is grateful to God that our Churches stand together in this great conflict for truth, justice and liberty. We are confident of final victory. Read Psalm forty-six.

J. Wilbur Chapman, Moderator;
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

Edinburgh, Scotland.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Dallas, Texas:

The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland received with enthusiasm your message, and rejoice in the participation of your great country in the present struggle for justice and freedom.

James Cooper, Moderator.

The Committee on Mileage was authorized to pay the Commissioners the amounts ascertained to be due to them.

The Hon. William Jennings Bryan was presented by the Moderator and the Reception Committee, and was welcomed as the guest of the Assembly.

The Committee on Leave of Absence recommended that all Commissioners who find it necessary to leave after 3 o'clock Friday be excused without further action by the Committee. The recommendation was adopted.

The devotional service was conducted by Rev. John A. Marquis, D.D.

The Assembly took recess until 3 o'clock P.M., and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 24, 1917, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Executive Commission, through its Chairman, Rev. Dr. J. A. Marquis, reported, and the Report was adopted as follows:

I. The Executive Commission respectfully requests that the General Assembly vote to it the general powers indicated in Chapter XXVI, Section 7, of the Form of Government, and as follows: To correspond with the Executive Commissions of Presbytery and Synod; to confer with and advise the permanent benevolent and missionary agencies of the Church; to prepare and submit annually to the General Assembly the Budget for such benevolent and missionary agencies; and to consider, between annual meetings of the General Assembly, cases of serious embarrassment of emergency concerning the benevolent and missionary work of the Church, when requested by a Board, and to provide direct methods of relief. Also the power to take steps to coördinate and unify the missionary and benevolent work of the Church, as indicated in Chapter XXVI of the Form of Government, Section 7.

The Commission further requests the Assembly to authorize it to meet at the annual meetings of the General Assembly.

II. In the matter of the expenses of the office of the Stated Clerk, the Executive Commission submits the following:

The Assembly of 1916 received, and referred to the Executive Commission, Overtures asking that an investigation be made of the Stated Clerk's office, to ascertain whether the office of the Assistant Clerk is needed, and whether the expenses of the entire office are higher than is necessary. The Commission appointed a Committee, consisting chiefly of business men, who reported, after a thorough investigation:

"1. That no salary is paid to a treasurer, but the funds are cared for by the Land Title and Trust Co., of Philadelphia, without cost to the Assembly.

"2. That the judgment of the Committee is that the office of the Assistant Clerk is needed.

"3. That the employés of the office are not paid more than business institutions pay for similar service or the Boards of the Church pay." Therefore,

The recommendation of the Commission is that no action be taken.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures, through its Chairman, Rev. John A. Marquis, D.D., submitted a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures recommends: 1. The enlargement of the Special Service Committee by the addition of one member from the secretarial force of each of the ten Boards, to be chosen by the respective Boards, and to be classified in accordance with the plan already adopted.

2. In the matter of the resolution with reference to Personal Evangelism, referred by the Assembly, it is recommended that the following be adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly calls renewed attention to the importance of personal evangelism, and to this end recommends that each individual member of our Church undertake to secure at least one new member for the year 1918, making the slogan one million five hundred and sixty thousand.

3. That the subject of International Relations dealt with in the Report of the Commission on Coöperation with the World Alliance for Promoting International Friendship through the Churches, be and hereby is referred to the National Service Commission.

The Moderator was on motion made a member of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection was presented by the Chairman, Rev. John McNab, and, after addresses by D. G. Wylie, D.D., Secretary, and J. C. Bruce, D.D., Field Secretary, was adopted as follows:

Your Committee has examined with care the Annual Report of the Board and finds that the year just closed was most successful. The offerings from the churches have increased $19,000 over last year, and from all other sources, $50,000. The minutes of the Boards show that the members have been most faithful in attendance upon the Board meetings and have given much time to the work committed to them. The Field Secretary, the Rev. Jesse C. Bruce, D.D., has come into personal touch with church officers in every part of the country and his work has been faithfully and successfully performed. During the past year, the Board has assisted in erecting 202 churches and 96 manses, and appropriations have aggregated $537,870. The Board comes to the Assembly with a substantial balance accounted for, as the annual report states, by the fact that a good many churches did not qualify to receive the appropriations voted; by the activity of the Field Secretary in the sale of old property; by repayments of grants and loans, and by increased contributions from churches.

It is a gratification to your Committee to be able to report that since the organization of this important agency of the Church the Board has assisted in building 11,191 churches and manses and has expended in this work $8,836,727.

The Board issued last year a most attractive leaflet, 200,000 of which have been called for by the churches.

There has also been an honest effort made by the Board, through its special representative, Rev. Louis E. Holden, D.D., to secure a fund to aid in the building of churches in the vicinity of Presbyterian colleges and State universities.

The recommendations of the last Assembly have been faithfully carried out by the Board.

An examination of the treasurer's report shows that the various funds are in good condition, the only weakness being in the Manse Fund, which needs supplementing. The report further shows that the members of the Board have a statesman-like grasp of the whole situation and are inspired by the greatness of the field, the missionary character of the work, and by the fact that church and manse building gives permanency to the work of all the Boards of the Church. Not only so, but the tide is rising and the interest of the Church at large in this fundamental work is increasing. All this is brought out by the Secretary, the Rev. David G. Wylie, D.D., in his annual report, in which he says: "The greatness of the field and the fundamental importance of the work of building churches and manses is appealing more and more year after year to the Church at large, as is clearly shown by the increased contributions from churches."

Eleven Overtures were referred to your Committee on the general subject of church architecture and were considered by the Committee.

The minutes of the Board have been examined and found to be accurate and well kept.

Your Committee begs to report to the General Assembly that with a proper interest manifested in the work of the Board and by increased contributions, it will be possible to provide a church for every needy community and a manse for every minister.

We beg to offer the following recommendations:

1. That the action of the Assembly of 1916 in relation to grants and loans be reaffirmed, viz., "That Churches asking for aid be urged to apply for loans instead of grants, and that the Board be advised to make grants to Churches only when in the judgment of the Board there is urgent necessity."

2. That the rule in regard to grants be amended as follows: "Churches other than those deemed by the Board to be exceptional shall hereafter be required to promise an annual contribution to the Board, such contribution to be credited upon the grant mortgage."

3. That the rules governing the Manse, Raynolds and Loan funds be amended so as to give to the Board discretion to fix the payment of loans at such times as it deems wise, not exceeding twenty years.

4. That the Board be authorized, from time to time, as necessity requires, to place in the Stuart Fund from any undesignated or unappropriated income, such sum as may be adequate to meet cases of great need.

5. In view of the fact that the Board of Church Erection is often called upon to appropriate money for the erection of church buildings which are poorly located, the Board be instructed to make no grants or loans until the location of the proposed building shall have been approved by the Committee on Church Erection of the Presbytery to which the church belongs.

6. WHEREAS, The present method of insuring the properties upon which the Board has claims is inadequate and unsatisfactory to the Board,

Resolved, That the plan of the Board, Article 13, Section 3, which required the Board to take out a policy of insurance in some trustworthy company, be amended and the Board authorized at its discretion to carry its own insurance according to a plan to be adopted by the Board, and that where the value of the land owned by a church, exclusive of buildings thereon, exceeds twice the amount of the interest of the Board in such land, neither the owner of the land nor the Board shall be required to carry fire insurance as an additional protection to the interest of the Board therein.

7. That the General Assembly deeply appreciate the great need of aid in the erection of church buildings at university centers and in proximity to Presbyterian colleges.

8. That in order to quicken the interest of the Church in this most vital and imperative work and to secure larger contributions for this work, the Board of Church Erection be authorized to employ, from time to time, such agent or agents as the Board, in its discretion, shall deem advisable.

9. That churches, Presbyteries, Synods, and the Board of Education having initiated work in the vicinity of Presbyterian colleges and State universities that shall apply to the Board for aid, be urged, before beginning the work of building, to submit plans and confer with the Board of Church Erection.

10. That the term "college" or "university center" is hereby defined to be a place where is located an institution of learning which can qualify as being of collegiate standing.

11. WHEREAS, In 1916, the General Assembly instructed the Board to put forth special and vigorous efforts to secure a Special Fund of not less than $200,000 for the erection of Presbyterian churches in university centers, and in carrying out this work, the Board has expended the sum of $62,382.86;

WHEREAS, In anticipation of raising such a Special Fund and in response to pressing appeals for appropriations for the erection of churches at various university centers and colleges, the Board has appropriated $76,000 and has actually paid out of its ordinary income during the past year various sums ranging from $6,000 to $15,000 and aggregating $61,000 for the erection of Presbyterian churches in university centers;

WHEREAS, After special and vigorous efforts made by the Board to secure such Special Fund, it has been possible to raise, including pledges, only $6,739 part thereof; Resolved:

That the action of the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in respect to the above-mentioned appropriations and payments and in respect to the conduct of its work above outlined, be and the same hereby is in all respects ratified and approved.

That the Board is authorized and empowered hereafter to loan or grant, at its discretion, out of any undesignated or unappropriated income of the Board, such sum or sums as it may deem wise for the erection or improvement of Presbyterian churches at college or university centers, not exceeding one-third of the actual cost of the building or improvement. All churches applying for aid under this rule are requested, before beginning to build, to submit to the Board plans and specifications of proposed new edifices or improvements. Such loans and grants, however, not to exceed $200,000 in the aggregate, including the sum of $62,382.86 already appropriated and paid, until further authorized.

That any and all rules that heretofore prevented such loans or grants for the purpose aforesaid be and are hereby amended so as to permit loans and grants as herein described.

12. In view of the fact that it has not been found possible for the Board to raise a fund of $200,000 as directed by the General Assembly of 1916; to assist congregations in building churches in the vicinity of Presbyterian colleges and State universities; and in view of the fact that for this year the Board stands ready to respond to the pressing calls of churches near Presbyterian colleges and State universities from the balance in the treasury of the Board; and in view of the great importance of the work of providing churches for the accommodation of Presbyterian students attending our colleges and State universities.

Resolved, That the Board of Church Erection and the Board of Education be instructed to appoint Committees for the purpose of conferring with the Executive Commission with the view of formulating a comprehensive plan by which provision shall be made for the religious culture of Presbyterian students attending our colleges and State universities, this Committee to report to the next Assembly.

13. That the rule governing the General Fund, limiting grants to $1,000 and loans without interest to $3,000, be amended as follows:

Grants not exceeding $2,000 (except in cases of churches contiguous to Presbyterian colleges and State universities, in which case the Board shall have discretion to make grants or loans not exceeding one-third of the actual cost of the building or improvement) and loans without interest not exceeding $4,000 may be made to churches from the income of the Board.

14. That no grant or loan shall be made for the payment of a debt contracted more than two years prior to the time of the application, and that this rule shall apply to all the funds of the Board.

15. That the minutes of the Board be approved and that the Board be complimented for keeping its records so neatly and accurately.

16. That Overtures Nos. 280 to 291, bearing upon the general subject of church architecture and asking the General Assembly to take action looking to the Board's control of the architecture of all church buildings, for the erection of which aid is asked of the Board, be answered in the negative for the following reasons:

A. It would involve an architectural department.

B. It would largely increase the cost of administration.

C. The Board already has a committee on architecture, the chairman of which is a member of a well-known firm of architects of New York City, and this committee is about to issue a booklet of plans for churches and manses.

D. The Board realizes the importance of the subject, and is giving it careful consideration, and is seeking to assist congregations that are building churches and manses by sending sketches of church and manse buildings and by offering suggestions.

It is recommended that the paper from the Presbytery of San Francisco and Oakland, asking for a change in the rules enabling the Board to initiate work and exercise more liberality in making grants and loans, be answered in the affirmative, for the reason that the Board has made suggestions and recommendations to the Standing Committee looking toward a more liberal policy and suggesting that the rules be amended to enable the Board to make larger grants and larger loans without interest.

17. Resolved, That the General Assembly recommends the Board of Church Erection to coöperate with Church Extension committees of Presbyteries, containing large cities, in the purchasing of sites and the building of church edifices at strategic points in such cities; and that the Board of Church Erection be authorized to add secretarial assistance, if necessary, for the prosecution of this work.

18. That the following members of the Board, whose terms of office expire in 1917, be reëlected for three years: Rev. F. Boyd Edwards, Rev. Paul R. Hickok, Rev. Ford C. Ottman, D.D., Rev. J. Frank Smith, D.D., Rev. Newell W. Wells, D.D., Hon. Warner E. Settle, Mr. Roy M. Hart, Mr. Robert Johnston, Mr. William K. Gilchrist.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN MCNAB, Chairman.

A resolution to amend the Rule of the Assembly as to seating the Electing Sections was adopted as follows:

The Commissioners of any one Electing District shall not occupy the same position relative to the Moderator's Chair two years in succession. Electing Sections in the place of meeting shall be numbered beginning from right to left immediately in front of the Moderator, and the respective Electing Sections shall be rotated from front to rear successively.

The following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly has authorized the publication of certain superb addresses made to this historic Assembly; be it

Resolved, That these addresses, together with the Report on the State of the Nation and such other outstanding deliverances as may be ordered published, be issued by the Board of Publication in one pamphlet, and notice sent at the earliest possible time to every minister and Session of the Presbyterian Church, with the suggestion that the ministers use this pamphlet as a source of material for addresses designed to carry home to the whole Church the spirit of this Assembly.*

The order of the day having arrived, the Report of the Committee on Correspondence was submitted, and representatives of various ecclesiastical bodies were presented to the Assembly. Suitable response to their greetings was made by the Moderator. The Report was approved as follows:

The Standing Committee on Correspondence respectfully submits the following Report:

It is of the very essence of a free Church, which holds that "God alone is Lord of the conscience," to respect the beliefs of others. Finding the great fundamentals of faith a sufficient ground for fellowship and partnership in work, it sees no necessity for discord over details while there is work to be done. Therefore the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America has found it easy to ally itself in partnerships with other denominations, more or less alike in faith, form, and effect.

The oldest of these partnerships is that commonly called the Pan-Presbyterian Alliance, or more strictly, the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, with a membership in its constituency of about 35,000,000, to which might be added 5,000,000 more of the Reformed in the Lutheran Church. It is natural that a body of such size and such worth would wish to be represented before this General Assembly of the largest of its constituent denominations, by a man who by reason of experience, honors, personal character, and public acceptability worthily stands for the principles and the purposes of the Alliance. It is, then, an honor to be permitted to present to this Assembly, as such representative, the Reverend William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D.

The next in age of these partnerships of ours is entitled The Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System. The constituting bodies of this Council are, besides our own Church: The Reformed Church in America, The Presbyterian Church in the United States, The Reformed Church in the United States, The United Presbyterian Church, The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod, and The Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored—seven in all; and they have asked the Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., to represent them before this Assembly.

One other partnership remains to be represented. The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, organized in 1908, consisting of thirty Christian bodies, representing over 17,000,000 communicants, with the one great purpose of securing the application of the law of Christ to every relation of human life, is represented among us to-day by men whose labors in this great field of Christian service have been neither barren nor unfruitful, Rev. Charles Stelzle, D.D., and Rev. S. L. Gulick, D.D.

We are particularly reminded this year that the Church militant has need not merely of partners, but of comrades and allies. Your Committee regrets that it is unable to present face to face to this Assembly, the Rev. Henri Anet, D.D., who represents in this country the Evangelical Churches of Belgium, and it asks your permission to address him in writing, assuring him of the spirit which this Church has already expressed of desiring to share in such measure as we may the sacrifices of the Evangelical Churches of Belgium; conveying to him an expression of our admiration for that heroic executive, Albert, King of the Belgians; and our steadfast prayer that we in this our age may have grace to exhibit the perseverance of the saints until the world "shall have, under God, a new birth of freedom."

It is our privilege to present also at this time a representative of the Disciples of Christ, Rev. Henry D. Smith. At some future time that body may have a right to a place amongst and a voice in our deliberations.

The virility and vitality of our Church is in no way more truly evinced than in its children. In addition to partners and comrades, it is our privilege to-day to welcome to this Assembly of the Mother Church certain of our daughters, and first, Rev. T. J. Porter, representing the Presbyterian Church in Brazil.

Your Committee would remind you that Elder Tsuraki Yano, who was presented to the Assembly yesterday, represented the Nihon Kirisuto Kyokwai, the United Church of Christ in Japan, one of our children.

In the great republic of China there is even now in process of formation a General Assembly out of the Synods already existing there represented by Rev. Rees F. Edwards, of the Synod of South China.

But one more word remains. The representative of our child, the Presbyterian Church in India, the Rev. J. C. Rhea Ewing, D.D., LL.D., C.I.E., son of our Church needs no praise and no further introduction.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. Gregory, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

A Popular Meeting in behalf of the cause of Temperance was held at the Coliseum on Thursday evening, May 24, at 8 o'clock, and was addressed by Ruling Elder William Jennings Bryan, and the programme was carried out as prepared.

FRIDAY, May 25, 1917, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

It was Resolved, That when the Assembly takes recess this morning it be to meet at 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The following message was read by the Stated Clerk from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.:

BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

To the General Assembly at Dallas, Texas:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States has ordered the following: While this Assembly does not regard organic union as practicable at this time, yet it hereby appoints the Committee of Conference on Union asked for by the Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and recommends to the proposed Conference the consideration of the Federation of all the Presbyterian Churches of our country upon some practical and effective basis.

JOHN M. WELLS, Moderator;
THOMAS H. LAW, Stated Clerk.

The message was referred to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union.

An Overture from the Central West Bohemian Presbytery, with reference to an investigation of the state of the Reformed Churches of Bohemia and Moravia, was referred to the Board of Home Missions.

The Standing Committee on Polity through its Chairman, Rev. Dr. H. G. Mendenhall, reported recommending that the Rev. George G. Bruce be transferred from the Presbytery of Yukon to the Presbytery of Alaska, in view of the fact that the Presbytery of Yukon meets only once a year. The recommendation was adopted.

The Committee to Canvass the Vote of the Presbyteries on the Overture on Chapter 18 of the Form of Government was submitted and approved. The report is as follows:

The Committee on Canvass of the Answers of the Presbyteries to the Overture on Chapter XVIII of the Form of Government submits the following Report:

The Overture was sent down by the General Assembly in 1916, and is printed on page 124 of its Minutes.

The returns from the Presbyteries, duly signed by their Stated Clerks, have been examined by the Committee with the following result:

The Presbyteries answering in the Affirmative are: Abilene, Alaska, Albany, Amarillo, Ardmore, Atlantic, Baltimore, Bell, Binghamton, Birmingham-A, Blairsville, Boston, Brooklyn, Brownwood, Cayuga, Chattanooga, Chillicothe, Columbia, Columbia-A, Crawfordsville, Detroit, Elizabeth, El Paso, Fargo, Florida, Fort Smith, Fort Worth, Freeport, French Broad, Grande Ronde, Gunnison, Hastings, Helena, Hodge, Kansas City, Kirksville, Knox, La Crosse, Lansing, Little Rock, Logansport, Louisville, McAlester, Mahoning, Mankato, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minot, Monmouth, Muncie, Nashville, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, New Brunswick, Niobrara, Northern Arizona, North River, Ogden, Olympia, Osborne, Otsego, Parkersburg, Pembina, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Princeton, Red River, Riverside, Rushville, Saginaw, Saint Lawrence, Saint Louis, Salt Lake, San Francisco-Oakland, Sheridan, Solomon, Southern Arizona, Spokane, Springfield, Syracuse, Transylvania, Twin Falls, Utica, Waco, Walla Walla, Washington, West Jersey, West Tennessee, Wheeling, Winona, Yukon.—92.

The Presbyteries answering in the Negative are: Aberdeen, Adams, Alton, Arkansas, Athens, Beaver, Bellingham, Black Hills, Bloomington, Boisé, Box Butte, Buffalo, Butler, Cairo, Carthage, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Central West, Chemung, Chester, Cheyenne, Chicago, Cincinnati, Clarion, Cleveland, Cœur d'Alene, Columbia River, Columbus, Coos Bay, Corning, Council Bluffs, Dakota (Indian), Dallas, Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Dubuque, Duluth, Ebenezer, El Reno, Emporia, Erie, Ewing, Flint, Fort Dodge, Fort Wayne, Genesee, Geneva, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Havana, Highland, Houston, Huntingdon, Huntsville, Huron, Indiana, Indianapolis, Iowa City, Jefferson, Kalamazoo, Kalispell, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kittanning, Lackawanna, Lake Superior, Larned, Lehigh, Le Vere, Lima, Logan, Long Island, Los Angeles, McGee, McMinnville, Madison, Marion, Mattoon, Minneapolis, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Nassau, Nevada, Newark, Newburyport, New Castle, Newton, New York, Niagara, Northumberland, Oakes, Oklahoma, Omaha, Ottawa, Ozark, Pecos Valley, Peoria, Petoskey, Phœnix, Pittsburgh, Portland, Portsmouth, Providence, Pueblo, Redstone, Rendall, Rio Grande, Rochester, Rock River, Sacramento, Saint Clairsville, Saint Cloud, Saint Joseph, Saint Paul, Salt River, San Joaquin, San José, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Seattle, Sedalia, Shenango, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Southern Utah, Southern Virginia, Southwest Bohemian, Steubenville, Topeka, Tulsa, Union, Washington City, Waukon, Wellsborough, Wenatchee, Westchester, Westminster, White Water, Wichita, Willamette, Winnebago, Wooster, Yadkin, Zanesville.—145.

The Presbyteries not reporting are: Austin, Benicia, Birmingham, Bismarck, Boulder, Butte, Cape Fear, Carlisle, Catawba, Central Washington, Champlain, Chile, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cimarron, Connecticut Valley, Corisco, Cumberland Mountain, Eastern Persia, Fairfield, Gadsden, Galena, George, Great Falls, Hainan, Hobart, Holston, Hudson, Iowa, Iron Mountain, Jersey City, Jonesboro, Kearney, Laramie, Lincoln, Lyons, McClelland, Minnewaukan, Muskogee, New Hope, North Laos, Oxford, Paris, Pendleton, Porto Rico, Rogersville, Siam, Southern Oregon, Steuben, Troy, Waterloo, Western Africa, White River, Yellowstone.—54.

The Form of Government, Chapter XXIV, Section I, provides that amendments or alterations of the Form of Government proposed by the General Assembly, "shall not be obligatory on the Church unless a majority of all the Presbyteries approve thereof in writing." Inasmuch as the Overture has received only 92 votes in the affirmative out of a total of 291 Presbyteries, it has failed of approval.

For the Committee,

JOHN W. FRANCIS, Chairman.

A message was read by the Stated Clerk from the Business Men's Committee of the American Pocket-Testament League. The Assembly voted hearty approval of the work of the League and directed that the vote be certified to its officers.

The following paper on the subject of Woman's Suffrage was presented and adopted:

WHEREAS, In our history the influence of women has been invaluable in all such moral reforms as temperance and honest government; and

WHEREAS, The Presbyterian Church believes in utilizing every possible force in the new and larger work lying before this country; and

WHEREAS, We recognize that Christian wives and mothers should be given an opportunity to assist in the great work of introducing into civic life more of the true spirit of practical Christianity; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the Commissioners to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A., assert our belief in the justice, wisdom and righteousness of the immediate enfranchisement of women throughout the nation.

A formal and respectful protest against the above action on Woman Suffrage, by Henry Branch, D.D., Rev. Edward Niles, and Mr. Clarence E. Foreman, all of the Presbytery of Baltimore, was ordered entered on the minutes.

The Docket as revised by the Stated Clerk, to expedite the business of the Assembly, was read and adopted.

It was Resolved, That allowances from the Entertainment Fund be authorized in the case of Commissioners remaining in Dallas over Sunday, or unable to reach home without Sunday travel, the same to be dealt with under the Financial Plan.

The Leave of Absence Committee, through its Chairman, Edwin H. Liles, D.D., recommended that the roll of the General Assembly be called this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and it was so ordered.

The Moderator introduced Mr. John T. Manson, of the Executive Commission, who on behalf of the Commissioners presented William H. Roberts, D.D., the Stated Clerk, with a purse of one thousand dollars in gold, accompanied by a letter expressing the confidence and affection cherished for him by the Assembly and the Church, and congratulating him and his beloved wife on the near approach of the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Suitable response was made by Dr. Roberts. The letter is as follows:

DALLAS, TEXAS, May 25, 1917.

To the Rev. Wm. Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D.:

In loving recognition of your conspicuous and long-lasting service, not alone to Presbyterianism, but to the Church of Christ throughout the world; in view of the approaching celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the wedding day of yourself and your noble wife; and as a heartfelt token of affectionate appreciation of you and your labors as well, in behalf of your many friends among the Commissioners and visitors to the One Hundred and Twenty-ninth General Assembly, we beg leave to hand you herewith a purse containing one thousand dollars in gold.

May the coming days of your life be crowned with the golden favor of God.

JOHN T. MANSON, WM. H. SCOTT,
ORLANDO W. DAVIDSON, WILLIAM HIRAM FOULKES,
GEORGE W. BROWN, CHARLES T. ROWE,
Committee.

The thanks of the Assembly were extended to the Committee having this matter in charge.

The Rev. W. M. Caldwell, in behalf of the colored Commissioners to the Assembly, presented to the Rev. J. Frank Smith, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, a gold watch charm as a token of the esteem and gratitude of said Commissioners for the kind entertainment and the reception provided for them during the meeting of the Assembly. An appropriate response was made by Dr. Smith.

The Moderator presented to the Assembly Mr. George McBlair, appointed by the Publicity Committee to have charge of the reports of the Assembly to the daily press, who in turn presented to the Assembly other reporters connected with the city press. The Assembly expressed grateful appreciation of the manner in which the proceedings of the Assembly had been given to the public.

Rev. Dr. Snowden, of the Publicity Committee, addressed the Assembly, and a vote of thanks was extended to the members of the press both in the city of Dallas and elsewhere, for services rendered.

Rev. Dr. L. T. Kirkes, of Paris, Tex., presented in behalf of the citizens and churches of Texas, a purse of one hundred and fifty dollars in gold to the Rev. J. Frank Smith, D.D., in grateful appreciation of his services in behalf of the Assembly as the pastor-host.

The Report of the World Alliance on International Friendship was presented to the Assembly, by Wm. H. Roberts, D.D., a member of the Alliance, and on motion was approved.

The Report reads:

The World Alliance came into existence, August 3, 1914, at the conference of unofficial representatives of scores of Protestant Churches, held in Constance, Germany, just as the war broke out. A conference of Roman Catholic delegates was expected to gather at Liege, Belgium, August 10, but this, of course, proved to be impossible.

In spite of the war conditions, since that date, the movement has steadily advanced. Ten national Councils now exist—British, French, German, Danish, Dutch, Italian, Norwegian, Swedish, Swiss, and American. The British Council is the largest, with a membership of over five thousand.

Prof. Benjamin F. Battin, organizing secretary for Europe, has traveled back and forth between the various belligerent and neutral countries, tactfully and successfully promoting the objects of the Alliance, and making friends for the cause wherever he has gone.

In the United States, the World Alliance coöperates with the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, through its Commission on International Justice and Goodwill, and also with other Protestant Commissions not included in the Federal Council.

The American National Council held its first important gathering in April, 1916, at Garden City, N. Y. The Rev. William P. Merrill, D.D., pastor of the Brick Presbyterian Church, of New York, was chosen president; Mr. John R. Mott, LL.D., vice-president; Mr. George A. Plimpton, treasurer; the Rev. Sydney L. Gulick, D.D., and the Rev. Frederick Lynch, D.D., secretaries. An executive committee was appointed, whose membership includes Dr. Merrill and Dr. Arthur J. Brown. Invitation was extended to every commission in America to establish a coöperating commission. Fourteen commissions have officially responded to this invitation. Our own Presbyterian Church was among those which made favorable response, the last General Assembly (1916) having appointed a commission of twenty-nine members, with the Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown as chairman.

In January, 1917, an important conference was held with more than a hundred leaders of the various Christian Women's organizations. The result was the extension of invitations to over two hundred women, in all parts of the country, to become members of the Council. This now consists of nearly four hundred outstanding men and women, members of forty-one different commissions, whose combined church membership exceeds twenty-three millions.

No funds were available for a meeting of the General Assembly's Commission, whose large and widely scattered membership would have made a meeting quite expensive. Moreover, the work to be done could be most effectually performed through the central office of the National Council. The work of the year from that office has consisted chiefly in the preparation and distribution of suitable literature for use in churches, Bible Classes and Young People's Societies, and in getting before the Christians of America the existence, purposes and proposals of the World Alliance. More than ten thousand letters have been sent out and a hundred and fifty thousand pieces of literature used, making a total of more than one and a half million pages.

Special mention may be made of such publications as "The Challenge to the Churches" and the "New Era in Human History," the latter, a four weeks' course of study in world constructive statesmanship. Over thirty thousand copies of these two pamphlets were used. Mention should also be made of the continued use of "The Fight for Peace," "Selected Quotations on Peace and War," the thirteen weeks' course for Sunday-schools on "International Fraternity," "America and the Orient," and "A Comprehensive Immigration Policy and Program."

Members of the World Alliance coöperated in preparing and issuing (January, 1917) the important "Message to Christians in all Lands from Christians in America," which was signed by over seven hundred outstanding leaders of various Communions.

In coöperation with the Federal Council of Churches, a conference on American Oriental Problems was held in September, 1916, which resulted in the presentation, in January, 1917, to the President and to members of the Foreign Relations Committees of the House and the Senate, of important resolutions and a printed document addressed "To the President and to Congress."

The purpose of the World Alliance is defined as follows:

"Inasmuch as the work of conciliation and the promotion of amity is essentially a Christian task, it is expedient that the churches in all lands should use their influence with the peoples, parliaments and governments of the world to bring about good and friendly relations between the nations, so that, along the path of peaceful civilization, they may reach that universal goodwill which Christianity has taught mankind to aspire after."

The American Branch of the World Alliance seeks to secure:

1. Adequate international agencies for the settlement of difficulties by other methods than by war.
2. Laws for the adequate protection of aliens.
3. A right and friendly policy in dealing with Orientals.
4. Comprehensive immigration legislation free from race discrimination.
5. Right relations with Mexico and Latin America.

6. Adequate national relief and reconstruction funds for grappling with the frightful sufferings of Europe.

This movement is loyal to our Government and does not attempt to decide political issues in regard to the present war. It seeks the continuous and permanent promotion of international justice and goodwill among all peoples. It desires the coöperation of every local church through the establishment of a "Committee on International Goodwill." It also desires the active help of millions of influential Christians who are invited to enroll as members of the American Branch of the World Alliance.

The Churches and Christians of Christendom should be, in fact, the Body of Christ, transcending, reconciling and uniting the nations and races. This can be accomplished, however, only as the churches and their members actively coöperate in the attainment of concrete objectives, and do this in the Spirit as well as in the Name of Him who taught the Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of Man and the practical application of His Gospel to every relationship of life.

In behalf of the Commission of the General Assembly,

ARTHUR J. BROWN, Chairman.

The Committee on the Assembly Herald reported through Dr. Halsey, the Chairman. The Report was approved and the recommendations were adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on The Assembly Herald respectfully reports to the Assembly as follows:

In presenting the Annual Report of The Assembly Herald for the year 1916, we deem it unnecessary to take either time or space to review the financial statement attached, as it speaks for itself. We are glad, however, to call attention to the subscription and advertising receipts, both showing the largest returns in the history of the magazine. The actual paid-in-advance subscription list numbered, on December 31, 1916, 61,665—a net gain, for the year, of 4,193. Each copy is mailed to an individual. The magazine is not sent out in bulk for distribution. The deficit for the year is larger than usual, due principally to the increase in the cost of paper; and had it not been for advantageous contracts, the total would have been much greater. The price of paper has steadily advanced, however, and during the last few months we have been compelled to pay about 100 per cent. more than a year ago.

We are not apt to realize what the Church receives as an offset to the deficit which is apportioned to the various Boards, in accordance with the fixed number of pages allotted to them.

During the year 1916, 741,500 copies of The Assembly Herald were published, practically all going into Presbyterian families, and conveying a live, vital, up-to-the-minute message from every Board of our Church. It is worth while to itemize the figures still further. The Boards of Home and Foreign Missions each had an allotment of 8,898,000 pages. The Boards of Church Erection, Colleges, Education, Sabbath-school Missions, Freedmen, Temperance, and Relief and Sustentation each had allotted to it 1,483,000 pages; making a grand total of 28,177,000 pages of the very best and most interesting material our Boards have been able to produce. Truly, the expense to the Church of The Assembly Herald, our official missionary magazine, is insignificant. Let us not forget, also, that over and against the deficit must be set the actual cash received by the various Boards as a result of announcements in The Assembly Herald.

The secretary of one of our smaller Boards, so called, recently reported that he can always tell when The Assembly Herald is mailed, by the letters and contributions which come to his office; and, he added, that, within a short period, he had received one check of a $1,000, and another of $1,500, together with many smaller amounts, all sent in response to something that appeared in The Herald about the work of his particular Board. Some years ago, another secretary stated that a $25,000 contribution had been made to his Board simply because of an article he had written and inserted in The Herald. It is not possible to trace all contributions so received, but we believe they amount to many thousands of dollars yearly. We cannot extend our Report to tell of other practical advantages of The Herald. Pastors all over our country use it as a text-book, in the monthly missionary meetings, and the people, thousands in number, every month receive the inspiration of its pages.

We believe in The Assembly Herald and its mission, and the passing years but emphasize our deep-down conviction of its inestimable value to our beloved Church.

Conditions make it necessary that we should report at this time upon the subscription price of The Assembly Herald. Anticipating an advance in the cost of production, and yielding to the opinion that effort should be made to place it upon a self-supporting basis, your Committee presented a resolution to the General Assembly which met in Atlantic City in 1916, authorizing a change in the club rate from 25 cents to 35 cents. The Assembly approved.

The cost of paper, however, increased beyond all expectations; and, following a conference with representatives of all the Boards, it was decided, that, under the pressure of extraordinary circumstances, the Committee was warranted in increasing the subscription price to 50 cents a year. At this writing it is too early to determine fully the effect upon the suscription list.

Your Committee feels an increasing responsibility in publishing The Assembly Herald, because of the pressing necessity of enlarging its circulation and improving the magazine, so that it may be thoroughly equipped to serve every purpose of the Church, as a means of communication between the Boards and the people.

We appeal, therefore, to the Assembly, to the members of our Church, to the Elders and the people, to lay upon their hearts the duty of active, definite coöperation, and to Presbyterian families throughout the length and breadth of our Church, not only to number themselves as subscribers, but to become interested in the message of our official magazine, as it comes into the homes month by month.

Resolutions.

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly approves the action of the Committee in fixing the subscription price of The Assembly Herald at 50 cents, but hereby authorizes the Committee to reduce the price, provided it is found that the 50-cent rate interferes seriously with the maintenance or enlargement of the subscription list.

Resolved, 2. That pastors are hereby urged to make more use of The Assembly Herald, to announce its coming from time to time, and to call attention, as may be found convenient, to special articles; and, further, that emphasis be laid on the necessity of using The Assembly Herald, month by month, as a text-book, in connection with the Church Missionary Prayer Meetings.

Resolved, 3. That the Committee of Management be continued.

The Special Committee to nominate members of the Social Service Commission made their Report. The Report was adopted, and persons named being duly chosen members of the Social Service Commission. (See List of Commissions and Committees.)

The Every-member Plan was presented to the Assembly by Dr. Foulkes, in accordance with arrangements made. The Assembly was addressed in this connection by W. S. Marquis, D.D., and A. W. Halsey, D.D. The Report is printed in the Report of the Executive Commission, pages 51 to 64.

The Committee on Theological Seminaries reported through Charles C. McGinley, D.D., Chairman. The Report was adopted as follows:

The reports of the twelve seminaries directly connected with the Assembly have been received and duly examined by your Committee. A great part of the data in these reports is of necessity much like that of other years and need not be brought to the special notice of the Assembly, except that we are herein reminded of the patient and faithful regular work being done on the part of professors and students in the training and preparation for leadership in our great Church—a work second to none in her large programme. We do, however, believe that the following facts will be of great interest and vital importance to the Church:

The problem of securing students for the ministry has given the Church great concern of recent years. It was therefore a source of deep gratification to your Committee to find that your seminaries had enrolled 873 students this year, as against 834 for last year, showing a gain of 39. From the reports we were led to infer that these institutions were not only growing in numbers, but that the quality of the work along intellectual and spiritual lines was such as to meet our hearty commendation. The increase of endowments and the large plans for better equipment and increased facilities in any of our institutions bespeak splendid hopefulness and progressive leadership.

We note with pleasure the gift to Princeton Seminary of $50,000 from the will of the late Rev. William M. Borden, a young man of most unusual talent and devotion to the cause of Christ, who died in Egypt, on his way to his mission field in China. The interest from this fund is to be used for missionary education, and the care of returned missionaries on furlough in Princeton. McCormick Seminary is fortunate in having received $100,000 from Mrs. Nettie F. McCormick, to provide for increased facilities for instruction. Three scholarships have also been added during the year.

We call the attention of the Assembly, furthermore, to the admirable plans for expansion contained in these reports. Princeton proposes to raise $900,000 to build a dining hall, a library, and accommodations for missionaries on furlough, and the endowment of the President's Chair. Auburn is raising $500,000 for additional endowment, the major portion of which is already in hand. Lincoln University is raising $100,000 for the endowment of several Chairs. Dubuque Seminary is raising $500,000 for better equipment and larger endowment. Omaha Seminary, the youngest of our theological institutions, a school of splendid growth and exceptional usefulness, is making special effort to raise $500,000 for better equipment and increased endowment. These great needs on the part of the institutions directly charged with the training of the churches' leadership present a mighty challenge to the Church.

Your Committee wishes to commend especially every effort of the theological institutions that make for wider usefulness to the Church at large, such as the establishing at Auburn of a Summer School of Methods for Pastors in rural communities, believing that such contact with the outside world not only extends and enriches the Kingdom, but reacts in a wholesome manner on the institutions themselves.

We are glad to note further emphasis upon the enlargement of those studies which may be termed the more practical in the seminary curriculum. Princeton expresses the intention of introducing the subject of Religious Education into her curriculum, and the expansion of her Department of Homiletics. Western Seminary will henceforth lay more stress upon the English Bible, Evangelism, and Religious Pedagogy.

The changes in the faculties of the seminaries are only two. It is with a great sense of loss and regret that we note the death of the Rev. Professor Matthew B. Riddle, D.D., LL.D., who for thirty years served the Western Seminary as one of the world's outstanding New Testament scholars.

We regret further to note the retirement, after long and honored service in the Department of Hebrew, of the Rev. Professor James J. Lampe, D.D., of Omaha Seminary, who is succeeded by Professor Frank H. Ridgley, Ph.D.

The Committee is in receipt of a communication from the Cumberland University announcing the election of a new president, and stating the standing of the official boards of that institution.

Your Committee brings before you the following recommendations for adoption:

1. That the Board of Education be authorized to increase their appropriation to seminary students receiving aid to $150 annually, providing the funds of the Board so permit. This action is felt necessary on account of the increased cost of living.

2. Regarding the Memorial from Lane Seminary, asking that President McKibbin be heard by the Assembly on the report of the Special Committee on Seminaries, we recommend no action, since the matter has already been disposed of by the Assembly.

The following resolution adopted by the Board of Trustees of Lane Seminary is reported to the Assembly:

"Resolved, That the Executive Committee of the Board be empowered to take such steps, as in their judgment best, to legally determine, by friendly proceedings if possible, the rights and obligations created by 'the Compact of 1870' between Union Theological Seminary, the General Assembly and the other theological seminaries of the Church, of which Lane Seminary is one; provided, that the Board shall not be liable for any expenditures incurred in so doing, unless such expenditures are authorized by the Board itself."

In view of the action of this Assembly on the report of the Special Committee on Seminaries, your Committee sees no need for further action.

3. In accordance with the request of President B. F. Fullerton, D.D., and Secretary James E. Clarke, D.D., we recommend for favorable action the following:

(a) That the General Assembly authorizes the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the South to cease all activities in its official capacity, and to take the necessary steps to dissolve the corporation and surrender its charter.

(b) That in accordance with the terms of the bequest, which makes the interest on the Daugherty Fund subject to the direction of the General Assembly, the Assembly hereby directs the trustees of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church henceforth to pay the interest on said Daugherty Fund to the treasurer of Lane Theological Seminary, until other direction may be given by the General Assembly.

Concerning the latter, the Committee recommends that the interest from said fund be paid over to Lane Seminary as above stated for a period of three years, after which time it shall again be taken up for further appropriation by the General Assembly.

4. It is recommended that the election of all directors, trustees, professors and instructors as reported to the General Assembly be approved.

5. The General Assembly assures the directors, trustees, professors and instructors in all of our theological seminaries of our deep appreciation of their work, and commends them for their faithful services.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES C. MCGINLEY, Chairman.

The Committee on Mileage, through its Chairman, Mr. H. M. Voorhees, reported. The Report was adopted as follows:

The Mileage Committee respectfully reports that it has carefully audited all the mileage accounts of the Commissioners, and checks therefor have been drawn by the Treasurer and countersigned by the Stated Clerk, in accordance with the plan adopted by the Assembly.

The number of Commissioners enrolled is 846; the whole number of Presbyteries represented, 289; the number of advisory members is 8; the number of Presbyteries not represented is 2.

By action of the Assembly, the mileage and entertainment expenses of the Commissioners from these Presbyteries are paid in full.

The entertainment apportionments have not been paid by Clarion and Kittanning Presbyteries.

Receipts and disbursements for Mileage and Entertainment are as follows:

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionments, Mileage Fund	$45,197 60
From Apportionments, Entertainment Fund	29,649 28
	$74,846 88

The amounts received for other purposes are as follows:

Contingent Fund	$46,126 04
Vacancy and Supply	7,100 61
	$53,226 65

Disbursements for Mileage	$62,400 00
Disbursements for Entertainment (estimate)	22,000 00

These funds are in the custody of the Treasurer of the Assembly, Land Title & Trust Co. of Philadelphia.

Your Committee respectfully makes the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly again urges upon all Presbyteries the absolute necessity of contributing in full to the Mileage, Entertainment and Contingent Funds, and the importance of forwarding the remittances to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly well in advance of the next meeting of the General Assembly.

2. That the Mileage Committee be authorized to draw on the surplus Assembly Funds for the difference between the amount of the income of the Mileage Fund and the bills of Commissioners to this Assembly as audited by the Committee, and that the Treasurer of the Assembly be authorized to pay all bills in full.

3. That the apportionment for next year, in accordance with the recommendation of the Finance Committee, be $8\frac{1}{2}$ cents for each communicant; to Mileage 3 cents; to the Entertainment Fund, 2 cents; to the Contingent Fund, 3 cents; to the Vacancy and Supply Fund, $\frac{1}{2}$ cent.

4. That the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer of the Assembly be empowered, jointly, at their discretion, to pay Commissioners such further sums as may be considered justly due by reason of underestimation of railroad charges and other expenses incurred in returning home, and also for fare paid in excess of the published rates of transportation in cases where it is found that it was impossible for the Commissioners to secure reduced rates.

5. That the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer be authorized to have the accounts for Mileage and Entertainment of this Assembly duly audited, after the adjournment of the Assembly.

6. That the thanks of the General Assembly be extended to such railroads and other transportation companies as made reduced rates to the Commissioners.

7. That the allowance for the entertainment of Commissioners to the General Assembly be fixed not to exceed three dollars per day.

Submitted in behalf of the Committee,

HARVEY M. VOORHEES, Chairman.

The Committee on Finance, through its Chairman, Mr. James A. Hayes presented its Report, which was adopted as follows:

The Standing Committee on Finance respectfully reports: The Committee has received and carefully examined the following financial statements, attested as correct by certified public accountants:

(a) Statement of Account of the Boards of the Church in account with the Stated Clerk. This is an account of the receipts and disbursements connected with the binding and distribution of the Reports of the Boards, and shows a balance on hand, on April 30, 1917, of $566.54.

(b) Statement of the Land Title and Trust Company of Philadelphia, Treasurer of the General Assembly, for the year ending March 31, 1917. This statement is an exhibit of the receipts and disbursements of the current funds of the General Assembly, and is summarized as follows:

RECEIPTS.

Balance, April, 1916	$38,054 90
Mileage, etc.	124,364 84
Miscellaneous	1,073 32
Interest	1,192 03
Total	$164,685 09

DISBURSEMENTS.

Mileage, etc.	$79,323 21
Vouchers 1782 to 2137, inclusive	45,410 31
Balance March 31, 1917	39,951 57
Total	$164,685 09

It will be seen from the foregoing statement that the Treasurer not only receives no salary, but pays interest upon the funds in hand. As a different impression prevails in some quarters, the Committee calls special attention to this fact.

(c) Report of William H. Roberts, Stated Clerk, showing the vouchers issued by him, during the year 1916–17, properly classified.

(d) Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly, for the year ending March 31, 1917, being an exhibit of the permanent funds of the General Assembly for that period. The trust funds and property in the hands of the Trustees amount, in the aggregate, to $1,171,155.85, all of which is invested except a cash balance of $91,697.25.

The investments include first mortgages on improved real estate of $387,200, and investments in securities of $675,011.56.

The mortgage loans in case exceed 60 per cent. of the valuation fixed by professional appraisers; while the investments in securities are of the safest character, being chiefly municipal bonds and first mortgage railroad bonds of a high order. No interest is in default excepting upon $20,000 General and First Mortgage Bonds of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad Company, which is in the hands of a receiver. No definite plan of the organization has as yet been published, but the bonds held by the Trustees occupy such a very high position that they should not suffer under any plan of reorganization that might be put into operation.

The average rate of net income of investments was slightly in excess of $4\frac{7}{10}$ per cent. per annum, a gratifying return, when the high class of investments is considered. All of the stocks and real estate owned by the Trustees were received as legacies.

The entire expense of administering the various trusts was but $2,490.55, considerably less than the interest received on the current balances in the hands of the Treasurer, which interest amounted to $3,259.98. In addition to acting as a Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, the Philadelphia Trust Company supplies, without charge, a safe-deposit box for the keeping of the securities (under two sets of keys), as well as a storage for the large number of title papers, insurance policies, etc., that accompany the mortgages.

(1) The Committee recommends that the several reports above mentioned be accepted and approved, and that the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to those who have had these important interests in their care.

(2) In pursuance of previous actions of the General Assembly, the Committee recommends that the following appropriations be made:

(a) To the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America	$1,554 00
(b) To the World's Presbyterian Alliance	2,060 00
(c) To the Council of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System	200 00
(d) To the World Conference on Faith and Order	1,000 00

(3) A vacancy in the Trustees of the General Assembly having been reported to your Committee, occasioned by the death of George W. Bailey, M.D., one of the most valued members of the Board, your Committee recommends that the Assembly elect to fill said vacancy, Dr. Cheesman A. Herrick, Ph.D., of Philadelphia, and that the Stated Clerk be empowered, in behalf of the General Assembly, to cast the ballot electing said nominee.

(4) The Committee recommends the approval of the action of the Trustees of the General Assembly, in regard to the devise of Jane C. Lyle, of Gwynedd Township, Montgomery County, Pa., as contained in their Report.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES A. HAYES, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk was unanimously authorized to cast the ballot of the Assembly in favor of President Cheesman A. Herrick, Ph.D., of Philadelphia, Pa., as a Trustee of the General Assembly, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of George W. Bailey, M.D.

The ballot was cast as authorized, and Dr. Herrick was declared elected by the Moderator.

The Stated Clerk was also unanimously authorized to cast the ballot of the Assembly for the election of members of the Board of the Church Erection Fund as follows: Ministers—F. Boyd Edwards, Paul R. Hickok, Ford C. Ottman, D.D., J. Frank Smith, D.D., Newell W. Wells, D.D.; Laymen—Hon. Warner E. Settle, Roy M. Hart, Robert Johnston, William K. Gilchrist.

The Stated Clerk cast the ballot as directed and the election of the members was announced by the Moderator.

The Stated Clerk reported as to the printing, binding and circulation of the Reports of the Boards and Permanent Committee. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly:

1. In the matter of the binding and distributing of the Reports of the Boards, that the same has been attended to, in accordance with the directions of the Assembly of 1916, and that the accounts for the same have been duly audited. These accounts will be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

2. It is recommended that the following resolutions be adopted:

Resolved, (a) That the Assembly authorize the binding and distribution of 7,000 copies of the Reports of the Boards and Permanent Committees, for the ecclesiastical year 1916–17; the expense of the same to be borne by the Boards.

Resolved, (b) That the Boards be requested to deliver the printed sheets of these Reports to the Stated Clerk on or before June 15, 1917.

3. The Assembly is respectfully asked to approve of the continuance of the publication of the Presbyterian Handbook, under the editorship of the Stated Clerk.

4. That the Stated Clerk is hereby authorized to take up with the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work the matter of the publication of portions of the Narrative on Christian Life and Work, for distribution throughout the Church.

The reply of the Mayor of the city of Atlanta, Ga., to the Assembly's telegram of sympathy, was read and directed to be entered on the Minutes. The letter is as follows:

ATLANTA, GA., May 23, 1917.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly:

MY DEAR SIR:—Your esteemed telegraphed condolence received and I hasten to show how much appreciated it is by our people. The fire of Monday while disastrous and destroying a section largely occupied by our poorer people of both colors, you will be pleased nevertheless to know that the restoration of homes and comfort will be immediately furnished by our own better provided people, without any outside financial help.

ASA G. CHANDLER, Mayor.

It was Resolved, That it is a rule of the Assembly that wherever practicable, that neither ministers nor elders shall be appointed to serve on more than one special committee, except by consent of the General Assembly.

Overture No. 614 with reference to a day of consecration and prayer for the whole nation was referred to the Special Committee on the State of the Nation.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported as follows, and the Report was adopted:

1. As to the annual report of the Council of the Reformed Churches in America, it is recommended that the resolutions found under paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 7, and 8 be approved.*

2. In connection with the report of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World, Western Section, the approval of the resolutions under paragraph IV is recommended,† and the adoption of the following is also recommended:

WHEREAS, The Western Section of the Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System calls attention to the great needs, due to the world-wide war, of the brethren of our faith in the Reformed Churches of Belgium, France and Poland, and of the Waldensian Church of Italy, and asks that our Supreme Judicatory take suitable action for meeting these needs; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., with a keen appreciation of the suffering and sacrifice of our brethren of kindred faith in Europe, express to them our heartfelt sympathy, and recommend to the membership of our churches not only a loyal support of the various agencies for relief, but also to make special provision to meet the needs caused by war.

3. It is recommended that the report of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America be approved.

4. Overtures 436 to 448, on the Jones Sunday Rest Bill, have been again considered by the Committee, and as there is no present prospect of enactment, it is recommended that the General Assembly request Congress to enact such legislation as will give to the people of the District of Columbia the benefit of a Sunday rest law.

5. The action taken on Overture No. 620, already approved, reads:

Resolved, That the General Assembly recommends that a tablet commemorative of the anniversary of the organization of the General Synod be placed in the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, at an expense not to exceed $500, and that the following committee be appointed with instructions to superintend the work and to raise the funds necessary to meet the expense involved: Ministers—William Henry Roberts, D.D., Chairman; Edward Yates Hill, D.D.; Ruling Elders—George Stevenson, J. Renwick Hogg, Richard B. Brinton, and William H. Scott.

*See p. 307. †See p. 302.

The devotional service was conducted by the Moderator.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 o'clock, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 25, 1917, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Reports of the Standing Committees on Synodical Records were presented, and the following records were approved without exception: Arkansas, Canadian, California, Catawba, Colorado, East Tennessee, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, New England, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, West German, Wisconsin.

The Minutes of Synods other than those named were reported upon as follows, and the Reports were severally approved.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Alabama respectfully reports to the General Assembly that the said Records have been carefully examined, and their approval is recommended with the following exception: "The names of the absentees at the close of the session of the Synod are not recorded." Respectfully submitted,

F. N. Palmer, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Arizona respectfully reports to the General Assembly that the said Records have been carefully examined, that they are neatly and correctly kept, and that their approval is recommended with the following exceptions:

1. The Minutes presented are in printed form, but are not attested by a certificate from the Stated Clerk.
2. No blank pages are left at the end for recording exceptions.
3. No record of the closing of sessions by prayer.

In behalf of the Committee,

William Jones, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Atlantic respectfully reports to the General Assembly that the said Records have been carefully examined, that they are fairly and correctly kept, and their approval is recommended with the following exceptions:

1. Omission of names of absentees.
2. Report of Committee of Arrangements adopted, but not recorded.
3. Motion laying docket on the table reconsidered. This was not the action taken. See p. 186.
4. Report on Church Erection: action upon the same not recorded, see p. 210. Same in regard to Young People's Work, p. 211, also in regard to American Bible Society, American Tract Society, and the Minutes of the General Assembly, p. 213.
5. Statistical Report for the year not recorded.

In behalf of the Committee,

EDWARD P. CLARK, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Baltimore reports that said Records have been carefully examined in their printed form, and their approval is recommended with the following exception: "Said Records do not contain a list of the absentees."

In behalf of the Committee,

AUGUSTUS H. CARVER, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Missouri recommend the approval of said Minutes, with the exception that on p. 94 of the printed volume there is a record that certain trustees of the Anti-saloon League were appointed by the Synod. As the Judicial Commission during this Assembly has answered the protest of the Synod against similar exceptions taken in previous years, the Synod is hereby instructed by the General Assembly to comply with the law of the Church as set forth in the decision of the Judicial Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW J. HYNDMAN, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Nebraska recommend the approval of said Minutes with the exception of its action in directing its members to vote for prohibition (see p. 72, Resolution No. 2). It is not Presbyterian to seek to control voters in this way.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. COULTER, Chairman.

Your Committee on the Records of the Synod of New Mexico report that they have carefully examined the same and find the Records to be correct and well kept, with the exception of the record of the opening session which does not state who presided in the absence of the Moderator nor that the session opened with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

ALFRED B. JOHNSON, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Pennsylvania respectfully reports to the General Assembly that the said Records have been carefully examined, that they are neatly and correctly kept, and that their approval is recommended with the following exceptions:

1. Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures unsigned, p. 35; Report of the Judicial Commission in the Waddell Case unsigned, p. 51; Report of the Committee on Leave of Absence unsigned, p. 67.

2. The Report of the Judicial Commission in the Kellmayer Case does not give full particulars, fails to give specifications of errors, and fails to record the reasons for the Synod's judicial action, p. 51.

Your Committee asks the Assembly to approve the Synod's action in changing the boundary lines of the Presbyteries of Blairsville and Pittsburgh, pp. 51 and 52.

In behalf of the Committee,

W. P. BONE, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Wyoming reported as follows:

We have examined the certified copy of the Minutes of Wyoming, and find it correct with the following exception: On p. 7, an elder is invited to sit as a corresponding member, which is contrary to the law of the Church, Form of Government, Chap. XI, Sec. 3. See, also, Minutes, G. A., 1905, p. 213.

In behalf of the Committee,

C. MCKIBBIN, Chairman.

Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, announced that Mr. Herbert C. Hoover, of the United States Government Food Commission, had requested that Mr. Dwight H. Day, treasurer of the Board, be his assistant, and that the Board of Foreign Missions had given Mr. Day leave of absence for this purpose.

The following resolutions presented by the Stated Clerk, touching the routine business of the Assembly, were adopted.

Resolved, 1. That the Stated Clerk be directed as usual to publish the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Resolved, 2. The General Assembly is responsible only for the expenses of its Commissioners and officers, in connection with its annual meetings.

Resolved, 3. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the Minutes to such Presbyteries only as have paid in their full quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, 4. That the Stated Clerk forward a copy of the Minutes and Reports of the Boards to the ruling elders that are Commissioners at this Assembly; provided, that the Presbyteries which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent Funds; also that he be authorized to furnish the Minutes to the lay members of the Boards.

Resolved, 5. That the Moderator be authorized to fill, by appointment, any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees and Commissions.

Resolved, 6. That the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries, subject to the provisions of the financial plan of 1912–13.

Resolved, 7. That, as customary, all matters connected with railroad rates and arrangements for the next place of meeting of the Assembly be committed solely to the Stated Clerk.

Resolved, 8. That the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer be authorized to pay the actual traveling and entertainment expenses of the members of Special Committees, appointed or continued by this General Assembly, and of the Executive and Judicial Commissions, said expenses to be kept within as low a limit as possible; all subject to the financial plan of 1912–13, and other regulations of the Assembly which have relation thereto.

Resolved, 9. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to contract for the usual printing of the Minutes and the Manual of the Assembly, list of Commissioners, list of Overtures, Committee Reports, and all blanks and papers connected with the current annual work of the General Assembly, payment to be made for the same under the regulations of the financial plan of 1912–13.

Resolved, 10. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the Boards with corrections of addresses of all ministers of our Church at regular stated periods during the year, on payment by the Boards of the expenses of collecting and collating such information, the total amount and the proportion of each Board to be determined by the Stated Clerk.

A paper as to the publication of resolutions and other acts of the Assembly for the use of ministers and churches, was referred to the Executive Commission, report to be made to the next General Assembly.

The roll call ordered for 3 o'clock, in view of the unusually large number of Commissioners present at this closing session, was by vote of the Assembly dispensed with.

The Leave of Absence Committee, through its Chairman, made a Report, which was adopted as a whole. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence would respectfully report to the General Assembly that it has excused Commissioners as follows:

On the fifth day, one Commissioner.
On the sixth day, three Commissioners.
On the seventh day, four Commissioners.
On the eighth day, sixty-three Commissioners.
On the ninth day, eighty-two Commissioners.

A paper in the hands of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, dealing with field administration in Mission fields was referred to the Board of Foreign Missions.

The following resolution, was referred to the Board of Church Erection for its consideration:

Resolved, That the General Assembly request the Board of Church Erection to coöperate with Church Extension Committees of Presbyteries, containing large cities, in the purchasing of sites and the building of church edifices at strategic points in such cities, and that the Board of Church Erection be authorized to add secretarial assistance, if necessary, for the prosecution of this work.

The roll of the Standing Committees was called, and they, having reported their work completed and papers returned, were discharged as follows: Bills and Overtures, Judicial Committee, Church Polity, Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Education, Publication and Sabbath School Work, Church Erection, Theological Seminaries, Ministerial Relief and Sustentation, Colleges, Correspondence, Christian Life and Work, Temperance, Leave of Absence, Presbyterian Brotherhood, Mileage, and Finance.

The Rev. J. T. Molloy, a sick missionary in a sanatorium, was recommended to be cared for by the officers of the Assembly.

The reading of the Minutes of this Session was dispensed with by vote of the Assembly, and the record was referred to the Permanent Clerk and the Stated Clerk, with power.

The Committee on Resolutions of Thanks made its Report, which was adopted, the resolutions with reference to the Moderator and Stated Clerk being adopted by standing votes.

The Report is as follows:

Your Committee on Resolutions of Thanks respectfully reports as follows:

Rarely in the history of our beloved Church, has any General Assembly than this had profounder reason for gratitude to Almighty God. We have met at the apex of the most frightful crisis in the history of mankind, a crisis fraught, not only with political confusion and military uncertainty, but with confusion of thought and unsettlement of faith. There is a crisis in the souls of men to-day as well as in their governments. The fountains of the deep have been broken up, and every horizon is clouded with storm.

But in this Assembly, during the ten days we have prayed and planned together, there has been no uncertainty in our faith and no wavering in our purpose. We have not been able to see the distant scene more than others, but we know that God is there and here, and that He has something for us to do. We have searched our hearts during these days of meeting, and the deepest, truest, largest note that has swelled there is an eager, compelling desire to do something in the name of Christ to help a stricken world.

For this soberness of thought, this unreserved submission to the will of God, this sacramental spirit of service, we record our thanks to Almighty God.

It is also meet that thanks should be rendered to those who have had in charge the management and entertainment of the Assembly, for to them we owe more than we can utter.

1. First of all, to our officers: the Moderator, whose wisdom and skill as a leader, whose fairness as a presiding officer, and whose kindliness as a brother in Christ have moved us all; to the Stated Clerk, whose perfect knowledge of the Church, whose marvelous mastery of detail and patient readiness to help, and whose untiring service for more than a generation have claimed our admiration and won our affection; to the Vice-Moderator, to the Permanent, Assistant and Temporary Clerks, whose diligence and faithfulness have made it easier for the Assembly to carry forward its great tasks;—we are debtors to them all, and we render them thanks.

2. To the Rev. J. Frank Smith, D.D., pastor of the Assembly Church, to Rev. George S. Fulcher, D.D., Chairman of the Hospitality Committee, and to their wonderfully organized corps of workers and helpers, whose service from first to last has been one, not only of hand to purse, of efficiency and promptness, but of goodness of heart and generosity of spirit. The best and most we can say is that as they have served us from the heart, so we thank them from the heart.

3. To the Presbyterian pastors and churches of the city who coöperated in every way to make the Assembly profitable as well as memorable, to the pastors and churches of other Communions, especially our brethren of the Presbyterian Church, and the pastors and people of the colored churches, who have so cordially welcomed and ministered to the brethren of their race; these have all shown us and the world that Christians are one, whatever be the name or creed under which they work and live.

4. To Hon. Wm. J. Bryan, who has again, as for many years past, without cost, at no small sacrifice, given one of our causes the assistance of his powerful influence and eloquent speech. To the other speakers, also to the Temple choir, the First Church Quartette, the Biddle Quartette, and all others, who have helped us by word and song in our sessions.

5. What can we say of the people of Dallas, who have literally taken our hearts captive by the charm and graciousness of their welcome? It is not too much to say that they have actually turned their fair city over to us. We tender thanks, to the ladies for their beautiful souvenirs and other innumerable kindnesses; to the Mayor who officially greeted us; to the Postmaster who installed a branch of his office in the Assembly Church; to the business men and business organizations who have coöperated in our entertainment, to the Chamber of Commerce and Automobile Club who have ministered to our comfort and pleasure; to the banks for the facilities they provided for the financial convenience of the Assembly, and to the Christian men and women who have thrown open their homes with true and characteristic Southern hospitality; heartily and unanimously do we thank them.

6. To the press agencies of the city and country, especially the Dallas Morning News and our Publicity Committee, who have omitted no word or effort to make the great themes we have discussed known throughout the land; and to the railroads for courtesies in providing transportation facilities.

7. Finally and again we thank our Father in Heaven for the guidance of His Spirit in our deliberations. It has been an Assembly of rare and brotherly spirit. While there have been debates and questionings, as there must be whenever free and earnest men foregather, yet there has been no bitterness, no self-seeking, but only an eager desire to do the right, and to be led in the path of Him who is Head over all things and King of kings and Lord of lords.

Respectfully submitted, in behalf of the Committee,

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Chairman.

Addresses were delivered by the Moderator and by the Stated Clerk, and responses were made by Rev. J. Frank Smith, D.D., Mr. A. C. Bigger, and Rev. Edward S. Fulcher, of the Local Committee of Arrangements.

The business of the Assembly having been completed and a vote taken for dissolution, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly, saying, "By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Church, let this General Assembly be dissolved, and I do hereby dissolve it, and require another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, to meet in Columbus, Ohio, on the third Thursday of May, 1918."

The sessions were closed with prayer, singing, and the Apostolic Benediction.

EDWARD L. WARREN, Permanent Clerk.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

I. REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE NARRATIVE OF CHRISTIAN LIFE AND WORK.

[For this Report see p. 149.]

II. REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN LIFE AND WORK.

The Committee on Christian Life and Work respectfully submits to the General Assembly its Eleventh Annual Report. The order of presentation of subjects is the following:

I. Purpose.
II. Meetings.
III. Members.
IV. Synodical Narratives.
V. Statistics—Ministers and Churches.
VI. Salaries of Pastors.
VII. Comity.
VIII. Marriage and Divorce.
IX. Absentee Church Members.
X. Congregational Narrative.
XI. Statistical Reports of Presbyteries.
XII. Renewed Consecration.
XIII. Resolutions.

I. Purposes.—In order to make clear the purposes of the Committee, the action of the General Assembly, constituting the Committee and indicating its sphere of work, is again quoted in full:

"That a Special Committee on Christian Life and Work is hereby appointed, to consist of eleven members, of whom two shall be the Moderator for the time being and the Stated Clerk; the other nine members to be appointed by the Moderator. Of the nine members to be appointed, one-third shall be changed each year. The duties of the Committee shall be to consider and report upon the Narrative of Christian Life and Work from the Presbyteries, annually prepared for the Assembly, and also to report, from their own knowledge, upon any related matters connected with the general spiritual condition of the Church. The Committee shall not report upon any matters within the jurisdiction of other Committees or of the Boards and Agencies of the Church. The Stated Clerk of the Assembly shall be the Secretary." (Minutes, 1906, p. 222.)

II. Meetings.—The Committee held, during the year, three meetings, each at Philadelphia, Pa., the dates being October 31, 1916; January 18, 1917, and March 20, 1917.

III. Members.—The membership of the Committee is composed of three classes, serving each three years. The class whose term expires this year is composed of John F. Carson, D.D., Alfred H. Barr, D.D., and Benjamin Daniels, Esq. It is recommended that the successors of these members be appointed by the Moderator. It is to be noted also that the Chairman of the Committee is always the Moderator of the General Assembly, for the time being; and the Secretary, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. Synodical Narratives.—Attention is drawn again to the fact that the Synods hold a highly responsible place in the administration of Church affairs, as is shown by the provision found in Chapter XI, Section 4, of the Form of Government, where it is said that the Synod has power, "finally, to propose to the General Assembly, for its adoption, such measures as may be of common advantage to the whole Church."

With a view to utilizing, in part, this constitutional power, the General Assembly, now for three years in succession, has made the Stated Clerks of Synods advisory members of the Committee on Christian Life and Work; has requested each of the Synods to appoint a Standing Committee on Narrative, and to place the Report of this Committee on the Docket at a morning session, to be accompanied with exercises of praise and prayer. It is felt that each of the Synods should in some manner provide for this Report, and regret is expressed that some of them have not as yet complied with the recommendation of the Assembly. Further, we note that the following Synods have made no report upon the Narrative of Christian Life and Work in their Synodical Minutes: California, Canadian, Catawba, East Tennessee, Idaho, Kansas, Mississippi, New York, Utah and Wyoming.

The Synodical reports, either in printed or manuscript form, received by the Assembly, are presented below in the form of abstracts, which were prepared by the Assistant Clerk, and, in so far as practicable, under the main heads given in the Annual Congregational Narrative of Christian Life and Work. These are as follows:

1. Membership and Services,
2. Sabbath-schools,
3. Societies,
4. Spiritual Conditions,
5. Family Religion,
6. Benevolence,
7. Miscellaneous.

1. Alabama.—(1) Membership and Services: There has been an encouraging advance in membership, considering that this is a weak border Synod.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Better teaching is being done, higher ideals have been adopted, and the general Sunday-school work is showing a marked advance in efficiency.

(3) Societies: Men's Societies are in a promising state of activity; Women's Societies are widening their fields of work, and are increasing in efficiency; and Young People's Societies are in good condition.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Presbyterial reports contain varying statements as to spiritual conditions in the Synod, but they are generally of an encouraging character.

(5) Family Religion: There is a decline in family religion, and the home altar has almost entirely disappeared.

(6) Benevolence: There has been a decided increase in contributions for the general benevolences represented by the Church Boards.

(7) Miscellaneous: On the whole, the prospects of the Synod, in its general work, have never been brighter.

2. Arizona.—No report.

3. Arkansas.—(1) Membership and Services: With but one exception, the Presbyteries of the Synod report an encouraging increase in membership and in church attendance.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Sunday-schools show a splendid work done and a marked improvement in extension and efficiency. There are many Adult Bible Classes, and men and women in ever-increasing numbers are taking up the study of the Word of God. Yet 52 congregations are reported as having no Sunday-schools.

(3) Societies: Few men's organizations exist in the churches. Too much cannot be said for the Women's Societies, which are continually enlarging their work and increasing their gifts. Good results are following the efforts of the Young People's Societies.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: As to the general spiritual conditions, they are variously reported by the different Presbyteries as being "unsatisfactory," "fair," "good," "better," and "most encouraging." Very successful revivals have been held in most of the congregations during the year.

(5) Family Religion: "The one most discouraging feature of our church life is the general decline of the family altar and the old-time Presbyterian family religion."

(6) Benevolence: "There is a wider and deeper interest in church benevolences, attributable mainly to the definite knowledge of methods and plans that come through the Every-Member Canvass. The people are becoming wiser in their duties in this regard, and greater results may be reasonably expected."

(7) Miscellaneous: The Synodical Narrative concludes with these words: "On the whole, your Committee is profoundly of the opinion that the day was never brighter, and the vision of the Church never clearer, the purpose of the Church never more determined, and the faith of the Church never stronger than at the present time."

We have great reason for thankfulness to God for the signs of progress and growing interest in all departments of the Church's life."

4. Atlantic.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership 10,967, a gain of 257. Two preaching services on the Sabbath in town and city churches. Rural churches usually have preaching services twice each month. There is a large attendance, as a general rule, of non-communicants.

(2) Sabbath-schools: There is a Sabbath-school in every church, with very few exceptions; and there are many mission Sabbath-schools within the bounds of the Synod. The Shorter Catechism is widely taught in the Sabbath-schools and in the parochial schools. The Westminster Helps are used in every Sabbath-school represented in the Sabbath-school conventions of the Synod. There are four Sabbath-school conventions and one Synodical Sabbath-school convention well organized and operating within the bounds of the Synod. These conventions meet regularly and are largely attended by delegates and visitors.

(3) Societies: There is a Woman's Missionary Society in connection with each church with very few exceptions. About one-third of the churches have Young People's Societies. Work among the men is not general.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Revivals are held in nearly all the churches, at least once a year, conducted generally by the pastors of their own congregations. They often assist each other.

5. Baltimore.—The only data in the Report of the Chairman of the Committee on Synodical Narrative that conform to the Assembly's blank are the following: Total membership, 33,939. Added on examination, 2,206. Sunday-school membership, 28,449. Average contribution, per member, for all purposes, $20.15; average contribution, per member, for beneficence, $4.22.

In the Synod of Baltimore there has been an unusual number of extensive revivals in various churches of all the Presbyteries, as well as the Tabernacle meetings by Gypsy Smith, Junior, in Washington City. In certain country churches the work has been unlike anything known in many years. The work in the cities has also been flourishing and several of the churches had an unusual number of additions by confession.

6. California.—The Church forces of California have been militant along several lines, with a steadily growing element of progress.

The missionaries at work in the Sunday-school and the Home Mission fields have been blazing the way in new territory, cultivating the growing fields. Enthusiasm and energy, coupled with evangelistic fervor, have won many trophies.

The educational work of the Synod has received attention, a student pastor being installed at our great State university at Berkeley, while special provision of watch-care is made for Nevada and Stanford Universities and the State Farm at Dallas. At Occidental College there are many student volunteers enrolled, and the atmosphere is, educationally, one of stimulus, and, religiously, one of tonic.

Our Synod, facing the West and the South, is peculiarly a melting-pot for the nations lying beyond, and there are here great problems which the missionary forces of the Church are recognizing and seeking to meet with the leaven of the true gospel.

Numerically, there has been growth; financially, there has been the strength of systematically supplied resources, through the application, to local conditions, of the Every-member Plan; spiritually, there have been evidences of deepening life, in many sections, both in the Men's Work and in the Woman's Work. But there is so much that needs yet to be done, that Christ may be all and in all, that what has been gained only serves to make the workers thank God and take courage, remembering the high ideal that, everywhere in everything, He is to have the preëminence.

7. Canadian.—No report.

8. Catawba.—No report.

9. Colorado.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 22,115. Net gain, 346. So far as reports show, children and youth are not largely present at preaching services.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Sunday-schools are maintained, but in many of them no effort is made to bring the children to definite decision for Christ.

(3) Societies: Reports from some churches say that Young People's Societies are dead or dying.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: All the Presbyteries report that they are well pleased with the spiritual condition of their churches.

(5) Family Religion: Parents are faithful in presenting their children for baptism, but there is serious neglect of giving religious training to the young, and the family altar is a thing of the past.

(6) Benevolence: There has been a general increase in gifts for benevolence, though not in large degree.

10. East Tennessee.—No report.

11. Idaho.—The Minutes of the Synod contain no report on Narrative, though it is recorded that one was read and approved.

12. Illinois.—(1) Membership and Services: The net gain in membership has been a fraction over 2 per cent., which is less than that of last year. Added on examination, 5,976. The average attendance upon regular church services is discouragingly small. In general, there is absence of children from public worship. Only a small number of members have any part whatever in the mid-week prayer service.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Sunday-schools are almost uniformly prosperous, and are growing in efficiency.

(3) Societies: Men's organizations are not numerous or prosperous, though there has been somewhat of progress and achievement. Although Young People's Societies are not all in as healthful a condition as could be desired, in many places they are the very life of the church.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: While the majority of churches report that the spiritual life is good, there is little buoyancy in these reports, as if those making them were not altogether sure of their facts. Sunday automobiling, the craze for amusements, the rush of business life, general disregard for the sanctity of the Sabbath—these are some of the things that loom large across the pathway to our spiritual goal.

(5) Family Religion: Parents are generally faithful in presenting their children for baptism, but it does not appear how far this is merely formal, or the sign of a real dedication to God. The family altar is sadly neglected, but it is cheering to note that in many quarters continual effort is made to revive it.

(6) Benevolence: An excellent record has been made in contributions for benevolent causes. The average in offerings, per member, for both local expenses and the Boards, is larger for Illinois Synod than for the entire Church.

13. Indiana.—(1) Membership and Services: Number of members, 55,859. In the majority of churches, two preaching services every Sabbath. Quarterly communion is the rule in practically all the churches. No congregations without a "sprinkling" of young people at the preaching services, and in some the attendance is mainly of youth; no special means employed to secure their attendance. The attendance of non-church members greatly varies in different churches. One may pun on the weekly prayer meeting, for it is "weakly" enough; in one Presbytery only 15 of the 56 churches maintain a mid-week service, and in three Presbyteries 25 is the average attendance.

(2) Sabbath-schools: A church which teaches the Shorter Catechism can hardly be found. Westminster Helps are used almost universally. Teachers'

Meetings are held regularly in many schools. Libraries are rare. Bible Classes are numerous. The total enrollment is 47,651. An encouragingly large number of scholars have been added to the churches on examination.

(3) Societies: Men's Work shows weakness: there are a few brotherhoods and clubs. Women's Work is well organized, and there is scarcely a church without a Ladies' Aid Society, and Missionary Societies are numerous and active. As a rule, the churches have organizations and activities for their young people.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Classes for young communicants not numerous. Little done to make clear the relation of baptized children to the church. There is fairly satisfactory spiritual life in the churches. Whatever special religious interest has been manifested has been chiefly in connection with evangelistic services.

(5) Family Religion: Parents are uniformly faithful in presenting their children for baptism, and many thus dedicated to God in their infancy have been received into the full communion of the churches. Pastors are doing all they can to revive family worship.

(6) Benevolence: In nearly all churches there was opportunity given to contribute to every Board, and there has been a slight increase in offerings. Many churches have the Budget system. Duplex envelopes widely used. The Every-member Canvass is more and more coming into vogue. Sunday-schools, Women's Societies, and Young People's organizations contribute to one or more of the Boards; in some few cases, to all. Men's organizations do not contribute directly to any of the Boards.

(7) Miscellaneous: With few exceptions, financial obligations are promptly met. There are various methods for managing church temporalities; every conceivable arrangement may be found for conducting this part of church business, except that no churches now have the pew-rent system. Sessional supervision of Sunday-schools and other church organizations is but a fiction. The special days appointed by the Assembly are observed in nearly all our churches. The policy of notifying Sessions as to removals of members is growing in favor.

14. Iowa.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 56,652. Net gain, 3,361. Added on examination, 4,701. Most of the churches have two preaching services each Sabbath. The attendance of children and youth at the preaching services is very small; some pastors have tried unusual methods to improve this condition, but the returns have been meager.

(2) Sabbath-schools: The Sunday-schools are in fair condition, but are not keeping up with the growth of the Church. The total membership is 52,082.

(3) Societies: There is a healthy and growing interest in the Young People's Work.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: While the Church is strong numerically, financially, and socially, the spiritual conditions in the Synod make us bow for shame.

(5) Family Religion: Parents are faithful in presenting their children for baptism; but as for religious instruction and training, the old-time family is no more.

(6) Benevolence: While there are some signs of growth in giving, the offerings for benevolences are humiliating, considering the ability of the people.

15. Kansas.—(1) Membership and Services: There is a far deeper sense of obligation of the vow of membership in all the congregations. The attendance upon services is better and more children are brought into a vital relation to the Church.

(2) Sabbath Schools: Instruction in the Catechism is infrequent. The Westminster helps are generally used, and there is a very noticeable increase in the study of the Bible as God's Word.

(3) Societies: There is less formality about the work of the Men's Societies, the Bible classes and the Young Peoples work, but there is an increase in effectiveness owing to more thoughtfulness.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: There have been notable religious awakenings in a number of communities, and the conditions are full of hopefulness.

(5) Family Religion: The interest aroused the previous year has been deepened during the present year. There is an appreciation of the need of the family altar as indispensable to vital religion.

16. Kentucky.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 13,704, a decrease of 38. Attendance at preaching services is reported as good. About one-half the churches have weekly prayer meetings.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Almost every church has a Sunday-school. Presbyterial reports say that the Shorter Catechism is taught and that the Westminster Lesson Helps are used.

(3) Societies: The Men's Brotherhood is not prominent in the Synod, and has apparently given way to the organized Adult Bible Class. There is a great variety of organizations for young people; the aim of some of these is to make the church a social center, while others are devoted to the giving of training for personal work.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: So far as Presbyterial reports refer to the subject, they speak of spiritual conditions as good and state that most of the churches have held revival services.

(5) Family Religion: Reports show a lack of interest in family worship.

(6) Benevolence: No special mention is made of offerings for the Boards, but the financial conditions of the churches are reported as good.

17. Michigan.—(1) Membership and Services: The Synod has had a gratifying increase in membership, but some of the rural churches are suffering lamentably from deaths and removals. The most serious problems of public worship are in connection with the mid-week and the Sunday evening services.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Practically every church has a Sunday-school, and the last year has seen a growth in numbers and interest. Adult Bible Classes, Mission Study Classes, and Teacher Training Classes are on the increase. Much good has been accomplished through conferences on Sunday-school methods.

(3) Societies: Organizations for men, women, and young people are so numerous that it becomes a question whether we are not over-organized.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: The evangelistic note is clearly heard in the Synod, and evangelistic preaching is winning the day. The situation is encouraging, and there is no place for weeping and pessimistic prophets.

(5) Benevolence: Contributions for benevolences have somewhat increased.

(6) Miscellaneous: Financial obligations are usually met, and the Budget system, the envelope system, and the Every-member Canvass, are being generally adopted.

18. Minnesota.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 30,312. Net gain, 1,576. Added on examination, 2,339. Most of the churches have two services on the Sabbath, except where two or three churches are served by one pastor. From 40 to 50 per cent. of the churches have prayer meetings.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Almost all the churches have Sunday-schools. No exact figures can be given, but many of them teach the Shorter Catechism, and have Teachers' Meetings, Teacher Training Classes, and Mission Training Classes.

(3) Societies: Men's Societies, 21, and these have a membership of 866. Women's organizations consist of Ladies Aid and Missionary Societies. There are Guilds and Mission Bands for young people, and these Societies are doing a good work.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: The spiritual life of the churches is good and gives occasion for rejoicing. Communion classes are reported in a number of churches.

(5) Family Religion: Parents are commonly faithful in presenting their children for baptism and bringing them up in the church. Family worship is on the decline.

(6) Benevolence: In most of the churches an opportunity has been given to the people to contribute to all the Boards, and there is an increase in giving.

(7) Miscellaneous: Financial obligations are generally met with promptness. As a rule, temporalities are conducted by the trustees. Only in a general way do the Sessions supervise the Sabbath-schools. With the exception of Children's Day and Rally Day, special days appointed by the Assembly are commonly neglected.

19. Mississippi.—No report.

20. Missouri.—(1) Membership and Services: There has been a gratifying increase in total membership and in the number added on examination. As a rule, two preaching services are held on the Lord's Day, and communion services are held quarterly. A majority of churches have weekly prayer meetings, with a fair attendance.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Some of the Presbyteries report a few union schools. Reports show that in many schools the Shorter Catechism is regularly taught and that there are Teachers' Meetings, Adult Bible Classes, Teacher Training Classes, Home Departments, and Mission Training Classes.

(3) Societies: Men's Organizations reported are Brotherhoods, Gospel Teams, and Bible Classes; those for women are Aid Societies, and Home Makers' Clubs; and those for young people are Christian Endeavor Societies, Westminster Guilds and Boy Scouts.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: The spiritual condition of the congregations, so far as reported, is good. Only a few churches report communion classes for young people.

(5) Family Religion: The most discouraging revelation made by Presbyterial reports is the lack of proper attention to the subject of family religion.

(6) Benevolence: Presbyterial reports do not make it clear whether the Synod has made an advance in offerings for the Boards.

(7) Miscellaneous: The churches generally meet their financial obligations with promptness. Temporalities are variously managed by Elders, Deacons, and Trustees. It does not appear that many Sessions supervise the Sabbath-schools, or that there is a wide observance of the special days appointed by the Assembly.

21. Montana.—(1) Membership and Services: Net gain in total member ship, 485. Added on examination, 51 more than last year. An increase of 20 per cent. in prayer meeting attendance.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Slight gain in the study of the Catechism. The use made of Lesson Helps augurs well for the future. Many churches have Teachers' Meetings. An increase in Adult Bible Classes reported by 50 per cent. of the churches. Total membership, 7,007, the largest in years.

(3) Societies: There is scarcely a church in Montana without a Ladies' Aid Society, and the number of Missionary Societies is increasing. There are several organizations for boys and girls.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: There has been a gain in communicants' classes. The Synod is feeling the thrill of a new power, and there are presages of the dawn of a better day, which heralds the march of the King of Kings.

(5) Family Religion: There has been an increase of 50 per cent. in infant baptisms throughout the Synod.

(6) Benevolence: In contributions for benevolences there has been an increase of $2,474 over last year, while large amounts have been raised for local budgets and miscellaneous purposes.

22. Nebraska.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 23,601. Additions on examination, 3,309. A large majority of the churches in the eastern half of the Synod have two preaching services on the Lord's Day, while many in the western section are weak and have only one service. The majority of churches hold quarterly communion services. How to secure the regular attendance of children at public worship, is a real problem in a large number of congregations. Some pastors have found it helpful to preach special brief sermons to children; and some have successfully tried the plan of combining Sunday-school and the morning preaching services without intermission. Though the prayer meeting is not well sustained, it is still continued in the majority of churches, but some pastors have offered a little different service or have changed the name.

(2) Sabbath-schools: With but few exceptions, the churches have Sunday-schools. Very few schools teach the Shorter Catechism, but nearly all use the Westminster Lesson Helps. About a third of the schools have Teachers' Meetings, and comparatively few have libraries. It is exceptional for a school not to have Adult Bible Classes. Teacher Training Classes, Home Departments, and Mission Training Classes have been formed in many schools. The total membership is 24,981; of these, 1704 were received into the communion of the church last year.

(3) Societies: Some of the stronger churches have Brotherhoods. The need of organized work for men is recognized, but how to enlist men effectively is one of the unsolved problems. The women are most praise-worthy in organizing live missionary societies for the study of mission fields and the gathering of funds. The Young People's Christian Endeavor movement has shown unmistakable signs of great vitality.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Hopeful spiritual conditions have been indicated by additions to the churches, and by special evangelistic campaigns that have resulted in deepening the experiences and quickening the activities of long-time church members, and in improving the civic life of communities.

(5) Family Religion: In the matter of family worship, it is difficult to obtain definite information. To no other question in the Congregational Narrative are the answers more vague and unsatisfactory.

(6) Benevolence: An increasing number of churches are adopting some practical system of finance, and there has been a marked advance in offerings for the Boards.

(7) Miscellaneous: There is a manifest disposition on the part of a large majority of the churches to conform to the requirements of our standards and carry out the recommendations of the General Assembly.

23. New England.—(2) Sabbath-schools: The Sunday-schools of the Synod are doing an excellent work, and large numbers of scholars are added to the churches upon their confession of faith in Christ. There is neglect of the Shorter Catechism.

(3) Societies: Men's Societies are awakening. There is a gain in the number of Men's Bible Classes, also in their membership. Some Brotherhoods and Laymen's Leagues are doing a helpful work in holding prayer meetings, also by their activities in behalf of Evangelism, the Every-member Plan, etc. Women's Work is making steady and encouraging progress. Notwithstanding their handicap of inadequate equipment, Young People's Societies are succeeding well.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Spiritually, the churches are in a healthy and hopeful state. There is much promise in the situation.

(5) Family Religion: The decline of the family altar is greatly to be regretted.

24. New Jersey.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, as of April 1, 1917, of the eight Presbyteries located within the bounds of the State of New Jersey, 96,888, which represents a net gain of more than eight per cent. Additions on examination 9,534. Churches generally have communion quarterly. While some Presbyterial reports are silent as to the number of children and youth in attendance at preaching services, others make encouraging statements in this respect. In one Presbytery, which may be taken as the average, less than seven per cent. of church members attend the weekly prayer meeting.

(2) Sabbath-schools: It is the rare exception for a church not to have a Sunday-school. Probably not half the schools of the Synod teach the Shorter Catechism.

(3) Societies: Presbyterial reports give little space to the topic of Societies, but there are references to their existence and activities, clubs for men, organizations for women, and societies for young people.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: The spiritual condition is good, due largely to the revivals held, and to the faithful work of the pastors, and in large degree to the great evangelistic meetings conducted by Billy Sunday at Trenton and Paterson.

(5) Family Worship: Not a few pastors have been making commendable efforts to quicken worship in home life, and for the restoration of the decayed family altar.

(6) Benevolence: There has been an increase in offerings for the Boards. The Every-member Canvass is producing good results.

(7) Miscellaneous: Both methods, pew rents and voluntary offerings, are in use by the churches in securing their incomes. Possibly a majority of Sessions send notices to other Sessions as to the removals of church members, but it cannot be said that the practice is general.

25. New Mexico.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 3,729. Net gain during the year, 124. Added on examination, 212.

(2) Sabbath-schools: The total Sunday-school enrollement is 3,720, which is an increase of 175 over the preceding year.

(6) Benevolence: In contributions for local expenses and in offerings for general benevolences, there has been an advance throughout the Synod.

26. New York.—Report received too late for insertion.

27. North Dakota.—Only four of the six Presbyteries sent Narratives to the Synod, and these were very imperfect, so that the Chairman of the Synodical Committee had not the data for making a formal report in conformity with the Assembly's blank. The work of the Synod is classed as "fair." There is complaint of much laxity and indifference, though there are encouraging evidences of progress in the Sunday-schools, the Christian Endeavor Societies, and evangelistic efforts.

28. Ohio.—(1) Membership and Services: The net total of communicants is about one thousand greater than last year, and additions on examination about one thousand fewer. Most of the churches have regular worship twice on the Lord's Day, with quarterly communion services. The attendance of youth and children is small, and it does not appear that any special means have been used for increasing it.

(2) Sabbath-schools: The churches commonly have Sunday-schools. The Shorter Catechism finds little place.

(3) Societies: There are organizations for men, women, and young people.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: None of the reports indicate any marked high degree of spirituality, though the Holy Spirit has been revealed here and there in the churches.

(5) Family Religion: Parents are generally faithful in presenting infants for baptism. Family worship seems to be obsolete, so far as reports upon the subject have been received.

(6) Benevolence: There has been an advance in miscellaneous benevolences, but not in contributions to the Boards.

(7) Miscellaneous: It is rare to find any statement that churches have been derelict in regard to financial obligations. With the exception of Children's Day, which is universally observed, there is, apparently, no observance of the special days appointed by the Assembly.

29. Oklahoma.—(1) Membership and Services: There has been a slight increase in total membership. Additions on examination, 1,248. There is a poor attendance at all church services, and a notable absence of men and youth. About a third of the churches have no weekly prayer meetings.

(2) Sabbath-schools: In some parts of the Synod there are few country Sunday-schools, and the "children are being fed on socialism and infidelity."

(3) Societies: Little is said, in any of the Presbyterial reports, of men's organizations, and the men of the churches have little interest in religious work.

30. Oregon.—As only three out of the six Presbyteries made reports, the Synodical Narrative can be but fragmentary.

(1) Membership and Services: No definite figures or statements can be given, but reports received indicate that there has been something of a gain in membership throughout the Synod. Added on examination, in the three Presbyteries reporting, 371. The prayer meeting languishes: of 59 churches there are only 19 that hold the mid-week service, with an average attendance of 12.

(2) Sabbath-schools: The Sunday-schools show a fair increase in membership. The Shorter Catechism is almost unheard of.

(3) Societies: There are numerous organizations for men, women, and young people.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: As to the spiritual tone of the churches, reports received are not very favorable.

(5) Family Religion: Parents are not faithful in presenting their children for baptism. The altar in the home has almost disappeared.

31. Pennsylvania.—(1) Membership and Services: The total membership of the Synod is 325,942, which represents a net gain of 8,952. Added on examination, 19,225, as against 25,489 the year before. Almost without an exception, the churches hold two preaching services on the Lord's Day. The mid-week meeting is generally maintained, though the attendance is not usually gratifying to pastors, and this service for prayer, meditation, instruction, and social fellowship is undoubtedly a great aid to church life.

(2) Sabbath-schools: The Sunday-school work, on the whole, is prospering. Adult Bible Classes have grown in number and attendance. Great advance is being made in method and equipment.

(3) Societies: "Many Presbyterial reports indicate a loss of interest in Men's Brotherhood and Christian Endeavor Societies. That these organizations have done great good, no one will question; that they are of a nature to become a permanent aid to the Church, as the Bible School is, many wise observers will question; they lose their novelty, and, while most churches dislike to disband them, they live on at a poor dying rate. The energy formerly given to these organizations seems to have been turned, in part at least, into other channels, such as Boy Scouts, Junior Leagues, Camp Fire Girls, Ushers' Associations, and Bible Classes. The new names and methods are excellent in perpetuating interest in the same old work."

(4) Spiritual Conditions: While evangelistic efforts have not been so conspicuous as in the year previous, spiritual conditions are encouraging.

(5) Family Religion: "There is evident throughout the Synod a new interest in family religion, and Christian leaders are urging its necessity. The ease with which families change residence, the increase in the number of divorces, the loss of baptized children to the Church, the pleasure-madness which seems so prevalent, have awakened the thoughtful to the imperative necessity for family religion."

(6) Benevolence: Notwithstanding the great influx of wealth, the reported gifts show a decline in offerings for a majority of the Boards, though there has been an increase for congregational expenses. "Our people are giving more and more to outside organizations and philanthropies. Such calls as those for Belgian and Armenian relief cannot go unheeded."

32. South Dakota.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 8,823, an increase of 280 for the year. Added on examination, 753, a gain of 162 over last year. Three-fourths of the churches have two services each Sabbath. About one-third of the congregations have communion quarterly; the others observe varying periods. The attendants upon divine worship are 35 per cent. youth, and 45 per cent. are non-church members. Less than one-half the churches have weekly prayer meetings, and the average attendance is 10 per cent. of the membership.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Practically every church has a school. Three are union schools. Westminster Helps are used by 90 per cent. of the churches, and the Shorter Catechism by 10 per cent., and 99 per cent. have Adult Bible Classes. About one-third of the churches have Teachers Meetings, and Libraries; but only 8 per cent. have Teacher Training Classes, Home Departments, and Mission Study Classes. Total membership, 9,847.

(3) Societies: Only six reported men's organizations in the Synod, and these are not all active. Ladies' Aid Societies abound, and they exist in the rate of 3 to 1 of Ladies' Missionary Societies. About 80 per cent. of the churches have Christian Endeavor Societies for the young people and there are a few Westminster Guilds and Boy Scouts.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: The spiritual atmosphere of the Synod is good. About 12 per cent. of the pastors have classes for young people, preparatory to communion; 40 per cent. of them are faithful in giving instruction respecting the relation of baptized children to the Church.

(5) Family Religion: About 70 per cent. of parents are faithful in presenting their children for baptism. In both pulpit appeal and personal conversation there is apparently an increasing attention given to the revival of the family altar.

33. Tennessee.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 16,182. Net gain, 610. Added on examination, 964. As a rule, the churches hold communion services four times a year. From some of the Presbyteries come reports of a large attendance of children and youth and non-church members, at the preaching services. While some of the Presbyterial reports are silent as to the prayer meeting, others show gratifying conditions, with an average attendance of 55.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Reports show varying conditions as to Sunday-schools. In some of the Presbyteries, all the churches have schools that are well organized, and a good work is being done. In some Presbyteries, there are not a few churches without schools, and in many schools there is much lacking in the way of Teachers' Meetings, Training Classes, and the study of the Catechism. The total membership of the schools is 18,119, which is a gain of 1,878, and it exceeds the total church membership by 1,937.

(3) Societies: Meager information is given as to Societies. The reports make little mention of men's organizations for women and young people, such as Missionary and Endeavor Societies.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: So far as this feature of Presbyterial reports has received attention, it appears that spiritual conditions are generally good in the churches. There have been an increasing number of evangelistic services and community betterment meetings in some Presbyteries.

(5) Family Religion: Where reports make reference to family religion at all they do so in distressing tones of discouragement.

(6) Benevolence: There is a hopeful situation with reference to church benevolences, as is shown by reports on contributions to the Boards, the Budget system, the Every-member Canvass.

(7) Miscellaneous: So far as reports give information on this point, the financial obligations of the congregations are met with a fair degree of promptness.

34. Texas.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 30,672; net gain for the year, 1,635. Many churches being without ministers, they do not have regular services.

(2) Sabbath-schools: There are few churches without Sunday-schools. Reports show an encouraging number of schools with Adult Bible Classes, Teacher Training Classes, Home Departments, and Mission Training Classes.

(3) Societies: Not many organizations for men are reported. Women's organizations are mostly Missionary Societies. The organizations for young people are, for the most part, Societies of Christian Endeavor.

(4) Spiritual Condition: From all Presbyteries have come reports of gracious revivals.

(5) Family Religion: The family altar is neglected, and whatever religious instruction and training children get must come through the Sunday-schools and the Young People's Societies.

35. Utah.—(1) Membership and Service: Our membership about 2,000. Annual increase, 25. Most ministers outside Salt Lake and Ogden hold services in two stations each Sabbath. The prayer meetings when held are small.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Doing heroic and efficient service, 1916 showed the largest enrollment yet—3,110. The Sunday-school Board has 3 missionaries at work.

(3) Social Conditions: These border on the alarming! The dance, always fostered in Utah, promotes sexual immorality. Since the closing of mission schools, it is difficult for Christian parents to protect their young people from the school dances and theatricals. Many ministers and laymen with children approaching the "teen" age remove to other States.

(4) Coöperation of Churches: The five leading denominations are becoming acquainted, saving mission money and burying weak rival churches. The Bible Institute for Workers which is planned by a joint committee, meets the last week of August, in Westminster College, and is greatly unifying the Protestant forces.

36. Washington.—(1) Membership and Services; Total membership, 29,999, a gain of 781 over last year. Received on examination, 2,328. The churches do not manifest an appreciation of the importance of the weekly prayer meeting.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Total number enrolled, 31,449, a gain of 579 over last year. Number of scholars received into the churches last year, 1,246.

(6) Benevolence: As compared with the preceding year, there has been a decrease of about ten thousand dollars in the amount contributed to the Boards.

37. Synod of West, German.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 4,972, a net gain of 97. Most churches have two services on the Sabbath, though some rural congregations have but one service, and a few have but one service a month. The attendance at the morning service is excellent, in some churches exceeding the membership; the evening services are not so well attended. The children and youth are well represented at the preaching services. Communion services are held quarterly in most churches; it is deplorable that only about two-fifths of the church members are communicants. Prayer meetings in the rural churches are usually held in the winter months only, and the attendance is unsatisfactory.

(2) Sabbath-schools: All churches have Sunday-schools. Most of the Schools teach the Catechism, and have classes for receiving instructions preparatory to communion.

(3) Societies: There are 3 societies for men, 37 for women, and 27 for young people, and all these report good work for the advancement of the Kingdom.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: The spiritual conditions of the churches are far from satisfactory.

(5) Family Religion: Family worship is generally observed, the custom being inherited from the forefathers; and, with rare exceptions, children are presented for baptism.

(6) Benevolence: The churches have the opportunity of contributing to all the Boards. A steady growth in offerings is noted, and, notwithstanding strong prejudices against new methods, there is a favorable response to the efforts being made for the introduction of the envelope system.

(7) Miscellaneous: Financial obligations are promptly met, and pastors' salaries are being increased.

38. West Virginia.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 11,223. Net gain for the year, 127. Added on examination, 600. Services are maintained in practically all churches. In most of the churches the weekly prayer meetings are kept up.

(2) Sabbath-schools: During the year there has been a gain of 565, the present enrollment being 11,393. The results of the work have been encouraging.

(3) Societies: The organizations reported for young people are Christian Endeavor, Westminster Guilds, and Boys' Camps.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: While progress has been too slow and the harvest too meager, there are indications of a rising temperature in the spiritual atmosphere. Even in many good church homes, family prayers are no longer held.

(5) Benevolence: The people are giving largely and willingly, according to their means, and systematic efforts are being made to maintain and forward the Church's enterprises.

39. Wisconsin.—The Narrative published in the Synod's Minutes contains but little material that is available for a report conforming to the Assembly's requirements. During the year there has been a net gain of 908 in membership, and 1,597 have been added on examination. There has been a decline in Sabbath-school membership. There has been an increase in benevolent contributions, except for the three Boards of Education, Sabbath School Work, and Freedmen.

40. Wyoming.—No report.

V. Statistics—Ministers, Churches and Sabbath-schools.—The summaries given below show the general conditions having to do with Church growth. There is an improvement in 1916 as compared with 1915. The number of pastors in 1915 was 4,402, and in 1916 was 4,444, an increase of 42; the stated supplies in 1915 were 1,605, and in 1916, 1,641, an increase of 36; the ministers without charge in 1915 were 1,574, and in 1916, 1,639, an increase of 65; the vacant churches in 1915 were 1,628, and in 1916 were 1,543, a decrease of 85.

The statistics as to self-sustaining churches, so far as received, show, 1915, 4,730; 1916, 4,449, an apparent decrease of 281. Thirty-two (32) Presbyteries failed to report on this point. The churches by size, and in two classes, show 6,321 churches having fifty members and upwards, as against 3,531 churches reporting less than fifty members. Emphasis is again laid upon the fact that these smaller congregations, if properly nurtured, are the centres where great progress can be made, not only in the addition of members, but in the upbuilding of large sections of the country into vigorous spiritual life.

When the matter of congregational expenses is considered, as usual, food for thought is found, for 5,875 congregations contributed, during 1916, towards congregational support, pastors' salaries included, amounts less than $1,200 each, the number of churches contributing between $1,200 and $3,000, during the year, for congregational purposes, being 2,170; leaving only 1,807 churches contributing $3,000 and upwards for self-support.

Attention is called to the tabulation of Sabbath-school statistics.

About fourteen per cent. of the churches report no Sabbath-school membership. In 1915, there were 1,618 churches not reporting, as against 1,392 in 1916, a gain of 226. The number of churches with pastors, and without schools, is practically unchanged; 1915, 101; 1916, 100. Forty Presbyteries give Sabbath-school statistics for every church.

Thirty-one (31) per cent. of the churches report no additions by Confession of Faith, twelve (12) per cent. of these being churches with pastors. Sixty-nine (69) per cent. added nine (9) or under, fifty-four (54) per cent. four (4) or under.

It will be noticed that over three-fifths (61%) of the churches are without deacons. This is true in particular of the larger Synods. In but twelve (12) of the Synods, and those among the smallest, is the diaconate recognized by half of the churches.

VI. THE SALARIES OF PASTORS.—High cost of living. The Committee calls the attention of the churches and the Presbyteries to the very important subject of the salaries of pastors. While in certain regions these salaries are adequate, in certain other regions, in particular in the far West and in the rural districts of all the States, the salaries are not sufficient to enable ministers to live in a reasonable degree of comfort. The meagreness of the provision made for the support of pastors is very noticeable at present, when the high cost of living burdens all classes. Action should be had in this matter, in our opinion, by the General Assembly, and we respectfully submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the special attention of the Presbyteries is hereby called to the important matter of the salaries of ministers of congregations, and that steps be taken to endeavor to secure in every congregation such a salary as shall enable the minister, in accordance with the words of the pastoral call found in the Form of Government, Chapter XV, Section 6, to be "free from worldly cares and avocations."

VII. COMITY.—The matter of comity between the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and other Christian Churches of the country, has been under consideration and action by the governing body of the Church from an early period in its history. During the period of the General Synod, extending from 1717 to 1788, comity was in force with the German Reformed Church, the Dutch Reformed Church, the Consociated Churches of Connecticut and the Congregational Churches of Massachusetts. Some of the movements referred to were not only comity in the sense of arrangements as to the fellowship of ministers and churches, but also actual coöperation by formal plans for joint work. Notably was this the case in connection with the general convention of delegates of the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, and the General Association of Connecticut which existed from 1766 to 1775, and which sought the preservation of the religious rights of the American colonies, the spread of the Gospel on the American continent, and the promotion of Christian fellowship between the Churches. This General Convention by the joint action of Presbyterians and Congregationalists promoted in a notable manner the cause of American independence.

It is to be noted that all arrangements for comity and coöperation carried forward during the period of the existence of the General Synod, were without exception directly under the control of the Synod. It claimed and exercised sole jurisdiction in these matters.

The General Assembly, from the time of its establishment in 1789, has acted, in all matters connected with comity and coöperation with other Christian bodies, on the basis of its possession of the necessary power. This sole authority is recognized in the Constitution adopted by the Church in 1788, for in Chapter 12, entitled, "Of the General Assembly," and in Section 5, the following specification, inter alia, is found, "To the General Assembly also belongs the power . . . . of corresponding with foreign churches, on such terms as may be agreed upon by the Assembly and the corresponding body."

Again, in said Chapter XII and in Section 4, it is said concerning the General Assembly, "and it shall constitute the bond of union, peace, correspondence and mutual confidence among all our churches." The Assembly controls, constitutionally, both external and internal "correspondence" for the denomination.

In the matter of correspondence with other Christian bodies, the General Assembly, among other things, adopted in 1800, under the provisions of the Constitution just named, a rule requiring that ministers coming from "foreign churches" should be reported either to a Synod or the General Assembly prior to their final reception by any Presbytery, and that no Presbytery should receive a minister from such churches without the consent of either a Synod or the Assembly. This rule was enforced for a long period of time, and is still in force in connection with a few "foreign churches." This rule of the year 1800 was also a rule of the Synod, first adopted in 1735, and acted upon in many other years. By "foreign churches" is meant all other Christian Churches except our own. The phrase has an ecclesiastical, not a geographical meaning.

Further, all arrangements for coöperation and comity have gone into effect in the history of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. only after action by the General Assembly. Such was the case with the Plan of Union in 1801, made with the Congregational Churches, and later on in connection with movements as to the World Presbyterian Alliance, the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and the Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian system.

In particular is the sole jurisdiction of the General Assembly made evident in all the history of the Church in connection with comity and coöperation with the Churches of the Presbyterian family in the United States.

The comity arrangements established in 1870 with such Churches as the Reformed Church in America, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., the United Presbyterian Church, etc., have always been subject to the enacting power of the General Assembly. The Articles of Agreement constituting the Council of the Reformed Churches in America entered into in 1907 by seven Presbyterian and Reformed denominational Churches, were adopted solely by the General Assembly for this Church. No other judicatory of the Church is vested with power to enter into any plan of comity or coöperation with any other Christian body except with the consent of the General Assembly. No more than a State of the Federal Union can make a treaty with a foreign nation, can a Synod or Presbytery of its own motion establish a plan of comity or cooperation with another Church. And it is because of this fact that it is proper to note that acts of the General Assembly as to comity and coöperation adopted within the past few years, on the recommendation of this Committee on Christian Life and Work, or on the recommendation of the Council of the Reformed Churches, emphasize the rule that Presbyteries and Synods of this Church have acted under such plans only with the consent of the Assembly, and that they have no independent power in such matters.

It is also to be noted that such plans of comity and coöperation as may be adopted are subject to change by the General Assembly at any one of its annual meetings.

Acting upon this constitutional provision, the last General Assembly adopted the following two Resolutions:

"That this General Assembly calls the attention of every Synod and Presbytery in our Church, with a view to having them open communication, by their Committees on Home Missions or Church Extension, with the church conferences of equal rank occupying similar territory, in order that definite proposals and plans pertaining to comity as aforesaid may be carried into effect; and,

"That these judicatories be requested to report to your Committee on Christian Life and Work any comity arrangements made by them, that the same may be reported to the next General Assembly for the information of the whole Church."

It is to be regretted that few of the Synods and Presbyteries have acted upon above Resolution No. 1, and it is to be hoped that during the present ecclesiastical year a number of the Synods, at the least, may take up and consider the subject, with a view to action by the General Assembly, that shall be conducive to the development of true comity between the various denominations in the United States, and also conserve unity of fellowship and action within our own jurisdiction.

Attention is drawn to the fact that the matter of comity in interdenominational relations has been referred by the Assembly, subject to its own review, to two other bodies, namely, the Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System, and the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union.

It is recommended, in view of the general situation, that the following resolutions be adopted:

Resolved, 1. That all matters of comity connected with the relations of the Churches in the Council of the Reformed Churches in America, be, and hereby are referred to said Council, subject to review by the General Assembly as provided by the Articles of Agreement of 1907.

Resolved, 2. That all matters of comity in relation to other Churches than those composing the Council of the Reformed Churches in America be and hereby are referred to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, to be reported upon annually to the General Assembly.

VIII. Marriage and Divorce.—These subjects, so closely related and so vital to the integrity of the social life of the nation, have been presented fully in the past, from time to time, by the Committee in its reports. Several of the resolutions of the General Assembly thereon are hereby repeated for purposes of information, and as emphasizing the attitude of the Presbyterian Church as set forth in the Confession of Faith, Chapter XXIV, entitled, "Of Marriage and Divorce." They are:

1. Ministers are enjoined to refuse to perform the marriage ceremony in the case of divorced persons, except as such persons have been divorced upon grounds and for causes recognized as Scriptural in the Standards of our Church. (M. G. A. 1902, p. 125; 1903, p. 89.)

2. That recognizing the comity which should exist between Churches represented in the Inter-Church Conference, acknowledging, as they do, the law of Christ alone as supreme, we advise each minister under the authority of this Assembly to refuse to unite in marriage any member of any such Church whose marriage is known to such minister to be prohibited by the laws of the Church in which such minister holds membership, unless such minister believes that in the peculiar circumstances of a given case his refusal would do injustice to an innocent person who has been divorced for Scriptural reasons. (M. G. A. 1904, p. 75.)

The Confessional doctrine reads:

3. Adultery or fornication committed after a contract, being detected before marriage, giveth just occasion to the innocent party to dissolve that contract. In the case of adultery after marriage it is lawful for the innocent party to sue out a divorce, and after the divorce to marry another, as if the offending party were dead. (C. F., Chapter XXIV, Section 5.)

Owing to full reports in previous years the Committee recommends the adoption of the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject of Marriage and Divorce.

IX. Absentee, Associate and Affiliated Members.—With a view of discovering what methods were in vogue in dealing with the problem of absentee membership, and of discovering how far the practice of providing an associate, or affiliate membership, obtains, a questionnaire was sent to fifty-two pastors, either those directly engaged in university work or regular pastorates. Thirty-five responses were received.

1. The first question was, "Is there a plan of 'associate' membership in operation in the church with which you are connected?" Twenty-nine responded in the affirmative; six in the negative. In all cases, this plan of affiliate membership is provided for students, and is not extended to other temporary residents. In most cases the plan is that devised by the Board of Education, and the card is one issued and supplied by the Board.

There is much variety in the way in which the plan is put in operation. Some churches require a letter from the pastor of the church of which the person is a member, supplying a printed form which is sent to the pastor of the home church, and which he is asked to fill out and return. Example: "Certificate of Fellowship, State Street Presbyterian Church, Albany, N. Y."

In the West End Church, of New York, persons thus received are admitted to full membership. A colored card is placed in the church roll, which is retired when the class of which the student is a member graduates. In most cases, affiliate members are received into the church in the same way as members presenting bona fide letters. Their names are presented to the Session; they are received at the regular communion service, standing as their names are read.

There are differences of opinion as to what obligations this affiliate membership involves. In some churches it is emphasized that there is no financial obligation, and that such members are not expected to pay church dues. Rev. Robert Reed, of the University Church of Champaign, Ill., however, states that he tried to remove the danger of a mere nominal association by making a financial canvass of affiliate members, and interesting as many as possible in contributing annually to the finances of the church. Last year the church had 290 contributors from its affiliate membership, raised $1,800 for local expenses, and $300 for benevolences.

It is found that the plan works in maintaining the religious interest of absentees and holding them to the church in the majority of cases. Where the plan is faithfully tried, indications are that it succeeds in holding large numbers of students to their religious faith during the trying years of their college experiences.

One pastor says that it is of value to those who are in the novel and ofttimes critical environment of university life, as it helps them to define their position and commit themselves to the Christian life. Another says that students regard this public confession as a reconsecration of their lives; that it tends to hold students to the old moorings. Others are not so enthusiastic, one pastor feeling that it is not taken seriously by those who enter into it. Still others are emphatic in their belief that only the actual dismission of the student, or other individual, in the regular way from the home church can tie him up to religion in the new community.

The proportion of the lost membership of the church which comes from young people in the colleges is not clearly ascertainable. The student-pastor at a large university believes that 50 per cent. of students let their membership lapse after leaving home, and that a very large number of these never return to their church relations after graduation. Other pastors, while not placing the percentage of loss as high as this, are emphatic in their belief, gained from personal observations, that a serious and continuous loss of live membership to the church results from the annual exodus of students to university centers.

II. What can be done to remedy the situation as to delinquency? Answers to the question, which deals more generally with the subject of delinquent membership, are to be divided into two groups: First, A statement of the causes of delinquency; Second, Suggested remedies.

First: The Causes.—There seems to be a unanimity in the belief that one prolific source of delinquent membership is to be found in the carelessness, indifference or false pride of the local pastor. It is one of the grave arraignments of our Church as a whole that we are far more anxious to get people into the Church than we are to minister to them and follow them up afterward. Pastors who display burning zeal in making converts are often indifferent to what happens to these converts after they leave the bounds of the parish. One university pastor states that in the year 1916 only eighteen ministers or others, wrote to him about 265 Presbyterian men students who had entered his university.

An authority on this subject says, "One of our student-pastors during the first four weeks of the term talked personally with 260 students from Presbyterian homes. Although his letter requesting the names of these students had gone to every minister in charge of a church in the entire region served by this university, only 22 names had been sent in."

Another says, "Many ministers carry people on their rolls for years without taking the trouble to know fully about them. Some may have left the parish ten years before, yet they are held either through careless business methods or through a desire to have the membership reported large in the General Assembly Minutes." Again, "One great trouble is that in our Presbyterian Church we are powerless to force local ministers to 'get on the job' and take care of all their members."

Others write that many ministers are very reluctant to issue letters, and that even when absentee members themselves have written asking that they be dismissed to other churches, the granting of their requests has been delayed by some excuse, or no answer whatever has been received. On the other hand, carelessness and indifference upon the part of many absentee members are indicated by the replies. It is only fair to ministers to say that multitudes of people move from the church and community without ever taking the trouble to notify them, and it may be some time after their removal that a pastor discovers it, and even then, he may have no means of knowing where they may be addressed. There is no doubt that thousands of church members thus effectually bury themselves every year, and have to be recorded, "Address Unknown."

Yet another states, "In the majority of cases those who have any intention of keeping up their church relations usually seek out some church in their neighborhood. The serious part of this matter lies not in the methods used by the church, but in the very frequent lack of desire of nominal church members to be faithful to their church obligation."

Remedies Suggested.—The pastor should obtain early each fall a list of all young people in the congregation who expect to go away to college, or some other educational institution. He should call these together and seek to impress upon them their Christian duties and responsibilities when away from home. He should urge them, either actually to unite or affiliate themselves with some church in the college community, issuing to them letters of introduction and recommendation to the university pastor, or the pastor of some church in the community. Church members generally should be more frequently instructed as to their duty in removing to a new community, at once to locate themselves in some church, and as soon as possible transfer their church membership. They also should be urged not to move from the community without notifying the church Session of their change in address.

Pastors and church Sessions should be required at least once a year to communicate with all absentees whose addresses can be ascertained, urging them to transfer their membership. They should also be required to communicate with some pastor in each community to which their members have gone, notifying him and requesting him to follow up these members and report results.

Pastors and church Sessions should be warned against carelessness and haste in removing the names of absentees and other delinquents from the church roll. Such removal should not be made unless the residence of absentees cannot be ascertained, or unless a careful and conscientious effort has been made to induce absentee members to transfer their membership.

This whole question of absenteeism is one that needs to be dealt with by the church in a sympathetic, practical and thorough-going way. It is not enough recognized that our American communities are to-day in a greater state of flux than ever before. There is a vast population that is more or less migratory, and which, because of the character of its business or work, is compelled to pass at frequent intervals from one community to another. Such a mode of life is not stimulating to the establishment of stable church relations. People who do not know where they are going to be six months from to-day are easily tempted to postpone the transfer of church affiliations.

With the Minutes reporting over 55,000 persons placed upon the suspended roll in the last ecclesiastical year, the Church needs to recognize the gravity of the situation.

The Committee, therefore, submits to the General Assembly, the following recommendations for approval:

1. That the General Assembly hereby directs pastors and church Sessions to issue to all members at the time of their reception, a certificate stating that they have been received into the church, either on profession or by letter, and the date of such reception, the purpose of such certificate being that members may have a permanent record of their church relationship. This in case of removal may serve to introduce them to the pastor or Session of the church in the community to which they may remove. This certificate shall contain not only the obligations of church membership, but also the steps necessary to secure a letter of dismissal. And pastors and church Sessions, when members in good and regular standing apply for letters of dismissal, are directed to issue the same. In all this, the provisions of church law should be observed.

2. That all possible pressure be put by Presbyteries upon pastors and church Sessions to secure the following up of absentee members, the reporting of these members to ministers in the communities to which they have gone, and conscientious effort to have them transfer their church membership to churches in these communities; that pastors and church Sessions also be instructed not to place upon the suspended roll any absentee members unless their addresses are unknown, or unless after conscientious effort and earnest persuasion they have declined to transfer their membership. All Sessions should be careful to comply with the requirements of the Book of Discipline.

3. That the General Assembly authorizes the Committee on Christian Life and Work to consider the advisability of creating and recognizing a form of associate or affiliate membership whose provisions shall be extended to students at educational institutions, the purpose of which shall be to provide a form of church relation which at the discretion of the particular church Session, may be granted to those church members who are temporarily located outside the boundaries of their own churches. The Committee shall report on this subject to the General Assembly.

XI. Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries.*—The last General Assembly recommended "that the Report of the Special Committee on Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries, having to do with the Minutes of the General Assembly, be referred back to the Committee for further consideration and correction, after further consultation with the Secretaries and Treasurers of our various Boards, and with the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, and that the Committee be given power to act, and, if possible, determine the matter in time for the printing of the Minutes of this meeting of the Assembly"

The Committee has endeavored to carry out with care the instructions of the Assembly. It was found impossible to incorporate the proposed changes in the Minutes of 1916. Nor was the Committee able to complete the considerable amount of detail work necessary in time to have these changes embodied in the statistical blanks which are sent out by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly to the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries early in the year, and which must be in the hands of the printer in December. The changes will therefore not go into effect until the printing of the Minutes of the 130th General Assembly. The name of the Presbytery of Columbus is used simply as an illustration.

The Assembly gave power to the Committee to act. After careful consideration and conference, a unanimous decision was reached and the Committee submits, herewith, the new form of the Statistical report which it has authorized. (See pages 153 to 156.)

XII. Renewed Consecration.—The General Assembly at Chicago, May 26, 1914, directed the Committee on Christian Life and Work, through the Moderator and Stated Clerk, to issue a solemn call for a year of intercession for the out-pouring of the Holy Spirit throughout the world on both the home and foreign fields, in all their varied needs. Within less than three months after this action, the most terrible war in the modern history of mankind began, and has continued with increasing violence for nearly three years. The mystery involved in this war is beyond the power of human intelligence. We can but say, as we think upon the Divine relation thereto, "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." The great need of the hour is reconsecration on the part of Christians, and a renewal of the summons to intercessions. Only as Christians everywhere seek to conform mind, heart and life to the will of God, can they fully meet the prayerful needs of the situation, and God Himself does determine the form of His answer to prayer. The whole solemn situation is a divine call to plead with God, in the spirit of earnest intercession, in the name of Jesus Christ, for our own land, for all lands desolated by war, and for all the world, statedly and constantly. Reconsecration and continuous intercession; these are the two great duties and privileges of the hour.

XIII. Resolutions.—The following general Resolutions are recommended to the Assembly for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the attention of all the Presbyteries and Synods be called to the need of yet further improvement in connection with the reporting of the Narrative of the Form of Religion, and also to the propriety of assigning a period of at least one hour to the presentation of the Report during a morning session of the judicatory, to be accompanied with exercises of praise and prayer.

Resolved, 2. That the Stated Clerks of Synods be and are hereby appointed as advisory members of the General Assembly's Special Committee on the Narrative of Christian Life and Work, and that the Synods be requested to direct the said clerks to coöperate with the Committee in the preparation of the Narrative for the Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That the Narrative of the Special Committee, when approved by the Assembly, be printed in full in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Resolved, 4. That the Board of Publication be requested to publish such portions of the Narrative in leaflet form as may be decided on by the Committee on Christian Life and Work.

Resolved, 5, That Presbyteries be and are hereby recommended to give particular attention to the yet more earnest cultivation of the spiritual life of both ministers and church officers and church members, in view of the great world war in which the nations are engaged.

* See Journal, p. 151, for action by the Assembly.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

CORRESPONDENCE

I. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM, WESTERN SECTION, FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1916.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Western (American) Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, respectfully presents its Annual Report for the year 1916–17, under the following heads:

I. MEETINGS.—The Western Section during the year 1916–17, held one meeting, the place being Columbia, South Carolina, and the time March 7 and 8, 1917. The Vice-Chairman, Rev. S. G. Shaw, Ph.D., presided, and the Section was admirably entertained by the churches and the Theological Seminary of Columbia, and their friends.

II. OFFICERS.—The officers for the present year are: Chairman, Rev. John Somerville, D.D.; Vice-Chairmen, Rev. R. C. Reed, D.D., and Rev. J. V. Stephens, D.D.; Recording Secretary, Rev. J. C. Scouller, D.D., Chairman, Executive Committee, General R. E. Prime. The American Secretary, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., and Mr. Philip E. Howard, American Treasurer, are permanent officers of the Alliance and of the Section.

III. NECROLOGY.—The departures from this life have been three in number among the members. They were the Rev. Julius W. Walden, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.; the Rev. James Y. Boice, D.D., and the Rev. John Henry Kendall, D.D., both of the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. These all were worthy co-laborers in every good work.

IV. WORK IN EUROPE.—Conditions as to work in Europe might be described in one word—war—with all its implications. Yet underneath the fearful volcano that is belching forth such awful explosions of hate, there are other forces at work than war, and among them are the peace-bringing ministries of the Faith.

The problem of first importance is, of course, the religious condition. The question uppermost in the minds of men is, "Has the wave of religious feeling that swept over Europe at the beginning of the war continued, or has it subsided?" Despite the opinions of certain writers the reply to such a question must be that Europe is by no means the same as before the war. The old indifferentism has given way to deeper, spiritual things. The constant presence of so much death, both in the trenches and to those at home, has solemnized the continent. Mr. H. G. Wells, one of the ablest observers, says: "The war has produced a great volume of religious thought and feeling. People habitually religious have been stirred to new depths of sincerity and reality, and other people are thinking of religion who never thought of religion before." The revival movements, especially in the trenches, the renewed emphasis placed upon Eschatology, the prominence of millenialism, and all the questions about the future state reveal that Europe is profoundly impressed. The world over there is beginning to value spiritual and eternal verities, and to sweep aside as chaff the lesser secular materialistic theories. However, before we can actually ascertain the religious condition of Europe, we must wait for the clouds to lift that cover that volcano of war.

The great temperance movement is another remarkable result of the war. In England and Scotland the tendency has been to greater strictness. In France the proposal has been made to make prohibition permanent after the war. Without a doubt, the victories of temperance and prohibition in Europe have had their influence in our own land, helping State after State to line up for prohibition.

Another movement of significance is the giving of the right to vote to the women in some of the Continental Churches, e.g., in the Reformed Churches of Neuchatel and Berne. This means a great deal on account of state connection, and will lead to larger effectiveness and spirituality in those Churches.

But perhaps the greatest thing in the present European situation is that altruism—self-sacrifice for others—has become a large part of piety over there. All the nations have been learning to live for others. People are revealing capacities of heroism and self-denial unthought of before and almost divine. In Switzerland particularly the whole altruistic movement has been nothing less than gigantic, and self-sacrifice has continued there so long that it has become a regular feature of life, nay, better—a passion—the wonderful passion of love.

But the great question now beginning to loom up is, "What about the end of the war?" One thing is evident—religion will be somewhat different. It will be the old religion of Jesus Christ, but the emphasis in it will be different, it will be less conventional and more personal. It will still be the old faith of Christ so sweet, so loving, so holy, but having passed through the melting pot, it will be purified and blessed.

The following Resolutions were adopted by the Section:

Resolved, 1. That the Western Section is glad to learn that so many of the constituent Churches have taken steps to observe the Four-Hundredth Anniversary of the Reformation of the 16th century. The Section again recommends, as it did last year, the widespread observance of this anniversary in all the congregations of the Churches, and expresses its hope that under the guidance of the Holy Spirit the observance may prove to be a great blessing to the churches and give a powerful inspiration to the forward movement for the conversion of the world to Christ.

Resolved, 2. That the Western Section, in view of the great needs of the brethren of our faith in the Reformed Churches of Belgium, France and Poland, and of the Waldensian Church of Italy, due to the present world-wide war, recommends that the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches give full attention to the facts and also take some suitable action, for the supply of these needs. The Section believes that the time has come when the Churches of the Western Section should aid the above-named sister Churches in a special manner, and in addition to any aid given in response to the general appeals made in their behalf.

V. Church History.—There has been an unfortunate delay in the preparation and publication of the English translation of the works of Zwingli, the first founder of our family of Churches. It is hoped that during the coming year progress may be made in publishing these important works.

We learn that the committees of several of the constituent Churches of the Alliance are engaged in preparations for a suitable observance of the Reformation Quadricentenary, and it is assured that this anniversary year will witness commemorative exercises throughout the bounds of each of the great majority of the evangelical Churches of our country.

VI. Home Missions.—The accomplishment of the predestined mission of America among the nations of the world, depends in no small measure upon the fidelity and efficiency of the Church in prosecuting the great and multiform work of Home Missions. It is a cause for special gratitude that the reports received from the various branches of the Presbyterian Church in America all speak of decided progress during the past year. The growth of the spirit of comity and co-operation is conspicuous, and furnishes abundant gratitude to God, and produces good courage in those who are prosecuting this great and difficult work of making America fit for spiritual leadership among the nations of the world. The following table indicates the Home Mission conditions during the past year:

	Missionaries employed.	Churches and Missions aided.	Receipts.
Presbyterian Church in Canada	1,065	1,119	$456,719
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A	1,854	1,912	1,943,522
Presbyterian Church in U. S	428	600	620,000
United Presbyterian Church	235	252	426,747
Synod, Reformed Presb. Church	75	45	54,911
Reformed Church in U. S	210	243	162,405
Reformed Church in America	222	250	218,183
General Synod Ref. Presb. Church	1	7	2,000
Associate Reformed Presb. Synod	20	40	24,747
Welsh Presbyterian Church	None	35	8,013
Total	4,110	4,503	$3,917,247

VII. American and European Residents in Foreign Seaports.—The Inter-denominational Committee representing the Annual Conference of Mission Boards in the United States and Canada, which has charge of the conduct of religious work for American and European residents in foreign seaports, reports that the work has been very satisfactory during the past year. Grants aggregating $3,967 have been made toward the support of the work. The churches at Colombo, Ceylon; and at Manila, P. I., have become self-supporting, while the Union Church at Peking, China, will probably be independent soon of outside aid. The Union Churches of Kobe and Yokohama, Japan, report encouraging progress. The latter church has contributed something like $50,000 for its equipment. The Church at Mexico City, having carried on its work through the troubles incident to the revolution, is to have a new pastor in Rev. George Lennington, of Staten Island, N. Y. The Committee is planning to begin work in three new fields, viz., in Tokyo, in Havana, and in Hangchow, China.

VIII. Hungarian Churches.—The relations with the Hungarian Churches of the various Presbyterian and Reformed bodies in the United States are practically the same as they were when the last report was made. The most serious present problem is the continual interference which representatives of the National Hungarian Church in this country are persistently making with the work done by the American Churches.

IX. Sabbath-school and Young People's Work.—Brief extracts from the Reports of the several Churches represented in the Alliance will convey interesting information in regard to prosperous and progressive work in the Sabbath-schools and Young People's organizations.

Presbyterian Church in Canada.—A unified programme of religious education, spiritual, comprehensive and workable, was the distinctive feature for the year of the activity of the Board of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Work. An attempt is being made to solve successfully the vast problem of Religious Education. The Church in Canada has 3,815 schools with a total enrollment of 293,797. There are 1,927 Young People's Societies with a total membership of 55,195.

Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.—The new Educational Department of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work has been actively engaged in the promotion of the duties assigned to it. A new periodical, The Christian Educator, was issued in October, and has been received with favor. The total number of the Sabbath-schools is 9,689 with a membership of 1,427,208, and with total contributions of $1,387,504.

Presbyterian Church in the U. S.—Vigorous efforts are being made to increase the efficiency of the Sunday-schools along the lines advocated by the Sunday-school Council of Evangelical Churches of America. The churches reported for the past year 2,848 schools with a total enrollment of 317,904.

United Presbyterian Church.—The total number of schools is 1,003, with an enrollment of 181,885, while the contributions amount to $228,177. The Young People's Societies are 774 in number, with a membership of 26,867, and total contributions of $35,291.

Reformed Church in America.—The new Department of Religious Education which has now been in existence for over a year has the management of the entire Sabbath-school and Young People's Work of the Church. There are 807 schools with a total enrollment of 131,890.

Reformed Church in the U. S.—The Sunday-school Increase Campaign, commemorating the Four-Hundredth Anniversary of the Reformation, which challenges the schools of the Church to make a 20 per cent. increase in membership during the year, has been a great stimulus to the work. The present Sunday-school membership is 346,657.

Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod.—This Church reports 14,834 scholars with total contributions of $8,757. The forward movement in the Young People's Christian Unions has shown no abatement, and there has been a quickening of interest in existing organizations.

Welsh Presbyterian Church.—The membership in the Sabbath-schools is approximately 14,000.

X. Foreign Missions.—Progress is most manifested in Foreign Missions along the following lines:

(1) Survey.—An attempt is being made to obtain definite data in order to increase the efficiency, conserve the energy, and eliminate the waste in foreign missionary work. While there always has been more or less of such information available, it is only now that the effort is made by scientific methods, and there is in it great promise of reward.

(2) Evangelism.—In China, in Japan, in India, in Korea and in Africa, aggressive evangelistic campaigns are being conducted. The seed has been sown broadcast, and thousands have been brought into the Kingdom.

(3) Education.—The rapid development of education, especially in the Orient, is one of the many marvels of modern times, and is the indispensable handmaid of Missions. As a general rule at least one-tenth of the educational work in the foreign missionary countries is being done in mission schools.

(4) Literature.—A desire for closer coördination and coöperation in the organizations which publish Christian literature is widespread because of the urgency of the need and the inadequacy of the supply. Strenuous efforts are being made to meet this need, some of the societies increasing their output five-fold over preceding years.

(5) Coöperation.—There are many degrees of coöperation reaching all the way to organic union. In China and India, Alliances are being formed for purposes of strength and efficiency, and for the hastening of that day when all men shall know Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

(6) The War.—It is surely an evidence of Divine care that in the midst of a world conflict, missions have been affected so slightly. Despite losses and necessary financial curtailments, general conditions have developed that are distinctly favorable to missionary activities, and the furtherance of the Gospel.

(7) Statistics.—Of the 246 organizations in North America contributing to Foreign Missions for 1915, nine are Presbyterian in polity and doctrine. Of total contributions of $18,793,990, $4,509,407, or nearly one-fourth, came from Presbyterian sources. The total number of missionaries is about 10,500 and of these 3,100 are Presbyterian.

XI. Education.—A deepened interest is being shown in the whole field of educational activity. Its importance, its possibilities, its vastness and its permanent results are increasingly appreciated. Some of the Churches have modified and enlarged their organized equipment for administering their educational policy. In considering the relation of the Church to educational work there are four great groups of educational forces, the home, the State, the church itself, and other agencies, private and corporate, all of which are doing their part to develop Christian manhood and womanhood.

XII. Quarterly Register.—The Quarterly Register,, the organ of the Alliance, continues, as in former years, to supply the various constituent Churches of the Alliance with information relative to their varied interests. Owing to the continuance of the war there has been no significant change either of the name, the manner of gathering and editing the news, or in the manner of circulation. Persons desiring to subscribe should write to Rev. R. Dykes Shaw, D.D., General Secretary, 122 Geroge Street, Edinburgh, Scotland.

XIII. FINANCES.—The receipts from the apportionment of the Churches during the year ending February 1, 1917, amounted to $3,385. To this was added $4.68 in refunds, and interest to the amount of $90.63, making a total of $3,480.31. The disbursements were as follows: Alliance expenses, general office, $2,120.97; annual meeting, Western Section, Auburn, New York, $1,092.57; printing and miscellaneous expenses, $447.59; total $3,661.13.

It is respectfully requested that the apportionment from your Church be forwarded not later than October 1, 1917, to the American Treasurer, Mr. Philip E. Howard, 1031 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. The financial provisions of the Alliance include the salary and expenses of the General Secretary, Rev. R. Dykes Shaw, D.D., of Edinburgh, Scotland, and the current expenses of the Western Section. The American Secretary continues to serve without pay.

XIV. THE ELEVENTH COUNCIL.—The continuation of the war in Europe has necessitated delaying the meeting of the Eleventh Council to some date later than 1917. The Supreme Judicatories are respectfully requested to appoint their delegates to the Eleventh Council, however, at an early date and to report the names to the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., American Secretary, 512 Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

XV. APPORTIONMENTS FOR EXPENSES AND REPRESENTATIVES IN THE ELEVENTH COUNCIL.—The Eleventh Council of the Alliance will consist of 350 members, 150 from the Eastern and 200 from the Western Section. The distribution of members to the constituent Churches, and the annual apportionment of the Churches for the expenses of the Alliance are as given below. The rate of apportionment is $20 per representative per annum.

	Number Representatives	Annual Payments
Presbyterian Church in Canada	21	$420 00
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A	103	2,060 00
Presbyterian Church, U. S	21	420 00
United Presbyterian Church	13	260 00
Reformed Church, U. S	22	440 00
Reformed Church, America	8	160 00
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod	2	40 00
General Synod, Reformed Presbyterian Church	2	40 00
Synod, Reformed Presbyterian Church	2	40 00
Welsh Presbyterian Church	2	40 00
Presbyterian Church, Brazil	2	40 00
Presbyterian Church, Mexico	2	40 00
Totals	200	$4,000 00

XVI. FRATERNAL DELEGATES.—The Western Section has appointed the following delegates from the Alliance to the supreme judicatories:

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.—Rev. R. P. MacKay, D.D.
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. A.—Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D.
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S.—Rev. I. S. McElroy, D.D.
UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev. D. F. McGill, D.D.
REFORMED CHURCH IN AMERICA.—Rev. J. Preston Searle, D.D.
REFORMED CHURCH IN THE U. S.—Rev. James I. Good, D.D.
ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.—Rev. F. Y. Pressly, D.D.
SYNOD, REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev. S. G. Shaw.
GENERAL SYNOD, REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev. Thomas White.
WELSH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev. W. Owen Williams.
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF BRAZIL.—Rev. J. B. Kolb.

XVII. NEXT PLACE OF MEETING.—The Western Section will meet in February or March, 1918, in Princeton, New Jersey, at a date to be fixed by the Executive Committee.

XVIII. THE GREAT HOPE.—It is appropriate at the close of this report, to give expression to the feeling of great solemnity which rests upon all Christian hearts in these dread days of a world war. We recall, however, the words of Christ, "And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, see that ye be not troubled, for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet;" and "This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness to all nations; and then shall the end come." (Matth. xxiv : 6, 14.)

Possessing our souls in Christian patience, loyal to every interest to which we are related, acknowledging in all things the sovereignty of the great Head of the Church and our constant faith that He doeth all things well, we are, in behalf of the Alliance

Yours most cordially,
JOHN SOMERVILLE, Chairman,
WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, American Secretary.

II. REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES IN AMERICA HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

Dear Brethren:—The Council of the Reformed Churches in America respectfully reports to its constituent Churches, through its Executive Committee, for the year ending March 31, 1917.

The constituent Churches in the Council are the same as heretofore reported, and their names appear later in this Report.

1. Meetings.—The regular meetings of the Council being biennial, no meeting has been held during this ecclesiastical year. The next regular meeting will be on the third Tuesday of March, 1918.

2. Executive Committee.—The business of the Council, under its rules, is transacted in the intervals between the regular meetings by the Executive Committee. The membership is as follows:

Rev. Charles S. Cleland, D.D., 802 N. 17th St., Philadelphia, Pa., President.
Rev. A. S. Weber, D.D., Baltimore, Md., Vice-President.
Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Philadelphia, Pa., Stated Clerk.
Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa., Permanent Clerk.
Rev. David F. McGill, D.D., Ben Avon, Pa., Treasurer.
Rev. George Alexander, D.D., New York, N. Y., Chairman, Committeee on Foreign Missions.
Rev. Wm. P. Fulton, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa., Chairman, Committee on Home Missions.
Rev. J. Alvin Orr, D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa., Chairman, Committee on Work Among Colored People.
Rev. J. Addison Jones, Albany, N. Y., Chairman, Committee on Christian Education and Literature.
Rev. E. S. Bromer, D.D., Greensburg, Pa., Chairman, Committee on Ministerial Relief.
Rev. J. Rauch Stein, D.D., Bethlehem, Pa., Chairman, Committee on Correspondence.
B. F. Hallock, M.D., New York, N. Y., Chairman, Finance Committee.

The Committee met in Philadelphia, Pa., February 27, 1917, with a quorum present.

3. Committee of Eleven.—The Committee of Eleven on Closer Coöperation appointed by the Executive Committee reported to the Council at its meeting in 1916. At that meeting the question of the continuance or non-continuance of the Committee was referred to the Executive Committee with power. The latter after due consideration.

Resolved, That the Committee of Eleven on Coöperation be discontinued, and its work, as authorized by the constituent Churches, be taken over by the Executive Committee and the Standing Committees of the Council.

4. Closer Relations.—The subject of closer relations was carefully considered by the Executive Committee and the following action was taken:

Resolved, That the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches be requested to authorize the Council to prepare and to present to them, at their meetings in 1918, such changes in the plans of the Council as shall bring into more practical form the whole matter of closer relations between the Churches and between their organized agencies.

5. MINISTERIAL RELIEF AND SUSTENTATION.—The attention of the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches is drawn to the conclusions reached by the Committee on Ministerial Relief as to coöperation between boards and agencies of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation of the constituent Churches of the Council. They are:

1. There is at present no affiliation or coöperation between the several boards and agencies of Ministerial Relief of the Council.

2. The only evidence of recognition between the said boards or agencies is the possible transfer of ministers of the United Presbyterian Church under certain conditions to the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., without losing their claims to relief.

3. There is manifest, within the several Churches of the Council, a tendency to unify and standardize the conditions and amounts of relief and pension.

4. The tendency toward relief in the form of annuity or pension, instead of charity, is growing rapidly.

5. At the present time there seems to be no way open toward coöperation except in three directions: (1) The standardization in all the boards or agencies of the conditions of relief and pension and of amounts given; (2) the free transfer of ministers and all claimants for relief or pension from one denomination to another among the Churches of the Council; (3) the organization of a common representative commission on Ministerial Relief looking toward final consolidation of all the boards or agencies of the Council.

The Executive Committee requests that the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches consent to the organization by the Council of a common representative commission on Ministerial Relief looking toward both coöperation and a final consolidation of all the boards or agencies of the Council, report to be made at a later meeting of the Council.

6. THE SCHAFF CHURCH UNITY FUND.—The attention of the supreme judicatories is again respectfully requested to the movement to honor the memory of the Rev. Philip Schaff, D.D., one of the chief advocates in the past of Church unity, by creating a Philip Schaff Unity Fund to be invested in the Schaff Memorial Building. Progress is being made by the special committee in charge of the movement, and it is recommended that the supreme judicatories urge upon their churches the continued support of this fund.

7. REPRESENTATIVES OF AGENCIES, ETC.—The Council asks the consent of the supreme judicatories to the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the supreme judicatories authorize their executive agencies to appoint representatives to be present at future meetings of the Council.

Resolved, 2. That each of the supreme judicatories appoint standing committees to report upon the minutes and recommendations of the Council.

8. FINANCES.—The Treasurer of the Council, the Rev. David F. Magill, D.D., reports that the payments during the year ending March 31st, have been $448.50, and that the receipts for the year have been $475. No meeting of the Council having been held during the present year, there have been no expenses other than those connected with the current work and the meetings of the Executive Committee. The balance in the Treasury on March 31st, after meeting all obligations, was $1338.15. The payments, therefore, of the apportionments assigned the Churches for the present fiscal year, if all made, will provide for the expenses of the meeting of the Council in March, 1918, so far as these are provided for in the Articles of Agreement. It is to be borne in mind that all the officers of the Council serve without salary.

9. ELECTIONS.—The supreme judicatories are also respectfully requested to elect at their next meetings the members to represent them in the Council for the next two years or for such other periods as to the judicatories may seem proper. The total membership of the Council is as follows:

Reformed Church in America	8
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A	32
United Presbyterian Church	8
Presbyterian Church in the U. S	12
Reformed Church in the U. S	12
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod	4
Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored	4
	80

10. EXPENSES.—The supreme judicatories are requested to pay apportionments for the current expenses of the Council in the following annual amounts:

Reformed Church in America	$50 00
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A	200 00
United Presbyterian Church	50 00
Presbyterian Church in the U. S	75 00
Reformed Church in the U. S	75 00
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod	25 00
Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored	25 00
	$500 00

11. DELEGATES.—Delegates to the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches were appointed as follows:

Reformed Church in America.—Rev. J. Addison Jones, D.D.
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.—Rev. Wm. P. Fulton, D.D.
United Presbyterian Church.—Rev. Charles S. Cleland, D.D.
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.—Rev. J. R. Howerton, D.D.
Reformed Church in the U. S.—Rev. A. S. Weber, D.D.
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod.—Rev. R. G. Miller, D.D.
Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored.—Rev. J. M. W. Deshong.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Executive Committee of the Council,

CHARLES S. CLELAND, President,
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

III. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA.

To the Constituent Bodies of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America:

In behalf of the Federal Council and its Executive Committee, we hereby convey the six volumes constituting the Quadrennial reports of the Council, designated "Library of Christian Coöperation," for the consideration of the constituent bodies. We also convey the Federal Council Year Book for 1917, containing full information regarding ecclesiastical bodies in the United States.

In order to facilitate the consideration of these voluminous reports, we deem it advisable to summarize the present activities of the Council, as authorized by the Third Quadrennial Meeting at St. Louis, in December, 1916.

The meeting in St. Louis was attended by duly elected members from all the constituent bodies, received a report of the Committee of Fifteen, making comprehensive recommendations as to matters of policy, received full reports of all the various Commissions and Committees, and after careful consideration by the business committee, took action determining the work of the Council for the coming quadrennium.

Acting under these directions, we report the work of the Council now in progress as follows:

1. At its National Offices in New York, under the direction of the General Secretary, executive and field secretaries, and staff, the Council is engaged in the coördination of Christian forces in the interest of national and international Christian life. A Publication and Printing Department of considerable magnitude is maintained with adequate machinery for reaching the churches, and for the publication of volumes and pamphlets.

A Religious Publicity Bureau is now being developed.

The Council has local correspondents in every city of the United States and has foreign correspondents connected with the Protestant Churches of all the countries of the world.

In addition to the meetings of its own committees and commissions, the Council calls frequent representative conferences upon matters of common interest to all the Churches.

The National Offices maintain a staff of about forty persons engaged in this united work.

2. At the office in Washington, D. C., affairs of national religious concern are considered by a special Committee and an Associate Secretary, the work including such matters as chaplains in the Army and Navy, the development of the religious welfare of the Army and Navy, the religious census, the special work in the interest of the colored churches, and missionary affairs of national and international concern.

3. The Commission on Inter-Church Federations is constantly engaged in the organization of local federations of churches, and enlists the coöperation of the several denominational and interdenominational organizations in this interest. A most important congress on "The Purpose and Methods of Inter-Church Federations" will be held at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, October 1–4, 1917.

4. The Home Missions Council is a coöperating body, and brings together the Home Mission Boards of the denominations in the interest of the effective distribution of Christian forces in Home Mission fields.

The Commission on Church and Country Life is furthering this great interest by securing coöperation between rural churches. It is now making State surveys.

5. A Committee on Foreign Missions supplements the work of the Foreign Mission Boards in encouraging coöperation in all the various phases of foreign mission work.

6. The Commission on Evangelism, uniting the evangelistic committees of the various denominations, is endeavoring to bring about an adjustment of this important work so as to serve more fully, effectively and permanently the interests of the churches by stimulating pastoral evangelism and through simultaneous and continuous evangelistic movements.

7. The Commission on Church and Social Service expresses the Christian view of social questions, coördinates the social service agencies of the denominations, holds religious labor mass meetings, is prosecuting a campaign for the conservation of human life, a temperance fellowship movement among workingmen, and a nation-wide campaign for one day's rest in seven for industrial workers. The Commission is undertaking work in the interest of the moral and spiritual welfare of the Army and Navy, and is also giving appropriate coöperation in the humanitarian work of the American Red Cross.

8. The Commission on International Justice and Goodwill is conducting an educative campaign through text-books and lesson courses and other literature in churches, Sunday-schools, men's classes and groups, and through coöperation with the World Alliance for Promoting International Friendship through the Churches, is in relations with the Protestant Churches of the various countries in Europe.

A Commission on Relations with the Orient is engaged in furthering goodwill in this important part of the world, and is endeavoring to secure the adjustment of our relations upon the basis of justice and goodwill.

9. The Commission on Christian Education secures the coöperation of the Sunday-school boards and the Boards of Education of the denominations in a united programme with common literature. Special attention is being given to the problem of religious education in connection with the public-school curricula. A text-book and two series of lessons on international peace, and an important volume on the entire question of religious education are being circulated.

10. The Commission on Temperance has joined forces with the historic National Temperance Society, is publishing four temperance papers, one for adults, two for children, and one for workingmen, and is engaged in a nation-wide educational campaign, for which it is securing the coöperation of the church forces.

11. Committees have been appointed to survey, report and present recommendations on such important matters of national concern as Family Life and Religious Rest Day.

12. The Nation-wide War Relief Movement, in which several of the leading organizations have coöperated, is being continued among the churches and communities. Large sums of money are being secured, and the Council is carrying on this work without any cost for overhead administrative expenses.

13. The General Secretary is securing financial assistance for the stricken churches and missions in Europe and Asia, more especially for the Belgian missions and the Huguenot churches in France.

For particular needs as they appear, special movements are being promoted or carried on from time to time, such as the Committee on Ministerial Relief; the Quadri-Centennial of the Reformation; the American Huguenot Committee; the Committee on Christian Work in the Canal Zone; the Ministers' Institute for Colored Ministers; the Annual Week of Prayer; and many similar movements uniting all the Churches in great causes and upon common tasks. A special day of prayer was invited February 18, which was widely observed. A call to prayer for the week preceding Easter was also issued, in which appropriate subjects for the week were suggested.

In behalf of the Board of Finance, we should remind the constituent bodies that the work of the Council is in the interest of economy. Nearly all of these tasks would cost many times as much as they do if they were performed separately by the different denominations, and would not be done so speedily, constantly and effectively.

The Administrative Committee of the Executive Committee has been enlarged and is more fully representative of the constituent denominations. It increasingly endeavors to keep informed fully as to the attitude of these denominations through constant consultation with their officially elected representatives.

In conveying the six volumes of Quadrennial Reports, attention should be called to the action of the meeting at St. Louis distinguishing between informational matter in such reports and the actions approved specifically by the Council or its Executive Committee. It is upon these actions that the approval of the constituent bodies is requested, and it is only for these that the Council assumes responsibility.

The call for a broad conception of the mission of the Church was never so appealing; the need of a practicable programme never more clear. The light of the Gospel is not dimmed in these vital days of the world's life, but the ways must be cleared for its radiation. Never again can the Gospel which is for humanity be cloistered! The Church must meditate, reflect, pray, believe. It must also courageously and powerfully work in the name of Him who said, "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work." It is the confident purpose of the Federal Council so to fill its place in the modern programme as to conserve the best in every one of its constituent bodies, to express effectively the common convictions and aims of all and, within the limitations of its constitution and authorization, to be in the highest sense a minister of the Gospel in the name of the Churches and of their one Master, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK MASON NORTH, President;
CHARLES S. MACFARLAND, General Secretary.

IV. LETTER TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada:

Brethren Beloved:—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, meeting at Dallas, Texas, May, 1917, extends through us to you most cordial Christian greetings. We feel called upon especially thus to do because of the world situation. The nations to which we both are related are largely of one origin, one speech, and one faith. Under the guiding hand of God, these nations were making slow but sure advance in all the elements which make up a Christian civilization. In this advance all evangelical Christian Churches, and in particular our Churches of the Presbyterian family, have had and have an important part. This Christian progress, for the time being, however, has seemingly been halted by the World War, and in this tremendous conflict our nations stand side by side, engaged in a decisive battle for righteousness and true liberty. We rejoice that we can thus stand with you and with the Churches of the other lands beyond the Atlantic. Let us go forward with courage, with confidence, and with equanimity of spirit, remembering our Saviour's words, "Ye shall hear of wars, and rumors of wars, see that ye be not troubled, for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet." While putting forth every effort possible for the success of the military and naval forces of our two nations and of our allies, let us continue earnest in Christian service, and also constant in prayer to God to grant unto us and to the interests to which we are vitally related, the victory for which we all long. Let us remember, further, our supreme duty, as pointed out by other words of our Lord and Saviour, "and this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world, unto all nations, and then shall the end come." Loyal to our nations, loyal to our Churches, may we above all be loyal unto Him to whom one day, "every knee shall bow and every tongue confess, as Lord of all."

In behalf of the General Assembly,

J. WILBUR CHAPMAN, Moderator;
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk;
ROBERT JOHNSTON.

V. REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF CUMBERLAND UNIVERSITY.

LEBANON, TENN., May 10, 1917.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., greeting:

The Trustees of Cumberland University respectfully report to your reverend body, that no changes in the Board of Trustees have occurred since the date of last report. The whole number constituting the Board is fifteen, but two vacancies remain unfilled, so that thirteen in number are now serving, all of whom have heretofore been confirmed by the Assembly, and with but one exception, all are members of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. The exception is a member of the Methodist Church South, and is a most excellent Christian gentleman.

Since our last report the Trustees have elected to the Presidency of the University, Dr. Edward P. Childs, who is a gentleman of wide culture and considerable experience as an educator, and we are greatly encouraged by his efforts, which give promise of a successful future in the work of the University.

Respectfully submitted,

ANDREW B. MARTIN, President.

VI. Curricula.

No important changes have been made. At its meeting, May 7, 1917, the Board of Directors passed the following resolutions in accordance with the recommendations of the Committee on Curriculum:

Resolved, That the Curriculum Committee, in conference with the Faculty, be authorized to engage a Lecturer on Religious Education for the ensuing year, at a cost not to exceed $500; provided that sufficient funds for the purpose be secured without draft upon the present funds of the Seminary.

Resolved, That in view of the need for more exercise in sermon composition and the delivery of sermons, and in Bible reading in the pulpit on the part of students, temporary assistance be provided in the Homiletic Department, at a cost not to exceed $1,500 a year; with the understanding that this expense shall not be a charge upon the funds of the Seminary. It was intimated that plans were under way by which this money would be secured.

The sum $50,000 having been devised to the Seminary by the late William Borden, an alumnus, and the greater part of this legacy having been already placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the Seminary, the following action was taken by the Board of Directors, May 7, 1917:

This Board of Directors being of the opinion that the moneys derived, and to be derived, under the will of William Borden should be used for missionary purposes—

Recommended, To the Board of Trustees that all such moneys derived, and to be derived, shall be set aside and held as a special fund to be called the William Borden Fund, which shall be kept invested and the income therefrom alone be used for missionary education in this Seminary, and the care of returned missionaries while on furlough in Princeton, unless and until such further order be made with respect thereto.

VII. Needs.

The following resolution was unanimously passed by the Board of Directors, May 7, 1917:

Resolved, That the Board of Directors do hereby request the General Assembly to allow this Seminary to increase the aid now given to students to a total not exceeding $250. This request is, in the opinion of the Directors, necessary at this time on account of the great increase in the cost of living.

The Seminary has called into being a large Finance Committee, representing the Board of Directors, the Board of Trustees, and the Faculty, to undertake the task of raising about $900,000 to meet the present urgent needs of the Seminary. A dining hall with necessary endowment is contemplated, an addition to the library buildings with largely increased resources for the purchase of books, a missionary apartment house, and endowment of the President's Chair, etc. Most encouraging progress has already been made in this work, and the Committee believes that the whole amount will be raised.

VIII. General.

In accordance with the method laid down in the By-Laws for amending the same, the Board of Directors has amended Chap. I, Art. 3, so as to fix the time for the May meeting of the Board "in the afternoon of the Monday immediately preceding the Annual Commencement," instead of "the second Monday in May," as heretofore.

Chapter VI has been amended so as to read: "The Academic year shall begin on the fourth Wednesday of September, and close on a Tuesday at least thirty-one weeks and six days thereafter." It formerly read, "on the third Thursday in September," and "the Tuesday preceding the second Saturday in May."

Chapter VII, Article 1, is amended to read, "The annual Commencement shall take place on the Tuesday at least thirty-one weeks and six days after the fourth Wednesday of September." It formerly read, "on the Tuesday preceding the second Saturday in May."

A committee has in charge the duty of making changes in the present order of Exercises for the Commencement in accordance with an amendment adopted

VI. General.

The two summer schools, the School of Theology and the School for Christian Workers, will cover the five weeks from July 9 to August 11. The indications are for a satisfactory attendance.

The "Ministers in Residence" during the past year were: Rev. George Alexander, D.D., New York City; Rev. Alexander MacColl, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. Edwin H. Hughes, D.D., Boston, Mass.; Rev. John Timothy Stone, D.D., Chicago, Ill.; Prof. Rufus M. Jones, Litt.D., Haverford, Pa.; Rev. Charles Gilkey, Chicago, Ill.; Rev. Andrew V. V. Raymond, D.D., Buffalo, N. Y.

The "Ministers in Residence" for the next year are: Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. Edward C. Moore, D.D., Cambridge, Mass.; Rev. Samuel V. V. Holmes, D.D., Buffalo, N. Y.; Rev. Harris E. Kirk, D.D., Baltimore, Md.; Rev. H. Grant Person, D.D., Newton, Mass.; Rev. Peter Ainslie, D.D., Baltimore, Md.; Rev. A. B. McCauley, D.D., Stirling, Scotland.

By means of our Summer School Fellowships we are enabled to send eight of our students to New York, St. Louis, Cleveland, and Brooklyn for the study of the city problem during the summer months. This is proving to be one of the most approved methods for theological students to become acquainted with the great-city problem. They devote eight months of undivided attention to their Seminary duties and four months of their undivided attention to Social Settlement work.

Rev. Harris B. Stewart, who has been Instructor in English Bible and Assistant to the President for the past three years, has been elected Assistant Professor of English Bible and Assistant to the President.

Respectfully submitted for information of the Assembly on behalf of the Faculty.

HARRY LATHROP REED, Clerk.

VI. Report of the Examiners.

The Board of Public Examiners, consisting of William H. Hudnut, D.D., Moderator of Synod of Ohio; Rev. John B. Miller, Synod of Indiana; Charles B. Taylor, D.D., Athens Presbytery; Rev. Harry E. Porter, Zanesville Presbytery; Rev. W. M. Reese, Mahoning Presbytery; Joseph J. Roe, D.D., Whitewater Presbytery; A. Arthur Griffes, Ph.D., Lima Presbytery; Jesse Hermann, Ph.D., Cincinnati Presbytery; Rev. Jesse Halsey, Cincinnati Presbytery, and Rev. Robert L. King, Portsmouth Presbytery, beg to submit the following report:

We commend the Lane Theological Seminary on the close and kindly relations between the students and faculty, and rejoice that this distinguishing characteristic of Lane is in such evidence to-day.

We appreciate the fidelity of the institution to the theological standards of our Church and recognize its unlessened devotion to the Word of God.

We note with great pleasure the aim which is so evident, not only to complete the courses of study, but also to adapt and apply these to the work of the ministry and to the practical needs of our times.

We believe the outlook was never more encouraging, and with the increased support of the Church, which the Seminary so well merits, it will continue its great work of fitting and visioning men for leadership in the Church.

VII. Petition to the General Assembly.

The Board of Trustees of the Lane Seminary, a party to the "Compact of 1870," between the Union Theological Seminary of New York City, and the General Assembly and the other Theological Seminaries of the Church, of which Lane Seminary is one, whose rights and obligations are involved in such compact, and whose interests may be affected by the construction placed upon said compact by the General Assembly, would respectfully petition the General Assembly, to meet at Dallas, Texas, that Dr. William McKibbin, President of the Board of Trustees of the Lane Seminary, be heard upon the floor of the General Assembly when the report is heard of the special Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to consider "the questions that have been raised as to the action of the General Assembly of 1915 regarding this 'Compact of 1870' (see Minutes, p. 148), especially as to the bearing of this action upon the legal status of all our seminaries," etc.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of the Board be empowered to take such steps, in their judgment best, to legally determine, by friendly proceedings if possible, the rights and obligations created by the "Compact of 1870," between Union Theological Seminary, the General Assembly, and the other theological seminaries of the Church, of which Lane Seminary is one: Provided, that the Board shall not be liable for any expenditures incurred in so doing, unless such expenditures are authorized by the Board itself.

This year has been one of quiet and steady work. The spiritual tone of the institution has been good. By lectures and addresses by eminent ministers and laymen, instructive and helpful material has been brought to the students from many fields.

Mr. Thornton M. Hinkle, LL.B., an eminent member of the legal profession, much to the regret of the Board, found himself necessitated by the state of his health to resign from the Board, of which he has been a member since 1879, serving also as one of the Vice-Presidents of the Board continuously since 1900 until a year ago. He will remain as our attorney, which position he has occupied since 1867, and we shall still have his active fellowship and wise counsel.

Dr. Louis E. Holden, recently president of the College of Wooster, also resigned owing to the claims of his new duties in connection with the Board of Colleges. He has been a faithful and inspiring member of the Board. We shall miss his presence and counsel.

Dr. J. Campbell White, president of the College of Wooster, Dr. Walter L. Whallon, of Zanesville, and Mr. A. L. Whitaker, of Cincinnati, were elected to membership in the Board.

LEWIS EARLE LEE, Secretary.

VI. Curricula.

At the beginning of the Session of 1916–1917, the Faculty incorporated in the regular Curriculum the four departments which have been hitherto elective, in the sense that any three of the four might, in the third year, be substituted for either third year Old Testament Exegesis, or New Testament Exegesis. Religious Education is included in the first year course; Missions and Christian Ethics in the second year course, and Christian Sociology in the third year course.

VII. General.

In its last annual Report the Board stated that it had taken steps to make amendments to the Charter and Constitution, required for admitting the Synod of Appalachia into association with the present controlling Synods in the administration of the Seminary. Accordingly the following amendment to the Charter, to be added at the close of Article VI, was submitted to the controlling Synods at their sessions in October 1916, and adopted by each of them: "The Synod of Appalachia is associated in the control of the Seminary with the Synod of Kentucky and the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri, and shall be entitled to such representation on the Board of Directors as shall be agreed upon by the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri, within the limits of one-half of the members of the Board to which the said two Synods are entitled." This proposed amendment has received the concurrence of the Board of Directors, and in accordance with Article IX of the Charter, is submitted to the General Assemblies. Said Article provides that "Any alteration so made and agreed upon (by the controlling Synods) shall be submitted to each of the said General Assemblies above mentioned, at their next regular annual meeting, and unless disapproved at such meeting by one of said Assemblies, the same shall become operative."

It may be stated, as a matter of information, that by agreement of the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri, U. S., the Synod of Kentucky is to elect seven (7) members of the Board, the Synod of Missouri, three (3), and the Synod of Appalachia, two (2). The Synod of Appalachia elected the Rev. J. V. Logan, of Middlesboro, Ky., and Gen. John M. Brooks, of Knoxville, Tenn., as their representatives on the Board, and on completion of the steps required for the adoption of the Amendment to the Charter, above stated, their election will go into effect. Meanwhile, as there was a vacancy in the Board in the Class of 1920, the Rev. J. V. Logan was elected by the Board to fill this vacancy.

During the year active efforts have been made by visitation of the churches in Kentucky, and in other ways, to increase the funds of the Institution, with a fair degree of success. Mr. John J. Cornelison, Financial Secretary, resigned his office at the end of February 1917. The Executive Committee of the Board elected the Rev. French W. Thompson, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, New Albany, Indiana, to the office of Extension Secretary of the Seminary. Mr. Thompson will seek to increase the resources of the Seminary; will present the subject of the ministry to churches and to boys and young men, and in general promote the interests of the Institution. The Seminary is in imperative need of funds for endowment, scholarships, fellowships, lectureships, and special funds for the Library. The Board would appreciate the recommendation by the General Assembly of its endeavors to add to the resources of the Institution, in order that it may effectively maintain its present work, and may be enabled to meet the growing opportunitites for larger service to the church.

Respectfully submitted,
PEYTON H. HOGE, Secretary.

VI. Curricula.

Special courses have been arranged for those who wish to prepare themselves for educational, medical, industrial or other lay mission service. These are open to both men and women. They cover a period of one or two years, as the applicant may elect. Those who can take three years are urged to pursue the full theological course. These courses consist of biblical, historical and missionary studies.

The aim is not to provide a short cut into the ministry or missionary service, but to meet an increasingly urgent demand for efficient biblical and general theological training on the part of all mission workers in every branch of service.

VII. Needs.

Attention was called in last year's report to the urgent need of additional endowment of $500,000 for the following purposes:

$50,000 for the Chair of New Testament Interpretation, which has no endowment and has long been a heavy burden upon the funds of the Seminary.

$100,000 for the General Endowment Fund, to enable the Seminary to maintain and prosecute its general work as it should.

$50,000 for the Scholarship Funds, the present number of Scholarships being entirely inadequate to care for the present growing number of students.

$50,000 for the Library, which has at present an endowment of only $1,000.

$50,000 for endowment of the Chair of English Bible. The need of this is increasingly felt in the Church.

$200,000 for a School of Missions to be affiliated with our Seminary and to be conducted under its auspices.

All of these needs are increasingly urgent with the exception of the first named, which has already been provided for.

It is hoped the General Assembly will set its seal of approval upon the campaign to secure the full $500,000.

VIII. General.

1. The enrollment for the year has been by far the largest in the history of the Seminary. The graduating class is also its largest. Two of them are under appointment of the Board of Foreign Missions as missionaries to Korea. Nearly all of the others are pastors and missionaries in California, Oregon and Washington.

2. The spiritual tone of the Seminary has been very gratifying. In addition to the regular daily services of prayer, one evening has been set aside each month when Faculty and students have met together and devoted an hour to special intercession. One of these services was concluded with the Lord's Supper administered by one of the Faculty. These gatherings have helped to deepen and intensify the spiritual life.

3. Our first Summer School was held from July 11 to 21, 1916. It was conducted in coöperation with the Board of Home Missions. It proved in every way a satisfactory experiment. There was an attendance of about fifty, many of whom were home missionaries from various sections of the Pacific Coast. Another similar school will be held July 10 to 20 the coming summer.

4. President Warren H. Landon, D.D., has completed twenty-five years of service in the Seminary. This anniversary was observed by a large gathering at the recent Commencement.

5. The following gifts were announced at Commencement:

$50,000 from Captain Robert Dollar, President of the Board of Trustees, for the endowment of the Robert Dollar Professorship of New Testament Interpretation; $2500 from Mrs. John H. Munro, of Philadelphia, to endow a Memorial Scholarship bearing the name of "The John H. Munro Scholarship"; and a subscription of $2,500 from the graduating class, to be used for the purpose of endowing the "Class of 1917 Scholarship."

6. The attention of the General Assembly and its approval are asked to a change in the By-Laws of the Seminary unanimously adopted at the Annual Meeting of the Board of Trustees, April 25, 1917, namely: that Section 3, under Article XV, be omitted. It has reference to the omission of Oral Examinations in the presence of a Committee of the Board. It is believed that the written examinations conducted for a week at the end of the year by the Faculty is a better test of what the students have accomplished.

IX. Scholarships.

The following comprise the scholarships thus far endowed:

1. The John William Bulkley Scholarship, founded by Mrs. E. A. Bulkley, Brooklyn, N. Y.

2. The Davenport Scholarship, founded by John D. Thompson, of San Francisco.

3. The John A. Mackenzie Scholarship, founded by Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., of San Francisco

4. The Williston Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Emily B. Hopkins, of San Francisco.

5, 6. The David Jacks Scholarships, founded by David Jacks, of Monterey, Cal.

7. The Agnes Booth Hodge Nicholl Scholarship, founded by John Nicholl, of East Oakland, Cal.
8. The Joseph Knowland Scholarship, founded by Joseph Knowland, of Alameda, Cal.
9. The Mary Crocker Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Mary Crocker, of New York, N. Y.
10. The George Burrowes Scholarship, founded by Professor George Burrows, D.D., and wife.
11, 12. The Nancy A. Eldredge Scholarships, founded by Nancy A. Eldredge, of Crescent City, Cal.
13. The George W. Stevens Scholarship, founded by himself and his widow, Mrs. Catherine Dixon Stevens, of Oakland, Cal.
14. The John H. Munro Scholarship, founded by Mrs. John H. Munro, of Philadelphia, Pa.

V. Library.

1. Whole number of books:
a. Bound volumes	14,250
b. Number added during year	150

VI. Curricula.

Attention is called to the enrichment of instruction. The curriculum gives a standard theological course, founded upon the requirements for ordination in the Presbyterian Church. Many elective courses have been introduced, so that the graduate of the Seminary may equip himself in the most thorough manner.

The degree of Bachelor of Divinity is conferred upon those who have attained the scholarly requirements. The conditions upon which this degree is granted are as follows:

1. Graduation from a standard college.
2. Advanced theological work.
3. A meritorious thesis.
4. High scholarship in all studies.
5. Residence during final year.
6. Approval of Faculty of electives.

VII. Needs.

The first and pressing need is endowment. The General Assembly has heretofore approved this position to the extent of recommending an additional endowment of $500,000. The Executive Commission of the General Assembly was instructed to take the matter of the endowment "into earnest consideration, and if, after conferences with the Trustees of Dubuque Seminary, it seems wise to do so, appoint a committee of five to coöperate with the Trustees in an effort to secure $500,000 for endowment and the expansion of the work." As a result of the conference held under this resolution, the following committee was appointed: Rev. C. M. Steffens, D.D., Dr. John P. Munn, William Albert Harbison and C. N. Payne. This committee has sent out a printed booklet and thousands of letters. Dr. Steffens has also made personal appeals in various parts of America. It is earnestly anticipated that the Church will respond to these appeals. Some encouraging pledges have been made.

To meet the current expense budget each year by personal appeal is not only a difficult task for the president, but it is annoying to contributors. The corporation owns nearly $500,000 worth of property which requires an outlay of $900 each year for insurance. An institution with property totaling this amount, and with a salary budget of $36,000 annually, should have an endowment of at least $1,000,000. The income from an endowment of this amount would not make the institution self-supporting, but it would greatly relieve our financial condition. The $500,000 additional endowment endorsed by General Assembly would be a great help. The immigrant problem, both from a Christian and a patriotic point of view, is not diminishing, but rather is increasing. We have in the United States millions of foreign-speaking people who should have instilled in them during their education Christian American ideals. Dubuque is only one agent for this purpose, but it is a tremendously important one in the Central West. We hope that General Assembly will request, with even greater urgency, the Church to assist in this worthy enterprise.

VI. General.

New Features "which are Significant in making more Effective the Training Given by this Seminary."

The following features have been introduced during the Scholastic Year 1916–1917:

1. A cosy reading-room in our dormitory for the use of the students during the hours the Library of Knox Hall is closed.

2. Regular athletic exercises for all students, three times a week, under a competent trainer.

3. Music Instruction, twice a week, under an inspiring teacher.

4. A most helpful course in Elocution by the Rev. W. Y. Chapman, D.D., of Newark, N. J.

5. A series of lectures on the art of Sermon-making, in addition to the regular Homiletical course.

6. English Bible courses in Old and New Testament Exegesis in the Theological Department, in addition to the Hebrew and Greek courses.

7. Regular study of large consecutive portions of the Bible itself, for the purpose of absorbing its divine message, as distinguished from the use of scraps of its contents as the most convenient vehicle for the conveyance of various kinds of useful educational material.

VI. Needs.

Two needs were mentioned last year. The first was for a Y. M. C. A. Building, in which both the religious activities and the physical exercise needed for a sound body might find scope and opportunity. We are glad to report that a small sum has been given for this pressing want, a foretaste, we trust, of the full amount required.

The other need we mentioned was the endowment of a chair in the Seminary. We are glad to report that gracious provision has been made for this.

We are therefore encouraged to state a further need this year. Most of our Seminary chairs are endowed only in the sum of $20,000. The interest on this does not meet even the meager salary that is given, not to mention any increase that ought to be made; $100,000 is needed to place the several Professorship endowments on anything like a reasonable basis. Our Professors are experts, and they are not to-day receiving the wage that is given a good deal of unskilled labor.

VII. General.

Lincoln University has felt the sacrifices as well as the thrilling pulse of Patriotism during the year. The cost of food even the simplest fare, as well as every phase of maintenance and administration has decidedly increased. The trustees feel that a modest increase in the salaries of the Professors comes under the category of works of necessity and mercy. As a rift in the clouds however, we may say, that the intention has been expressed and a foretaste has been given by one of God's elect to provide for one of the Seminary Professorships. Another, a far-away friend of Evangelism, appreciating the University's spirit and work in this cause, has stretched out a generous hand.

Mention also ought to be made of the hand of the dead leaving a permanent benefaction for the work in the Seminary; $20,000 is expected in July as an endowment in the Theological Seminary. We said the hand of the dead; nay, rather, of one who has entered into life. We count these as tokens of God's abiding favor. Every raven that wings its flight to this school of the Prophets we count as sent by God.

Our students are standing at attention. If their country calls them to the colors, there will be patriotic response. Meanwhile some have answered the call that comes from the Church. One is wanted to work for souls in the trenches of Africa. Several are wanted in the Sunday School Mission field. We need three times sixteen graduates for the churches in our own land. We would that the sixteen who go forth were multiplied several fold, but we are thankful that this Presbyterian West Point has even the number it has trained and drilled and prepared to go forth, as the Leaders of God's marching hosts.

Rev. S. F. Wentz, D.D.	Winston-Salem, N. C.

There have been no changes made in the Board of Trustees since last report.

II. Faculty.

Rev. H. L. McCrorey, D.D., President and Professor of Hebrew and Christian Sociology.
Rev. P. W. Russell, D.D., Professor of Greek Exegesis and Biblical Introduction.
Rev. Yorke Jones, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Homiletics.
Rev. W. E. Partee, D.D., Professor of Christian Evidences, Bible History, Systematic and Pastoral Theology, and Church Government.
Rev. L. B. Ellerson, D.D., Professor of English Bible and Forward Mission Study.

There have been no changes made in the Faculty since last report.

The following lectures and addresses were delivered in the Institution during the year:

Address by Dr. C. A. Tobias, International Secretary of Y. M. C. A. Work.
A Temperance Lecture by Miss Edith M. Wills, of the Anti-Saloon League.
A Lecture on the Work of the Red Cross Society by Miss Florence E. Besley.
A Sociological Lecture by Mrs. Elizabeth Troutman, of the Home Department of the Southern Sociological Congress.
A Lecture by Dr. B. W. Brown, of the U. S. Public Health Department.
A Lecture by Dr. J. E. McCullough, Field Secretary of the Southern Sociological Congress.
A Lecture by Dr. J. W. E. Bowen, Vice-President of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga.
An address to the Y. M. C. A. by Mr. G. H. Huntington, Charlotte, N. C.
An address on Social Service Work by Mrs. E. B. Brooks, Columbia, S. C.
Evangelistic Services conducted by Rev. Robert Hugh Morris, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa.
A Lecture on the Swiss Reformation by Rev. James I. Good, D.D., LL.D., Author, and Professor in the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

III. Students.

1. The enrollment for the present year is as follows: Seniors 2, Middlers 6, Juniors 4, total, 12.

*Deceased.

2. Four new students were enrolled, one of whom had received the degree of A.B.

The following students were graduated: I. B. Benson and J. C. James, S.T.B.

IV. Finances.

Since the Theological Department of Biddle University has no holdings separate from the other departments of the institution, and since most of the Theological instructors teach also in the Collegiate Department, it is neither convenient nor practicable to make a financial report on the Theological School.

V. Library.

Whole number of books in library: (a) bound volumes 9,008, (b) pamphlets 1,086.

Number added during the year: (a) bound volumes 207, (b) pamphlets 300.

VI. Needs.

A dormitory for the candidates for the ministry is greatly needed. For $30,000 a building could be erected, such as would not only accommodate the candidates for the ministry, but would afford accommodation for other students who are without comfortable quarters.

VII. General.

Of an enrollment of 282 students in the Institution, 55 are candidates for the ministry; 16 of these are enrolled in the Preparatory or High School Department; 27 in the Collegiate Department, and 12 in the Theological Department; 9 students of the College graduating class will enter the Theological Department next session.

Training men for the gospel ministry and for other lines of Christian activity is considered one of the most important features of the work of Biddle University. Twenty men were graduated this year from the Sunday School Teacher Training Department, a number of whom are candidates for the ministry.

Respectfully submitted,
H. L. McCROREY, President.

VI. GENERAL.

Rev. J. Philander Anderson, of Lincoln, Neb., and Elder W. E. Mitchell, of Council Bluffs, Ia., were called to serve as members of the Board of Directors to fill vacancies.

Rev. Charles H. Purmort, D.D., of Des Moines, Ia., was chosen to fill the office of Financial Secretary of the Seminary.

Professor Joseph J. Lampe, D.D., has retired from active work in the Seminary by reason of advancing years and has been made Professor-Emeritus in the Department where he has been rendering signal service for twenty-two years. Rev. Frank H. Ridgley, Ph.D., of Lincoln University has been called to serve as his successor.

The Board of Directors desire to secure an addition of at least $150,000 to the Endowment Funds of the Seminary and ask the General Assembly to commend the institution to generous givers in the church for such an amount.

ABSTRACT OF THE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

I. POINTS OUTSTANDING.

THE WAR.—Again and again, during the past three years, the effect of the world disturbance and distress upon our American religious life has been the theme of speech for every Home Mission worker. None are wise enough nor sufficiently far-seeing to weigh all the effects, upon our American religious life, of events which are already creating a new world before our bewildered eyes. It is certain only that American religious and social economy will no more escape the transforming influence of these events than does the rest of Western civilization. Indeed, it will be to the distinct and irreparable loss of the Church and the ideals it embodies if it does not share in the profound transformations now in evident prospect.

The Great Republic of Russia.—The clarifying of issues by the revolution in Russia and the gathering forces for democracy all over the world impose a supreme obligation upon the United States. A Christian democrary here, so pure and virile as to set up standards and ideals for all aspiring peoples, is our incomparable missionary opportunity. All eyes will be turned upon this nation. Our doctrines of human brotherhood will be appraised anew. The vitality of the spiritual forces in our life will be given the supreme test.

The United States and Mexico.—On the northern side of the international boundary now lies the opportunity of American Christianity, not alone to fulfil its obligations to the million and more of Mexicans residing in the United States, but quite as definitely to help in molding the new-born life of Old Mexico. With a chain of thoroughly equipped Christian schools, normal and industrial, and of colleges and churches organized and operated according to our best American standards, there can be permanently fixed in the young life of Mexico those ideals which only, as we believe, can conserve lasting human values and guarantee an enduring civilization.

Honored Names.—After faithful service here, the home missionaries here named have been translated to larger service beyond; the Church on earth is for all time enriched by their ministry: Newton A. Cavens, Louis DeCoteau, James A. Francis, William L. Hackett, John P. Hearst, Jose Monasterio, Moses Monteith, Henry A. Mullen, Ansel E. Nutting, Winfred W. Robinson, Thomas A. Scott, D.D., John B. Stovall, Julian B. Torres, Morton F. Trippe, D.D., Rino Venturini.

The United States and Latin America.—Cuba is in distress over her economic problems—problems which can never be solved until there have been radical readjustments in her economic relations with the United States; but Cuban thought is now far more appreciative than formerly of the genuine sentiments of good-will which the people of the United States as a whole cherish toward her.

The act of the recent Congress, which bestowed upon the people of Porto Rico citizenship in the American Republic, was an event of the farthest-reaching significance. The evidence this act affords to the rest of Latin America that conquest was not our motive, even when the sudden turn of the Spanish-American War of 1898 brought Porto Rico under the flag of the United States, will break down more suspicion and remove more distrust than has been overcome by any single event of the almost 20 years intervening.

Synods and Presbyteries in Closer Relation.—There continues the clear recognition of the evils of too great independency of one another among the Synods and Presbyteries. City organizations for Church Extension have experienced remarkable development during the past few years. They have reached a stage where all more or less clearly recognize the need of a higher standardization. Their common problems could be worked out locally with better effect if they kept in closer touch one with another. It is a deplorable waste when one city organization labors tediously through expensive experiments which have been already tested by another city where the results might be appraised in a few hours' study. Similar observations are in point in the case of the organized Synods, especially those which administer their own funds unrelated to the National Board or to their sister Synods. To overcome serious evils here, there is large hope in the Home Mission Council, now fully organized and holding its annual session preceding the meeting of the General Assembly.

II. The Synods.

The Home Mission Work in the Synods is variously related to the national work, some of the Synods being largely dependent upon funds granted directly by the Assembly's Board, and others maintaining independent treasuries which wholly provide for the Home Mission work within their bounds. Still others maintain independent treasuries, but draw from the treasury of the Board for the support of certain forms of specialized work. The plan under which Home Mission work is now conducted draws all the Synods and all the various phases of Home Mission work into increasingly close relations. (For a detailed review of the work in the several Synods, see volume containing Reports of the Boards.)

III. Specialized Work.

Alaska.—The most significant advance in morals, during the year, has been the enactment of a "bone-dry" Prohibition law. While not empowered to enact laws affecting liquor interests, the Alaska Legislature, at its session two years ago, ordered a referendum vote taken in November, 1916. By an almost two-thirds vote, the people of Alaska declared against the saloon. Congress promptly ratified the expressed will of the people by enacting a bone-dry law, which becomes effective January 1, 1918. One of the greatest obstacles to mission work, especially among the natives, passes with this passing of the saloon.

These are epoch-making days in Alaska. Along with the laying of material foundations for the State or States of Alaska eventually to ask admission to the sisterhood of States, there comes the supreme obligation of establishing the pillars of righteousness. This is the function of the Church and its Home Mission Board. Help us occupy "the last frontier."

City and Immigrant Work.—The City and Immigrant Work of the Home Board extends into twenty States. As an indication of the national sweep of this interest, just one-half of these States are west of the Mississippi River.

Last year, approximately $100,000 was expended by the Board in this work among the older German populations of the Central West. The demands for coöperation in initiating and fostering immigrant work have far outrun the Board's ability.

Country Church Work.—The Country Church Work of the Home Board has had no increase in field force, but a very great increase in the number of pastors working under this office. For the past four years, the Country Church Work of the Board has been a service station for Presbyteries in the erecting and maintaining of country pastorates.

In setting up of these community pastorates, the usual process is for a Presbytery to request that a certain field be taken by the Board for five years as a demonstration parish, the purpose being to set up a model for imitation by other churches. In every case, we insist upon the minister's living with his people in the country and giving substantially full time to the church by which he lives. A neighborly relation and the daily and weekly contact are essential to the building up of a country church.

Cuba.—What has Cuba to show after 16 years? What has resulted from her 20 churches, 15 outstations, and 18 schools? Much—very much—that American eyes cannot see and American hearts cannot fully appreciate.

Among the fruits that cannot be tabulated are not only the toleration but the widely expressed endorsement of our evangelical work as truly representing the Christian religion in its purity. The personality of our ministry and membership in general is frequently cited as a satisfactory credential of the Divine sanction upon our work. Our careful isolation from partisan politics; our conciliatory attitude toward the Roman Catholic element, while outspoken in the demonstration of their errors; our philanthropic activities in the way of social uplifting; our gratuitous services, wherever needed, to end concubinage and to secure justice for the oppressed—all these and many such things have served to root our missionary work deeply in Cuban hearts and to promote its growth.

Indian Missions.—No one can review the record of the past year of Indian interests without the impression that the native American race is making a decided material and spiritual advance. With the more determined and systematic efforts of the various Protestant Churches to reach the neglected tribes and to improve the established work, and under the present Federal service at Washington, in connection with the new policies adopted on the Indian reservations, an era of progress and freedom is being ushered in. The Presbyterian Church has been in the vanguard, our missions in twenty States among fifty-seven tribal divisions being potent forces for Indian uplift. The Bureau of Indian Affairs reports 335,753 of the population of the United States, exclusive of Alaska, classed as Indians. Of these 180,504 are citizens and 292,720 are known to wear civilized dress.

One of the greatest needs of the Indian work is now being provided for by appropriations the Board has made for the educating of native ministers and church leaders. The Indian young people who have had the privileges of Governmental and Mission schools, now come back to their reservation homes and churches prepared for a better type of ministry and of instruction than has hitherto been provided. An inefficient and uneducated leadership for the younger generation of Indians cannot longer maintain the work or hold the membership.

Lumber-camp Missions.—From Maine to Oregon, the spiritual care for the Lumberjack is in Presbyterian hands alone. The past year, the Board of Home Missions and the independent Synods have supported 15 full-time lumber-camp chaplains, four additional workers, dividing their time between the camps and the mission churches, and one general worker. In the Synod of Washington the camp force has doubled during the year. Washington stands first among the States as a lumber producer; and, according to the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, has 80,000 men in its lumber industry. Minnesota also has received this year a new worker and part-time aid.

Where the camps are near the settlements, the lumberjacks are likely to spend their Sundays in the villages, leaving the missionaries free to labor elsewhere. Several of the camp preachers have thus ministered to unchurched settlements, and have organized two churches during the year. The chief hindrance to the work has been the lack of funds. The camp force should be doubled and trebled, if we are to meet the demands made by Presbyteries and Synods.

The Mexican Work.—Our Mexican ministry of the future will be a ministry tested in the faith and tried by fire. Many of the better-class Mexicans have already taken out citizenship papers. Their children are growing up under influences that will remove them farther and farther from the ideals of their fathers and bring them into harmony with those of America.

Such Mexicans as have embraced the gospel have proved models of faith and patience in trial, of reverence and sincerity in worship. Naturally more religious than Americans, they make greater sacrifices when once truly converted. The year past has been one of remarkable growth in our work in the three great centers of Los Angeles, with its Mexican population of 50,000 to 60,000; El Paso, with 40,000, and San Antonio, Texas, with some 40,000. In these points there is an imperative demand for prompt and vigorous missionary work and for large outlay of men and money. We are gathering the material for the coming working force for the evangelization of the Mexican people. In Colorado we already have three generations of Presbyterians of Mexican blood—splendid material for American citizenship.

Porto Rico.—A hasty survey of the Presbyterian work in Porto Rico shows that we have a few stations on the northern coast, near the east end of the island, and about one-quarter of the island at the west end. We begin naturally at San Juan, the capital and also a city of 50,000 people, where all tourists land. There we find a large field and a great opportunity. The larger part of the work of the Presbyterian Church is that at the west end of the island. There the Isabela district includes the churches of Isabela, Quebradillas and Jobos, with some 30 services a week. The solid success of the work throughout the district is indisputable proof of the wisdom of present and former missionaries in their earnest, sincere and persistent presentation of the gospel.

In general, we should note a most important educational work in the churches, large numbers to take part in well attended prayer meetings, thriving Sunday-schools which seriously need well prepared officers and teachers, and many fields unoccupied for lack of funds. The new Jones-Shaffroth Act gives general satisfaction. All these conditions combined impose upon Presbyterians increasing responsibility to give Porto Rico the gospel as civilization's heart and hope.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Woman's Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. has the honor of presenting herewith its Thirty-eighth Annual Report.

Notwithstanding the fact that there have been many urgent appeals for help in our own country, and imperative calls for relief among the nations at war, the Board has brought the work of the year, without curtailment, to a successful issue. This achievement has been rendered possible only through the generous approval and hearty coöperation of thousands of Presbyterian women throughout the United States.

The organization of the Board reaches the individual woman through the Synodical, the Presbyterial, and the local home missionary society. Reports of the year from these show that the constituency of the Board consists of approximately 174,700 women, organized in 5,152 local home missionary societies; 119,079 young people, organized in 5,138 societies; and 50,552 children, organized in 2,218 Light-Bearers, Little Light-Bearers, and Junior Christian Endeavor Societies.

FROM HEADQUARTERS.—Missionary education has been stressed during the year. In addition to arranging itineraries for the four field secretaries, the Secretary for Missionary Education planned for representatives at 30 Synodical meetings, at 209 Presbyterial meetings, and at uncountable local meetings. A notable awakening of interest among the secretaries of missionary education in synodical and presbyterial societies, is the most encouraging result of the year's work. Reports of the year show: 816 mission study classes, 266 programme meetings, 145 reading circles, and 328 Westminster Guild Chapters—a total of 1,555.

Interest in missions in the societies for young people and children of the Church, Young Women's Societies, Young People's Societies, Westminster Guild Chapters and Circles, Light-Bearers and Little Light-Bearers, has been promoted by the appointment of 64 Synodical and 397 Presbyterial secretaries for young people's work. Contributions this year from the young people and children amounted to $62,323.47.

During the year, the secretaries for student work visited 27 universities and colleges, 3 normal schools, 4 medical and nurses' training schools, and attended 5 summer conferences.

The year 1916–1917 marks the thirtieth anniversary of The Home Mission Monthly. During these thirty years, The Monthly has met all cost of publication, including salaries and office expenses, and has still been able to transfer to the General Fund of the Board $43,000. This year The Monthly reports 40,500 subscribers—an increase of 3,138 over last year.

That interest in the work of the field is growing, is shown also by the fact that the Literature Department reports a marked advance along all lines during the year just closed. Receipts from the sale of literature reached $9,475.17, an advance of $485.95 over the sales of a year ago.

MISSION FIELD.—The Woman's Board operates in seven distinct fields. The work of the Board is outlined in the following statistical tables:

Abstract of the Eightieth Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions.

The work of the year on the foreign field has been less disturbed by the war than anyone could have ventured to believe would be possible. The actual conflict has not this year touched any of the mission fields of the Board, with the exception of Africa, Syria, and Persia. The influence of the war at home has promoted the missionary spirit and faith. It has put an end to the materialistic and commercial theories of society and human motive. Men have to admit now that the commercial and materialistic ends are not supreme, and that neither commerce nor trade nor any merely political arrangement can ever solve the problem of human unity. . . . Men realize that the missionary enterprise, instead of being chimerical, is the most practical enterprise in the world, that it has laid hold of the problem of humanity at the only point at which it can be solved, and that the missionaries, in spreading abroad the truth about God and teaching men unselfishness and love, are making the largest creative contributions to human welfare. In each mission field the opportunity and the urgency alike are more pressing than the Board has known them in all the eighty years of its history.

In China there is only one note, the note of great courage and faith. The Church in China is awakening, aroused to her opportunity, not fully prepared, but willing to go forward. Missions are sympathetic, but handicapped by the lack of suitable evangelistic workers. The unprecedented opportunity demands a corresponding extraordinary response on the part of the Christian Church and the missionary movement. Vastly increased resources, especially of duly qualified men and women and also of large financial resources which can make best use of the men and women who are available or can be trained for this work, should be given to China without stint and at the earliest possible moment.

In Japan large areas of unmet need are developed each year, as the missionaries more carefully study their fields. A few years ago the vast untouched village population was brought out clearly; then the special populations revealing depths of moral needs which challenge the conscience of the nation; and now the attention of the missions has been drawn to great sections of rapidly growing cities which are as yet unoccupied. The evangelistic campaigns in Japan have continued with undiminished interest and fruitfulness.

Chosen (Korea) is still passing through a period of transition, and adaptation to new conditions which have been described in former reports. The Japanese have firmly established their authority in every part of the country, and they have introduced material improvements on a large scale and of undoubted value. Chosen now has excellent systems of highways, railroads, telegraphs, courts, currency, and education. The position of the missionaries is not an easy one, with the Japanese, on one side, strictly enforcing laws which involve great changes in the structural organization and personal lives of the people, and with the Koreans, on the other side, more or less troubled by the control of another nation, and chafing under regulations which their careless and unsanitary habits disincline them to heed. The missionaries must walk a narrow path if they are to retain the confidence of the Koreans and win the confidence of the Japanese.

In the Philippines, this is a new era, politically, industrially, ecclesiastically, religiously The inauguration of the first Philippine Congress, provided for by the passage of the Jones Bill in the United States, took place in Manila, October 16, 1916, and was a memorable occasion. The Philippine Mission is included in the Latin-American Expansion Fund, and it therefore has a part in the campaign which the Board has been conducting throughout the year. Special emphasis has been given to the needs of Silliman Institute. This important institution, at Dumaguete, has an attendance of over 800 boys and young men, and last year had to turn away 400 others for want of room.

An interesting feature of the annual meeting of the mission was a visit from Senator Butu, a Mohammedan who represents the Mindanao and Sulu District in the Philippine Senate. He addressed the mission through an interpreter, expressing his good wishes, and his appreciation of the work of evangelical missions in the Philippines, and assuring the missionaries of a warm welcome in his district, whenever they have the opportunity to go to the southland.

One of his sons has attended Silliman Institute, and he is expecting to send another.

Siam receives less attention from the public than countries like China, Japan, and other Asiatic lands, which are more prominently related to international affairs. There are no wars, or revolutions, or great famines in Siam to challenge the interest of the world.

Our mission work in Siam is very important. Our missionaries there have long labored in isolation, but while they have done a quiet work, from the view-point of a daily newspaper, they have done an exceedingly valuable one from the view-point of the Kingdom of God. They are very happy now on account of the Siam Expansion Fund, which we hope will add $50,000 to their equipment. Already enough has been secured to make possible the realization of the long-prayed-for new station at Chieng Rung in the extreme north, just across the China line, and also to strengthen the evangelistic work in the great capital city of Bangkok.

The signs multiply that a new spirit is awake in India. In response to the desire for the development of the natural resources of the country, the government has appointed a commission to investigate industrial openings and possibilities. There is an increasing demand for larger powers of self-government; and such questions as the elevation of the depressed classes, the education of women, temperance, and marriage reform occupy a large place in the minds of the educated classes.

Various evangelistic campaigns have been carried on in India, and already rich fruitage is being gathered from the work in the Presbyteries of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of India. The aim of the movement has not been primarily to organize large meetings, but rather to lay upon individual members of the Church their responsibility, and to stimulate them to undertake and carry forward such efforts as are well within their power. One of the missionaries adds: "The next ten years in India are to be full of great events. There is to be a great upheaval, social, religious and moral—and to some extent political. The out-cast people—50,000,000 strong—is being literally thrown into the lap of the Christian Church. We can have a church of 15,000,000 people in India in ten or fifteen years, if we make our plans on a sufficiently broad scale."

Persia has been the mission field of the Church most severely harrassed, during the past year, by actual war. The problem of relief has taxed to the uttermost the time and strength of the missionaries in Urumia and Tabriz. Our West Persia missionaries, serving as field representatives of the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, have disbursed, with careful efficiency and unselfish devotion, approximately, $500,000 within the last two years; in addition, they have expended many thousands of pounds contributed by British relief organizations. Donors and recipients alike have shown utmost confidence in and appreciation of the relief operations supervised and conducted by the missionaries. Tens of thousands of starving refugees have been fed; thousands of quilts have saved many thousands of the destitute from the freezing cold (one large quilt for five or six, sometimes eight or ten persons); clothing has been provided; seed, plow animals, and implements have been furnished by gift or loan, according to circumstances, for the rehabilitation of destroyed or neglected farms, gardens, groves, and vineyards.

Ransoms have been paid for the life and release of the Russian Orthodox Bishop, and of many girls and young women carried captive. Tirelessly laboring day and night, loyally serving their God in caring for His needy children, the missionaries engaged in this relief work have commended the Christian cause and life, in a forceful and unmistakable manner, to the thousands of various races and creeds who have been aided, and to the uncounted numbers in many parts of the world who have heard of this heroic Christ-like service.

The energies of the missionaries have been so absorbed in the actual and necessary work of relief that there has not been adequate strength available for the evangelistic work, but all that could be done has been done, and the presence, in the Urumia and Salmas plains, of the people from the Kurdish Mountains, together with the fact of their responsiveness of heart, in view of the loving help which they had received, have opened unusual opportunities for evangelization. The missionaries have given assistance also to starving Mohammedans as well as to the Christians, and a great softening of prejudice and antagonism has been the result.

The Syria coast has been more and more rigidly blockaded the past year. Communication has practically ceased, although a few letters and post-cards have reached this country after long delay, one of the letters having been over a year on the way. Such information as the Board was able to obtain came through the courtesy of the United States Government and the ambassador at Constantinople. Even this has been of a meagre character. The situation was still further complicated when the diplomatic relations between the United States and Germany were severed.

When we think of the war cloud which has passed over Africa, and note the rapid developments of the work, with a smaller force than we have had in five years, there is, through and over all, the one feeling of gratitude to God for His wonderful mercies toward His servants in their endeavor to serve Him. We are grateful for the arrival of the new working force, also for the safe home voyage of those who had passed through such trials as were placed upon them by the anxieties and privations of the war. We are grateful for the preservation of this great work, and, most of all, for the stirrings of the Spirit among the people, for the numbers coming into the Kingdom, and for the many who have fallen and are coming back for restoration. Many calls come to the missionary from the regions beyond, to "tell us of the Words of God," and we feel that it is a day of wonderful opportunity, carrying with it also great responsibilities. There have been repeated calls, from the people south of the Campo, for Bible-readers, but the missionary force has been so low that it has not been possible for a man to visit that field, and it did not seem wise to send native workers into the unsettled field without being able to superintend the work.

The political unrest in Mexico has continued to interfere with the work. The missionaries in Yucatan, however, have been at their posts, and in November all the male missionaries returned, and have since been carrying on their work in the central part of the country. After two full years of closed doors, Coyoacan College was opened under a new name, "Escuela Preparatoria Presbyteriana." In Jalapa the Church has been making noble effort toward self-support. The Sunday-school provides its own supplies and each one brings his own Bible and hymn-book. The congregation pays for the lighting and cleaning of the temple, the sweeping of the street, and also pays $15 Mex., towards the pastor's salary; besides sending $28 Mex., to the starving children of Europe. Relief work had been carried on in Aguascalientes, as the missionaries there have not yet been able to move to their new base of operations in the State of Chiapas.

The Guatemala Mission reports a year of special opportunity and progress. It is hard for those who are facing great opportunities to stand idle for lack of equipment with which to meet them. With each passing year the breaking down of prejudice lays upon the mission force here a new responsibility to give not only to the Guatemalans, but also to the Indian population, a gospel which will satisfy their spiritual hunger. From Quezaltenango comes the appeal for advancement, especially in the Indian work, and at an out-station at Colomba there will be erected a chapel particularly with reference to supplying this need.

The missions in Colombia and Venezuela are greatly encouraged by the larger support which the Board has been able to give them as the result of the Latin-American Expansion Fund, and the special coöperation of friends in the churches and the Women's Boards. Nine new missionaries have been added to the Colombia force within the last four years, two more are under appointment, while a third family has been added to the Venezuela force. Some greatly needed new property has also been purchased, but the needs of these missions are still very great. The reinforcements and gifts have made a beginning, but there remaineth yet much to be done.

Nothing that has occurred in the history of the Chile mission has given more stimulus to the work than the presence of so large a company of men who were looking at problems with a broad vision and a clear comprehension of the needs of Latin America. Among the results of the conference held in Santiago was a growing spirit of hearty coöperation between the Chilean brethren and the mission. A union work with the Methodists is being planned, both in the theological seminary at Santiago and in the literary work represented in the Heraldo Christiano, which will henceforth be a joint publication. It seems probable that in the not distant future the problem of normal training may be handled jointly.

The Protestant Churches are stronger in Brazil than in any other Latin-American land, but their forces have been somewhat divided, the Presbyterian Church having been rent asunder, over various issues, in 1903. Representatives of both branches of the Church, however, were at Panama, and there has been a growing unity in all the work in the great Republic.

Necrology.*—From China, none of the missionaries have passed on to their reward during the past year. From India, two; from Chosen, two; from Persia, one; and from Syria, one. It was of such as these, and of the work that they have done, and of the true glory that they reflect upon the nations, that the late Justice Brewer, of the United States Supreme Court, himself the son of a missionary, was speaking when he said: "Because Christianity so blesses and uplifts individuals and nations, it is the duty, as well as the privilege, of those enjoying its benefits to pass it on to those who as yet know it not. It can reach them only as it is carried to them. It does not flow to the places of need, like water, through the power of gravitation, to the lower level. It is not like the sunlight, which, without man's assistance, circles the world. It must be borne by human hands and hearts. This is the work of Foreign Missions."

In behalf of the Board,

ROBERT E. SPEER, Secretary.

Treasurer's Report.

The total receipts and credits of the Board of Foreign Missions for the year ending March 31, 1917, amounted to $2,464,257.

The Board disbursed for the work committed to it by the Church, $2,525,369, so that there was a deficit on the year's account of $61,111. The deficit carried over from preceding years, of $35,000, brings the present deficit to approximately $96,000.

The exigencies of the war and the consequent high price of silver throughout the world have entailed large additional and unforeseen expenditures, the Board having been obliged to add $106,000 to its obligations for the year, in order to take care of the increased cost of exchange in China and Persia. The Board had given to it, in response to this war emergency appeal, some $36,000, so that the net additional war expense was some $70,000. Had it not been for this large item, the Board would have cared for its budget of two and one-half million dollars within its regular receipts. The only disconcerting fact is that these war emergency items for the year 1917–18 will amount to over $250,000 and will require an increase in gifts from regular sources of between 20 and 25 per cent.

The total receipts for the year 1916–17, as compared with the year 1915–16, will be seen in the following table:

	Churches.	Sabbath-schools.	Legacies.	Individuals, etc.	Women's Boards.		Total.
					Women's Societies, Legacies, etc.	Y. P. S. C. E., Individual Gifts, and other Organizations.
1917	$915,906.78	$91,183.84	$157,891.18	$436,047.36	$530,695.13	$66,226.08	$2,197,950.37
1916	869,759.99	82,882.23	139,942.21	374,352.46	495,424.73	63,633.80	2,025,995.42

*See list on p. 220.

The Special Campaign carried on during the year, under the approval of the General Assembly, in order to make possible some expansion and advance in the work in Latin America, including the Philippines, in Siam, in Persia, in India, in Japan, and in China, has yielded in cash $200,000, and in pledges $365,000—a total of $565,000.

In all this work, as well as in connection with raising funds toward the Board's regular budget, the six Women's Boards have rendered untiring and effective service. It will be noted from one of the tables printed earlier in this Report that these Women's Boards have collected from their societies and have remitted to the Board's treasury the sum of $596,921, or 65 per cent. of the amount received from churches, and approximately one-fourth of the total amount received by the Board from all sources, including the various credits.

The securities owned by the Board, held to secure its various funds, amount to $3,507,251.80.

Held to secure the Permanent Endowment Funds amounting to	$1,888,649
Special Endowment Funds	879,430
Special Gift Agreements	436,888
Evangelistic Expansion Fund	308,537
A total of	$3,513,504

The total cost of administration in the Home Office was $160,036, or 6½ per cent. of the total receipts of the year.

* In Mexico the totals are smaller than in previous years due to the disturbed condition of the country and the reorganization of the work of the Presbyterian Church.

 Those who have been sent out under the Board for a short term are not included in the number of missionaries under appointment.

‡ The Missions of the Board in Japan carry on all their work in coöperation with the Church of Christ in Japan and in the interest of that Church, and in Brazil with and for the National Presbyterian Church of Brazil. All converts resulting from the work of the Missions are related to these Churches. Instead of any separate Mission statistics accordingly, one-half of the statistics of these Churches are presented.

Abstract of the Ninety-eighth Annual Report.

Financial.—Despite the fact that a portion of the Church believes that consolidation has been actually consummated, creating confusion in the minds of church officers as to the status of consolidation, the Board has been able to struggle through the year without defaulting in any of its obligations. It has done a total business of $214,107, the largest amount expended in any one year in its history—nearly three times greater than the volume of its work ten years ago. It has granted more aid to ministerial candidates during the past year than ever in its history, with the exception of two years, and it is to be noted by those who feel that the only function of the Board of Education is the aiding of candidates and that the newer work has prejudiced this task, that the amount paid to candidates during the past ten years is $240,700.00 greater than in the previous ten-year period. The receipts from churches, Sabbath-schools, and societies, during the past year, are slightly larger than ever before, being more than double what they were in 1907. The signal blessing of God and the redoubled efforts of the representatives of the Board account for this remarkable showing, in the face of the obstacles to normal advancement.

Ministerial Candidates.—The Board this year accepted 845 candidates, this being an increase of 14 over last year. Of this number, 662 were renewals, and 223 were "new" men; 76 of these are in preparatory departments, 426 are in college, and 343 are in theological seminaries. From the seminaries, 101 men will graduate this spring. The Board wishes to call attention to the decreasing number of preparatory students and the increase of college students, among those aided. We have had this year 14 fewer preparatory students, and 14 more college students. We believe that the fewer preparatory students aided, the better for the work. The Board aided 123 students of foreign speech this year, as against 125 last year; and 55 colored men have been under the care of the Board, as against 63 last year. Of these, 29 are studying at Biddle and 26 at Lincoln.

Prize Scholarships.—The Newberry Scholarship, which was won by David B. Van Dyck, of Princeton Theological Seminary, last spring, will be applied to his post-graduate course during the coming year. The Secretary's Scholarship, won by Christopher H. Gaskell, of San Francisco Theological Seminary, is being held by him during the present school year, in graduate work at Columbia University, New York City. The Mutchmore Scholarship is still held by Leo L. Tait, who is pursuing his studies at the University of Chicago.

Students for Medical Missions and Lay Work.—The Board takes great satisfaction in caring for nineteen medical candidates, all of whom are of the very highest order, and are attending medical colleges in Class A of the American Medical Association. All of the medical students have passed preliminary examinations and have been approved by the Board of Foreign Missions. During the six years we have aided these students in medical colleges, 20 have graduated and have been accepted by the Foreign Board. They are located in the following mission stations: Hainan, China; Western Persia; Central China; Porto Rico; Africa; Chung Ju, Chosen; Ponte Nova, Bahia, Brazil. A splendid body of young women have been assisted this year, to the amount of $100 each, in the Presbyterian training schools of Philadelphia, Baltimore and Chicago. During the four years of assistance in this field, 31 have graduated, the majority of whom are actively at work in various parts of the home field.

College Visitation and Candidate Enlistment.—Those in touch with student life to-day are agreed that there is now a thoughtfulness and a spiritual receptivity among students which was absent in the days of ease and quietness. They know that world tasks confront them—that a new order is being instituted. Titanic spectacles of heroism electrify them. Altruism exhibited in a thousand forms fascinates them and compels new ideals and purposes. It is an hour when the Church must faithfully and lovingly lead her young men and women into the presence of the great Captain of their Salvation, that they may hear His reassuring and commanding voice. The Church has this year endeavored to fulfill this duty toward the students in Presbyterian colleges, through its programme of College Visitation. The Board of Education and the Assembly's Committee on Evangelism unite in directing this strategic measure. The reports of the evangelistic and life-work campaigns in our various institutions testify with singular emphasis to the increased effectiveness of this programme for the spiritual reinforcement of the Christian college, and 445 decisions for religious life-work have been reported; but only the records of earth and heaven will tell the full tale of victories.

During the year reported to the Assembly of 1916, not as many men from Presbyterian sources were ordained to our ministry, as were lost to our Church by death, and by dismissal to the ministry of other denominations. Barely enough were received from other Churches to provide a small net gain. Inasmuch as only a fraction of the youth of the Church is to be found in the Church colleges, recruiting activity must extend beyond these institutions. The majority of vocational decisions are made, in the rough, at least, in the high-school period. It is here young men must have the challenge. Accordingly, at the instance of the Board, the Presbyterian churches in eight different cities assembled, for an evening, a total of 851 boys of high-school age, chosen for their "parts, personality and Christian earnestness," and invited by their respective Sessions. Ministers and Elders were hosts to the boys at table and all were addressed concerning the Christian principles of life-work choice. The boys were frankly told in advance that the ministry would be emphasized, but that they would not be asked to give any expressions of their purposes. High-school boys appreciate being taken seriously on the life-work problem. One of them spoke for many when he wrote to the Board: "It is hard to decide between the many callings that are open to a young man to-day." Those invited to these conferences have been very appreciative. They have been especially impressed by the earnestness with which successful laymen have exalted a minister's opportunity. In one city an attorney, prominent in the city and State, in addressing the boys on the subject, "Opportunities of the Minister as Seen by a Layman," said: "If the vision had come to me sooner, I would not have been in the profession in which I have enjoyed some degree of success, but I would have been a minister of the Gospel. . . . If I had my life to live over again I would choose the ministry; or, what I believe is better, I would be a foreign missionary." One who heard these words says he doubts whether the young men addressed had ever been more deeply impressed in their lives than they were by the appeal of this noted lawyer. The mayor and superintendent of schools in another large city told the committee, at one of these conferences, that it was the greatest meeting they had ever attended. The Board secures the complete registration of the young men who attend these conferences, and addresses them appropriately in correspondence and literature. St. Louis has held two of these life-work supper conferences, and plans to repeat the event another year. As the year closed, six other conferences were projected. It is believed that the "habit" can be established, of assembling annually, in various localities, a total of about 2500 selected youths. Already there are excellent men in our colleges whose determination to prepare for the ministry dates from the conferences that were held a year ago.

Vocation Day.—Fifty thousand copies of a Vocation Day programme, entitled, "Publishers of Peace," were prepared for use in church and Sabbath-school, to facilitate the challenge to prepare for leadership in a life of consecrated service. Besides the hundreds of schools which used this programme, many others presented the subject and observed the day in their own way. One minister writes of expanding the suggestion of the Board and observing Vocation Month. A pastor writes that he preached on the call to service, in connection with a missionary campaign, and that, as a result, six of his young people are now preparing for distinctly Christian service.

Bureau of Occupations.—Owing to the close relation held by the Board with students in general, and with the training schools for lay workers in particular, it has been asked, from time to time, to assist pastors in finding lay helpers. The inquiries made in an endeavor to furnish the desired information uncovered the fact that pastors in large numbers are seeking paid lay helpers. No agency now exists to which a pastor can turn for information about available lay-assistants. Here is an important opportunity for usefulness, and the Board is willing to act as a communicating medium between those who seek and those who can provide such lay help, in the persuasion that much valuable service can thus be mobilized for the Church.

University Work.—The blessing of God has been clearly evident in the work with students this year. There has been an unusual seriousness of purpose and a readiness in response to the Gospel appeal. There are now fifteen men and one woman giving full time as student-pastors, in fifteen institutions, and twelve men and one woman giving part time to work for students in twelve institutions. The total resident student enrollment in the twenty-seven institutions was 120,000 last year. We find that a majority of students are communicant members of the Church when they enter the university. Conserving their faith and holding them to the ideals of the Christian life consumes the time and energy of the pastor, in personal and group conferences, but does not give material for reports. Most of the students are preparing for secular callings. The main purpose is to have them consecrate their lives, in these secular callings, to Christian service. Those acquainted with conditions of student life in the large universities will recognize the strong spiritual forces that have been at work to produce what is indicated by the following statements. There were 1482 students who united with local Presbyterian churches in university centers, during the year, by confession, by letter, or by affiliate membership. Affiliate membership means that the student in his new relation makes public confession, before his fellows, of his faith in Christ, and of his allegiance to the Church, during his stay in the university. It has all the force of a regular letter and does not disturb his relation to his home church. This public confession by affiliate membership often means as much in the life of the student as his first confession. There were 5085 students in 195 Bible and mission-study classes, taught by experienced teachers. Under capable teachers, the classes show a larger average attendance and persist longer than when taught by students. Student leaders are used to good purpose in discussion groups, many of these leaders being trained in the regular classes. There were held 7956 personal conferences. These dealt with life problems, including the choice of vocation, with the personal relation to Christ as the heart of the solution.

There are 20 universities that report 143 candidates for the ministry; 17 report 140 students preparing for foreign missions, 35 of whom are medical students. A larger number are reported as deeply interested, but holding the decision open until later in their course of study.

An adequate Church building is a necessity at each university and college center. We rejoice in having the active coöperation of the Board of Church Erection in providing the funds for these buildings. It is understood between the two Boards that the Board of Education will coöperate in planning these buildings to meet the needs of the Board's work for students. In addition to the Church Building, a Residence Headquarters building is needed in each university center, to supply a residence for the pastor and social and class rooms for use during the week. This need grows from the fact that the pastor may not use university buildings for religious classes, and that the Church is usually too far from the student quarter to be available for use on week days. An endowment fund to provide for the salary and expenses is also needed for the support of the work.

Literature.—Two special leaflets, "The Christian Boy's Great Problem" and "What Shall I Do With My Life?" have been issued by the Board in connection with the work of the Department of Candidate Enlistment. "Publishers of Peace," the Board's Vocation Day Exercise, has met with great acceptance. The Vocation Library for students, which has been in process of preparation for a year or more, is now being issued from the press. It consists of four volumes, as follows: "The Triumphant Ministry," a series of letters to a prospective candidate, by Timothy Kilbourn; "Reapers of His Harvest," biographies of ministers and laymen, by John T. Faris, D.D.; "Their Call To Service," a series of biographies of successful Christian laymen, by Mr. Philip E. Howard; "Heroes of the Campus," biographies of great Christian students, by Joseph W. Cochran. A special memorial edition as a tribute to the late Dr. George W. Bailey, of this Board, is being issued and will be distributed to one thousand selected students in the colleges and universities. There have been 327,400 pieces of printed matter issued and distributed during the year, and 25,922 multigraphed letters sent from the Board's office.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH W. COCHRAN, Secretary.

CHARLES WADSWORTH, Jr., President.

ABSTRACT OF THE SEVENTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

I. GENERAL.

The work of the Board was diligently prosecuted during the year, with results which will appear in the reports of the several departments.

The growth of the Board's work has called for the appointment of new committees in Presbyteries and Synods, particularly in the interests of Young People's Work and Religious Education. We find that this has created some confusion, inasmuch as two or more committees are at times found in the same Presbytery representing the work of one Board. To meet this condition, the Board, at its December meeting, adopted a resolution recommending that Presbyteries and Synods appoint among their Standing Committees one to be known as the Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work. This committee may be divided into two or three sub-committees, to coöperate with the several departments of the Board: Publication, Missionary, and Religious Education, which includes Young People's Work. This action was taken in the interests of unity and for the purpose of making it possible for Presbyteries and Synods, through one strong committee, to care for the rapidly developing work of the Board, more particularly its educational and missionary interests.

II. MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

Finances.—The extension of the work has been made possible mainly on account of the new plan approved by the General Assembly of 1916, providing for the financing of the educational work of the Board out of the profits of the Business Department, thus relieving the Missionary Fund of its expenditure for that work, which had averaged more than $16,000 annually. With a balance of $8,705.21 from the previous year, the sum of $25,000 was thus made available for additional work. An increase in the contributions for the year, together with an enlargement of our income from the Witherspoon Building and other permanent funds, brought us to the close of the year with a balance of $3,441.66. The total amount received in contributions is $215,442.71, being the largest amount ever received in a single year in the history of the work.

Administration.—It should be a source of satisfaction to the Church to know that the growth of the field force and the extension of this Department's activities have not necessitated any appreciable increase in administrative cost. The amount expended last year for all salaries, printing, stationery, and other expenses of the Philadelphia office of the Missionary Department, is $9,846.59, or 3.7 per cent. of the total budget.

The Work Afield.—During the year, 159 missionaries and colporteurs have been engaged in this work, in 162 Presbyteries and 39 Synods. A new field entered last year was the Synod of New England, by the appointment of a missionary. In the Synod of Utah two additional missionaries were commissioned. In the Synod of Tennessee two additional missionaries were placed, to meet the needs of large districts. In the Synod of Kentucky two new missionaries were appointed; with further additions in the Synods of Arkansas, Oklahoma, Wyoming, Montana, Washington, and Michigan. Another outstanding feature of the year's activities is the extension of our work into Alaska. The influx of thousands of new settlers who are making permanent homes in Alaska makes it a most inviting field for Sabbath-school missionary work.

Sabbath-schools Established.—Within the past twelve months, 911 new schools have been organized, and 316 revived, making a total of 1,227, with an enrolment of 4,134 officers and teachers, and 37,936 pupils—a total of 42,070.

System and Cooperation.—Excellent results are being obtained under our present policy of attaching mission schools as outstations to neighboring churches. In some cases, one church has become responsible for half a dozen mission schools, thus extending the boundaries of many home mission parishes, providing increased support for the pastor, and assuring the permanency of the work.

Sabbath-schools Aided.—To introduce the literature of our Church, the Missionary Department has followed, with encouraging results, the plan of assisting newly organized schools with donations of lesson helps; and frequently of Bibles and hymnals. Last year the Board expended $8,161.47 in the purchase of equipment for such schools, more than 2,000 schools receiving assistance of this character.

Sabbath-school Development.—Our missionaries are making a valuable contribution to the educational service of the Board, and are coöperating in a helpful way in the promotion of Young People's Work, participating in summer and winter conferences held in their respective Presbyteries, circulating literature concerning young people's organizations of various kinds, besides organizing young people's societies wherever possible. Last year 83 societies were thus brought into existence and reported to the Department of Religious Education. Resulting from these efforts, 355 Cradle Rolls and 281 Home Departments were started; 407 teacher-training classes were organized, with a membership of 3,597; 209 adult and 258 "teen-age" classes were organized.

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT.—Another aspect of Sabbath-school development work, is that of coöperating with the Home Mission committees of Presbyteries in the holding of strategic points and preparing them for church organization. Last year, 63 new Presbyterian churches developed from schools previously organized, besides 24 churches of other denominations. During the past thirty years, 1,836 Presbyterian churches have thus come into existence, and 695 churches of other denominations. These new organizations have become possessed of church property valued at $110,950, during the past year, and 50 buildings have been erected. Thus the Church has acquired additional property equal to 60 per cent. of the amount expended for the support of the Sabbath-school missionary work.

FOSTERING MISSION SCHOOLS.—The missionaries have under their fostering care, at the present time, 2,602 mission schools, with 11,225 officers and teachers, and 92,299 pupils, a total of 103,254.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—At our annual missionary conferences, attention has been given to the discussion of evangelistic methods. The results have been most encouraging. The missionaries report services as having been held in 482 communities, with 3,567 conversions; but these figures do not begin to express the full extent of the good accomplished. Entire communities have been awakened and transformed; family altars have been erected; schools revived; parents enlisted in the work; and the blessing of the Spirit has been manifested in countless other ways.

HOME VISITATION.—An important part of our field work is the visitation of scattered families who are beyond the reach of pastoral care. Last year, 110,334 families were thus visited with the Gospel message by our missionaries in the course of their labors. This visitation work affords opportunity for the distribution of large quantities of evangelistic and devotional literature, besides the periodicals of the Board. Last year, 16,332 Bibles and Testaments and other volumes were sold and given away, besides 1,680,150 pages of tracts and periodicals. Mission schools and churches have been assisted with grants of hymnals, libraries, and tracts; 8,625 volumes and 9,340,517 pages of tracts being thus distributed. The missionaries are also enabled to relieve the needs of many who suffer from the lack of sufficient clothing. Ladies' Aid Societies, Mission Bands, and Sabbath-schools have sent generous donations of clothing to missionaries located in districts where such assistance is needed. Last year 34 such donations were received, valued at $2,016.82.

VACATION SUNDAY-SCHOOL BANDS.—A feature of our work among the negroes, which is developing into a movement of encouraging proportions, is the formation of Vacation Sunday-school Bands, composed of pupils in the boarding schools conducted by the Board of Missions for Freedmen throughout the South. Last year, 12 such bands were formed, 650 pupils being enrolled. As the result of their work, 18 new schools were organized, and schools already in existence were strengthened by the addition of 3,220 pupils to their membership.

PROVIDING FOR THE MISSIONARIES.—Recognizing the additional burden which the missionaries have been called upon to bear on account of the increase in the cost of living, the Board has given careful consideration to the matter of advancing their salaries. We are glad to report that the salaries of many of the missionaries have been increased. A further provision for the missionaries has been made by an arrangement with the Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation, to enable each Sabbath-school missionary who is eligible under the rules of that Board to obtain a certificate of membership in the Sustentation Fund.

CHILDREN'S DAY AND RALLY DAY.—The special days continue to grow in popularity among our schools; Children's Day, especially, has been almost universally observed. Nearly 6,000 schools used our Children's Day services last year, more than 786,000 copies of the programme and supplement having been distributed. These exercises are sent only upon request of the schools. More than 2,000 schools used our Rally Day service, over 400,000 copies having been ordered. The offerings on these two special days show a substantial increase over previous years. Last year, for the first time in the history of this work, the offerings exceeded $100,000.

Missionary Conferences.—Conferences with our missionaries were held in Estes Park, Colorado; Duluth, Minnesota; Birmingham, Alabama; and West Point, Mississippi. Three-fourths of the whole number of field workers were thus given the advantage of fellowship and instruction.

Congregational Offerings.—The last Assembly suggested to pastors and church sessions that they give the work of our Board a place in the congregational benevolences. During the previous year, more than one-half the churches failed to send a congregational offering for this work. The fact that members of the congregation participate in the collection taken at the joint service on Children's Day, should not exclude this Board from receiving its share in the apportionment of the congregational missionary offerings, especially in churches which have adopted the Every-member Plan.

Coöperation of Presbyterial and Synodical Committees.—We are deeply grateful for the cordial and helpful coöperation of our presbyterial and synodical committees. The chairmen of these committees, though busy with the cares of their own pastorates, have cheerfully responded to our requests.

Catechism Memory Awards.—The Board continues to offer a Bible to each pupil in our schools, under sixteen years of age, who memorizes the Intermediate Catechism, and a larger Bible to each pupil, under eighteen years of age, who memorizes the Shorter Catechism. Under this offer, 825 Bibles were awarded last year.

Churches Without Sabbath-schools.—Our missionaries have been urged to give special attention to the establishment of Sabbath-schools in connection with all the Presbyterian churches in their respective fields. They have labored to accomplish this, and practically all our churches located in the Presbyteries where missionaries are working are conducting schools during at least a portion of the year.

Work Among Immigrants.—Our missionary colporteur work is a recognized factor in the progress of immigrant evangelization. We had 28 missionary colporteurs in the fields during the year, laboring in 10 Synods. They have visited 53,252 families, and have distributed, by sale and gift, 7,834 Bibles and Testaments, besides 15,970 other religious books, and 149,400 pages of evangelistic tracts in at least 20 foreign languages. Their total sales amount to $2,248.09.

Our Foreign Periodicals.—In addition to the work of the missionary colporteurs, our weekly religious papers in foreign languages are accomplishing effective results in spreading the knowledge of the Truth among the immigrants The first of our periodicals in foreign languages, Krestanske Listy (The Christian Journal), continues to minister in a helpful manner to the scattered Bohemian families on the farms in the West and Southwest. The circulation is now 2,800 copies weekly. Our Bohemian child's paper, Besidka (Story Hour), is popular, especially in the Bohemian Sabbath-schools. The present circulation is 3,000 copies. Among the Ruthenians, our weekly paper, Sojuz (Union), is a source of encouragement to the efforts being made to promote the cause of Protestantism. The circulation of Sojuz is 1,200 copies. The editor of our Hungarian weekly paper, Reformatusok Lapja (Reformed Sentinel), Rev. Ladislaus Harsanyi, was obliged, for physical reasons, to transfer the work, with the approval of the Reformed Board and our own Board, to other hands. His brother, Rev. Alexander Harsanyi, Ph.D., of Homestead, Pennsylvania, has assumed the task, with Rev. George Kmecik, of Jessup, Pa., as associate editor. Our Hungarian Sunday-school magazine, Bibliai Tanito (Bible Teacher), continues to be greatly appreciated by the workers in the Hungarian missions.

Its circulation is 1,500 copies monthly. Our Italian weekly paper also has undergone a change not only in the editorship, but also in name. Under the editorial supervision of the Rev. Francis J. Panetta, of New York, the paper is meeting with the universal approval and support of the Italian ministers and people. The name of the paper has been changed to L'Era Nuova (The New Era), and its circulation is increasing week by week, now numbering 3,000 copies. The Board continues to make an annual appropriation toward the support of Slowa Zywota (Words of Life), the Polish bi-weekly paper published by the United Presbyterian Board of Publication, in consideration of which our colporteurs are supplied with copies for distribution.

Bible Picture Cards.—These cards are in great demand not only in the Sabbath-schools, but in visitation among the immigrants everywhere. The colored Bible picture, with the Bible story printed on the back of the card, is always attractive to the immigrant. These cards are printed in Bohemian, Hungarian, Italian, Polish, Ruthenian, and Spanish, the quarterly output being 18,500 sets.

III. DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

Field Work.—During the past year, the Secretary of the Department, the Superintendent of Young People's Work, Rev. Wm. Ralph Hall, and the three District Superintendents, Rev. George C. Fracker, Rev. Gerritt Verkuyl, and Rev. C. W. Laufer, traveled about 89,000 miles, made 1,856 addresses, and conducted 225 conferences and institutes.

Conferences and Institutes.—During the year the Board assisted directly in the promotion of many schools of method, among them being the winter institutes, such as those held at Milwaukee, St. Louis, Kansas City, Rockford, Ill., and the summer schools at Macalester, Minn., Carroll College, Wis., and Alma, Mich.

The Council of Religious Education.—The necessity of unifying and correlating the various educational agencies in the individual church is now generally accepted. A large number of churches are slowly bringing this about by the organization of a central Council or Committee on the educational work of the church.

Religion in the Home.—The movement for the setting up of the family altar and the promotion of Bible-reading and religious training in the home has met with success. Twenty-five thousand copies of the leaflet, "Christ and the Homes of America," have been purchased by churches for general distribution. During the last twelve months about ten thousand Presbyterian homes have undertaken family worship and Bible-reading. Still greater efforts will be thmade is coming year to extend the influence of the movement.

Sabbath-school Membership and Evangelism.—During the last five years the net increase in membership has amounted to 207,257. The total membership in all Presbyterian Sabbath-schools, for 1916, was 1,412,387. The evangelistic aim of the Sabbath-school is kept constantly to the front. From April 1, 1915 to April 1, 1916, the additions to the Church membership from the Sabbath-schools were 65,645, or 60 per cent. of the total additions on confessions of faith.

The Curriculum.—One of the ideals which we are striving to realize is a comprehensive curriculum for the whole Church. Central in all of this is the lesson system in the Sabbath-school. The Department of Religious Education has a Curriculum Committee which works in close coöperation with the Editorial Department. All matters pertaining to the materials and outlines of the comprehensive curriculum are discussed and formulated by this Committee. The three most important matters considered during the past year were the development and extension of the Departmental Graded Lessons, the creation of a Daily Vacation Bible School Curriculum, and a plan for the formulation of a graded course in missionary education and Christian giving.

Departmental Graded Lessons.—In the Departmental Graded Lessons, as the Board now proposes to formulate them, we hope may be the solution of the problem of graded lesson making. We trust they may be given a thorough trial by every Sabbath-school.

STANDARDS.—The revised Ten-Point Standard, and also the Advance Standard, are now being offered. They represent all that is best and worth while in up-to-date Sabbath-school work.

ORGANIZED CLASSES.—This feature of Sabbath-school work is developing rapidly. The organized Bible class has many excellent features to commend it, and its real possibilities are not fully understood. The Department has on its files the following number of organized and registered classes, with which we try to keep in close touch: Organized Secondary Bible Classes now registered, 1,807; Organized Adult Bible Classes now registered, 2,513.

TEACHER-TRAINING.—The work of promoting teacher-training has been reorganized, and plans are about completed for an aggressive effort to have one or more teacher-training classes in every Presbyterian church.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.—For ten years, the Presbyterian Church has had a Denominational Headquarters for its work in the interest of the young people's societies of all ages. From a small beginning, the work has grown gradually until at this, the opening of the second decade of work, the task is a commanding one. This work has a three-fold commission: (1) Help organize the young people of our Presbyterian churches for practical Christian training and service; (2) help increase the efficiency of existing organizations; (3) promote religious education in all young people's societies. Among the many ways in which efforts have been made are as follows: organizing the forces; securing reports from the field; coöperating with other Presbyterian agencies working with the young people; promoting conferences and institutes; issuing material and helps on religious education; circulating information through letters and the printed page; furnishing special programmes for Rally Day and Young People's Day for all young people's societies; field visitation.

CONFERENCES AND INSTITUTES.—No phase of work has been more favorably received or has given more promise of far-reaching results than the educational work of the summer conferences and winter institutes. Conference and Institute Programmes include: Bible Study, Missions, Church History, Presbyterianism, Teacher-training, and General Religious Education. There are also discussion groups led by specialists taking up all phases of education, training, and service in the young people's societies for the different ages.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS.—A Council of Missionary and Benevolent Education has been formed. It is composed of representative members of the various Boards of the General Assembly, and will have as its task the formulation of a graded curriculum of missionary and benevolent instruction for the entire Church.

THE PRESBYTERIAN DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL MOVEMENT.—Nothing in the sphere of religious education promises such returns for the time and money invested as the Vacation Bible School. The Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work and the Board of Home Missions have united in a joint programme for the aggressive promotion of this aspect of Church work.

THE CONFERENCE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.—The Board's Committee on Religious Education arranged for a conference, which was held on November 23 and 24. Fifteen men prominent in the work of the Church were invited to attend and join with the officers and members of the Board in a general discussion of the problems of Christian education. The findings of the conference, which proved to be of great value to all who participated, were presented by a Committee on Conclusions, and are as follows: (1) The primary necessity of establishing a more definite relation with the home through the family altar, literature for home reading, classes for the parents and for the children. We heartily endorse the Home Circle movement, and strongly urge the Department of Religious Education to push it. We suggest that the General Assembly be asked to request the Department of Religious Education to prepare a manual suitable for home instruction and catechetical instruction. (2) The imperative necessity of a comprehensive curriculum of Christian Education, which will make full provision for every form of education demanded by the Church. Such a curriculum ought to include the need of the Sunday-school, the need of Missionary Education, the Young People's movement, and any other line in which education may be needed in our Church. (3) We endorse the principles of the Council of Religious Education, and advise pastors to study it carefully, and to adapt it to their particular needs.

THE CHRISTIAN EDUCATOR.—The Christian Educator is the Department's medium of direct communication with the churches. The aim is to present from month to month such special features of the Department's programme as require immediate discussion, and to keep the whole Church informed upon the various aspects of Christian education in the local church.

IV. EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

THE FOURTH-YEAR SENIOR GRADED LESSONS.—The Senior Graded Lessons have been completed; the final quarter of the fourth year will be offered for use beginning July 1, 1917.

THE HYMNALS.—In the case of The Hymnal published by authority of the General Assembly, we report the somewhat striking fact that we have sold 100 copies for every working day since its revision in 1911, totaling 168,348 copies. This, with 326,279 copies sold of the edition of 1895, makes a total circulation of The Hymnal of 494,627 copies. The book has been introduced by 164 churches during the last year. Since the publication of the new Sunday-school hymnal, Alleluia, in December, 1915, 72,713 copies have been sold. The circulation of The Chapel Hymnal has now reached 293,171 copies; that of The Westminster Hymnal, 70,329 copies.

A BOOK OF FAMILY WORSHIP.—In accordance with the instructions of the General Assembly of 1913, the Board appointed a committee to prepare a Book of Family Worship. This was published in the summer of 1916, and has reached a sale of 2,510 copies.

A YEAR OF PROGRESS.—During the year, The Christian Educator has been added to the Board's list. This periodical is issued nine months in the year, for pastors, Sunday-school superintendents, and teachers, and other educational leaders in the local church. Encouraging words come from readers. Under the general title, "The Vocational Library: Studies in Christian Heroism," there has been completed a series of four volumes designed to guide and inspire young people in their choice of life work. The volumes in the series are "The Triumphant Ministry," by "Timothy Kilbourn" (R. Ames Montgomery, D.D.); "Reapers of His Harvest," by John T. Faris, D.D.; "Their Call to Service," by Philip E. Howard; and "Heroes of the Campus," by Joseph W. Cochran, D.D.

THOROUGHLY FURNISHED.—The first year of the New Standard Westminster Teacher-Training Course, based on the standard recently adopted by the Sunday-school Council of Evangelical Denominations and approved by the International Sunday-school Association, has been prepared, as follows: Part I: Ten Lessons on the Pupil. Prepared by H. T. J. Coleman, B.A., Ph.D. Part II: Ten Lessons on the Principles of Teaching, with Emphasis on General Psychology. By Robert Wells Veach, M.A., D.D. Part III: Ten Lessons on How to Teach the Life of Christ in the Different Grades. By Hugh T. Kerr, D.D. Part IV: Ten Lessons on the Sunday-school, an Outline of the Aim, Curriculum, and Organization of the Modern Sunday-school. By Dr. Veach. Elementary Course. Preparation for Teaching, our popular teacher-training book, by Charles A. Oliver, of which more than two hundred thousand copies have been sold, is still offered to all who desire to use it; but according to the action of the Sunday-school Council and the International Association, its study cannot be counted as a full first year's course toward the New Standard Diploma. Therefore, after January 1, 1918, the Board will award a special certificate of work accomplished to those who pass a satisfactory examination in Preparation for Teaching.

Departmental Sunday-school Manuals.—The Series of Departmental Sunday-school Manuals which was begun last year, is to be completed during 1917. The titles and authors are: The Cradle Roll, by Elizabeth W. Sudlow; The Beginners Department, by Emma G. Lemen; The Primary Department, by Phebe A. Curtis; The Juniors: How to Teach and Train Them, by Maud Junkin Baldwin; The Intermediate Department, by Eugene C. Foster; The Senior Department, by Florence H. Darnell and Eugene C. Foster, and The Adult Department, by Ida S. Blick.

A Forward Step in Lesson-Making.—On October 1, 1917, after testing the Departmental Lessons in three departments for three years, in hundreds of schools, the Board will offer to the Church an improved series of Departmental Graded Lessons for The Beginners Department, The Primary Department, The Junior Department, and The Intermediate Department.

The Intermediate Lessons.—A feature of the three-year cycle for the Intermediate Department is that during the months of January, February, and March of each year the lessons will be specially emphasized with a view to preparing the pupils for church membership.

Elective Courses After Fourteen Years of Age.—It is a part of the plan to offer as electives the lessons on the outlines heretofore prepared for ages fifteen to twenty-one.

Presbyterian Publishers and Editors Coöperate.—The publishing houses of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, the Presbyterian Church in Canada, the Reformed Church in the United States, and the Reformed Church in America join with us in issuing these new Departmental Lessons.

V. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

The service rendered to the Church by the Business Department in marketing the products of the Board, is illustrated in the variety of the business done as well as in its steadily increasing volume. The Lesson Quarterlies and Illustrated Papers for the Sunday-school constitute by far the largest part of the business. The issuance of the standards of the Church, including hymnals for the church, prayer meeting and Sunday-school, form an important part; the manufacture and sale of an infinite variety of supplies for use in the Sunday-school and church, which tend to promote greater efficiency, are also valuable features: and, last but far from least, is the maintenance of book stores in important centers throughout the country; where there is kept on hand a large stock of current religious literature for the needs of pastors, officers, and church workers in general, including not only the publications of the Board but also those of other houses.

Sales and Profits.—The Business Department is able to declare a profit of $66,053.27 on its business operations for the past year. One-half of this will accrue to the capital at the beginning of the year ($467,908.54), making the present capital $500,935.17. The remaining half ($33,026.64) will be credited to the Department of Religious Education for the prosecution and development of this important work committed to the Board by the General Assembly.

Industrial Conditions.—We have suffered, in common with other publishing houses, by the economic conditions prevailing, which affect not only the prices of all raw material entering into the manufacture of our output, but also the cost of labor. We are fortunate, however, in having been able to enter into very satisfactory contracts for paper, printing and binding, so that in many instances we have not been compelled to advance the prices of our publications. We hoped that these contracts would extend over the period of unrest, but as to this we have no means of knowing.

DEPOSITORIES.—The headquarters of the Board are at Philadelphia, in the Witherspoon Building, which is owned and controlled by the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work. A large portion of the building is used for different agencies of the Church, from which no revenue is derived. The net income of the building, which this year amounts to $36,483.20, is devoted exclusively to the furtherance of the work of the Missionary Department. The Business Department has its office here, conducts a retail store on the second floor, and pays a rental for the space occupied. In addition to the store in Philadelphia, the Board maintains six depositories, situated in important centers throughout the country; one special agency in Pittsburgh, and four representative houses which handle the Board's supplies.

Summary of the Statistics of the Sabbath-Schools

OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. A., BY SYNODS AND PRESBYTERIES.

Prepared by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department from the Reports of the Presbyterial Sabbath-school Committees.

NOTE.—Columns showing number of grades in each school, and number of Boards to which each school contributed, are omitted because they have significance only as they refer to the reports of the individual schools, and cannot be totaled. The star (*) before the name of a Presbytery stands for last year's Report.

Abstract of the Forty-seventh Annual Report.

During the past year the Board has made appropriations for 202 churches and 94 manses, aggregating $537,870.00, and the churches have qualified to receive $444,948.00.

The recommendations of the last Assembly have been faithfully carried out. These recommendations dealt with abandoned churches, grants and loans, portable chapels, work at university centers and in the vicinity of Presbyterian colleges and among foreign-speaking peoples. The elimination of the personal collateral bond from the requirements of the Loan Fund, by the last General Assembly, has been appreciated by the officers and people of many congregations. The amended manse rules, by which the Board was authorized to make larger loans, without interest, and, in some cases, grants, have been of special assistance to churches.

The members of the Board have spent considerable time during the year in discussing the scope and functions of the Board's work and in looking carefully into the history of the past seventy-three years.

There has been a growing desire on the part of the members of the Board to make this agency of the Church not only a greater missionary force, but also more helpful to congregations erecting houses of worship and manses.

The Board went to the Assembly, asking for authority to make larger grants and non-interest-bearing loans from the General Fund, and all recommendations and suggestions were unanimously adopted.

The Manse Movement is taking firmer hold, year by year, upon the Church. It is truly a popular movement and it is gratifying that about one-half of our Presbyterian pastors have manses. The Board has two funds from which assistance is given in the building of manses.

From time to time, the Board receives requests from Presbyteries and Synods for statements in regard to the amounts appropriated by the Board. The Treasurer has prepared lists for use of Presbyteries and Synods, showing the date of grants and loans, amounts, condition of payment, amounts due to the Board, and the total amount of appropriations. These lists will be sent to the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries and to chairmen of committees.

For several years the Assembly has expressed deep interest in the work of churches in the vicinity of Presbyterian colleges and at State universities. The Assembly of 1916 authorized and instructed the Board of Church Erection to raise a fund of not less than $200,000, in order that provision might be made for Presbyterian students at Presbyterian colleges and State universities. In this work the Board of Church Erection was, under the rule of the Assembly, to coöperate with the Board of Education. Realizing the importance of this work, Rev. Louis Edward Holden, D.D., LL.D., former president of the College of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio, was elected as special representative to present to individuals and the Church at large the need for churches at educational centers. With all the efforts that have been put forth, it does not seem probable that the fund will be secured immediately, and possibly not for some time to come. However, the Board has gone to the limit of its power in rendering assistance to churches at educational centers and has made appropriations amounting to $76,000. Of these appropriations, $61,000 have been paid.

As in previous years, there has been the closest possible coöperation with the other Boards of the Church, especially with the Board of Home Missions, the Board of Education, the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, and the Board of Missions for Freedmen. The officers and members of these Boards feel that the work of the Church is one, and in the various conferences held the spirit of unity and coöperation has manifested itself.

The following two years' comparative review of receipts and disbursements gives an idea of the financial operations of the Board.

Term expires 1919:

Mr. John C. Cobb, of Missouri, Mr. Isaac H. Orr, of Missouri,
Mr. W. J. Edwards, of Missouri.

Term expires 1920:

Mr. Thomas H. Cobbs, of Missouri, Rev. E. B. Surface, D.D., of Oklahoma.

SEVENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT.

We have pleasure in submitting herewith our Seventy-first Annual Report to the General Assembly in session in Dallas, Texas, May, 1917.

The Board has chosen, subject to your approval, Thomas H. Cobbs, Esq., of St. Louis, Mo., and Rev. E. B. Surface, D.D., of Oklahoma City, Okla., to succeed themselves in the office as corporate members until 1920.

As usual the Board has confined its efforts entirely to the collection of outstanding loans, due the Church Erection Fund and to settlement of estates.

There are very few estates now in process of settlement, and the only uncollected loan is that of Garden City, Kansas, made in 1888 for $500.

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

RELIEF DEPARTMENT.

ANNUITANTS ON THE ROLL.—The Relief Department had 1,622 persons on its roll during the year; 860 widows, 652 ministers, 60 orphan families, and 50 commissioned unordained missionaries. There were 67 more than during the year 1916. Of the ministers, 244 are on the Honor Roll. The average age of men on the Honor Roll is 76, and average period of service is 44 years.

Amounts Paid Beneficiaries (including the maintenance of the two Homes and the Ministers' Memorial Cottage at Albuquerque, N. M.).—The total amount paid beneficiaries last year was $358,208. The average appropriations were: to the Honor Roll men, $384; to all ministers, $303.06; to widows, $187.45.

Total Assets and Resources.

Invested Assets	$4,259,384 00
Cash in hand	214,372 00
Outstanding subscriptions	284,946 00
Total for Relief Department	$4,758,702 00

Ladies' Societies.—Not only have efforts been continued to secure the help of Ladies' Aid and kindred Societies for the work of the Board, but in two Presbyteries, Los Angeles and Brooklyn, the Ladies' Aid Societies have formed a federation, one of the objects being to help the Relief Department.

Increase in Funds.—Attention is called to the remarkable increase in the Permanent Funds of the Board last year, through some large special gifts.

Sustentation Department.

Membership.—There are now 1,457 members in the Sustentation Fund, as compared with 1,175 last year.

Resources.

Invested Resources	$932,232 23
Cash in hand	82,940 07
Bills Receivable	2,192 90
Outstanding Subscriptions	633,866 00
Total	$1,651,231 20

Owing to the growth in the resources of this department, the General Assembly has authorized the payment of 80 per cent. of the maximum benefits for the year 1917–1918.

Campaigns.—The Assembly authorized the Boards to continue their campaigns, and recommended that pastors and Sessions give the widest welcome to the presentation of the Sustentation Fund, for its Permanent and Reserve Funds, and that the benevolence budget of the Church be so construed as not to interfere with the campaigns.

Annuity Bonds for Both Departments.

The Board is now ready to receive gifts of money on the annuity basis, and with interest as follows:

When annuitant is under 60 years of age	5 per cent.
Between 60 and 70	6 per cent.
Between 70 and 80	7 per cent.
Over 80	8 per cent.

WILLIAM HIRAM FOULKES, General Secretary.

Abstract of Fifty-second Annual Report.

We are very thankful to be able to say that we have once more, and for the seventeenth time in annual succession, closed our fiscal year with enough funds on hand to meet all outstanding financial obligations, and still have something left over with which to begin meeting the new obligations that come with the coming year. More than this, we have received, from all sources, a larger amount than we have ever before received in any one year, and for this also we give God thanks.

During the past year the annual contributions from churches amounted to $91,903.14, as compared with $89,309.31 the year before, making a difference in the right direction of $2,595.83.

The contributions from Sunday-schools, direct and through the Woman's Department, amounted to $10,701.92, falling off $1,211.35.

The Young People's Societies gave us direct, and through the Woman's Department, $11,120.46—an increase of $311.60.

The Women's Societies gave us direct, and through the Woman's Department, $80,895.77—an increase of $4,989.17.

We received interest on invested funds amounting to $28,830.61—an increase of $3,242.03.

From legacies we received $34,763.00, being $8,361.85 more than was reported last year.

From miscellaneous sources we received $159,287.69—an increase of $136,587.28.

The number of churches that helped us in any one way, either by congregational collection or through Sunday-schools, or Young People's Societies, or through the Woman's Board (counting each church only once, whether it gave in only one way, or in all of these ways) was 6,506, an increase of 272, still leaving 3,447 churches that gave us nothing whatever.

The number of Sunday-schools that contributed to the Board direct was 609. The number that gave through the Woman's Board was 279, making a total this year of 888—a decrease of 181.

The number of Young People's Societies contributing direct to the Board was 43, the number that gave through the Woman's Board was 1,365, making a total of 1,398—a gain of 58.

The number of Woman's Societies contributing to our work, through the Woman's Board or direct, was 4,196—an increase of 174.

The total receipts from all sources for the year was $417,503.13—an increase of $154,783.41.

The amount of money given to the church work by the people on the field, including church buildings, repairs, contingent expenses and ministerial support, as reported to us by our ministers in their annual reports to the Board, was this year $91,144.83.

The amount given on the field to our school work by patrons and friends, as reported to us by our teachers, was $91,646.69.

In addition to this, the churches under our care, not including those that are self-supporting, gave through their annual collections $1,054.25 to the Freedmen's Board, and to the other Boards and Agencies of the Church, $2,333.63. Adding the amount raised for church work and school purposes to the amount given to the benevolent agencies of the Church, we have a sum total, passing through the hands of our ministers, elders and teachers, directly or indirectly, for their own good, in their own communities, and for the good of others, in their own land and in other lands, amounting to $186,179.40—the largest amount ever reported to us in this way.

Last year we were compelled to report a most painful and shocking accident in connection with the running of one of our large Seminaries—Ingleside Seminary, at Burkeville, Va., by which the President, Rev. G. C. Campbell, and one of the students lost their lives through the explosion of the acetylene plant. Rev. J. W. Dunbar, D.D., was selected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Campbell. Dr. Dunbar accepted the position and took charge of the work last July, and has so far discharged the duties of his new position with credit to himself and entire satisfaction to the Board.

In last year's Report mention was made of a new dormitory which Mrs. William McKelvey, daughter of Rev. Dr. Kumler, proposed to erect at Brainerd Institute, at Chester, S. C., in memory of her father. The building, it was understood, was to be finished and furnished in a thoroughly first class way, and up to date in every respect. It was finished on time and has been doing the good it was meant to do, and is expected to go on repeating this good and keeping in mind the memory of the good man, whose name it bears, for many years to come.

Extensive repairs have been made at Harbison College, and a new building, which furnishes additional dormitory accommodations for the boys, has been completed. The whole improvement was financed by the Harbison Estate, at a cost of $33,783.00, which is about $500 more than the original estimate.

The general sympathy expressed for Rev. J. H. Hayswood, of Lumberton, N. C., by the people of the town in which he lived, when his school buildings were destroyed by fire, resulted in the rebuilding and furnishing of the same, so that with the insurance collected and with the help of the Redstone Presbyterial Society, the Board was enabled, with an additional grant, to give back to the Principal of the school a larger and better building than he had before, at an expense of $2,632.31.

At Anderson, S. C., having a small farm not bringing to us any income, we bargained with a real estate man to secure, for $2,500, five acres, in a desirable locality, on which a new school building was erected, at a cost of $5,449.00, in which also provision was made for the accommodation of the Principal of the school and his family.

The Woman's Missionary Societies in two of the churches of Chillicothe Presbytery each received a legacy from the Mary A. Steele Estate—the Society of the First Church of Chillicothe and the Society of the Church at South Bend. Both Societies wished to invest these legacies permanently in some part of our work. With the consent of the Society of the Chillicothe Church, we purchased a school property at Wedgefield, S. C., at a cost of $694, and this school will be known henceforth as the Thomas Steele Memorial School.

We have agreed with the Society of the South Bend Church to erect a school house in connection with our work at John's Island, S. C., where we already have a school, where there are some two thousand colored people, whose children can neither read nor write. This school will be known as the Mary A. Steele Memorial School.

While we have thus met some of the pressing wants in connection with our work, as we look forward to the coming year there are many more that must be met.

Another dormitory at Arkadelphia, Ark., is needed, costing $6,000. At Valliant, Okla. a recitation room is needed, costing $4,000. At Keeling, Tenn., a recitation room is called for, at a cost of $2,000. At Albion Academy, Franklinton, N. C., another dormitory is needed, at a cost of $10,000. At Boggs Academy, Keyesville, Ga., another dormitory is wanted, costing $5,000. At Biddle University, Charlotte, N. C., there is unquestioned need of another dormitory, costing $25,000.

All this is encouraging in one way. It is a sign of life, a sign of growth, and it is a great pity that a live school, with a live man at its head cannot always grow as it would like to, and as it would do if it had the proper accommodations.

The call of Biddle University, on the list, is the loudest call, if we measure it by the amount called for, $25,000. Biddle University, in the suburbs of Charlotte, N. C., has about sixty acres of land, eleven buildings, eighteen professors and other teachers, all colored men. There are four main departments in the University: a Preparatory, a College, an Industrial, and a Theological. Biddle University has a moderate endowment fund of about $70,000. It has the benefit, in part, of the "Wallace Fund" and the "Martin Fund," at the discretion of the Board. The estimated value of its land and buildings is $219,000.

The Assembly endorsed the plan to raise $150,000 Endowment Fund, this, the fiftieth year of its existence.

The workers in the Woman's Department of our Board, which is the same as the Freedmen's Department of the Woman's Board—Mrs. W. T. Larimer, General Secretary, and Miss Roberta Barr, Field Representative—have again the credit, and again the gratitude, of the Board for having once more turned into our treasury the magnificent sum of $100,000 and more.

Every meeting of the Board that we hold is opened and closed with prayer. We seek always Divine guidance, and would not ever wish to act without it.

On behalf of the Board,

E. P. COWAN, Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer;
J. M. GASTON, Associate Secretary.

Abstract of Thirty-fourth Annual Report.

Contributions.—The outstanding feature of the year's work is the large amount received by and pledged to the colleges, thus assuring their more complete equipment and endowment and their greater efficiency as educational institutions. The year ending March 31, 1916, was one of the best on record, and a year ago The College Board had the pleasure of reporting that the receipts of the year by the Board and the colleges together for all purposes "are known to be not less than one and one-half million dollars." For the year just closed, however, without counting any of the receipts by the Board itself, reports from fifty-two of our colleges show that they actually received the sum of $2,755,527 for buildings, equipment and endowment and toward current expenses. As usual, the Board shows in one of its schedules the total amount received by the colleges both directly and through the Board. The following table, showing these "grand totals" for several years, indicates at a glance how liberal Presbyterians and other benevolent friends of Christian education were with our educational institutions during the year closing March 31, 1917.

	Mar. 31 1914.	Mar. 31 1915.	Mar. 31 1916.	Mar. 31 1917.
Gifts for all purposes, both through the Board and direct	$1,094,457	$1,237,300	$1,347,153	$3,054,211

As this table shows, the receipts for last year exceeded the average for the preceding three years by $1,827,908, and the Board estimates that nearly $3,000,000 was pledged to the colleges in addition to the above receipts.

Field Representatives.—Besides the assistance given by the Associate Secretaries in financial-campaign work in the field, the Board has had throughout the year the services of three field representatives who have labored for and with the colleges in raising funds, and with college presidents in preparing the way for their visits and in introducing them to friends of the cause who generously assist in the upbuilding of our institutions. The Board has borne practically all of the cost of the assistance given by these representatives, paying their salaries and expenses, and practically all of the benefits have gone directly to the colleges. What appears, therefore, as an increase in the cost of the Board's work represents in reality extra gifts from the Board to the colleges which have benefited by this kind of coöperation, though some of the proceeds of this effort has come into the treasury of the Board.

Increasing Interest.—The Board has continued its policy of publicity by means of leaflets, lectures, addresses, and articles and advertisements in the Church papers and also in the secular press. For three or four years the Board has been steadily increasing the amount of attention given to these methods of awakening new interest in the cause it is appointed to promote, and the fruits of this activity are beginning to appear. The correspondence of the Board has greatly increased, and the requests for its printed matter and lectures and for material to aid in preparing sermons and addresses on Christian education are much more numerous than ever before. These facts indicate what we believe to be true—that the Church is beginning to see and to feel, as it had not done for years, the fundamental importance of the type of education which is represented by the Christian college.

Bible Chair Endowment.—In no one phase of the varied work of the Board has there been aroused a greater interest than in the effort to endow chairs of English Bible in all Presbyterian colleges, and the progress made has been notable. The facts, based on reports up to January 1, have been reported through the Church press and they show that five colleges completed the endowment of Bible chairs during 1916 and that the amount expended for Bible teaching has practically doubled in two years. Since January 1, the endowment of two more chairs of English Bible has been assured, and a third college has practically reached the goal.

As authorized by the last Assembly, the Board is calling upon Presbyterians to complete this special task this year, if possible, as a most suitable and most practical means of celebrating the four-hundredth anniversary of the Reformation, and each congregation is being asked to make a special offering for this purpose before October 31. Synods and Presbyteries have endorsed this movement with great cordiality, and the Board is confident that churches and individuals will respond liberally. It is hoped that the response will be sufficient to endow a chair in each college which maintains a standard course.

Of the $100,000 received from the John C. Martin estate as a trust fund for Bible-teaching, the Board has set aside $50,000, the income of which goes permanently to colleges which have met the prescribed conditions. On the strength of the Board's grants from this fund, these colleges have raised $247,000, making a total of $297,000. The income on an additional $50,000 has been pledged to other colleges which are now engaged in meeting the conditions. When they have been successful the fund will have been the inspiration of securing a total of $572,000 for Bible-chair endowment.

Gifts to Institutions.—Unfortunately, some colleges do not report to the Board the amount which comes to them directly. Hence it is impossible for the Board fully to comply with the Assembly's direction that it shall tabulate for the church full information about the complete gifts of the year. However, so far as colleges have reported, the following table shows the total of gifts to institutions, both direct and through the College Board, including Board appropriations and interest on funds held in trust for certain colleges:

Abstract of the Thirty-sixth Annual Report.

On November 7, 1916, Michigan, Montana, Nebraska, and South Dakota adopted constitutional prohibition. Since that time, by act of their legislatures, Indiana, Utah, and New Hampshire have banished the liquor traffic. Prohibition has been adopted also in Alaska, Porto Rico, and the District of Columbia.

By act of Congress, liquor shipments have been forbidden to go through U. S. mail into prohibition States or no-license portions of other States.

Twenty-six States have now adopted prohibition, and campaigns in one form or another are pending in nearly a dozen other States. Should Congress submit a prohibition amendment to the Federal Constitution, it would probably be ratified at an early date.

Decisions of the United States Supreme Court.—On January 8, 1917, the United States Supreme Court held the Webb-Kenyon Law to be constitutional. The effect of this is to prevent the shipment of liquor under interstate commerce into any prohibition State, and it corrects a long-standing injustice.

Experience Approves Prohibition.—The pronounced majorities by which prohibition States ratified their previous action is a strong indication of the benefits which prohibition brings. The majority was especially large in Colorado, Oregon, Washington, and in such cities as Denver, Portland and Seattle.

Economic Phase of the Question.—The commercial and business benefits of prohibition are abundantly attested by the changed attitude of influential business men who formerly favored the liquor traffic, believing it to be beneficial to the financial interests of the community. The Employers' Liability Act has made the advantage of prohibition manifest to manufacturers in many States. Not only do sober men do more and better work, but the liability to accident and the consequent responsibility of the employer has crowded out non-abstainers.

The Educational Propaganda of the Board.—The campaign of fundamental, systematic education which the Board has conducted for so many years is bearing fruit and being copied by many other organizations. Prizes in colleges for temperance orations, poster contests, prohibition sermons, programmes for Temperance Sunday, pledge cards, and conference of Presbyterial and other committees have all proved popular and effective.

Concentration Campaigns.—One of the newer policies of the Board is to concentrate its field workers for a longer or shorter time in States and communities where no-license campaigns or legislative campaigns are in progress.

A drive of this kind throughout the States of New York and Ohio early in the calendar year proved as beneficial as it was acceptable to our pastors, and served to acquaint the people with the scope and variety of the work conducted by their own denomination.

Work Yet To Be Done.—While the achievement of the last few years have been inspiring, there is yet much work to be done. The per capita consumption has only slightly decreased, but this will be more marked when the prohibitive laws enacted by several States have gone into effect and when sufficient time has elapsed for the effect of the Supreme Court decision regarding the Webb-Kenyon Law to be tabulated in figures. But the fact remains that we are still spending two and a quarter billion dollars in strong drink, or about $88 per capita for our whole population. While the Government is calling on the people to plant war gardens, approximately one hundred and fifty million bushels of grain are being destroyed in the production of poison. While we talk "liberty bonds," hundreds of millions of dollars are being wasted in a traffic that promotes inefficiency, immorality and waste.

Field Workers.—As in former years, the Board has employed field workers situated at strategic points throughout the whole of continental United States. Some of these are Dr. Wadsworth, located at Los Angeles; Dr. Westenberg, at Minneapolis; Dr. Johnson, at Chicago; Mr. Steele, in Indiana; Mr. Woodfin, in St. Louis; Dr. Miller, in Ohio, and Mr. Reinke, in Philadelphia. Special representatives are also located in other centers, and large numbers of ministers and elders are commissioned in all of the campaign areas.

Our Treasury.—The careful reporting of all contributions, large and small, and the effective work done, has commanded the support of a largely increased number of churches and brought to the treasury at the end of the year larger financial returns than ever before. The working balance remaining at the end of the year enables us to prosecute campaigns with advantage before the receipts begin to flow into the treasury in the fall. If by any means the treasurers of the individual churches could be induced to remit quarterly, or at least before the last week of the Church year, it would result in saving an increased work.

From Labor to Reward.—During the past year, Rev. John F. Hill, D.D., who had served the Board as Corresponding Secretary for twenty-eight years, was called from labor to reward. The Church and the cause of temperance are debtors to this unselfish, consecrated, persevering man. Also Elder A. A. Hersperger, who had been a member of the Board for ten years and at one time its recording secretary, was also summoned into the presence of Him whose he was and whom he served.

With gratitude to God for his favor and prayer for His continued guidance and help, this report is submitted to the General Assembly.

CHARLES SCANLON, General Secretary.

Abstract of the Sixteenth Annual Report.

Your Committee presents its Sixteenth Annual Report to the General Assembly with thanksgiving to God for the encouraging developments which have taken place during the year in the evangelistic life and work of the Church. But the Committee feels most strongly that with our thanksgiving there should also go up to God a prayer of confession and petition; confession of the spiritual neglect and failure which have limited the Lord's harvest in many fields, and petition for faith and courage in the solemn year upon which we have entered—a year of new, and strange, and possibly of terrible experience; a year which will teach us that the words we have used at other times, when we have spoken of service and sacrifice, of a yielded will and a surrendered life, may have a deeper meaning than some of us have as yet discovered.

This Report has been prepared after giving careful consideration to all available information concerning the evangelistic activities of the Church. This information has come to us from various sources, i.e., the direct correspondence between the Committee's office and the churches, the recorded activities of other agencies of the General Assembly bearing upon the work of evangelism, the reports of Synods and Presbyteries, the conferences with evangelistic leaders in many sections of the Church, the discussions in evangelistic institutes and conferences conducted by the Committee, the experiences and observations of the secretary in the field, and the published accounts of evangelistic campaigns, in many centres, in which our churches have coöperated.

The study of this material has left the following impressions upon the mind of the Committee:

(1) Our churches everywhere are becoming dissatisfied with formal routine programmes, which have in them no large spiritual expectation, no aggressive evangelistic plan, no challenge to their members for consecration and service, and no call to the unconverted to yield themselves to Christ.

(2) The tendency to divide our churches into groups, as being either in favor of, or opposed to, the work of evangelism, is disappearing. We hear less of "evangelistic churches" and of "social service churches" than formerly, because the whole Church is coming to see that unless sinful men and women are led to repentance and faith in Jesus Christ, and are by Him joined to the living Church, there can be no service rendered by the Church which will satisfy God or be of value to society; while, on the other hand, the evangelism which does not lead men into loving and unselfish service, for society, is both unscriptural and dangerous.

(3) There has been an encouraging spirit of coöperation between pastors and people in the evangelistic work of individual churches, brought about by the adoption of aggressive evangelistic church programmes, through which large numbers in the congregations have been enlisted for personal spiritual service.

(4) There is developing among the Presbyteries a new consciousness of their responsibility for the spiritual life and progress of all the churches, both small and great; they are giving a larger place than formerly to the work of evangelism, and are strengthening their committees on evangelism by adding to their membership men of vision and action.

(5) The evangelistic work which the Church, for many years, has carried on through pastoral exchange is becoming more efficient, because many Presbyteries have replaced the haphazard and isolated plans of individual churches with well-conceived Presbyterial plans, by which all the churches are called upon to press their evangelistic work. Competent evangelistic speakers are secured for each church, the congregations are united in support of the preaching services, an adequate publicity campaign is carried on, and the people are encouraged to pray and labor for immediate definite harvests.

The Committee rejoices in these developments within the life of the churches, because they are full of promise for the future. These are the things which the Committee has diligently sought to bring about through its correspondence, its evangelistic institutes and conferences, and the field work of its representatives; yet the Committee realizes that it has been but one of many agencies which, by their coöperation, have brought about these results. For example, there has been the strong spiritual tone of the literature of the Boards and the thousands of public addresses and appeals by their secretaries and representatives from the home and foreign fields. There has also been the widespread propaganda of the Committee for the Every-member Plan which has not only enlisted great companies of church members for financial service, but has led them also into a larger measure of spiritual service. There has been a spiritual awakening in the lives of many of our pastors, and the discovery, by them, of heretofore unsuspected evangelistic gifts in themselves and among their people. And, finally, there has been the constant incentive and encouragement which has come to the churches, in recent years, from the glowing accounts of the conversion of hundreds of men and women in great evangelistic services. The story of this work of God's Spirit has been carried from church to church, through the personal correspondence between thousands of revived and happy Christians and their friends and through the published accounts which have appeared in the Church papers and in the daily press.

The Committee would not be true to itself nor to the churches if it did not state that there are yet many fields which are comparatively barren and fruitless; there are churches which seemingly have but little faith in the Gospel as the power of God unto salvation. The reports which these churches have made to their Presbyteries and to the General Assembly from year to year make sorry reading in the records of our Church's life and work. Your Committee believes that this Assembly should challenge every such church to enter the whitened harvest fields in a new spirit of consecration to the Lord of the harvest.

I. Committee Meetings, Office and Correspondence.—The chairman desires to express his personal gratitude for the close fellowship and cordial coöperation of the members of the Committee in the furtherance of the work committed to us by the General Assembly. Our general meetings and the Executive Committee meetings have had a practically full attendance, and the development of the Committee's work has been a matter of vital interest to every member. Prayer is an important factor in every meeting of the Committee; it precedes and follows all our discussions, and every effort made to develop the evangelistic work of our Church.

During the past year, as in former years, the office of the Committee has been a busy centre of correspondence and a bureau of helpful information to pastors and Presbyterial leaders, and not infrequently a source of inspiration to the evangelistic leaders of other denominations, many of whom continue to look to our Church for suggestion concerning their evangelistic work.

II. Institutes and Conferences.—The Committee held three institutes during the year; one prior to the meeting of the General Assembly, in Atlantic City; one in the city of Cincinnati, to which we invited the chairman and members of the evangelistic committees of the Presbyteries in the Synods of Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Indiana. The third institute was held in the city of Rochester, and to this gathering we invited the chairman and members of the evangelistic committees of the Presbyteries in the Synods of New England, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Baltimore. The Committee desires, during the coming year, to plan its institute work with special reference to the western field.

In addition to these institutes the Committee has conducted thirty-two evangelistic conferences. In the past four years the attendance at the various institutes and conferences conducted by the Committee has reached a total of slightly over 11,000 ministers and elders. This, of course, does not include the attendance at conferences which the Committee has helped to set up, in Presbyteries and Synods, but which have been conducted by their own committees. Last year, according to the information we have, 118 such conferences were held. The reports of the conferences of the spring meetings of Presbyteries are not at hand at the writing of this Report.

As the Committee has stated to the General Assembly, in previous reports, these institutes and conferences are not general gatherings of men carelessly brought together, but are attended by men who have been chosen because they represent, for the most part, the evangelistic work of their Presbyteries. The addresses, papers, and discussions presented at the institutes are designed to encourage and inspire these leaders, and also to train them for the efficient performance of the tasks which the Presbyteries have placed upon them. All through the Church these men are taking new places of leadership in their particular fields as resourceful evangelistic pastors, and in their Presbyteries and Synods as leaders of whole groups of churches in better plans of coöperative action. It is interesting to note that in the past many of these men have been comparatively unknown even to their own Presbyterial brethren and had made no contribution to the Church-at-large until after they had caught the vision of the possibilities of a great soul-winning pastorate through contact with some of the faithful and efficient men whom the Assembly's Committee has placed on its programme as institute teachers.

The secretary reports that on the way to one of these institutes he met on the train the pastor of a church in a thriving town. This pastor confided to the secretary that he had reached the limit in his field and must soon seek a new field; but after hearing one of the institute addresses he came to the secretary and said: "I want you to forget what I told you on the train. I have found myself here to-day. God helping me, I am going back to my field and I am going to stay there until something happens." There was a real revival in that church last winter, and there is a happy pastor in that field to-day, who is rejoicing in a new vision and a new fellowship with God and his people. Your Committee knows of nothing which it can do which will yield more certain and satisfactory spiritual returns than to multiply these meetings of inspiration and instruction for our ministers and elders.

As has already been indicated in this Report, there is apparent an increasing Presbyterial efficiency in the conduct of evangelistic work, so that the number of churches which have been furnished with evangelistic assistance, through the coöperation of the Presbyteries, has increased from the 1,000-mark, reported last year, to more than 1,400 this year. If the full reports of the spring meeting of Presbyteries could have been received in time for this Report, we are quite sure that we would have the record of a much larger number than this. These 1,400 churches have been supplied with evangelistic help for a period of two weeks in each church—a total of 2,800 weeks of evangelistic preaching and appeal. Who can measure the influence of this work and of the prayers and personal effort which accompanied it?

In the winter of 1916 your Committee carried through a demonstration of Presbyterial evangelism in the Presbytery of Geneva with such happy results to the churches that the report of it came to the attention of the Presbytery of Rochester. This Presbytery invited the Assembly's Committee to prepare a plan for evangelistic work, adaptable to the fifty-one city and rural churches in that important field. Such a plan was prepared and presented at the June meeting of the Presbytery. During the summer committees were appointed to make the necessary preparation. In the early autumn an evangelist was placed in the field for work in the rural churches. Soon afterwards a series of conferences was held, designed to reach the lay members of every church in the Presbytery, a plan of visitation was carried out and the coöperation of the church sessions was secured. In January a second evangelist was added to the force, and in February and March the churches in the principal towns and in the city of Rochester gave themselves to a whole-hearted evangelistic campaign under the leadership of evangelistic pastors from other Presbyteries, who had been selected and enlisted for this service by the Assembly's Committee.

It is the verdict of the Presbytery of Rochester that this evangelistic campaign has made the word "evangelism" a fragrant word throughout the entire Presbytery. In the language of the pastor of one of the great churches in that Presbytery: "This plan, by which a Presbytery develops and directs the evangelistic work of every church in its bounds and leads every church up to a place of gracious, spiritual refreshing, is a most practical and workable plan and should be applied to every strong, self-supporting Presbytery in the Church."

III. College Evangelism.—The world is to-day looking to its young people as never before. They must fight its battles; they must rebuild its civilization. Europe's universities emptied themselves into its armies, carrying certain definite influences into camp and battlefield. The students who are left and remain at the conclusion of peace will have larger potential influence on the coming day than any similar body of men has yet had.

Our own young men have been called to the colors. Their Christian character will be put to new tests. The importance of bringing the Evangel of Jesus Christ, in winning and compelling power, to our young people in their formative years, is emphasized as it has not been in this generation. The college period has always been a critical one. The student who enters college has left behind the restrictions of home and of the public opinion he has heretofore known. New associations are quickly formed. He finds himself amidst large numbers of his own age. The moral standards of large groups tend to be lower than those of the individual. Life and action, in the mass, have perils of their own. Besides, all that he has accepted traditionally, including religious truth, is now to be examined and assimilated.

In the molding of his new opinions the faculty will be largely influential. For all these reasons the Church has founded and fostered the Christian college. Its professors, however, usually overworked, themselves often confess the need of spiritual refreshment.

In order to reinforce the influences already at work in the Christian college, to make the spiritual real, to deepen the Christian life of the institution, to secure the commitment of students to Jesus Christ, and to help make the college the most favorable place possible for the development and conservation of high Christian character, the plan of College Visitation was years ago inaugurated by your Committee. Since it was put in operation, the Church has been annually refreshed by the reports of gracious revivals in our colleges. The reports of the campaigns held in our various institutions this year testify with singular emphasis to the increased effectiveness of this programme.

No pains have been spared to secure most thorough preparation for the services held in the various institutions. The student Christian associations were urged to follow a definite programme of preparation submitted to them. In one institution, where a fruitful campaign was held late in February, the students had held, in anticipation of it, daily prayer meetings since the winter holidays. In some institutions the faculty were also urged to meet for special prayer.

Between three and four thousand letters were sent to the homes of students, requesting the prayers of parents for a blessing upon the efforts that were to be made in the colleges attended by their children. Information was furnished in advance to the visiting leader that he might know, as definitely as possible, the situation in the college he was to visit. The secretary of the College Visitation Committee visited about one-fourth of the institutions in January and early in February, immediately before the meetings were held. His testimony agrees with that of other observers, that the world upheaval has produced a peculiar thoughtfulness among students and has encouraged a new spiritual receptivity.

The reports indicate that 330 students were led to make public confession of their faith and, what is equally significant, that many hundreds more rededicated themselves to Christ. Many of these, on their own confession, had been merely nominal Christians, and declared that in these meetings they had received an entirely new conception of the Christian life.

One college president says that the leader who came to them "was used in a wonderful way, and the finest spirit that I have ever seen around the college is here as a result of his service. The last day I excused from classes all students who desired to meet him personally. From breakfast until late that night there was a line of students waiting before his door for their turn. It was, indeed, one of the finest and deepest experiences in the college that I have ever witnessed."

Another president says: "The Board of Trustees, or those members living in touch with the college, expressed themselves as gratified beyond measure with the work of the visitor. It was the best week, some of them said, in spiritual power, that the college ever experienced from the College Visitation programme. I must express myself as profoundly moved to pay tribute to the Presbyterian Church for developing such a scheme of helpfulness for its colleges. It is a great plan, and I am deeply grateful for its blessings."

A minister says: "This is the seventh college meeting which I have been permitted to hold, and I can say, without reservation, that I consider it the most satisfactory." In this case there were 71 students who professed conversion; every one in the College Department being a professing Christian at the close of the campaign.

In a fine preparatory school for boys, when the annual evangelistic meetings began three years ago under the leadership of the visitor, who was continued now for his fourth year, there were 75 boys who were not professing Christians. Two years ago there were 50; one year ago, 25. This year, at the close of the meetings, there were only 8 who had not taken a stand for Jesus Christ. This leader said: "I thank God for the chance to get at these boys again. It was hard work, but I came away rested. It was meat and drink."

One visitor says: "I want to commend you and your Committee for the thorough-going effectiveness with which this work is prepared for and carried through. It has put religion in the place it should occupy in our colleges and I know of no more worth-while work the church is doing."

The moderator of the Synod of Saskatchewan, who has a son in one of our institutions, writes to our Committee: "Permit me to congratulate your Committee. They are doing a great, grand work for our youth."

In speaking of the new work that has been started in another college, a student says: "The boys have circulated a petition, which was signed by a good number, then read and adopted by the student body, which made it imperative that swearing and smoking and other impurities be done away with, as a point of honor."

A professor of still another college writes: "I am writing to you at this time to tell you what splendid meetings we have here during Visitation Week. I, for one, have made a resolve that I shall try to do more distinctively religious work for and among the students of the college. The help that came from the calm, strong, appealing messages of the leader has been an inspiration to us all."

Months after the meetings, the Y. M. C. A. student-president, in one college which has been famous for its religious life, said: "The student body was stirred as never before, and seemingly are holding to the spirit of the meetings remarkably well. We were indeed richly blessed."

When it is remembered that among the college students, thus converted and revived, are to be found the evangelistic men of the future, the very heart of the Church's mission in the world adds itself to the intrinsic value of the student, to urge the continuance of this programme of College Evangelism with all possible effectiveness.

IV. World-wide Work.—The sub-Committee on Coöperation with other denominations, through its Chairman, the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., reports as follows:

The Committee on Coöperation with Other Churches draws attention to the fact that the first movement for Inter-Church Work in Evangelism was initiated by the Committee on Evangelistic Work of this General Assembly during the second year of its operations—1902–1903. The coöperation then initiated has been continued, in one form or another, up to the present time. One form of this coöperation has been through the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, which has to-day a constituency of 29 Christian denominations, 103,622 ministers, 129,083 churches, and 17,996,435 communicants. For four years the Commission on Evangelism of the Council has conducted systematic and far-reaching work, with a view to stimulate, in an effective manner, the evangelistic spirit in all our churches.

At the third quadrennial session of the Federal Council, held in St. Louis, Mo., December 6-11, 1916, resolutions were adopted by the Council:

(1) Requesting the secretaries of the various denominational committees to make a mutual exchange of all literature published by their respective committees, and all resolutions pertaining to evangelism as passed by their respective ecclesiastical bodies.

(2) Asking the National Denominational Committees on Evangelism to report to the Commission some definite method of financing their own work, and also to make some contribution towards the work of the Commission.

(3) Urging the National Committees to secure the organization of Co-operative Evangelistic Committees in the various Districts, Conferences, Presbyteries, Synods, etc., with a view to furthering the work both of their own denomination and the federating of forces and resources of all the Churches for concerted evangelistic effort.

(4) Authorizing the Commission on Evangelism, through its own Executive Committee, to promote a nation-wide movement of evangelistic endeavor in coöperation with the various denominational committees.

(5) Instructing the Executive Committee of the Commission to hold conferences with the several denominational committees, to aid in standardizing the evangelistic work of the denominations and to develop concerted action in connection with the proposed nation-wide movement.

Since the meeting of the Council the membership and official force of the Commission has been changed. The newly appointed chairman of the Commission on Evangelism, for the coming term of four years, is Rev. Chas. L. Goodell, D.D., of New York City, and the secretary is Rev. William E. Biederwolf, D.D. The work of Dr. Biederwolf during the past four years has been very effective. Under his leadership 25 of the Christian denominations in the Federal Council have come into fellowship with the Evangelistic Commission.

It is recognized by your sub-Committee on Coöperation with the Churches that every form of thoughtful and real evangelism, pastoral, individual, and vocational, must be encouraged, and effort along these lines must be multiplied. The evangelistic spirit has been deepened among the Churches by the solemnizing influence of the great world war not only in Europe, but in North America. The consciousness of God and His judgments in the earth and of man's need for reconciliation with God has become very strong. It is sincerely to be hoped that the General Assembly, through its Permanent Committee on Evangelism, will be able not only to influence our own churches, but that in coöperation with other denominations it shall help to stimulate the religious forces of the nation to much greater activity that men everywhere may be brought to realize that God is, and is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him, and that Jesus Christ is the one only and all-sufficient Saviour.

V. Finance Committee's Report.—The Executive Commission has recommended to the General Assembly that the Committee's budget for the ensuing year shall be $20,000. This amount was authorized last year but the Committee did not reach the goal. We were encouraged, however, by the progress made towards it as shown by the increased amount contributed by the churches and by individuals over that of the previous year. The Committee really needs the full amount of $20,000, in order to accomplish the work which is so greatly needed, and hopes by means of the continued coöperation of the members of the Committee, and increased offerings from the churches, to secure the full amount.

The Treasurer's report, as presented to you for the year ending April 3, 1917, is very satisfactory.

First, the contributions by the churches have increased 10 per cent., and by individuals 20 per cent., showing the growing interest in this work of our Committee, and their confidence in the sane and effective methods used.

Second, the balance on hand of $4,570.60, while $1,200 ahead of last year's balance will be needed to carry us through until November next, as we receive almost nothing in the way of contributions between April 1, and November 1.

Your Committee believes we should be very conservative in our expenditures until we see how far the present conditions in the country will interfere with our receipts, and thus not imperil our present line of work and plans.

*Annual Report.

We submit our Report at the close of this year with much more satisfaction than at the close of last year. There has been much gain in having even one worker, who could give his time to the work of the men in the large field of the Presbyterian Church. The new and greatly better relation our agency has had this year to the General Assembly has been of much advantage. Much more contact with pastors and other leaders has given us increased assurance of the need for this agency and of the readiness of these leaders to coöperate with it; also of its place in proper correlation to the Church's other agencies. There has been no hint of overlapping, but abounding evidence that this agency is greatly needed and warmly welcomed throughout the Church. Appreciation is hereby expressed of the active coöperation of Synodical and Presbyterial committees, pastors and many other men.

Contact with Churches and Men.—We have been in intimate counsel during the year with a large number of churches, pastors and other men of these churches. There has been an extended correspondence with these men and a large number of the folders issued by the Committee have been put in their hands. We have had a much more valuable contact than this with many churches and men on their fields. The secretary represented our Men's Work in six Synod meetings and other members of the Committee represented us in several other Synods. In these Synod meetings there was not only ample opportunity given to present Men's Work in public address, but also to counsel in the selection and organization of committees and to plan with them the year's work in their bounds. The same has been true of meetings of Presbyteries.

Our largest work the past year has been the conducting of conferences with the men of rather small groups of churches. These groups were small so as to secure larger representation of the men and to deal more specifically with situations in their churches. In Zanesville Presbytery (Ohio), in three days of conferences, there were present 224 men, of eleven churches. In Maumee Presbytery (Ohio), in three days' conferences, there were present 381 men, of nineteen churches. In Cincinnati Presbytery, in four days of conferences, there were 488 men present, of 52 churches. About these Cincinnati conferences the following statement was made in the Herald and Presbyter: "A new and sturdy impulse was given to Men's Work." In Illinois Synod 472 men attended eight conferences. The Rev. F. W. Barr, of Monmouth, chairman on Men's Work for Illinois Synod, after attendance on all the Illinois conferences wrote:

* See Journal, p. 129.

"In my opinion the Men's Work of the Presbyterian Church, as led by the Assembly's Committee . . . . is one of the most dynamic movements of the Church. Its announced purpose presents a clean-cut, concise and noble appeal to men to do their best for the Church and for the Kingdom. The movement is bound to develop in a work of the largest importance." In Nebraska Synod 311 men, representing 41 churches, attended seven conferences. In Chester Presbytery (Pa.) the 61 churches were grouped into eight conferences, which were attended by 386 men. The following resolution was subsequently adopted by the Presbytery: "Resolved, That Chester Presbytery is heartily in sympathy with the Assembly's Committee on Men's Work in the tremendous and promising task to which it has been called, and pledges to the Committee encouragement and support." Detroit Presbytery was grouped into three conferences, which were well attended. At the last one, which was attended by 113 men, of fourteen churches, the following action was taken: "Resolved, That this group gathering of Presbyterian men, meeting at Immanuel Church, March 17, representing fourteen churches of Detroit Presbytery, and a membership of over 11,000, has heard with pleasure and profit the inspiring and practical address of the Rev. William F. Weir, D.D., and heartily commends him and the cause he represents to all of our churches, incidentally for the proper place of Men's Work in our financial budgets, but far more for the plans and objectives for Men's Work that he has so well outlined. We pledge ourselves as individuals and representatives to do our full share in the various activities awaiting our coöperation as Presbyterian men."

Such conferences were held in Indiana, South Dakota, Kansas and New Jersey and in a number of other regions. Numerous other conferences with committees and other leaders have been held. We are glad to be able to testify that in these conferences without exception a deep interest in Men's Work was manifested, the interest often being expressed in the form of resolutions.

The Men of the Local Church should be Organized.—There are more reasons for organizing the men who are in the same church than for organizing any other group of men. No other group has so many precious experiences and so great tasks in common. No company of men is in a position to do so much for one another and for the men of the world. All men know that the fundamental interests of life are in religion. The greatest need of our time is to unite the men of the churches for the promotion of those things for which the Church stands. It is our distinct purpose to promote intelligence among the men about the value of the local church, the denominational agency and the whole work of the denomination. By far too little of men's abilities, time and money are given to the church as compared with other institutions. Often the vision and activity of the church are too limited. The men can be shown that their supreme opportunity for service is in and through the Church. We do not undervalue the work of many interdenominational agencies, but they themselves depend for their very existence upon the local churches. There is a perfectly clear field for the agency that calls the men of the local churches to unite in their churches, to build them up and do the whole work of the Presbyterian Church. The men will do greatly more, united in these organizations, than they can possibly do separately. Women's work is what it is through organization. "One shall chase a thousand and two shall put ten thousand to flight." There are now many manifestations of the manifold increase of efficiency in a church through organizing the men. There are also many testimonies of men that their brotherhood offers them their best fellowship.

The Church a Challenge to Men.—The Church itself is a challenge to men. There is need for a new emphasis on what the Church is. Its wonderful and mysterious organic structure, its unique mission, the incomparable opportunity it offers men for fellowship and service are too little understood by the men. They do not see the incomparable value of and absolute necessity for those spiritual forces which operate only in the Church. They do not appreciate that highest life which exists in the bosom of God and in His people and nowhere else; that in the Church alone do men form permanent life relations; that the fundamental relations of life are with God and His people; that God's only plan for the guarantee of the welfare of His people and of the world is in their unity with Him and with one another; that eternal life is to know God; that the supreme task of Christian men is to found and maintain a Church in every community in the world that the people there may know God; that there is but a mutilated Christ for us and for the world without His Body, the Church. It is impossible for men to know these fundamental truths and not respond in true devotion to Christ and the Church.

The Form of Organization.—From one viewpoint it is unimportant what is the form of the men's organization in the local church. Our Committee follows the instructions of the Assembly of 1913 in seeking to promote "All organized activities among men," and does not try to set up the same kind of organization in every local church. We coöperate with the leaders of the local church in the kind of organization that can be used there best now. Experience will probably lead to more uniformity of organization. There are two usual kinds of organizations: (1) Brotherhoods of Clubs, (2) Bible Classes. Many of the former have failed because they were mere social clubs and without tasks big enough to command the interests of men. Men's Bible Classes are commonly failing in large part because they are only Bible classes and not working organizations. Bible study is training, and not service. Not all the active men in a church can be members of the Bible class, because they are engaged in other work in the Sunday-school. The Bible-class appeal does not win as many men as a broader form of organization would win. It is usually better to organize the men under a constitution that defines the whole purpose of the organization, always making men's and boys' Bible classes an essential department of the work. It would be a bold assumption to make the claim that the wonderfully efficient women's work of the Church would ever have been realized if it had functioned around women's Bible classes. The fundamental purpose of the men's organizations is work, as has always been true of women's organizations and as the new name, "Men's Work," indicates.

Objectives.—Uniformity in fundamental objectives is necessary along with considerable variety of objectives. Our Committee is seeking to construct a "Declaration of Purpose" which all our men's organizations could adopt.

1. All men's organizations should promote Bible study through men's and boys' organized Bible classes, and when practical through other means.

2. All men's organizations should promote the unity of the life of the men of the same church.

3. Most men's organizations find it profitable to conduct forums for discussions of vital interest to the men, the Church and the world, so that the men of the churches will be the intelligent men of the community on matters vital to human welfare and the makers of public sentiment and real leaders in the community.

4. Every men's organization should adopt yearly a programme of work that it may be constantly a working force in building up the church within which it is and make a definite contribution yearly to the whole task of the Presbyterian Church. There will always be a variety of special things to do at special times, but it seems clear that there are fundamental things for every men's organization to do every year.

Keeping the Men at Work.—We will not solve the problem of Men's Work until we find a way to keep the men at work. Most Men's Work hitherto has been intermittent. The men have engaged in deputational evangelistic work or in some form of social service or in some other special task, only to cease from it after a while until some other special call comes to them to do something. The women are at work all the time, doing definite important things every month of every year. While they do many special things as occasions arise, yet they engage in two lines of work continuously, namely, building up the church of which their society is a part, and carrying on the missionary enterprises of the Church at home and abroad. An organization made up of the members of a church should function in the purpose of that church. It should be dominated by the same spirit of sacrifice and ministry, asking itself continuously, What should our church be and do and how can we promote those ends? This involves the study of the value of the local church and its fields and of the denomination's several agencies and whole programme. The men's organization seeks nothing for itself. It is really not another organization, but a natural division of a group of the members of a church who have enough qualities in common to lead to their union in one another's interest and for a ministry to those who have not what is their most precious possession and best opportunity for service. Their united life and service should be a challenge to all other men to share their life and service.

An organization of men in a church imbued with this spirit should not find it difficult to keep employed, any more than it would be difficult to keep the church itself employed. Beyond all question, there are very large possibilities in organizing the men of the churches on the right basis. It should lead soon to a study by the men of the church as a community force, and of the Presbyterian Church's nation-wide and world-wide programme. It would be impossible to bring a body of Christian men to face seriously the whole task of the Presbyterian Church or that of one of its great boards or other agencies without the result of their enthusiasm for those things. Surely, there is a way to bring about this contact between the men of the local church and the great denomination and its departmental agencies. In these times men are looking to the Church with new desire to find there a life and ministry which is not found elsewhere.

The deep need is leaders in the local churches who have the vision and ingenuity and persistence to make a demonstration of the value of an organization of their men. These local leaders, aided by the special agencies, can make each year a careful inventory of their church, of workers available and work to do and bring each year to the whole body of men a challenging programme of activity for them. (See our recent folder, "Men at Work in the local Church—How to Organize, How to Keep the Men at Work.") There can be no real difficulty in repeating this process each year. We claim, therefore, to have an answer to the old and persistent question about jobs for men.

"The pastor succeeds who solves the problems of his pastorate. This agency is ready to help pastors solve problems of their pastorates by helping them to organize their men and keep them at work. Our deepest need is to solve the problems of our local churches. These are the units out of which come all we have of spiritual forces and agencies. The largest contribution that can now be made to the building up of the local churches is to organize the men for the real purpose of the local church. Next in importance to this is to unite the local churches, brought up to their full strength, in the great work of the Presbyterian Church. Only by organization can we use the masculine power of the Church in any large way. The men's contact with the whole work of the Church is largely in the work of the local church. When the men there are ready for united service in the nation and the world, the denominational agency offers them their supreme opportunity.

A Few Testimonials.—Among many testimonials that are given us, we owe it to the Church and to ourselves to submit a few of them. The Rev. John Timothy Stone, D.D., ex-Moderator of the Assembly and Chairman of the Men's Work Committee, writes:

"In my judgment, the time has never been more fitting for the reinforcement and strengthening of the Men's Work among our churches. We do not need additional committees or additional organizations. What we do need is a recognition of the splendid potentiality of the men in our churches now. . . . . The work of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Men's Work at the present time is beginning in the right way. We are aiming to reach the men through the regular channels of the Church, to develop existing organizations and to give to them the definite feeling of responsibility as to the present and immediate tasks about them; to receive inspiration from pastors and to give inspiration to pastors, to take up the work directly among the men in their distinctive parishes and to tie it into all the organized activities and responsibilities of our great Church."

The Moderator of the General Assembly, the Rev. John A. Marquis, D.D., writes:

"You are performing a great service, as you induce men to bring their talent and experience inside the Church and make them effective there. These men are dealing constantly outside the Church with problems such as the churches have. Men know how to make the machinery of the Church do business—just what they are doing in the world all the time."

Mr. Ralph W. Harbison, of Pittsburgh, writes:

"The Men's Work, I feel, has arrived at last, has become established on a solid foundation and is already reaching out its helping hand in as many directions as there are Church channels. No doubt, one reason for this is that it has now the official backing of the Assembly. . . . . Another reason equally strong, to my mind, as the above is the contribution that our General Secretary is making to it. I have had the good fortune of being at several conferences of Presbyterial and Synodical Committeemen where Dr. Weir has brought inspiration and practical help in every instance. His practical suggestions are of real value and seem to take root immediately in the hearts of those hearing them."

The Rev. Walter L. Whallon, D.D., Zanesville, Ohio, Chairman of Synod's Committee on Men's Work, writes:

"Outstanding and promising in the great spiritual awakening of our time, is the movement among men. Men, as never before in such numbers, are awake to the great possibilities of a manhood allied with the Kingdom and of the Kingdom's work when undertaken by consecrated manhood. Men are asking, What can we do? They are waiting to be led out to tasks that challenge their courage and consecration. Our revived denominational movement is most timely. Our leaders have caught the vision. There are no limitations to the possibilities of the splendid Christian manhood in our Presbyterian Church under such leadership and following such communicated vision. Our Assembly's Committee and our General Secretary should have the enthusiastic support of every Presbyterian."

The Rev. D. H. Johnson, Toledo, Ohio, ex-Moderator of the Ohio Synod, writes:

"I believe the new Secretary's method of enlisting the men in the work of the local church is a good one—less of conventions and more of personal contact. We may need the conventions for inspiration, but we surely need personal contact for service. The field of the denomination is the world, but the field of the individual is the local church. With him it is usually service in the local church or no service."

The Rev. R. A. Garrison, Broomall, Pa., Chairman for Men's Work in Chester Presbytery, writes:

"The Assembly's Committee on Men's Work, through its simple and definite plan, is making a real contribution to the solution of the problem. The enlistment of the men in the local church to the accomplishment of a definite programme of work, based upon the needs of that church, is a plan of operation that will work in any church, large or small, and will with the application of some thought and perseverance multiply the usefulness of the churches. Then, too, it will last."

New Elements in the Men's Movement.—The question is asked, "What is there in this movement now that was not in it before when it seemed in large measure to fail?" It has not failed. Any Church-wide movement requires time to establish itself in the whole Church. Probably this movement has developed as rapidly as have other great movements. The work of the past years has made the present work possible. We are more and more surprised to note the extent to which the leaders in the first years emphasized the things we now emphasize and to which the Church now makes better response. It is because of better "Preparedness" on the part of the Church. The early leaders deserve much credit for their unusual wisdom, faith, courage and sacrifice. But there are new elements in the Men's Movement. 1. There is a wisdom that has been learned from experience. We are profiting by the mistakes of the past, and know better how to establish men's organizations. 2. There is a deeper consciousness in the Church of the necessity for utilizing its unused masculine forces. 3. There is new leadership combined with the old leadership. 4. There is the new relation to the General Assembly. 5. There is advance in organization of Synodical and Presbyterial committees. 6. There is the discovery of the present method of greatly larger contact with churches and the men on the field through the district conferences. The large conventions of the early period were doubtless necessary, but it is fundamental now to get to the leaders of the local churches in personal contact for the organization of their men. We are building from the bottom up. 7. The new world situation is a tremendous appeal to men to serve where they can best serve in a ministry to their generation—a generation in pain and distress and strife as has been no other generation. 8. There is a clearer apprehension of the bigness of the task and patience to use necessary time and means to accomplish it. 9. There is a new, at least a persistent emphasis on the Church itself—the local church—the denominational agency—the united Presbyterian people in their whole task as the supreme opportunity of men for life and service.

PUBLICITY.—Limited use has been made of paid advertising in Church papers. Discretion in economy restricted us in this kind of desirable publicity. Appreciation is hereby expressed of the use of the columns of the Church papers for news items about Men's Work. There has been published this year a large folder, "A Message to Sessions and Committees on Men's Work"; a folder on "Men's Work in the Last Assembly," and one on "Men at Work in the Local Church." These publications have been widely circulated and have met a demand, although they are a small contribution, to the literature that is needed. A manual on Men's Organizations will be published this summer. This will be a book of sixty or seventy pages, which is designed to aid pastors and other leaders in organizing their men. There is need of a text-book for use in men's meetings, which would present in a fascinating way the whole task of the Presbyterian Church and the work of its boards and other agencies. There is great need for more systematic publicity—a need your committee is seeking to meet.

SUPPORT FOR THE MEN'S WORK DEPARTMENT.—We have been conservative in incurring obligations. We recognize the many claims with which Sessions are confronted in the distribution of their funds, and rejoice in the merit and aggressiveness of the other agencies of the Church and their demands on these funds. It should be borne in mind, however, that this agency lives wholly in the interest of the local church and of the other agencies, seeking nothing for itself. It sets up no competing work and seeks only to strengthen local churches for the better prosecution of the whole work of the Church. We seek to gather and administer no funds beyond our modest operating expenses, but only to supply more adequately the treasuries of the other agencies. We are sure, too, that the organization of the men will in reasonable time make large contribution to these treasuries. The last Assembly recommended that Sessions "make due provision for the Committee in the distribution of their benevolent funds" and put Men's Work in its regular budget with the boards and the Permanent Committee on Evangelism.

We appeal to churches in making up their budgets to include Men's Work.

The following resolutions were submitted for adoption :

Resolved, 1. That all the members of the class of 1917 be reappointed, by the Assembly, to the Class of 1920, as follows: Mr. Charles S. Holt, Chicago; George N. Luccock, D.D., Wooster, O.; John Timothy Stone, D.D., Chicago; Mr. S. Earle Hoover, Philadelphia; Mr. Henry B. F. Macfarland, Washington, D. C.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly commends those Sessions that have made appropriations to its Committee on Men's Work in accordance with its recommendations of last year, and urges on other Sessions the necessity for the support of an agency which makes so valuable a contribution to the building of the local churches in order that they more efficiently do their local work and the whole work of the Church.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly records its profound appreciation of those men of vision and liberality who by their contributions have made it possible for the Committee to do the work of the past year, and also that the Assembly urges on the attention of other able men the opportunity they have to help in a work of great value to the Church while the churches are coming to preparedness to care properly for their own work.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly urges Synods and Presbyteries to constitute and support committees on Men's Work whose members may be able to contribute out of their own experience in Men's Work to coöperate with the Assembly's Committee in its bounds.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly rejoices in the readiness of committeemen and other officers of Synods and Presbyteries to give Men's Work large place in the meetings of these Church courts; also in the readiness of pastors, committees and other leaders in promoting conferences on Men's Work and in developing men's organizations in their own churches.

Resolved, 6. That the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be ex-officio members of the Committee, and the Committee be authorized, if it so desires, to appoint advisory members to coöperate with it.

Resolved, 7. That the Assembly expresses its appreciation of the valuable services of the treasurer of the Committee, Mr. Albert Shupe, president of the Commercial Bank, Wooster, Ohio, who has served as treasurer without cost to the Committee.

Resolved, 8. That the Assembly urges the whole Church to coöperate with its Committee on Men's Work, looking upon it not as an alien and independent agency, but as fundamental to Church growth, as the friend and helper of pastors and other leaders through its leadership in the organized activities of the men of our beloved Church.

*Abstract of Fourth Annual Report.

The Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply presents its Annual Report, after a year of strenuous activity. The business of the Committee has steadily grown, and at times has severely taxed the limited equipment of the central office. During the year, additional Presbyteries have adopted the Vacancy and Supply Plan, and the Permanent Committee has devoted much time and attention to the development and perfecting of the administration of the Plan by Presbyterial Committees. This, in itself, is a very large task necessitating as it does keeping in touch with fully two hundred different committees. Naturally, this involves a very extended correspondence.

Throughout the year a large number of ministers registered with the office of the Assembly's Committee as desiring new fields of labor. These were furnished with information as to vacancies, and were rendered such other assistance as is possible within the boundaires of our work, as these have been established by the General Assembly. A large percentage of the men thus registered secured locations during the year. However, additional ministers were constantly registering with the Committee, and at the close of the year our active list of men desiring new fields contained about 600 names.

The Primary Aim.—From the beginning of its work, this Committee has had as its primary aim to bring about in every section of our Church a revival and reëstablishment of definite Presbyterial supervision of all vacant fields. In this direction lies the hope, and the only hope under our Form of Government, of effectively dealing with the problem of vacancy and supply. There is little indication that the Presbyterian Church, or any considerable part of it, is prepared to exchange the historic principles of our Government for any species of Episcopacy; and, on the other hand, experience has demonstrated that a solution of the vacancy and supply problem cannot be found by adopting the loose and irresponsible practices of independency. Indeed, it is quite evident to this Committee that the steadily intensifying character of the vacancy and supply problem within our bounds, particularly during the last half century, has in large measure been due to the careless drift toward Congregationalism. The undesirable conditions which, as a Church, we have confronted in recent years, in relation to this problem, are directly traceable to the failure of a large number of the Presbyteries in the observance of the express provision of our Form of Government, that "Every Presbytery shall arrange for the supply of the vacant pulpits within its bounds either by direct action at a meeting or through a committee."

The Vacancy and Supply Plan.—Under the Vacancy and Supply Plan, the Presbyterial Committee is (1) to nominate all moderators for the sessions of the vacant fields, the purpose being that men will thus be selected who will actually render service in this important capacity; (2) to appoint all supplies for the pulpits of vacant churches, this, in the judgment of the Permanent Committee, being absolutely necessary to any effective programme for dealing with this problem; (3) to see that only one man at a time is definitely considered by the vacant church as a possibility for the office of pastor, the intention being to outlaw definitely the widespread and iniquitous practice of miscellaneous candidating, in the sense of putting before the congregation of the vacant church a procession of men who, willingly or unwillingly, must contest for a call to the vacant pulpit; (4) furthermore, the Presbyterial Committee is promptly and faithfully to perform all of its duties in a thoroughly impartial manner and in frank consultation with the session of the vacant church whose representatives are always privileged to present definite suggestions or requests to the committee regarding any matters related to the vacant pulpit, and these suggestions or requests are to be given first consideration by the Committee.

Tested by Experience.—Does any one doubt that the uniform observance of these principles by all of the Presbyteries would bring order out of confusion, and increasingly advance the highest interests of the work of our Church as a whole?

The real merits of the Vacancy and Supply Plan can be properly judged only in those Presbyteries where it has actually been worked just as intended by its authors. Here the testimony is unmistakable. The Permanent Committee does not believe that there is a single Presbytery, which adopted the Plan in its original form, and then by the method prescribed therein chose a competent committee to operate the Plan, and this committee uniformly worked the Plan just as its authors intended, where the Plan has not proved a success.

(1) Every church in the Presbytery has regular services, because it is the duty of the Presbyterial Committee to furnish some one to conduct such services.

(2) Many ministers unable, for various reasons, to accept regular pastorates, are now increasingly used as temporary supplies for vacancies; and where ministers are not available, competent laymen are being called upon by some committees to conduct services in the vacant churches.

(3) The length of the period of vacancy is being materially reduced, because, under the supervision and with the assistance of a competent Presbyterial Committee, the vacant church is able much more promptly to find a pastor.

(4) Under these improved methods it is entirely natural that the number of vacancies should diminish, the Presbyteries reporting no vacancies now forming a growing list, while the Presbytery with a long list of vacancies is becoming the exception. In January, 1917, nearly one-third of the Presbyteries reported no vacancies, while less than one-third of the Presbyteries reported more than two vacancies each.

(5) Regardless of the number of vacancies occurring at any particular time, the work of the Presbytery will not suffer so greatly, because it has definite and well organized machinery for handling the vacancies.

(6) With such intelligent supervision, the chances are greatly increased that the vacant church will secure a man specially suited to its needs, and the question of adaptation to a given field is a most important consideration.

(7) Under the new system, a congregation seriously divided over "candidates" is gradually becoming a thing of the past, because only one man at a time is definitely considered by the vacant church.

(8) Best of all, when the churches come really to understand the new system they enthusiastically approve it.

A UNIFORM SYSTEM NEEDED.—That the Vacancy and Supply Plan is effective wherever it is properly worked, requires no further argument. Shall it, then, be made a uniform system for our Church? This question only the Presbyteries themselves can answer. The Assembly's Committee can lead the way, but the Presbyteries must follow in that way if the desired results are to be realized.

Far more Presbyteries have already voted adoption of this Plan than have ever endorced any other definite programme for dealing with vacant fields. If the Church really desires release from the conditions which have greatly embarrassed her work in the past, then it is the judgment of the Assembly's Committee that the Vacancy and Supply Plan should be uniformly adopted by all of the Presbyteries, and faithfully operated by every Presbytery until it becomes an integral factor in the working machinery of the Presbytery. That a Presbytery hesitates to adopt this Plan because of the seeming difficulty of putting it into operation, or, having voted to adopt it, fails to operate it, in no sense discounts the Vacancy and Supply Plan. Such an attitude is simply a pathetic confession that the Presbytery itself has wandered so far into the regions of Congregationalsim that the return to fundamental Presbyterianism seems too difficult to be undertaken or persistently prosecuted.

PROPER SUPPORT FOR THE MINISTER.—The cost of living has rapidly increased during the past year. Many ministers and their families are feeling the heavy stress of present economic conditions, and some of those who are serving the smaller churches are being tempted to turn aside to other lines of employment. The Presbyteries in all sections of the country should give careful consideration to this question and see that everything possible is done to furnish at least a reasonable support for the minister and his family. The Presbytery of St. Clairsville has recently set a good example by taking up this question in a definite way and arranging that the minimum support in the Presbytery shall in the future be $1200 for a single man, and $1200 and a manse for a married man.

During the month of January last, 367 vacant pastorates, embracing 498 different congregations, were reported to our office, the average support proposed being about $1200, and fully two-thirds of this number had manses. Among these, were 61 churches furnishing a support of $1500 or over, the average support furnished by these 61 churches being $2259, 36% of these having manses. However, leaving out these 61 larger fields, the average support ordinarily furnished by the remaining 306 vacancies fell slightly below $1000, although 69% of these fields have manses. Among these vacancies were 92 churches or combinations of churches offering an average annual support of $892, and 55% of these have manses. It may be proper to call attention to the fact, however, that more than one-half of these churches proposing an average annual support of $892 are located in the older Synods of the Church, or east of the western boundary of the Synod of Indiana.

Some Definite Accomplishments.—In reviewing the practical results of the work of the Assembly's Committee, it must be borne in mind that this Committee was appointed for a specific purpose and that its field of labor is distinctly limited, first, and fundamentally, by the character of our Form of Government; and, furthermore, by the code of rules enacted, for the Committee's guidance, by the General Assembly of 1912. In organizing and developing its work within these definite boundaries some practical results may be briefly summarized:

(1) As a Church we now have an agency which, in harmony with the provisions of the Overture adopted by the Presbyteries, exercises general supervision of the whole work of the Church as it relates to unemployed ministers and vacant churches.

(2) The office of the Permanent Committee, as stipulated by the General Assembly, is a center of information regarding vacant fields.

(3) The General Assembly also stipulated that the office of the Committee should be a center of information regarding available men.

(4) Necessarily, the office of the Assembly's Committee is increasingly becoming a clearing house for the Presbyteries, and as a natural result it is now impossible to have a large number of unemployed ministers in one section, and at the same time a large number of pastorless churches in another section.

(5) The emphasis laid upon certain principles advocated by the Assembly's Committee is exerting a wholesome influence in all sections of the Church.

(6) The agitation in behalf of larger support, particularly for the great body of our ministers who serve the smaller and middle-class fields, as carried on by the Assembly's Committee and the Presbyterial Committees, is steadily bearing fruit.

Recruiting the Ranks.—No one who watches the trend of events can fail to be impressed with the fact that great changes are constantly taking place in our ministerial force. During the last five years a total of 869 Presbyterian ministers died, or an average of about 174 annually. To take the places of these valiant Soldiers of the Cross and provide for the proper expansion of our work at home and abroad requires the addition of a continuous stream of new men. The steady increase in the number of young men presenting themselves as candidates for the ministry is cause for genuine thanksgiving. Every minister, every elder and every congregation should regard it as a Christian duty and high privilege to constantly assist in discovering and enlisting new and promising recruits for the ranks of the ministry. In this connection, however, there are some things which should be given more than passing notice:

(1) The observation and experience of this Committee lead to the conclusion that in some sections of our Church there is great leniency shown in admitting to our ministry men who have had little training to fit them particularly for the responsibilities of the pastoral office.

(2) Closely related is the question as to the reception of ministers coming from other branches of the Church. We thankfully acknowledge the many splendid additions to our ranks that we have received in past years from other denominations. During the past five years, as a Church we have received from other Churches a total of 661 ministers, or an annual average of 132. But, this Committee is of the opinion that there is in many of the Presbyteries a growing spirit of laxity in the matter of receiving men coming from other Churches, which, if not checked, is bound to result in increasing injury to our work.

The Committee believes that the General Assembly should impress upon all of the Presbyteries the importance of exercising greater care in receiving into our ministry men ordained by other bodies.

RESOLUTIONS.—(1) The General Assembly again records its conviction that definite and intelligent presbyterial supervision of all vacant fields, is, under our Form of Government, the one possible and legitimate avenue to success in dealing with the difficult and historic problem of vacancy and supply.

(2) The General Assembly approves of the persistent efforts of its Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply to bring about a reëstablishment of definite presbyterial supervision of all vacant fields, and urges upon Presbyteries not only the adoption, but the actual working, of the Vacancy and Supply Plan as approved by the last three General Assemblies.

(3) In view of the peculiar economic conditions forced upon our country by the ravages of war, thus further increasing the cost of living, the General Assembly is again constrained to urge upon every Presbytery, that definite and intelligent consideration be given the subject of Ministerial Support, to the end that in this great world crisis the men whom God has called to positions of leadership in His Church may be free to prosecute unsparingly that type of consecrated spiritual ministry so much needed in the dark days through which we are passing.

(4) The General Assembly calls the attention of all the Presbyteries to the necessity that great care be exercised in admitting men to the privileges and responsibilities of our ministry, strongly urging that, unless in the most exceptional cases, men be ordained to the office of the ministry only after the required preparation has been made; and that men ordained by other Ecclesiastical Bodies be received only when a careful examination of all of the facts as to Christian character, preparation for the work of the ministry and previous success, give unmistakable assurance that the applicants will render effective and satisfactory service as ministers of our Church.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE N. LUCCOCK, Chairman.

The above statement shows, in general, the financial condition of the General Assembly from year to year for thirty-three Assemblies. The management which began with 1884 resulted in such economies that a surplus was accumulated, which enabled the Assembly to meet in Portland, Ore., in 1892, and Los Angeles, Cal., in 1903, without calling for additional funds from the Presbyteries, and also to reduce the apportionments from 1896 to 1905. The interest earned during the period amounted to $38,155.69.

PHILADELPHIA TRUST COMPANY, Treasurer.

The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in accordance with the ninth section of its Charter, respectfully report to the General Assembly the state of the accounts of the Corporation for the year ending March 31, 1917.

These accounts are herewith presented and made part of this Report, and consist of the Treasurer's annual account of the principal and income, showing the receipts and disbursements of both funds and the balance of cash on hand at the end of the fiscal year, together with the investment of the principal.

These accounts are accompanied by the Report of the Committee of the Board on Finance, with the usual certificate of this Committee, and the Report of the Committee on Accounts as to the conditions of the finances and the investment of the funds as shown by the account, and the audit of the Treasurer's account. The certificate of Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer, certified public accountants, as to the examination of the accounts, cash and securities of the Corporation, is also appended.

The disposition of the income received upon the various trusts appears in the Treasurer's accounts.

The Corporation has received no legacies during the year. The increase of $2,199.60 in the principal account arises from the sale of 40 shares of Harrisburg, Portsmouth, Mt. Joy & Lancaster R. R. stock received some years since as a legacy and carried on the books at par, fifty dollars per share, and sold at $105 per share, less expense of forty cents.

The Trustees are now administering the following trusts:

Princeton Theological Seminary:
" 29 Scholarships	$46,575 83
" 4 Professorships	34,284 60
" Permanent Fund	10,661 80
" Students' Fund	10,794 10
37 Miscellaneous Funds	997,589 52
Principal Palethorp Legacy	71,250 00
	$1,171,155 85

The funds in the hands of the Trustees are invested as follows:

78 separate loans on real estate, secured by first mortgage	$387,200 00
1 ground rent, 6%	700 00
49 separate investments in securities	675,011 56
Real estate devised to Trustees	8,750 00
Real estate bought under foreclosure, carried on books at (appraised value $8,500)	7,797 04
Balance uninvested	91,697 25
Total	$1,171,155 85

Of the balance uninvested $71,250 is the amount of principal ($75,000 less 5% State of Pennsylvania Collateral Inheritance Tax) received from the estate of Henry B. Palethorp for the purpose of erecting a church in Philadelphia. This amount together with $8,751.52 accrued interest, it is expected will be expended at an early date for the purpose for which it was devised to the Trustees. The remaining balance has been invested since the closing of the Treasurer's books.

The figures in the column marked Assessed Amount in the values placed upon real estate upon which mortgages are held, are those of the official assessment of the properties. Those in the column marked Appraised Amount are the valuation of the expert appraiser of the Philadelphia Trust Company, Treasurer of the Board.

The average rate of net income for the year on investments was $4\frac{7}{10}\%$ per annum.

The Trustees are restricted in their investments to the highest class of securities.

The 80 shares of Delaware & Hudson Company, the only stock owned by the Trustees were received as a legacy; also real estate to the value of $8,750.

At the date of this Report, no interest is in default on either the bonds, stocks, mortgages or real estate, excepting on a real estate first mortgage for $6,000, which is having consideration by the Finance Committee, and on $20,000, Chicago & Eastern Illinois R. R. Company's General and First Mortgage bonds. This Company was forced into the hands of a receiver by the failure of the St. Louis & San Francisco R. R. Company, lessee of the road. The bonds are a first mortgage on a considerable portion of the C. & E. I. R. R. Company and are followed in lien by some $20,000,000. It is reported that the road is earning more than its fixed charges on these bonds, and the Trustees look for a satisfactory settlement.

The entire expense of administering the various trusts was $2,490.55. This includes the salaries of the Secretary and Treasurer, the compensation of the Solicitor, certified public accountants, the bookkeeping and all other expenses of every kind.

In addition to acting as Treasurer, the Philadelphia Trust Company supplies to the Board, free of charge, a safe in its burglar-proof vaults under two separate sets of keys, for the safekeeping of the securities, and also provides storage facilities for the large number of title papers, insurance policies, etc., that accompany the mortgages and also allowed $3,259.98 interest on current balances in their hands.

It is with great regret that the President announces the death of George W. Bailey, M.D., a member of the Board since 1904. It will be necessary for the General Assembly to elect a Trustee to fill the vacancy.

The indemnity bond of the Treasurer for $25,000 has been renewed for another year.

By the Will of Jane C. Lyle of Gwynedd Township, Montgomery Co., Penna., there was devised to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church North, their successors and assigns, certain land in Gwynedd Township, Montgomery Co., Penna., upon the condition that they shall within three years erect thereon a stone church with two memorial windows, etc. The location is in the suburbs of Lansdale, a country town about thirty miles from Philadelphia. The land is of little value and the location is unfitted for the establishment of a church. Lansdale itself is abundantly supplied with churches. If the church building were erected according to the terms of the Will, there would be no means of supporting it, and it would be almost impossible to secure a congregation or church organization. The principal of the estate is of small amount, and there are no funds provided to erect the church. The Trustees have no funds of their own with which to build the church, and if they had, it is not likely that they would expend them for a church in the location designated by the Will.

The funds held by the Board are trust funds for specific objects and cannot be diverted by the Trustees to other objects.

For these and other reasons, the Trustees of the General Assembly have declined to accept the bequests, but inasmuch as the devise is, under the Will to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church North, they have by the following resolution unanimously adopted, certified their action to the General Assembly for decision and direction.

Resolved, That there are no funds in the hands of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., which can be appropriated to erect a stone church upon the land in Gwynedd Township, Montgomery Co., Penna., devised and bequeathed to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church North; and for the erection of said church upon the said land.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly, etc., decline to accept the devise under the Will of Jane C. Lyle, deceased, upon the terms set forth in her said Will.

Resolved, however, that inasmuch as the devise under the Will of Jane C. Lyle is to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church North, the above action taken by the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America declining to accept the said devise for the reasons set forth, it is directed that the action aforesaid be Certified to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to assemble May 17, 1917 in Dallas, Texas, for the decision or direction of the said General Assembly in this matter.

PHILADELPHIA TRUST COMPANY, Treasurer,

JOHN C. WALLACE, Assistant Secretary.

The undersigned, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly of 1899, have caused the securities, bonds and mortgages, and other evidences of property belonging to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as set forth in the foregoing statement of the Treasurer, to be examined by Messrs. Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer, Certified Public Accountants, whose Certificate hereto annexed shows that the same are in proper order, and amounting at their cost value in the aggregate, at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1917, to one million, seventy-nine thousand, four hundred and fifty-eight and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars, adding to which ninety-one thousand, six hundred and ninety-seven and $\frac{25}{100}$ dollars, cash balance of Principal makes total fund on hand at close of fiscal year, as shown on books, one million, one hundred seventy-one thousand, one hundred and fifty-five and $\frac{85}{100}$ dollars.

All the securities are deposited in the vaults of the Philadelphia Trust Company, Philadelphia, and are all registered in the name of the Corporation, with the exception of ten thousand (10,000) dollars Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago Railway Company General 4's and twenty thousand (20,000) dollars Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad Company General Consolidated and First Mortgage 5's, which are coupon bonds, with no provision for registration. (Said Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad Company bonds were deposited on June 2, 1915 with the United States Mortgage and Trust Company, New York, under a Protective Bondholders Agreement, and are at the present time represented by a Certificate of Deposit.)

Part of the securities mentioned in said statement were specially bequeathed to the corporation.

The Committee further reports that all investments have been made and are maintained in carefully selected high-class securities strictly within the category and classes prescribed by Article IV of the By-Laws. All real estate securities are based upon values of the specific properties not exceeding an average of sixty per cent. thereof as ascertained by both official assessment and appraisement of competent experts, and all of highest class, and, while under the exceptional monetary and financial conditions just now existent the present market price of some of the securities, other than mortgages, may be somewhat less than their cost price, their real value is, in the judgment of the Committee, not diminished; the interest and income therefrom being regularly paid with one exception, namely, that on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad Company General Consolidated and First Mortgage 5% bonds.

Default was made in the payment of interest due May 1, 1915, the road having passed into the hands of a receiver.

A competent Committee has been formed to look after the interests of the bondholders.

No definite plan of reorganization has as yet been published, but the bonds held by the Trustees occupy such a very high position, they should not suffer under any plan of reorganization that might be formulated or put into operation.

The undersigned, certified public accountants in the city of Philadelphia, hereby certify that they have examined the account of the Philadelphia Trust Company, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and after careful vouching as to items of charge and discharge, do approve of the same as correct in all particulars; and that they found that there was, at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1917, the cash balance as shown by said account, to wit: one hundred and five thousand, two hundred ninety and $\frac{55}{100}$ dollars, duly deposited to the credit of the said Trustees in the Philadelphia Trust Company; and further that they also examined all the securities, bonds and mortgages, and other evidences of property belonging to the said Trustees and found the same to be as set forth in statement thereof accompanying the Treasurer's Report, hereto annexed, the same amounting at their cost value to one million, seventy-nine thousand, four hundred and fifty-eight and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars, and being duly deposited in the safe deposit vaults of the aforesaid Trust Company; and are all registered in the name of the corporation with the exception of $10,000 Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago Railway Company General 4's which are coupon bonds, with no provision for registration and $20,000 Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad Co. General Cons. and First Mtge. 5% bonds, which are represented by a certificate of deposit of the United States Mortgage and Trust Co., of New York, and that the mortgages set forth above are accompanied by fire insurance policies.

Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer,
Certified Public Accountants.

The undersigned, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly of 1899, have caused the Cash Account of the Philadelphia Trust Company, Treasurer, to be examined and vouched by Messrs. Vollum, Fernley, Vollum and Rorer, certified public accountants, whose annexed certificate shows that the same is correct, there being in the hands of the Philadelphia Trust Company on the 31st day of March, 1917, a balance of one hundred and five thousand, two hundred and ninety and $\frac{55}{100}$ dollars, as verified by deposit in bank, to wit:

Balance of Principal	$91,697 25

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

Special attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877, 1884 and 1896. As amended, it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chapter xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly.*

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage. N.B.—It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that Commissioners asking compensation for sleeping car fare attach receipts to their claims for Mileage for all sleeping car fares. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

* See also Sec. 8, p. 448[39].

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills, and that the Stated Clerk pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every Minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from and to their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to three cents for Mileage, and three cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all six cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to two cents per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage and Contingent Funds, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

The bills for entertainment for moneys actually expended, up to the limit fixed by the Assembly, the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer are authorized to pay, subject to the provisions of the Plan of Financial Administration of the Assembly. See also Standing Rule No. 26, p. 448[42].

☞ See, Minutes of 1916, p. 250.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1917 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, carriage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery which has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly) to every ordained Minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 448[33] of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of Christian Life and Work within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending March 31st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1917 (Minutes, p. 289), and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Standing Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Church. The blanks for the Congregational Narratives are also furnished by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

3. A Tabulated Statement. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, together with the Narrative, at least ten days before the meeting of that body.

A statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations; organizations and dissolutions of churches; receptions and dismissions of Ministers and churches; together with the number of deaths of Ministers since the last Annual Report, are to be inserted in the proper places in the Tabulated Statement.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:*

(1) Fill up the Statistical Report Blank in every detail. (See above, §1.)

(2) Record Ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, not alphabetically, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, or duplications, and put their P. O. address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) Report as in transitu the name of each "dismissed" Minister. Do not strike his name from your Roll until you have been officially informed of his reception by another Presbytery.

(4) ☞Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other Minister. If the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll and give its P.O. address. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words, such as German, Welsh, Spanish, Indian, Bohemian, etc.☜

(5) Place after the name of every Minister an abbreviation, denoting his occupation: e.g.:

Agt., Agent of Benevolent Institution.
A.P., Associate Pastor.
Ch., Chaplain.
Chan., Chancellor.
C.M., City Missionary.
Col., Colporteur.
C. P., Colleague Pastor.
D.M., District Missionary.
D.R.E., Director Religious Education.
D.Sec., District Secretary of Benevolent Institution.
Ed., Editor.
Ev., Evangelist.
F.M., Foreign Missionary.
H.R., Honorably Retired Minister.
Libr., Librarian.
P., Pastor.
P.E., Pastor-Elect.
P.Ev., Pastor-Evangelist.
P.Em., Pastor Emeritus.
P.M., Presbyterial Missionary.
Pres., President of College, Seminary or University.
Prin., Principal of Academy, etc.
Prof., Professor in College or Seminary or University.
Sec., Secretary or Stated Clerk.
S.M., Synodical Missionary.
S.S., Stated Supply.
S.S.M., Sabbath-school Missionary.
Supt., Superintendent.
Tea., Teacher.
T.M., Tract Missionary.
Univ.P., University Pastor.

(6) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P.E., for one that has a Pastor-Elect; S.S., for one that has a

* The Reports of the Presbyteries in last year's Minutes show the established form, which should be carefully followed in every particular by Clerks of Sessions, as well as by Stated Clerks of Presbyteries.

Stated Supply; V., for one that is vacant, and also add "m" for each church with a manse.

(7) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(8) Additions.—In the additions to church membership, distinguish between those by Examination, those by Certificate, and those by Restoration. The column headed "Restored" is to include all those who have been reinstated, whether from the Suspended Roll, or by action of Session in restoration after full judicial process.

(9) Losses.—In the losses, distinguish between those dismissed by letter, those placed upon the Suspended Roll, and those deceased. The column headed "Dismissed, etc.," is to include the members dismissed to other churches, also those erased from the roll under Sections 49 and 53, Book of Discipline, and also those excommunicated. The column headed "Suspended Roll" is to include the number of non-resident members whose cases were acted upon, during the year, by the Session under Sections 50 and 51, Book of Discipline (not the total number on the Roll); also those suspended after full judicial process.

(10) Baptisms.—In the baptisms, distinguish between the persons baptized upon confession and those baptized as infants.

(11) Balancing of Returns.—Compare your report of communicants with that of the previous year and adjust the return so that it will balance. For example: Total members previous year, 205. Additions, "Examination" 22, "Certificate" 16, "Restored" 5, total 43. Losses, "Dismissed," etc., 12, "Suspended Roll" 18, "Deceased" 6, total 36. Gain, 7. Net total this year, 212.

(12) Sabbath-school Membership.—To include officers, teachers and scholars in all Sabbath-schools connected with the congregation, not including the "Cradle Roll" nor the "Home Department." [Note.—A separate statement of the details of Sabbath-school work is to be made, on its special blank, for the use of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work.]

Funds.—The columns for the Funds Contributed are to be filled as follows:

1. Home Missions.—To include all moneys paid to the Board, all moneys paid for Presbyterial and Synodical Home Missions and Church Extension, also all moneys paid to any general Home Mission object; including contributions of societies, value of boxes, etc.

2. Foreign Missions.—To include all moneys paid for the spread of the Gospel in foreign fields, whether given to the Board or other agencies; including contributions of societies, etc., and gifts to institutions connected with the Board.

3. Education.—To include all moneys paid for the education of candidates for the ministry, whether to the Board or other agencies, and also gifts to Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work.—To include all moneys paid to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for its missionary operations, and to other Sabbath-school organizations. The contributions for the support of the Home Sabbath-school are to be placed in the column headed "Congregational."

5. Church Erection.—To include all moneys paid for church erection outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief and Sustentation.—To include all moneys paid in behalf of disabled ministers and missionaries, and in aid of their families, whether to the combined Boards of Relief and Sustentation or otherwise; including contributions of societies, etc.

7. Freedmen.—To include all moneys paid for the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise; including contributions of societies, etc., and gifts to institutions connected with the Board.

8. Colleges.—To include all moneys paid to Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether to the Board or otherwise. Contributions to the institutions connected with Foreign Missions and Freedmen are to be placed under those heads.

9. Temperance.—To include all moneys given to the Board of Temperance or to other Temperance agencies.

10. General Assembly, etc.—To include all moneys given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether for Presbytery, Synod or General Assembly. Give both dollars and cents in this column.

11. Congregational.—To include all moneys collected in or by the congregation for local church purposes—the salary of the minister, the support of the church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor, building and repairing edifices, the liquidation of debts, church endowments and other objects. Moneys received from any other church or Board for the salary of the minister or other expenses should not be included.

12. Miscellaneous.—To include all moneys paid to the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Evangelism and other evangelistic agencies, also to Tract Societies, Christian Endeavor, Young Men's Christian Associations, Hospitals, and general benevolence.

Bible Society.—To include all moneys paid to the American Bible Society, or to other Bible agencies. A blank is sent for these contributions, which are reported separately (see p. 448), in addition to being included in the "Miscellaneous" column.

Individual Gifts.—If the donors do not object, the direct gifts of individuals to any of the Boards, or to the causes they represent, should be reported with other gifts under the proper head. Individual gifts for religious and charitable causes not included in the regular schedule should be placed under the head "Miscellaneous."

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(13) The Names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Addresses in the next column; next give the Names and Addresses of the Local Evangelists; these are not ordained ministers. Of the Candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the churches of the Presbytery—the Number only is to be given.

(14) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature, together with the date.

(15) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(16) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian names of every Minister (an initial letter is not a name), and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible and arranged in strict accordance with the established form.

☞Forward the Statistical Report by April 24, or if this cannot be done, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the office of the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly shall meet annually, on the third Thursday of May, beginning at 10.30 A.M.; the afternoon session shall be held at 2.30 P.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The dates assigned to popular meetings are as follows:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The evening of Saturday, the third day, to the Permanent Committee on Men's Work.

The afternoon of the first Sunday, to Home Missions at 3 P.M., to Foreign Missions at 3 P.M., and to Temperance at 4 P.M.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Thursday, the seventh day, to Education.

5. The whole territory of the Church shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Districts, composed of Presbyteries, so arranged, by combining the smaller Synods, and dividing the larger by Presbyteries, as to make nearly equal delegations, as follows, e.g.:

6. (a) The General Assembly shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Sections, composed of Commissioners, so arranged as to make the Sections of nearly equal delegations. The Electing Sections shall be numbered the same as the Electing Districts.

(b) The members of each Electing Section shall be seated together in a compact body. Accordingly, each Commissioner shall be assigned to his seat in advance of the meeting of the Assembly, by the Committee of Arrangements, under the supervision and direction of the Stated Clerk, and shall occupy such pew or seat from the beginning of the first session until the end of the second day. The Commissioners of any one Electing District shall not occupy the same position relative to the Moderator's Chair two years in succession. Electing Sections in the place of meeting shall be numbered beginning from right to left immediately in front of the Moderator, and the respective Electing Sections shall be rotated from front to rear successively.

(c) The organization of the Electing Sections shall be effected in the following manner, to wit:

Immediately after the roll call, and before the nominating and seconding speeches for Moderator shall be made, the Stated Clerk shall announce one Commissioner in each Electing Section as the Convener thereof, and the receiver of any necessary papers for the Section. Under the supervision of such Convener, each Electing Section shall then elect a Chairman and a Secretary. The quorum of an Electing Section shall be a majority of its members.

7. (a) The roll shall be called immediately after the opening prayer at the afternoon session of the first day, in the following manner, unless there be a motion to the contrary, to wit: only the names of absentees as they appear on the roll of the Permanent Committee on Commissions shall be called, at which time any needed corrections may be made.

(b) After the election of the Moderator, the Permanent Clerk shall report absentees from the first roll-call. Vacancies in the Electing Sections may then be filled by the Assembly. Whenever additional members take their seats, the Permanent Clerk shall add their names to the roll.

(c) No Commissioner failing to enroll shall be allowed to vote in his Electing Section.

8. The election of the Moderator shall be effected immediately after the roll-call and the organization of the Electing Sections, in the following manner, to wit:

(a) Only one speech nominating a candidate for Moderator shall be made, limited to ten minutes; and only one speech, and that not to exceed five minutes, shall be made in seconding the nomination of a candidate.

(b) Where there is only one nominee for Moderator, the election may be made by acclamation. Where there are more than one, the election may be made by ballot, in the following manner, to wit:

After the nominations are made (the organization of the Electing Sections having been effected (see Rule 6, (c)), the Chairman of each Electing Section shall appoint two tellers. Each Commissioner shall write the name of his choice on a blank, to be provided in advance by the Stated Clerk. The tellers shall collect the ballots and count them, under the supervision of the Chairman. The result shall be recorded by the Secretary on blanks in duplicate, one of which shall be handed to the Stated Clerk, with the number of the Section written thereupon. The other shall be retained by the Secretary.

(c) When the reports of the ballots have been handed in from all the Sections, the Stated Clerk shall read each aloud, giving the number of the Section and the vote cast. Tellers appointed by the Stated Clerk shall take and tabulate the votes as read. The Moderator shall then announce the vote as tabulated. If no one has received a majority of the whole vote, another vote shall be taken in the same manner. When one shall have received a majority, the Moderator shall announce the result, and declare him to be elected.

9. The election of the Standing Committees, by the Electing Sections, shall be effected immediately after the election of the Moderator, in the following manner, to wit:

(a) The Electing Sections shall meet, at the places assigned them, for the purpose of electing the Standing Committees, toward the close of the second session of the first day; but if not at that time, then at 9.30 A.M. of the second day.

(b) The Standing Committees shall be numbered consecutively, and shall each consist of twenty-three members, including the Chairman and eleven ministers and eleven elders. The Committees shall be chosen from the Electing Sections as herein provided. The quorum shall be a majority of the members. Each Presbytery shall be represented on some Standing Committee.

(c) On odd-numbered years, each odd-numbered Section shall elect one minister for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for each even-numbered Committee.

On the same year, each even-numbered Section shall elect one minister for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for each odd-numbered Committee.

On the even-numbered years this order shall be reversed.

(d) The Stated Clerk shall furnish to each Electing Section properly printed Election Return Blanks, for the election of the Standing Committees, which shall be filled in by the Secretary of the Electing Section, and returned forthwith to the Stated Clerk, and the Stated Clerk shall, if possible, furnish to each Chairman, before the close of the first day, a list of the members of his Committee, and shall also announce, at the close of the evening session, the names of the Committees on Bills and Overtures and on Judicial Business.

(e) As soon as possible after his election, the Moderator shall appoint an additional member of each Standing Committee, who shall be the Chairman thereof, provided that he shall not appoint more than one member, as Chairman, from the same Electing Section, except in the case of the Committees on Mileage and on Finance, and the Chairmen of these two Committees shall be Ruling Elders.

If the Moderator shall appoint, as a member and Chairman of any Standing Committee, any one chosen by any Electing Section, as a member of that or any other Standing Committee, the appointment of the Moderator shall take precedence, and the Electing Section shall choose another member to fill the vacancy on the Committee, caused by the Moderator's appointment.

10. The Stated Clerk shall give notices to the Commissioners as to their places in the Electing Sections and as to the Committeemen to be chosen. He shall also assign their places, in the Electing Districts, to new Presbyteries that may be erected during the intervals of the meetings of the Assembly, and he shall attend to other details connected with the operation of the Plan.

11. The Reports of the Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Evangelism, first Friday, 11 A.M.

Christian Life and Work, first Friday, 3.00 P.M.

Sabbath Observance, first Saturday, 11 A.M.
Ministerial Relief and Sustentation, first Monday, 11 A.M.
Education, first Monday, 3 P.M.
Men's Work, first Monday, 4 P.M.
Freedmen, Tuesday, 11 A.M.
Colleges, Tuesday, 3.00 P.M.
Temperance, Tuesday, 4 P.M.
Home Missions, Wednesday, 10.30 A.M.
Publication and S. S. Work, Wednesday, 3.00 P.M.
Foreign Missions, Thursday 10.30 A.M.
Church Erection, Thursday, 3.00 P.M.
Correspondence, Thursday, 4 P.M.

12. That the Standing Committees on Home and Foreign Missions have each one and a half hours for the consideration of their reports; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Colleges, Temperance, Evangelism and Men's Work have each one hour; that one-half of the time in each case shall be given to the Commissioners, no Commissioner being allowed to speak more than five minutes, until all other Commissioners have been heard who desire to speak on the pending question; that the reports of the chairman shall contain only the recommendations to be submitted to the Assembly, all details contained in the printed reports of the Boards and Agencies to be omitted from the reports; that the address on a report shall be delivered by a representative of the Board or Agency reported upon, and that it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to communicate this rule to the chairmen of the standing committees upon their appointment.

13. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them, for distribution or reference, to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee. (See p. 448[47].)

14. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly shall be ready to present their Reports on the second day of the session. Only one formal address in explanation of a Report shall be made. (See Rule 27.)

15. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the Reports of Standing Committees.

16. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

17. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

18. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its Report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly, on the Report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

19. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

20. In all regions, where through the organization of Union Presbyteries or the existence of Missions without Presbyterial organization, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each Mission organized, as such, under our Board of Foreign Missions, may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile, in this country, to and during the Assembly, and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247]. This rule shall also apply to Home Mission Presbyteries whose members are so located as to prevent regular meetings, and in the discretion of the Assembly. The names of the Advisory members shall be called at the first Roll-Call, and seats shall be assigned them by the Stated Clerk. [1907, p. 88; 1908, p. 130.]

21. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said Board, or of any institution officially connected with said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108; 1893, p. 132].

22. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church, during the interval between Assemblies, may be filled, until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly, by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

23. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

24. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee, before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

25. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination, by the General Assembly, is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36; 1893, p. 41].

26. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to have the oversight of arrangements for the entertainment of the General Assembly [1896, p. 130].

27. All reports of Special and other Committees shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk on or before April 1, in each year, shall be printed by him, and copies shall be sent, in bound form, to Commissioners, so far as practicable, immediately upon notification of their election; and copies shall also be delivered to the Assembly on the second day of the sessions.

28. Upon the original appointment of any salaried executive officer of any of the Benevolent and Missionary Boards of the Church, such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the General Assembly [1898, p. 132].

29. The Moderator, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, should an emergency requiring action at any time arise, are authorized to provide a new place of meeting for the General Assembly.

30. Hereafter, all Overtures from Presbyteries and Synods, which are to come before the General Assembly, shall be, so far as practicable, in the hands of the Stated Clerk at least two weeks before the meeting of the Assembly, and by him shall be printed in convenient form for distribution on the floor of the Assembly, such distribution to be made not later than the second day of the Assembly.

31. All Overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers, connected with the business of the Assembly, must be presented to the Assembly not later than the close of the second day of its session.

32. The election of members of Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly shall take place on the morning of Tuesday, the fifth day, as the first Order of the Day, in the following manner:

It shall be the duty of the Judicial Committee of the General Assembly to report to the Assembly, on Tuesday, the fifth day, suitable nominations to fill the vacancies on the Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly, from which nominations, together with any others regularly made by the Commissioners at the same time as those made by the Judicial Committee, the necessary number of persons shall be elected, on Thursday, the seventh day, as the first Order of the Day.

33. The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly shall have authority to adopt rules pertaining to its own method of procedure, and shall report the same to the General Assembly; provided, that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution of the Church or the rules adopted by the General Assembly.*

* See Rules for Judicatories, No. XLIV. See also p. 448[46].

34. When members of Committees do not attend for two successive meetings, and their absence is unexcused, then their places become automatically vacant, and the Moderator of the Assembly is authorized to appoint their successors. [1915, p. 31.]

35. Wherever practicable, neither ministers nor elders shall be appointed to serve on more than one special committee, except by consent of the General Assembly.

36. Only notices connected directly with the business of the General Assembly shall be read from the platform, and all notices, prior to announcement, shall be submitted either to the Moderator or the Stated Clerk for approval. Telegrams and special letters shall be reported to the Assembly only at times to be designated by the Moderator.

37. The Standing Orders and Rules may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the Assembly, upon motion duly made.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

[The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. Subsequent Assemblies have modified them from time to time.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present being a Commissioner, or, if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the Standing Committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members: but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he do not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the Clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the Clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper endorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to orders of business or reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it, as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the judicatory. (See Standing Rule, No. 13, p. 448[41].)

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its sessions, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate, but it shall not be in order for any one debating another motion to propose the motion to lay on the table or the previous question, at the close of his remarks, unless he shall obtain the floor again for that purpose. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, viz.: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall be admitted only when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and, lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule, the "yeas and nays" shall not be called except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If, on such a rising vote, the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles, and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order, or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely, in their speeches, to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business which, in their judgment, ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. It is expedient that Judicatories appoint a Standing Committee, to be known as the "Judicial Committee," to whom shall be referred all papers and questions of a judicial nature, and whose duty it shall be to recommend to the judicatory answers to judicial questions, and orders of procedure in all judicial cases.

In the General Assembly, the province of the Judicial Committee shall be to pass upon the question of the regularity of the papers and the record in all cases referred to it by the Assembly; to determine, upon the face of the papers, whether questions of doctrine or Constitution are raised, and if, prima facie, there is a case, to recommend the same to the Assembly for reference to Judicial Commissions. The members of the Judicial Committee are not debarred by their appointment from sitting and voting as members of the judicatory.

XLII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIII. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church Session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.

XLIV. Whenever a case is to be taken from an inferior judicatory to the General Assembly, the Stated Clerk of such inferior judicatory shall, at least twenty days before the meeting of the General Assembly, send a notice concerning such case to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, who shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission, unless the General Assembly shall have ordered otherwise, that the services of the Commission will be needed at the approaching Assembly; but if no such notice shall be received by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, he shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission that the services of the Commission will not be needed at the approaching Assembly.

XLV. These Rules may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the judicatory, upon motion duly made.

RULES OF THE PERMANENT JUDICIAL COMMISSION.

In accordance with the requirements of the Constitution, the Permanent Judicial Commission respectfully reports to the General Assembly the following Rules of Procedure:

1. The General Rules for Judicatories, as far as applicable.

2. Vice-Moderator.—In addition to a Moderator and Clerk, the Commission shall elect, annually, a Vice-Moderator, who shall act as Moderator in the event of the death, disability, resignation or absence of the Moderator, or of the termination of his commissionership; and he shall hold office until the election of his successor.

The Vice-Moderator shall be a member of the Commission, whose term expires at a period not less than two years from the date of his election.

3. Clerk.—In the event of the death, disability, resignation or absence of the Clerk, or the termination of his commissionership, the Moderator shall appoint a Clerk pro tem., to serve in the interim of the meetings of the Commission.

4. When the Moderator receives notice from the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly that the services of the Commission will be needed at any time or place, he shall forthwith notify each member of the Commission that the services of the Commission will be required at such meeting

5. The Commission, when so ordered, shall meet at the same time and place with the General Assembly, and shall convene for organization at 5 o'clock P.M. of the first day of the meeting of the General Assembly. The time and place of all other meetings shall be determined by the Moderator and the Clerk of the Commission, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission or the General Assembly.

6. Immediately after the organization of the Commission, at any meeting of the General Assembly, the fact shall be reported to the General Assembly, and at the same time a report shall be made as to vacancies existing or about to occur, caused either by the expiration of the term for which members were elected or by death or resignation, for reference to the Judicial Committee, according to the Constitution.

7. The officers of this Commission shall be elected, annually, on Tuesday, the fifth day of the meeting of the General Assembly, at 3 o'clock P.M., and such officers shall assume the duties of their several offices upon the final adjournment of the General Assembly, serving in the interim between meetings of the General Assembly and until final adjournment of the next succeeding General Assembly.

8. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, or some one designated by him, to appear before the General Assembly to present the findings of the Commission in cases referred to it by the General Assembly.

9. The Commission shall designate a member or members to represent it in the General Assembly to defend any action or finding of the Commission.

10. The Commission shall set a time limit for arguments of such litigants and their counsel as may appear before the Commission in any case, and shall so notify them prior to the hearing of the same.

NOTE.—See also Rules on Complaints and Appeals, Minutes, 1914, pp. 256–258.

RULE AS TO JUDICIAL PAPERS.

Resolved, That immediately after the organization of the Assembly and the election of the Moderator, all papers of a judicial character in the hands of the Stated Clerk, which in his opinion are in order, be placed by him in the hands of the Permanent Judicial Commission, and that all judicial papers thereafter arriving be transmitted to the Judicial Committee, and that the Judicial Commission shall report that cases in its hands are in order, before proceeding to trial. (Minutes, 1915, p. 287.)

JUDICIAL CASES:
Bowersox Case, Dismissed because all necessary steps were not taken, 140
Des Moines Case, The Synod of Iowa sustained in deciding that "When any Presbyterian Church Judicatory passes to the condemnation or disapproval by name, of individuals who are candidates of a political party, and gives advise or injunction as to the support of or opposition to such political candidate, it passes beyond the bounds of its constitutional functions, which are limited to matters and questions ecclesiastical,"166
Forde Case, complaint dismissed for reasons stated, 191
Iowa City Case, Dismissed because all necessary steps were not taken, 140
Kellmayer Case, Dismissed because all necessary steps were not taken, 140
Missouri Synod Case, Protest of Synod not entertained for reasons assigned, 191
Syracuse Case, The Synod of New York's judgment reversed, because the so-called appeal has no legal inception or standing under the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church and is therefore null and void. In this case the judgment of the Synod was found fatally defective in that it failed to state whether one or more errors were found in the judgment of the Presbytery of Syracuse. The Synod also erred in that it ordered expunged from the record of Presbytery, the only memorandum of the peaceable settlement of a serious and protracted case, involving doctrine, 170
Waddel Case, complaint dismissed for reasons stated, 165
JUDICIAL COMMITTEE, nominations of new members submitted, 140
Report on the Bowersox, Kellmayer and Iowa Presbytery Cases, submitted, 140
Overture from the Presbytery of San Francisco returned, because complaint in the matter has been taken to the Synod of California, 192
